

with this symbol..

Saturday, June 8 exas Terror

Don't miss the opportunity to get free instructions for bags, gloves, collars, etc. with the purchase of your thread every Wednesday and Saturday. Martha's Shop COLF CIUDS

Riding Boots

Riding Breeches,

We Buy, Sell and Exchange
Diamonds, Jewelry, and Old Gold

J. BENJAMIN

235 E. Broadway

ZSD E. Broadway EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, MO. 医医院医醛醛医醛醛醛醛醛醛醛醛醛

Major Food Store

Large box Corn Flakes
Large can Pork & Beans

Man or woman, with car, ription work. Pay every day Kearney you need your old lawnmower ened, or a new one? See Nathan Mrs. Fannie Simmons went to Liberty, Friday, to see the dentist.

Tomato Plants, Marglobe, Disease
Resistant. 5cts. per doz. Glen Messick
30 Acres of Blue Grass Seed (standing.) Buyer to gather it. O. D. Francis

Help Wanted FOR SALE

Classified Ads | Mr. Jim Henson of Ravena spent the week end with his brother, Daniel | Henson.

Mr. David Bevins and the Shaddon

Buss. are setting tobacco this week.

It is the first they have been able to Bust out.

. Mrs. Neal Porter one day last week.

She found Mr. Porter, who broke his t leg while unloading wood last March, getting along as well as could be expected.

will take his place as mail Carrier.

Miss Wanda Cave spent Friday af. H
ternoon with Miss Brooksie Sriith.

Mrs. Wilbert Ellington and Cletus en an one with Mrs. H F. Carter and Mrs. Bodock

Farmers of this vicinity are getting quite discouraged as it is the first of June and their corn is not yet planted.

Mr.s. and Mrs. Ralph McGee and children, Midred, Myra, and Billie a Stone of near Holt were last Sunday we guest: of her parents, Mr. and Mrs.

S. J. Moberly and Wissie

While the Patient Slept
Guy Kibbee & Aline MacMahon
Admission .10-.20 John Beal & Gloria Stewart Admission .10-.25 Home Appliance Co.
111 N. Main.
Excelsior Springs, Missouri

Priced $ and up for

Laddie

extra

Weeden Major, EXECUTOR EXECUTOR NO CHILDREN ADMITTED
Admission.25

PLAZA THEATRÉ LIBERTY, MO.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to Major Bros. please call and settle your account.

May I Use YOUR

Telephone?

r. and Mrs. Albert Henson and y were in Kansas City, Saturday, rs. Mary Farner of Liberty spent reday with her sister, Mrs. Den-NOTICE and Mrs. Rorden Bradley and cf. Avindale were supper

OF OF THE HEBED DOCTOR'S ADVICE

Mrs. Joe Crossett, who was suddenly ill Saturday nite, is repressil in a serious condition

Spicer spent Saturday and Mrs. Jim Miller.

KEARNEY TRUST COMPANY Capital - $75,000.00 Seneral Banking Busines

Beyer Theatre

Just received a new shipment of olgates Scaps-formerly .10 new .05 for .29. Chas. L. Smith

Friends and Ours

Safe and Dep endable

Mr. Hudson Rice of Kansas City was Kearney visitor Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tapp of Monew visited his brother, W. H. Tapp d Mrs. Tapp, last week.

Ir and Mrs. W. B. Rollins and mata of Kansas City visited with tather, Mr. W. R. Groomer, Sun-

Southwest of Kearney

Saturday, June 8 Double Feature Spencer Tracy in

Kt's A Small World
Buster Keaton comedy, Pop Eye
Cartoon and Chandu.

OWL SHOW at 10:30. Come as late as 9:15 and see two shows for one Admission.

Miss Edith Sweeney from Oklahoma visited with Mrs Donald Kincheloe of Lathrop last week, Mrs. Kincheloe and Miss Sweeney were classmates in Columbia, Mo. at Christian College.

Miss Bernita Isley has orderd a new Chevrolet through the Dagley Motor Mr. Lewis Tapp and did some work at Mrs. N place Monday and Tu week. Mrs. Tapp and Monday and Tuesday Searcy. Myrtle Searcy's Tuesday of this children spent
Visiting Mrs. s. SHIRLEY TEMPLE in OUR LITTLE GIRL

Eight Bells

h Bellamy and Ann S

sun. -Mon. June 9-10

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Whipple and family of Excelsior Springs were Sunday evening guests of R. A. Whipple and family.

Mrs. Pearl Cartmill and Kathlene were Liberty visitors Monday.

Floor Wax only 29 cts. a pound at Klepper Hdw. he Dr. has put her to bed for a two weeks need.

Doyou needyour old lawnmower sharpened, or a new one? See Nathan Carey.

Mrs. Chas. Munkirs visited with her sisters Mrs. J. T. Lynn and Mrs. J. W. Eastin in Excelsior Springs Decoration day. Other guests in the Lynn home were Mrs. C. E. Pritchard of Kansas City, another sister, and her son, Melbouin Crowley.

Mrs. E. H. Egan spent Monday night. Tues. Junc.

Mariene Dietrich in

The Devil is A Woman

re Cash Nite You can't afford not to it be here.

The Break of Hearts

with Charles Boyer

Ladies Mat. Every Wed. Adm. 10 cts

FRIDAY, June 14

FAMILY DAY, Shows 2:30-7:15-9:15 P.M

Jackie Cooper in Dinky

Comedy, Cartoon, & Rustlers of Red

Many farmers are getting ready to strip blue grass seed. Those who are not stripping theirs are selling it as it stands. There seems to be lots of seed this year.

Mrs. John Gillespie, who was operated on last Friday at St. Joseph's hospital in Kansas City is said to be resting very nicely. Mr. and Mrs. Wal Munkirs spent inday with her parents, Mr. and rs. Tom Harmon. Mrs. E. H. Egan spent Monday night th her mother, Mrs. P. E. Meyers ar Odessa.

Mr and Mrs. Raymotd Duncan id relatives in Lexington, Sunday W. P. McCleary of Holt is regular ployed at the Carey Blacksm

Ve will be glad to trade your old to in on a new one at the Klep v.

Mrs. S. G. Major spent week end with her brother, Mr. R. F. Wallace and wife near Liberty.

Mrs. G. A. Gordon is very poorly r and Mrs. Leonard Neff and tha Jare and Miss Martha Hall ed in Kansas City, Sunday.

Mrs. Allie Davis, Mrs. Ida Arnold, and Mrs. Henry Arnold spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Arnold.

Mrs. Gertie Groom came home Suntternoon, after spending a few weeks with Mrs. H. A. Lawrence and baby H. I. Hester, Mr. and Mrs. S.T. and sons, and Mr. and Mrs. rd Petty were Sunday dinner s of Mr and Mrs. W. D. Groom

LAKE MAUER

Frank Wilson and His Band vill be at the Dance Pavilion the only MINERAL SALT WATER ts kind.

Don't use FALSE ECONO
BUY FOLGERS Quality Cheaper because you use 1
SATURDAY ONLY 33 e Delivery J. P. Craig. Phone. ECONOMY Coffee

comeu,,
COMING SUN MON, June
COMING SUN MEN

With James Cagney

C. E. HOLMAN

SEE
Hughes—Bennett
Home Furnishings
ain & Spring St Tel.
Excelsior Springs, Mo.

FURNITURE

HOUSEWORK

Kearney

Golf News Rain! Rain!

Visit our Soda Fountain. efficient service. Chas. L. Sn

KIDS-

Ir. and Mrs. Earl Anderson visited iday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed.

GOL News Some are halling the burial of hother Defunct Blue Eagle with widelight and are predicting betater business with the dictatorial codes removed while others is are predicting dire calamity. It seems that "Crack Down" Johnson was right when he said "the N.R.A. is as dead as a Dodo." Late reports from Washington are that President Roosevelt will yelld to the Supreme Court's ruling against if and will not, now at least, e take steps to circumvent the EDCECATE-

e people.

out is true of Kearney is sof thousands in the U.S. A. the shed so many tears at the kerney of a plan that has a cted so few faults as has were. Editorial War Column Co

Subscription, One Dol Payable in Adva

The Kearney C

Courier

extremely unpleasant ge number attended the rices at the I.O.O.F. Mitchell, pastor of the rings Christian Church, id address. Music was the following male quur-Messrs. John and Er-Billy McGee and Roy Wagy few days and Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schmidt are sporting a new car.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Creason of Los Angeles, California visited in the Wagy neighborhood, Saturday. Jean and S. T. Atkins spent the past sek with their grandparents Mr. and rs. Ed Justus of near Smithville Iss Etta Florence Young ek end with home folks.

Soap Coupons.-when you receive Lux, Rinso, Life Bouy, of Lux Flakes coupons bring them to us, we redeem them, Chas. L. Smith.

Yu'an Hee See Laughs

By SAX ROHMER

What was the worst danger in sight?

... That one of the Hee See group

The negro returned carrying a tray,

Haig mixed himself a stiff drink,

CHAPTER VIII—Continued

along the uncarpeted passage, pulling meerschaum pipe fell to the floor and

"Inshallah!" groaned the owner. Haig stooped swiftly. "Koseir by car in five minutes," he whispered. "House of Dr. Julian Hess." "Offer me money!" came a muffled gry shriek from Hassan es-Suk at his | Mecca. He had traveled from Keneh elbow. "He is a lump of mud, a son in a big French car with an Egyptian of filth, an unutterable liar! It was driver, over roads which were orig-

Cursing, opening and closing his oasis was nearly deserted and he dozed divined to be brilliant invective. The reaching Koseir about noon.

Eileen sat on the edge of the disordered lacquered bed, her teeth tightly clenched. She had completed an exdoration of her prison. There was a arge wardrobe in which carefully gantly appointed bathroom. She had succeeded in recalling everything of The doctor glanced at it, then from a man concerned. We shall sail at four motto of that ghastly trade, "Dead glanced at a slip of paper he held in home frock, with its big, bright butthat dim past out of which she had awakened in this preposterous place. Haig, He now spoke for the first time. neck—and so every man will watch his organization, in whose power. Elleen

She recalled seeing Dawson Haig outside. It was then she accepted the invitation of the aged Arab to explore the treasure house beyond. Here her memory terminated with the recollection of a sharp pain in her shoulder, a sickly sweet smell, and a sense of sudden weakness. . . . How long had elapsed since then? Her position was desperate. The flower-covered balcony overlooked a beautiful garden. The prospect was terminated by a high white wall, like the wall of an ancient fortress. Something told her that the ground fell away beyond that wall, and that further beyond yet was the sea. Where The door opened, and a stout and kindly looking French maid came in, ty-eight-foot cruiser which he guessed "Am I to regard this interview, averted had he not failed. Now-was "Mam'selle is frightened." said the woman. "No no—" meeting that fixed, the foot of these steps. He grasped The Egyptian's hand dropped below Eileen he could not think about and angry stare—"it is no good, cherie. I Haig's hand. "Bakshish! bakshish!" the table. am Celeste," she went on, opening the he whined. wardrobe and taking out Eileen's suit in the most natural manner in the Celeste swiftly glanced up, high in known!" he whispered. one wall to a little wooden trap. It was closed. "Cherie," she said, "trust me, I am your friend. You understand. Perhaps I can help. Don't answer." She bustled busily into the bathroom.

room. The Frenchwoman closed the unknown place and "report!" Com- Aswami Pasha was thinking, "This mind—Polodos! The Greek unmis plained. door as she entered. "I know how it mon sense was against it. has happened to you, cherie," came "In Port Said," said Eileen miser-

"Ah!" The Frenchwoman nodded "But tell me, please, where am I

"In Yemen, cherie." A large strong arm was slipped maternally about the cation he would surely find. . . . girl's shoulders. She was pressed to And now is the time for courage | Hee See's rogues were gathered. courage not to fight."

Beyond is the Red sea. Here behind us | ards.

"But I don't know Aswami Pasha!" | night when Dawson Haig had sat | sible. . . ."

"Once, it is nearly ten years ago, I | waiting below. Wine flowed freely, very rich! But come, cherie. Slip your | many tongues when, suddenly, Doctor | came the smooth voice, "but I study | ing his chances. This was headquarrobe off. This is the time for cunning. Oestler stood up. "Orders!" he cried. | men." But be thankful that I am with you." | The clamor subsided—died away—a | And in a small room situated in a | is safely on her way," Joseph had Eileen threw one white arm around curtain was drawn aside, and Aswami wing of the rambling mansion, Macles said: undoubtedly on her way here. the Frenchwoman's neck. This strange Pasha entered. He was greeted with a was kneeling beside a neat bed trying What was the most and the best he character, with her bright, kindly eyes, was a rock of refuge. "Oh, Celeste. You are not going t leave me?" "I shall be in the bedroom, and when

Celeste hugged the frightened captive tightly, and went out closing the Shuddering, Eileen dropped the Behind what looked like the grating roar of welcome. He smiled, and to pray. There is no more desperate could hope for? . . . to get in touch of a ventilator, high in the bathroom nodded his handsome head to right and character than that of a religious man with Elleen, and then? To get away wall, two points of light glittered and left. Then he raised both hands— gone wrong. And James Malcolm again and bring help. disappeared. Yu'an Hee See walked silence fell again. slowly out of the cupboard-room above "My friends," he said, "you speak liner, was a deeply religious man whom onto the mahogany floor of the salon | many tongues, but all of you, I think, | an irreligious woman had driven down | should recognize him. which adjoined it. He nodded slowly, a little English, so I will address you to hell. as one who has clinched a satisfactory in English. Tonight you have been en- In drink he was a devil incarnate. upon which was a bottle of whisky, a

CHAPTER IX

Dawson Haig spent part of that night in the large caravanseral of Bir Ambar, on the old pilgrim route to inally intended for camels. The tiny beside his door, so that he was pre- enormous." sumably in practice. Doctor Hess rose from behind a ta- | mur rose.

He spoke in French! A wave of relief | to any backsliders." swept over the listener. "So I under- A great roar, like that of a pack of brain raced like an engine. He clenched stand, Doctor. But" (a sudden idea wolves suddenly aroused, greeted his his fists. What should he do? What Doctor Hess smiled even more broad- Doctor Oestler followed. servant, he will direct you to the pered.

the Egyptian police service was in- bane." creased as he followed the servant * * * * * * against which a battered but sea- writing table. Kid Brown, battle- been then to the truth! And what worthy motorboat was tied up; a thir- scarred, stood before him.

"Come, mam'selle," she called. "You ing fingers were relaxed. "Impossible want to go tomorrow. . ." Eileen walked across to the bath not demand that he should sail for this "Keep it! Leave me out."

beckoning out of the haze over the sea also-but for the last time." was a dream-image of Eileen. Some "It is in orders that you join us, stupendous plot was working slowly Brown," he said coldly. "Therefore I to its culmination. Even now he had have no choice but to refer your procomprehendingly. "I was at Cairo when were horrible. His usefulness might Kid Brown sprang forward and not grasped it. But his suspicions test to-" he saw me. But that was many years be ended if he should be cut off from grasped the outstretched hand. his allies. But . . . Eileen! He must find her at all costs-be near to her. Some means of communi- the cargo we want, not the ship," he been removed, because at the last mo. "You're the garden watchdog," he went an ample breast. "You have courage, In a long, rectangular room on the Mac is being watched by Mr. King!" great courage—I see it in your face. first floor of the house on the hill Yu'an | The Kid drew back, biting his thick ed. Ahead on the right, a long high patrol the gardens, 'specially the 'airems

The Wasp was excitedly arguing "Tonight," Aswami continued, "the pointed, he saw twinkling lights. Eileen began to feel that she had with the one-eyed Chinaman and Franz, Armenian, Joseph, from Port Said, known this singular woman all her the Brandenburger. Len Chow was joins us, taking the place—at the same forced with scrolled ironwork, opened life. "What do you mean, Celeste?" deep in conversation with Jo Lung and pay—of the Portuguese sent to us by onto a courtyard. A big negro in uni- over. See, mate? If you pipe a cat in WNU—D she asked. "What is this place—where a villainous-looking Arab known as Polodos. I knew, when I interviewed form stepped forward and a quick in the garden—shoot it. Don't shoot a Ali. At a table Doctor Oestler sat, ap him in Paris, that this man from Stam terchange of remarks, meaningless to "You are in Arabia, poor baby. Down parently pleading with the gloomy, de- boul would fail us, as he had failed the listener, took place between Haig's you're for it. But anything else that in there—" she pointed vaguely—"is a bauched Macles. Uncle Tom and Kid us before. Very well. You have taken guide and the guardian of the gate. little town that no one ever heard of. Brown were drinking stout from tank- a gross liberty tonight. You shall have He was ushered into a carpeted and is desert—desert—and then . . . There were a dozen other faces with Mr. King to the sheds. See this peared. But the man in uniform stood which must have been recognizable by fellow Joseph, and instruct him in his before him. "Chief engaged," he said,

"But this house? Who does it belong anyone who had been privileged to duties. Remember—with the Jackal, in his thick negroid voice. "Some one enter that room in the Restaurant he will be in sole charge, outside, dur- see you presently. Have a drink?" "It is the house of Aswami Pasha." | Sulpiman Bey in Paris on a certain | ing our absence. You will be respon-Kid Brown turned and made for the The man grinned and disappeared. did not know him, cherie. He is rich— Remarks were being shouted in door. "I may collect women, Brown," Dawson Haig looked about him, weighbargain. And, crossing to the door, he tertained and I trust are very happy. And he wanted to pray for strength siphon of soda water, and a cut-glass But after one more drink all round, to remain sober long enough to save tumbler. He placed this upon a low you will go to your quarters, and you his poor soul from this last black sin. table before Haig, grinned again, and will sleep; because tomorrow is the But never a word would come. . . . day for which we have been called together again from all over the world. As the motorboat swung into the took a sip, and wondered. . . by Mr. King." He paused. The silence was so com- at last to Dawson Haig's brain. . . .

talon-like hands, old Hassan es-Suk a few uneasy hours upon a hard bed. ing to him if he fails. You have en- nition, at last drove home. . . . "A spy-" he whispered in his ear- out upon a sailless sea. The doctor's other chance is being given to you. tion. . . . "a dirty police pig! Begone—quickly!" name appeared upon a neat brass plate And this time the share-out will be The American yacht. a year ago!

stout and prosperous looking Hess was | ways paid for here in one way, and in | official survey had been made. drawer took out a third envelope iden! o'clock in the afternoon; every man men tell no tales." tical in appearance, and passed it to Jack of us with a noose around his This was the man, with his damnarle seph Rasta. Got your letter?" "You are the last to arrive, Joseph." | neighbor. And a short shrift, say I, | lay!

entered his brain) "I think Len Chow | last words. Aswami waved his hand, | could he do? Where did his duty lie? and Franz cannot be far ahead." and went out, sped by a hoarse cheer. He had deliberately snapped the link ly. "Nearly eight hours," he replied. Kid Brown stumbled across the He was alone—alone against an organ-"Convey to the Chief my best wishes room to the drunken Maclies' side. "Is | ized group of absolutely callous scounand assurances. If you will follow my it an English ship, mate?" he whis- drels-operating under the orders of The Scotsman's bleary eyes fixed of Asia. The whole ghastly conspiracy

the most evil man that ever came out The "letter of travel," addressed as themselves upon him. There was an became an open book; all his past before "To Joseph," read "You will interval, and then "I ken it is. I've knowledge of the group, clues which proceed by motorboat and report. worked out a' the posection—an' this had led nowhere—suspicions at which will be the old Wallaroo, thirteen the chief had laughed. . . . Haig's respect for the efficiency of thousand tons, out fro London to Bris- This last astounding recognition had brought everything into order. His fu tile journey to Singapore with its near down rough stone steps to a little quay | Aswami Pasha sat behind a large ly fatal termination now near he had concealed powerful engines under that Brown," said the Egyptian, "as a piece he to fail again?—with all the facts a of private blackmail?" An aged mendicant was seated at Kid Brown took a step forward.

Haig paused-looked down. Instan- your bodyguard for three years, and "Do we go far?" taneously the nut-cracker features I've done well out of it. There's been world. "You have been sick—I know were relaxed. He saw a young face some bloody dirty work, though I say Joseph in the scheme of things. Jo under the old mask. "Destination un- so, but I've done it! The German seph was a nominee of the old villain, steamer was a bit 'ot, but I never | Mohammed, at Port Said. He had been mown!" he whispered. - steamer was a bit 'ot, but I never Mohammed, at Port Said. He had been "Don't sail yet, inspector. . . . It's liked Germans. The nigger trade don't given a chance to prove himself. impossible to cover you!" came a swift worry me. The American yacht was Therefore, he was about to be received reply. Then, loudly, "Bakshish! bak- fair game. Capitalists and their fancy by-whom? dreams ought all to go the same way. Haig dropped a coin, and the clutch- But this 'ere English liner-I don't No. Yu'an Hee See was too cunning chief of staff.

"I'll go!" he whispered hoarsely. said. "And now that you have come ment this greater scheme had suggest- on. "See?" to your senses, a word of warning: ed itself to the master mind!

a chance to make good. I have to go well-furnished room. The guide disap-you got a whisky and soda?"

MacIles, ex-chief engineer of a famous

His body was ifily cold but his last in his hands?

Surely not by the man who laughed reef-sheltered harbor, the truth leaped What action was to be looked for from a modern and highly efficient piplete that men could be heard breath. A suspicion, which for weeks past— rate when, in his own headquarters, longer; perhaps since that day when he found himself confronted, unex-"Every man knows his job and what | the existence of the former Marquis | pectedly, by a detective inspector of is expected of him," Aswami went on. Yu'an Hee See had thrust itself upon the Criminal Investigation department "Every man knows also what is com- his attention-had clamored for recog- At that moment entered a bullpoured forth a torrent of what Haig At daybreak they took the road again, joyed success in the past. You have Drug smuggler—slave dealer—re- gaily colored pull-over, gray flannel all been made rich by the man you ceiver of stolen property—yes! but at trousers, and gymnasium shoes. His He was taken straight to the house serve. If you are all poor again to last the whole scope of this devil's low skull was closely cropped, and his of Doctor Hess, a small villa looking night, this is your own concern. An activities presented itself like a revela- face bore the scars of battle. "My G-d!" Haig thought, "I had overlooked him!" This was the man And less than a year earlier, the big to whom he had spoken outside the As he paused again, an excited mur- German freighter with a cargo insured Restaurant Suleiman Bey in Paris! for a quarter of a million! Both had But the little street had been badly ble at which he was seated, smiled | "Enormous," he repeated. "I need vanished, leaving never a survivor, slighted, and Haig had worn those tinted significantly, and held out his hand. not fell you what the folly of one man somewhere in the Red sea. There had glasses which later characterized "Mr. Dawson Haig caught his breath. The | may mean to all of us. Failure is al- | been talk about a shifting shoal; an | Smith." in Port Said. There was an extrava- a Turk! Nodding, Haig handed him one way only. But failure tomorrow | Yu'an Hee See was a pirate—a mod- self upon the man's brutal face. the letter received from Hassan es-Suk. | would certainly mean death for every | ern pirate!—holding strictly to the | "Hello, mate!" was his greeting. He

"I'm the Kid," the other replied. | and it almost finishes itself like

Kid Brown, Battle-Scarred Stood

for that. He would be met by some You speak good English for an Armenian." "I've lived in England." man has been talking to MacIles. He takably was a man with an excellent The Kid whistled shrilly, and the Further co-operation with his Egyp- must come tomorrow. Otherwise he brain; a man of culture. And it was negro appeared at once. "Another her voluble whisper. "It happened so tian colleagues became impossible. But will be dangerous: Macles must come Polodos who had taken charge in glass," he directed, lighted a cigarette, will be dangerous: Limehouse during the critical hours and thoughtfully regarded the new ar- cure and satisfactory," answered which preceded the sailing of the Wal- rival.

He remembered how he had cud- ed. "The Chief's engaged in is airemgeled his brains for an explanation of so you get your orders from me. I'm where the leakage had occurred be first lieutenant—see?" tween Scotland Yard and Sydney. It The negro returning with a glass, trait is the most valuable picture he was painfully clear now. The consignthe Kid half filled it with whisky, to has. Aswami drew his hand away. "It is ment of drugs—a minor matter—had which he added a dash of soda water. "I don't think I do," Haig confessed. | rats in the house. "There," the negro replied, and point-"Well, what you got to do is to > garden, and watch the you-nicks." wall began. Beyond it, where the negro "Ennuchs!" There massive gates heavily reinlike you an' me. They can be bought you-nick or a monkey or a parrot, or moves-shoot. Now I'll interduce you to your new pal-name of the Jackal-

> To Eileen every day in that lacquered room was a week of suffering. although Celeste showed a maternal solicitude for the girl's comfort. With a glance of her eloquent eyes and a shrug. Celeste had conveyed the news that they were spied upon, and Eileen became aware that the scroll-work ventilators were really hidden sp ters—Yu'an Hee See's base! "The girl (TO BE CONTINUED)

Cracking of Oil The cracking of oil is said to have been discovered by a refinery workman who day-dreamed on the job and person escaped being blasted into the next world is not told by the legend. Doctor Burton of Standard Oil about 1912. Cracking consists of heating the heavier fractions of oil under high one large, muscular hand. "You're Jo- tons strategically placed for giving garment spread open. Cut it out, your appearance in the same surprising way! It's vastly becoming, this simple frock with the easy lines, and a good, quick/beginning to your new supply of house dresses. There are crinkly cottons which look like plaid ginghams. Try a colorful one for this-contrast the yoke and sleeves if you wish. Pattern 9310 may be ordered only 31/4 vards 36 inch fabric.

Big Buttons Brighten Chic New Home Frock

in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 42. 44 and 46. Size 36 requires SEND FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this nattern. Be sure to write plainly FOUR NAME ADDRESS STYLE

Address your order to the Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 232 West Eighteenth Street, New York, N. Y.

OCHINDS

WORDS TO THE RESCUE "That man is positively dishon st!" exclaimed the visitor. "Your language is not in keeping with our higher educational standards," said Senator Sorghum. "You should say that he has not arrived at the point of intellectual development that would enable him to discriminate between the gratification of the ego and the ethical responsibility to consider the needs of others."

Constitutional Controversy "What is your view of the United States Constitution?" "The original Constitution is se Senator Sorghum, "The amendments "You look pretty useful," he conced- are what produces the controversy."

Scarecrow Effect Brown-Jones says this dog por-

Brown-Well, ever since he has had it he hasn't been troubled with At the Bottom

First-How's business? Second-Bad-even the people "Yes, Joseph, you-nicks. They ain't who never pay have stopped buying.

Week's Supply of Postum Free Read the offer made by the Postur Company in another part of this paper. They will send a full week's supply of health giving Postum free to anyone who writes for it.—Adv. Try CARDUI For Functional Monthly Pains

Women from the 'teen age to the change of life have found Cardui genuinely helpful for the relief of functional monthly pains due to lack of just the right strength from the food they eat. Mrs. Crit Haynes, of Essex, Mo., writes: "I used Cardui when a girl for cramps and found it very beneficial. I have recently taken Cardui during the change of life. I was very nervous, had head and back pains and was in a generally run-down condition. Cardui has helped me greatly."

Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician. hallow hoat, capsizing it.

MORNING AFTER Headache Relieved -by chewing one or

Establish Yourself in a profitable business; experience unnecessary; $75 capital required for stock and equipment; also district distributors wanted, SO-EZE Products Co., 3515 Troost, Kansas City, Mo.

How Can You Lose? If you don't find WALDE'S WONDER SALVE is the best you ever used for infections, Eolis, Fresh Cuts, Old Sores, Burns, Bruises, Ulcers, Felons, Sprains and Sore Eyes, your money will be refunded. Think how dangerous infections are, Don't take that chance, Order now 50e prepaid.

Truly A Wonder Product
WALDE'S WONDER SALVE
Lake Wales, Florida,

Dept. 10

You Will Enjoy 4000 Washington Blvd. Daily Single $2.50-Double $3.50

KANSAS CITY

MISSOURI

News Nuggets LATE STATE EVENTS CONDENSED FOR THE BUSY READER

Bodies of Two Boys Recovered Caruthersville.—The bodies of James Edgar Mott, 10, and Jack Robbins, 30, were recovered from a bar pit where they drowned. The man and boy were shing from a boat when a high wind came up. A wave washed over their Ozark Advertising Drive

Camdenton.—The Lakes of the Ozarks Association decided at its ionthly meeting here to present lake resort attractions to vacatoinists this season through an advertising campaign in Kansas City and St. Louis Road Contracts Awarded

Jefferson City.—Contracts for conroads on which bids were received by Joke. the State Highway Commission on April 27, were awarded. This con- | Learned Professor Einstein, with the struction is located in 18 counties and also learned Professors B. Podolsky will cost, it is estimated, $324,700. To Head State Life Underwriters Hannibal.—George E. Hackmann of efferson City was elected president of he Missouri Association of Life Unerwriters convention here, and Cape irardeau was recommended as the organization's fall convention city. Elected Mayor of Hannibal onent for the office of Mayor while learned it. Democrats were winning other city offices. Mainland received 4,800 votes. he Democratic candidate, Earl H. Shackelford, received 4,117. Mainland, ing with one or two little pebbles a former City Councilman, succeeds

Missouri Berries on Market Anderson.—The first carload of the 1935 strawberry crop in this section | or space, made up of particles of elecwas loaded here. Approximately 250 tricity variously grouped, in electrons, estimated will return their grower approximately $3.25 a crate, were loaded ality." on the Kansas City Southern Railroad by the Anderson Fruit Grower Asso-

Mechanic Admits Murder Guilt Springfield.—Clarence Bennett, 27. army. General Ludendorff, greatest, year-old mechanic, pleaded guilty in after Von Hindenburg, in the big war, Circuit Court here to the murder of declined with thanks, announced his James McCraw, wealthy Greene County | retirement to a small hunting lodge armer. Sentence was deferred. Ben- in the Bavarian mountains. It is sugwas surprised in a mid-night attempt guished living general did not feel that o rold the farmer's poultry roost. Witness Mysteriously Slain Boonville.—Carl Mosley, 65-year-old

Arrow Rock farmer, was found dead at his farm home west of here with bullet wounds in his breast and head. Suidvanced by Dr. R. L. Anderson, woke his neighborhood drumming on a Coroner. Mosely was the chief witness copper drainpipe. against George Lindsay, arrested in the The copper resisted, but the wood-Ozarks by federal officers recently on pecker drummed on until a boy with a charge of swindling Mosely and a slingshot stopped him forever. What

Given Merit Paroles Jefferson City.-Two St. Louis inmates of the Penitentiary were granted | "Supply and Demand" on his head! and tion of the State Penal Board. They are: Paul Ryan, convicted of first-degree robbery and given a sentence of 10 years from December 13, 1929, Arthur Mason, convicted of burglary and arceny and sentenced to 10 years from December 13, 1929.

Discharged from Capital Hospital past ten days under treatment for in- | ly amusing. juries received in an automobile collision near Jefferson City, was discharged from the hospital. He has re- about professors. An eight-year-old covered practically from the effects of girl missing in New York; all police the accident, but one of his arms, in detectives, plus 60 policemen, espewhich a small bone was fractured, is cially assigned, and troops of Boy still in splints and one of his eyes is Scouts searched the neighborhood still somewhat swollen and discolored, vainly for 61 hours. but the eyesight was not impaired.

Elects Officers president; Mrs. Sanders, Mrs. Mary find. Kesselring, St. Louis, and Mrs. Marie Rauth, Perryville, department council; urer; Mrs. Stella Thomas, St. Louis, ers, having, by way of persuasion, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Mabel Walk- killed a few of them. Moushey, secretary; Mrs. Cora Rogers, for shooting. St. Louis, chief of staff, and Mrs. Theo. An old poker player when he Mohr, St. Louis, counselor. Former Vandalia Mayor Dies

Vandalia.-John B. Crum, former Mayor and State Legislator, died at a hospital here. He was cashier of the Exchange Bank. His widow and a son | the tyrant of Samos had dropped into Pardon for B. Busalaki

Jefferson City.—A full pardon to re- | disgorged the tattooed arm of a man. store citizenship was granted by Gov. | The man had been murdered, his body Park to Biatolo Busalaki, who was dismembered, the parts thrown into sent to the Penitentiary from St. Louis | the sea. The shark swallowed one arm. May 17, 1929, under sentence of five years for first degree robbery. He was discharged from the prison under merit parole September 29, 1932.

BRISBANETHIS WEEK

Jane Addams of Hull House What Is Reality?

Ludendorff Said No A Woodpecker Sermon Miss Jane Addams "of Hull House" ls dead. She set an admirable examwomen. She devoted money, to the wel-, almost every fair-sized town boasts fare of unfortunate of a number of excellent teams made women and chil- up of amateurs and semiprofes dren. She was one sionals. of those that make it difficult not to be- entirely for their misconception. It lieve in heaven. If there were no really awakened to the thrills found future rewards for | in athletics, but the progress made such goodness the during this short time is astounding. entire universe, Now golf balls fly in the cool air of with its relativities quantums, electrons | in the land of the gauchos, spiked struction of 69 miles of farm-to-market and light-years, would be one ghastly shoes pound where Incas once held and N. Rosen, all of Princeton Instiannouncement that will interest those that can understand it. This is it, condensed:

"A scientific theory can be devised which will completely describe reality." It seems the present scientific theory, supposed to give a description of physical reality by the "quantum-me-Hannibal.—Sinclair Mainland, a Re chanical" method, does not work out oublican, defeated his Democratic op- satisfactorily, and you are sorry you

It is pleasant to see scientists on the shore of the ocean of knowledge, play-Science is far from any "scientific the-Mayor J. B. Robinson, who has served ory that will completely describe reality," for science cannot tell what "reality" is.

In a universe without limits of time crates of "Aroma" berries, which it is atoms and molecules, no man-microbe more time and work than a $100 washcan hope "completely to describe re-

Chancellor Hitler of Germany conferred upon the fighting German General Ludendorff the title "field marshal general," highest rank in Germany's his glory could be increased by Chancellor Hitler, who was a corporal in

"Sermons in stones, and good in everything." cide or murder are the possible theories cago woodpecker that every morning There must be a sermon in the Chi-is the sermon? Does it deal with modern efforts t ignore the nature of man, stand old paroles by Gov. Park, on recommenda- | prove that super-intelligence can make the world over in ten minutes?

Professor Kemmerer, financial expert, of Princeton, worrying about inflation, "too much money in circulation," says the government is spending money twice as fast as it comes in. This, he says, is done by "pumping the banks full of artificial credit." Hav-Jefferson City.-Verne Lacy, St. ing done that, the government borrows ouis lawyer who has been an inmate its own money from the banks and While in CHICAGO of St. Mary's Hospital in this city the pays them interest, which seems mild-

President Roosevelt may be right Prof. Taylor Putney, Jr., of New York university, said to the police: St. Joseph,—Mrs. Hattie Kesselring in the sand late on the day of the All Rooms Both Bath and Shower of St. Louis was elected president of girl's disappearance; look there," and the Missouri Department, auxiliary to pointed. There at the foot of the consons of Union veterans, at a closing crete wall the girl was found, apsession of the auxiliary's annual con- parently smothered by sand that had vention here. Other officers elected caved in. There is much in knowing are: Mrs. Ida Smith, Kansas City, vice how to look for what you want to

> In New York city racketeers collect Mrs. Lillie Moeser, St. Louis, treas- $10,000,000 a year from poultry dealer, Joplin, chaplain; Mrs. Ella Miller, To discourage the racketeering, Po-Cape Girardeau, inspector; Mrs. Belle | lice Commissioner Valentine tells mer-Hamblin, installing officer; Mrs. Anna | chants to "slug racketeers" at sight Raaf, press correspondent; Mrs. Hazel and offers to help them get revolvers "raised" used to say: "The best way to discourage vice is to make it ex-

> > Very old is the story of the fish in which was found a precious ring that the sea. And new is the story from Sydney about a captured shark that more improbable than that.

returned it as evidence and the mur-derer may hang. Invent something

Latin Americans Favor North American Sport

Viewing the impressive dramatics of a bullfight or swaying to the exotic rhythm of the tango is the Latin American's one idea of sport in the minds of many North Americans. But those who have spent some time in South America know. what a complete misconception

From Colombia to the end of Chile practically everyone can tell you what a home run is and, although baseball may be called "beisbol," it is still the same game and is enjoyed by a great many. There are, time, effort and even as here, sandlot leagues, while

Yet Americans cannot be blamed isn't very long since South America Bogota, polo ponies rush and swerve sway, and rugby football and tennis attract their thousands from the Caribbean to Magellan's straits. There are yearly internationa championships in boxing, basketball, tute for Advanced Study, makes a deep swimming and soccer. The latter, perhaps, is the sport par excellence. Chileans may play cricket, Argentines specialize in polo. Peruvians hold track championships, but soc> cer really rules in every republic. SIM SIMUR TIME and WORK OF than a $ 10000 ' WASHING MACHINE No Heating with Matches or Torch ... No Waiting...Lights Instantly, Like Gas REDUCE your ironing time one-third ... your labor one-half! The Coleman Self-Heating Iron will save you ing machine! Iron any place where you can be comfortable. No endless trips carrying iron from stove to board. Operating cost only ½ an hour. Helps you do better ironing, easier, quicker.

See your hardware or housefurnishing dealer. If local dealer doesn't handle, write us. THE COLEMAN LAMP & STOVE COMPANY Dept. WU305, Wighita, Kans.; Chicago, Ill.; Los Angeles, Calif.; Philadelphia, Pa.; or Toronto, Ontario, Canada. [4305]

BEAT THE DRUMS HERE IT COMES CRISP AND BEST IN TOWN BROWN CLAP A HAND HEFLAVOR'S GRAND

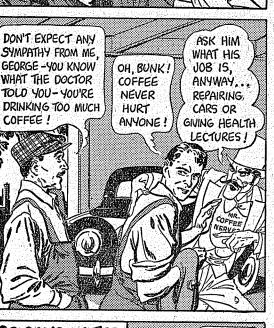

milk or cream, contains more varied nourishment than many a hearty meal. Try it-your grocer has it! Product of General Foods.

George repairs his Disposition

YOU WRAP A

WRENCH

Postum for 30 days. Postum contains no caffein. It is simply whole wheat and bran, roasted and slightly sweetened. It's easy to make, and costs less than half a cent a cup. Postum is a delicious drink . . . and may prove a real help. A product of General Foods. FREE! Let us send you your first week's supply of Postum free! Simply mail the coupon GENERAL FOODS, Battle Creek, Mich. W. N. U. - 8 30 38

Send me, without obligation, a week's supply of Postum:

Fill in completely—print name and address
This offer expirts December 31, 1935

you are dressed/I will bring your

FOR NEW READERS: THE STORY FROM THE OPENING CHAPTER

Matt Kearney, young American living in London, says good-by to his sister Eileen, on board the Wallaroo, which let the still get too hot and build up conveying £2,000,000 in gold to Australia Inspector Dawson Haig, of Scotland Yard, very much in love with Eileen, too much pressure. How this careless convinced opium is concealed in Jo Lung's warehouse, delegates Kearney, with Detective Norwich, to visit the place and find out what he can. While there Kearney picks up a notebook. Yu'an Hee See, whom Haig has long been seeking international thieves, is at Jo Lung's. Discovering the loss of his notebook, he sends two men after Norwich and Kearney, one of whom he realizes must have picked it up. Norwich is found murdered. Haig is puzzled over cryptic notes in the book. While he is poring over them, a weird creature enters, seizes the book, and escapes. At ful cracking process was patented by arseilles the inspector boards the Wallaroo, disguised. From radio messages he decodes, he realizes many on board Shuddering, Eileen dropped the strange robe which had enveloped her when she had awakened, and stepped into the bath.

Shuddering, Eileen dropped the are members of Yu'an's gang and have recognized him. A Chinaman tries to throw Haig overboard but goes over himself. At Port Said Haig is lured into a "bath of feathers." Eileen disappears. Haig escapes the trap, and shoots Joseph, one of the plotters. Eileen, drugged, regains consciousness in Yu'an's headquarters. Haig takes Joseph's papers, and reports Eileen's kidnaping to the British consul. Yu'an and Aswami Pasha, his lieutenant, intend to capture or sink the pressure. Wallaroo. Using Joseph's credentials, Haig makes his way to Keneh.

