
Gordonsville's Visitor Center

Monthly Report – December 2022

Number of Visitors for December 2022 as compared December 2021: There were a couple of inclement days that affected visitor turnout. Continued to see strong influx from Shenandoah Crossing. BBX, Wellhung and wineries drew visitors. Champion Ice House, East of Maui Coffee, Patch Brewery and Jackson Market drew folks. Seeing visitors coming to downtown shops. Mainstreet Holiday Art Market event drew visitors. Folks just getting out. Continued to have folks “passing through and stopping”. Outdoor activities still in demand. Holiday lights saw visitors stopping and walking downtown. Presidential homes drew interest as well as the holiday activities at Market at Grelen and other activities around the county.

Events/Community and Area Involvement:

- Supported downtown Holiday Art Market on 12/10
- Supported Home for the Holidays at Liberty Mills Farm
- Supported Exchange Hotel's holiday activities
- Supported annual Toys for Tots drive
- Supported holiday activities at The Market at Grelen
- Supported a number of area holiday activities
- Maintained contact with Blue Green Vacations' Resort Manager
- Maintained contact with Orange Tourism office
- Renewed membership on Orange Tourism Advisory Committee
- Maintained contact with Orange, Madison and Green County Visitor Centers

Revenue:

- Regular Donations = $25
Total Revenue = $25

Respectfully Submitted by,

David H. Solomon, Visitor Center Director