THE STORY BEHIND CHARLIE'S KITCHEN

Charlie's Kitchen is a tribute to the legacy of Charles and Marie Kritz's son Charlie Jr., a Mount Laurel Township volunteer firefighter who died in 1998 after a brave fight with cancer. Charlie Jr. was known for his work preparing holiday meals in his own kitchen for families in need.

After the 37-year-old's death, his parents, Charlie and Marie Kritz, both members of the Mount Laurel Fire Department/Fellowship Fire Company #2 and Mount Laurel EMS, continued this annual tradition, supported by Mount Laurel EMS, Burlington County Professional Fire Fighters IAFF Local 3091, and Mount Laurel Professional Fire Fighters IAFF Local 4408.

To carry on this tradition and in memory of Charlie, Marie, and Charlie, Jr., we continue to join efforts to provide assistance by collecting and donating non-perishable food and personal items, to families in Burlington County. Our Local has proudly supported this cause for the past 18 years and has collected over $45,000 worth of food.

We hope you will continue to assist us in this charitable endeavor. We will be collecting and donating for both Thanksgiving and Christmas. ALICE PAUL CENTER FOR GENDER JUSTICE MAKES ITS DEBUT

On Thursday, September 26th the Alice Paul Institute held their 40th Anniversary Gala at the National Constitution Center. The Institute celebrated 40 years of equality, education, and empowerment.

During the event the Institute announced they will now be known as the Alice Paul Center for Gender Justice. The new name reflects a major shift in identity for the organization, signaling that APC's 40-year commitment to advocating for women's rights is now a much broader mission, clearly embracing the intersectionality of the people they fight for. The Alice Paul Center's work has many facets. From a wide range of public events, to advocacy efforts focused on the passage of the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA), to youth education initiatives including the transformative Girls' Leadership Council for New Jersey high school students, APC is a constant hive of activity, all rooted in history.

Paulsdale, Alice Paul's family home, is the first national historic landmark dedicated to a woman that is open to the public in the state of New Jersey. Today the home offers the public educational materials and programs on Alice Paul's life and the struggle to secure women's suffrage.

You can visit Paulsdale at 128 Hooton Rd, Mt Laurel Township, NJ. To get involved with APC education and advocacy efforts, contact info@alicepaul.org or call (856) 231-1885
