

Obsolete and Illegal Signs

Do you know about Altavista's rules on Obsolete and Illegal Signage?

→ A sign is deemed to be illegal when:

- It is prohibited under § 86-636 of the Zoning Ordinance
- It is installed without a valid sign permit from Town Hall
- The sign is no longer being properly maintained
- The advertised business is no longer in operation (obsolete sign)
- The sign has become a danger to public health and safety

→ The Zoning Administrator may remove or order the removal of any illegal sign at the expense of the property owner.

For more info, please refer to Article V of the Altavista Zoning Ordinance.
