TASC of Southeast Ohio

A bridge between justice and treatment

The Treatment Alternative to Street Crime Association (TASC) provides mild to intensive outpatient care to those recovering from alcohol and drug abuse. TASC uses ideas from the criminal justice system and rehabilitation and recovery system to provide excellent care to its clients. The TASC staff work closely with case managers, counselors, probation offices, and treatment providers to support those in recovery. For more information please visit <https://www.tascofsoutheastohio.org/> or contact the Athens County Office at (740) 594-2276.
