STUDY SESSION TO REVIEW FISCAL YEAR 2020/2021 BUDGET

McCarthy provided a summary of the FY 2020-21 budget and highlighted changes from the previous year's budget. The major anticipated change will be a decrease in State shared revenue, due to the ongoing COVID-19 situation. She noted that there was an increase federal contribution to roads. McCarthy also provided an update on required Public Safety Department equipment purchases that are included in the budget.

Wilson provided additional updates on the budget. He noted that due to COVID-19, revenue will likely decrease while road project costs will increase. Wilson summarized the Village's decreasing debt over the last decade. Wilson and McCarthy answered questions from Council regarding the Water Fund, legal fees, Local Roads, and Public Safety.

PUBLIC COMMENTS
