MOUNT LAUREL TOWNSHIP PROCLAIMS MONTH OF JUNE PRIDE MONTH

Mount Laurel, NJ --- On Monday June 13, Mount Laurel Township Council proclaimed June 2022 as Pride Month. The month serves to celebrate the contributions the LGBTQ+ community has made on America’s history and culture.

Pride Month is celebrated in June to honor the 1969 Stonewall Uprising that took place in New York City. This June marks the fifty-third anniversary of the uprising, and Township Council celebrates the community for their strength, perseverance, and contributions to our society.

“Pride month reminds us of the strength of the LGBTQ+ community and their determination to create a society that is safe, free, and supportive. We have zero tolerance for discrimination in any form, as we value our rich diversity.” Stated Mayor Pritchett.

The LGBTQ+ community continues to face hostility and prejudices despite the significant steps towards equality our society has made. The Township and Township Council remain committed to the LGBTQ+ community by creating an environment where individuals feel empowered and supported.

“Township Council stands united with LGBTQ+ communities as they continue to fight for the equality they deserve. Every resident in our community deserves to feel supported and welcomed in the place they call home. ” Deputy Mayor Steglik said.

The resolution will take effect immediately.
