

MEDFORD HOUSING AUTHORITY
GRIEVANCE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR STATE-AIDED PUBLIC HOUSING

1. GENERAL OVERVIEW

State law requires each local housing authority to have a grievance procedure of which the purpose shall be the prompt and reliable determination of grievances.

A. Applicability -- This grievance procedure is available to state-aided public housing tenants, and to individuals who file appeals pursuant to 760 CMR 8.00 (Privacy and Confidentiality).

B. Definition of a Grievance

1. Tenancy Related -- An allegation by a tenant that the Medford Housing Authority (hereinafter, the MHA) or a MHA employee has acted or failed to act in accordance with the tenant's lease or any statute, regulation, or rule regarding the conditions of tenancy and the alleged action or failure to act has adversely affected the status, rights, duties or welfare of the tenant or a household member;

2. Personal Data Related -- An appeal pursuant to 760 CMR 8.05 by a data subject who objects, with respect data held by the MHA, to the accuracy, completeness, pertinence, timeliness, relevance, use, or dissemination of his/her personal data; or who objects to the MHA's denial of access to his/her personal data.

3. Other -- Any dispute which a tenant may have with respect to MHA action or failure to act in accordance with MHA policies, rules, and regulations, which adversely affects the individual tenant's rights, duties, welfare, or status.

4. Except that the following shall not be subject to a grievance:

- i. The meaning of a statute, regulation, or rule.
- ii. A dispute between a tenant and another tenant or household member, in which the MHA is not involved.
- iii. Any grievance filed by a tenant on behalf of another tenant or any household member of another tenant.

2. INITIATION OF A GRIEVANCE

- A. Lease Termination -- A grievance regarding whether good cause exists for terminating a lease shall be initiated by a tenant in writing, and shall be mailed (postmarked) or delivered to the MHA at its main office within seven (7) days after notice of lease termination has been given to the tenant by the MHA.
- B. Other Matter -- A grievance regarding some other matter shall be initiated by a grievant in writing, and shall be mailed (postmarked) or delivered to the MHA at its main office within no more than fourteen (14) days after the date on which the grievant first became aware or should have become aware of the subject matter of the grievance, provided that the MHA shall have discretion to permit a grievance to be initiated late.
- C. Additional Time -- The MHA shall permit additional time for initiation of a grievance if the MHA shall find that there was good reason for late initiation of the grievance and that the late initiation would not cause prejudice to the MHA.
- D. Grievance Hearing Request – When initiating a grievance, the grievant shall submit a signed, written request to the MHA, specifying:
 - 1. The reason for the grievance, and
 - 2. The action or relief sought.

3. GRIEVANCES REGARDING REDETERMINED RENT

- A. In the event that a tenant files a grievance as to the amount of a re-determined rent within fourteen (14) days of the MHA's notice of the re-determined rent, during the informal settlement conference process the tenant shall continue to pay the existing rent then in effect (unless the re-determined rent is lower) until final disposition of the grievance.
- B. Upon final disposition of the grievance, the tenant shall pay any additional amounts determined to have been due but not paid since the effective date set out in the notice of re-determined rent or the MHA shall credit the tenant with any amounts paid but determined not to have been due.

4. INFORMAL SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE

- A. Promptly, following the initiation of a grievance, unless otherwise provided, the MHA's Executive Director or his or her designee shall give the grievant the opportunity to discuss the grievance informally.
- B. Attempts shall be made to settle the grievance informally without the necessity of a grievance hearing. The MHA shall give reasonable advance notice to the grievant and his or her representative (if any) of a time and place for an informal settlement conference, unless such a conference shall have taken place when the grievance was delivered to the MHA.
- C. At the informal settlement conference, the MHA and the grievant may be represented by a lawyer or by a non-lawyer.
- D. Following the informal settlement conference, a summary of such discussion shall be prepared within a reasonable time and one copy shall be given to the tenant and one retained in the MHA's tenant file. The summary shall specify the names of the participants, dates of meeting, the nature of the proposed disposition of the complaint and the specific reasons therefor.
- E. If the grievance is resolved at the informal settlement conference, the MHA and grievant shall acknowledge the terms of the resolution in writing, and no formal grievance hearing shall be held.
- F. Failure to attend an informal settlement conference shall not affect a grievant's right to a formal grievance hearing.

5. RIGHT TO A FORMAL HEARING AND HEARING EXCLUSIONS

- A. Hearing Officer -- The MHA's impartial hearing officer, shall be a person other than the person who made or approved the action under review or a subordinate of such person.  - b. Has unlawfully threatened to cause serious physical harm to any member of a tenant household or an MHA employee, or any person lawfully on the MHA's property,

In the event that the MHA has reason to believe that a guest of a tenant or a guest of a household member had engaged in any of the behavior listed in the subparagraphs above (a) through (h) where the tenant knew or should have known that there was a reasonable possibility that the guest would engage in misconduct.

6. HEARING DATE AND NOTICE OF HEARING

- A. Scheduling -- The MHA shall schedule a formal grievance hearing to determine whether good cause exists for terminating a lease within fourteen (14) days or as soon as reasonably practical after the date on which the MHA receives the grievance. A hearing of a grievance regarding any other issue, shall be scheduled as soon as reasonably convenient following receipt of the grievance.

1. As such, the MHA shall set a date for the hearing no more than thirty (30) days from the date of the request for a hearing (or as soon as practicable thereafter) and at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date of termination.
 2. The MHA shall give the grievant and his or her representative (if any) reasonable advance written notice of the date, time, and place at least seven (7) days before the hearing.
- B. Treatment of Additional Reasons for Termination -- At the formal hearing, any additional reason(s) for termination of the lease, which arose subsequent to the date of the notice of termination, shall be considered:

- C. Suspension of Eviction Proceedings pending the Hearing -- In lease terminations, if the grievant is entitled to request a grievance hearing and has made a timely request, the MHA shall not file a summary process Summons and Complaint seeking an eviction pending the hearing and a Decision or other resolution in the MHA's favor.

Both the grievant and the MHA shall be notified of the determination by the hearing officer; provided however, that a determination that the grievant has waived his/her right to a hearing shall not constitute a waiver of any right the grievant may have to contest the MHA's disposition of the grievance in an appropriate judicial proceeding.

7. PRE-HEARING EXAMINATION OF RELEVANT DOCUMENTS

- A. Prior to a grievance hearing, the MHA shall give the grievant or his or her Representative a reasonable opportunity to examine MHA documents, including records and regulations, that are directly relevant to the grievance.

- B. Following a timely request, the MHA shall provide copies of such documents to the grievant and, for good cause (including financial hardship), may waive the charge for the copies.
- C. If the MHA does not make the document available for examination upon request by the complainant, the MHA may not rely on such document at the grievance hearing. If the MHA does not make such documents available for examination upon request by the tenant and the hearing is regarding termination of tenancy or eviction, the MHA may not proceed with the eviction.

8. PERSONS ENTITLED TO BE PRESENT

- A. The grievance hearing shall be private unless the grievant requests in writing that it be open to the public.
- B. If the grievant requests an open hearing, the hearing shall be open to the public unless the hearing officer otherwise orders.

3. Both the grievant and the MHA shall be entitled to question each other's witnesses.
- B. Procedures at the hearing shall be informal, and formal rules of evidence shall not apply.
- C. The hearing shall be tape-recorded by the MHA and may be tape-recorded by the grievant.

- F. The hearing officer may request the MHA or grievant to produce additional information which is relevant to the issues or which is necessary for a decision to be made provided that the other party is provided an opportunity to respond to such additional information.
- G. The tapes of the hearing shall be maintained by the MHA until any applicable appeals have been decided. During that time, grievant or his or her representative may listen to the tapes at the MHA's offices.

10. WRITTEN DECISION BY THE HEARING OFFICER

- C. The decision shall be based on the evidence at the grievance hearing and such additional information as may have been provided to the hearing officer at his or her request.
- D. The MHA shall forthwith mail or otherwise deliver a copy of the decision to the grievant and his or her representative (if any).

- E. A copy of the decision (with names and personally identifiable information deleted) shall thereafter be maintained at the MHA and shall be open to public inspection.

11. REVIEW BY THE MHA's BOARD

- A. Availability of MHA Board Review –Either the grievant or the LHA may appeal the hearing officer’s decision to the MHA Board. However MHA Board review of a decision of the hearing officer is NOT available for grievances:

- B. Such request must be made in writing by the grievant within fourteen (14) days of mailing or other delivery of the decision of the Board.
- C. DHCD shall review the decision of the Board and shall render a written Decision upholding, setting aside, or modifying the decision of the Board.
- D. DHCD shall mail copies of its decision to the MHA and the grievant or to their attorneys.

13. EFFECT OF A DECISION ON A GRIEVANT

- A. The decision on a grievance shall be binding between the MHA and the grievant with respect to the particular circumstances involved in the grievance, provided that if a court has jurisdiction to determine a matter which has been subject to decision on a grievance, the court's determination on the matter shall supersede the decision on the grievance.
- B. The fact that a person may have failed to grieve a matter shall not affect any such jurisdiction by a court.
- C. As between the MHA and any person who was not a grievant, the decision on a grievance shall have no binding effect.
- D. Except as otherwise provided herein, in the event the hearing officer's decision on a grievance determines that good cause exists for terminating the lease, the MHA may, upon receipt of the decision, file a summary process summons and complaint, and there shall be no further review by the Board or DHCD.

APPENDIX B- Grievance Procedure Provisions for a Single Hearing Officer

(1) Appointment of Hearing Officers and Jurisdiction. This grievance procedure adopted by the Medford Housing Authority (MHA) requires a hearing and determination of a matter subject to the procedure by a single hearing officer. The hearing officer shall be appointed to serve for a term not to exceed seven years and shall serve all residents of state-aided public housing in the city or town.

Under this procedure the LHA shall from time to time nominate one or more persons to serve as hearing officer(s) to preside at and conduct hearings and to render prompt and reliable written determinations of matters at issue. The MHA shall submit its written nomination(s) for hearing officer(s) to each affected Local Tenant Organization (LTO). Each nomination shall include a resume of the nominee and the length of the term for which he or she is nominated. Within five days of receipt of a nomination any affected LTO may make a written request to the LHA to interview the nominee. Following such a request for an interview by an affected LTO, the MHA shall make prompt arrangements for an interview between the nominee and the LTO(s) which made the request. Within thirty days after the receipt of a nomination or within five days after its interview of a nominee, whichever is later, any affected LTO may approve or disapprove the nominee by giving written notice to the LHA. A notice of disapproval shall include the specific reason(s) why the LTO disapproved the nominee. If all affected LTO(s) shall approve a nominee or if no affected LTO shall disapprove a nominee within the requisite time, the nominee shall thereupon become a hearing officer upon written acceptance mailed or delivered to the LHA which shall notify the LTO(s).

Each hearing officer shall annually certify to the LHA that he or she is ready, willing and able to serve; failure to so certify within ten (10) days of receipt of a written request by the LHA shall render the hearing officer's position vacant.

(2) Impartiality of the Hearing Officer. A hearing officer or a member of his or her family shall not have and shall not appear to have any direct personal or financial interest in the outcome of any matter before him or her. No hearing officer shall be related by blood or marriage to any party or to any person who gives evidence as to facts which are disputed by the parties. No hearing officer may determine matters which directly concern his or her own housing or the housing of a family member or his or her own status or the status of a family member in that housing. Each hearing officer shall determine any matter at issue impartially and objectively on the basis of the evidence and applicable law. Any hearing officer, who shall be or shall appear to be unable to determine any matter impartially and objectively shall remove himself or herself as hearing officer, whether or not he has been requested to do so.

(3) Removal of the Hearing Officer. A hearing officer may be permanently removed from office at any time for inefficiency, neglect of duty, willful and material delay of proceedings, bias, or partiality. The LHA and the affected LTO(s) may agree on removal after notice to the hearing officer and the opportunity for him or her to be heard. In the absence of agreement, the Department may remove a hearing officer for cause upon a request by the LHA or the LTO. Prior to removing a hearing officer, the Department shall require a detailed written specification of the reason(s) for removal and, if it finds the specification to set out good and sufficient cause, shall give the hearing officer, the LHA and the LTO(s) the opportunity to be heard. The Department's decision whether to remove a hearing officer shall be in writing mailed to the hearing officer, the LHA, and the LTO(s). If a written specification fails to detail good and sufficient cause for removal, the Department shall deny a request for removal without a hearing.

(4) Appointments of Interim Hearing Officers. If there shall not be a hearing officer able and willing to serve for one or more pending matters and if use of the appointment process in section (1) of this grievance procedure would likely cause significant delay with potential adverse consequences to either the LHA or the grievant, the LHA with notice to the affected LTO(s) may request that an interim hearing officer be named by the Department. Such a request shall be in writing and shall specify the reason for the request. The affected LTO(s) shall be given a reasonable opportunity to comment on the request. If the Department finds there to be a reasonable need for an interim hearing officer, the Department shall name an interim hearing officer. The Department may name a previously disapproved nominee to serve as interim hearing officer if it finds that the LTO's stated reasons for disapproval did not constitute good and sufficient cause for disapproving the nominee.

An interim hearing officer shall have all the powers and duties of a hearing officer and shall serve in the pending matters for which he or she was appointed. An interim hearing officer may be nominated by an LHA to be hearing officer in the manner set out herein.

(5) Scheduling. The LHA shall be responsible for scheduling and other administrative matters, including all necessary notices.

(6) Procedural Provisions. The provisions of 760 CMR 6.08(4) are incorporated by reference into this grievance procedure. These provisions include: (a) the provisions regarding the time and method for initiating a grievance; (b) the requirement of a pre-hearing informal settlement conference between 4 grievant and the LHA about the grievance; (c) the provisions regarding the LHA's setting a hearing date and giving notice to grievant; (d) the grievant's right to inspect relevant documents and to secure copies before the grievance hearing; (e) the provisions regarding who may be present at the grievance hearing; (f) the procedural requirements for the conduct of grievance hearings; and (g) the requirements regarding a written decision following the grievance hearing.
