PRESS RELEASE
CITY OF MILAN HIRES NEW DPW DIRECTOR

Stan Kirton has taken on the position of Department of Public Works Director for the City of Milan. Kirton, of Ypsilanti, previously worked for the last 30+ years at the City of Ypsilanti where he was the Director of Public Works for the last 10 years.

Milan Mayor Dominic Hamden says that Stan brings a vast knowledge in the area of public works to the city. "He has knowledge of managing daily operations as well as many regional connections, which will make for a smooth transition. I'm very happy to have Stan as part of the city's management team."

Kirton will be the first full time DPW director that the City has had in over a decade and this dedicated position will benefit the City greatly.

Jade Smith, City Administrator, believes that Kirton is a smart choice for Milan. "The city is very excited to have such great talent join our staff. This a great opportunity for both the City and for Stan and I am confident that he will be a great addition to the administrative team and will work well with the residents and business."

There will be an opportunity to meet Stan before the Milan City Council meeting on September 24th at 7:00 in the City Council Chambers located at 147 Wabash
