

Reentry Task Force Highlights

In 2016...

Facilities:

Noble Correctional Southeastern Correctional Hocking Correctional SEPTA Correctional

Number of Visits:

2
 1
 1
 7

33
 Video Conferences
 With 12 Correctional Facilities

12
 New Intakes
 Monthly
188
 Monthly Contacts
 with 98 of them
 being face-to-face

Passed out 58 Welcome Home Kits
 *This provides clothes, hygiene products, and snacks to those recently released

$23,772.40

Spent on Transportation
 *This includes gas vouchers, car repair, BMV fees, and insurance costs

86 Bus Passes were given that provided 30 trips each

$14,773.21

Spent on Clothing
 *This includes vouchers to Walmart, Rocky Boots, Mac's Thrifty Store, The Shoe Department, and Goodwill

$6,405.80

Spent on Housing
 and Utilities

$1,399

Spent on Other
 *This includes tools,
 treatment fees, etc.

Collaborated with Hopewell and the 317 Board on a DRC grant to provide funding to eliminate the barriers of ex-offenders with behavioral health disorders

Collaborated with The Appalachian Center for Economic Networks to collect data on reentry individuals and develop potential programs

Assisted Perry County's Department of Job and Family Services with their creation of a Reentry Program

Spoke about the Athens Reentry Program at the DRC Coalition Conference
 at Orient Correctional

Received a $1,000 in-kind
 donation

of clothes, hygiene products, and snacks
 from Ohio University's pre-law fraternity Phi Alpha Delta

Received an estimated $155 in-kind
 donation

of feminine hygiene products from The Period Project, an Ohio University student organization

Contributions by Big Brothers Big Sisters,
 The Nelsonville Wesleyan Church, and numerous private individuals made our efforts to provide basic needs
 to Reentry Program
 participants possible

After all the services above were provided to Reentry Program participants 62 verified jobs can be reported.

To Athens County Department of Job and Family Services as well as The Work Station staff, we greatly appreciate your ability to help those recently released feel more comfortable seeking our services.

None of this could have been done without community collaboration, so Thank You!