October 2022

From the Director:

Well, I ran out of time to do the Senior Bunco and the Jack and Jill pool tournament. Maybe someone else can make these happen!

I will be leaving the first week of October for another prison job in Arizona. It is a job I have long wanted as a Case Manager, or I would be here for a bit longer. I'm sure you will have a great new Director soon.

This is my favorite time of year and I'm glad I got to experience some of it before heading out for a warm place in the winter. Enjoy, take care and see ya! Jeanne

“TALL TALES” FROM THE OLD TIMER

Earl Trousdale

“In going through my files (such as they are) I ran onto a 1940 Carlin Phone Directory! What a jolt to my memory. That phone book is comprised of one page. The entire directory on a 6” by 9” page is hard to believe.

The reading of those names brought memories of times 50 and 60 years ago. A time when the streets were gravel, there was a bonified business district on Main Street. The highway, highway 40, ran where Bush Street is now. I take it back, it was the Victory Highway then. There was a Standard Station and Motel opposite the school, just west of where the post office is now. The PFE and WP still put up natural ice every winter. The more I think about those times the farther back in time my mind tends to go.

I remember some of the people, Constable ‘Dolf’ Berning, who was always doing something, for the kids like decorating the huge Christmas Tree in the school auditorium. Jim Griffin and his brothers going to the ranch early each morning and (and isn’t it funny the little things you remember) I remember how furious the Griffins were when a train blocked the road home. I remember Judge Bielar sunning himself on the south side of the old Beanery at the Stop Sign on Main Street. Old George Arthur coming to town with his two dogs, one on the left running board and one on the right. People who had dogs hated to see him coming because Arthur’s dogs were always spoiling for a fight. I remember my Grandfather, Bill Linebarger, teaching me to milk cows, him on one side and me on the other. Carman Roberts, boy could she ever play the piano at those silent movies and she was mean too.

I remember the old European Store and all the good old Italian smells coming from the cheeses, salamis, and sausages hanging from the ceiling.

I remember swimming in the river in the summer—the baseball games and celebrations. I remember the ice skating in the winter and the dances—it was all fun.

In my opinion, there might have been a depression and there was no television. People made the most of that which they had and although some people had it rough it was still better than the present day ‘Prosperity.’” Page 17

I noticed lately that lots of people in Carlin (at the museum especially) have been talking about the good ole days. The museum is doing a great job of laying out things as they were in Carlin back in the day. We still have some Oldtimers who remember ‘places’ in particular. Carlin today is much different than when Main St. (in old town) was the hub of this town. It would be neat if folks would start journaling about what they remember and give it to the museum. I also heard they are planning to do audio stories with folks at some point. The Ghost Walk coming up tells some of the most famous/infamous stories of Carlin. Jeanne
