Q11

Do you have any additional feedback for this project?

It is important that community know the direction and this doesn't mean just expecting them to come to advisory meetings. It means schedule accommodation and going to extra mile to get the information out through known ways that are already used in the community. This includes through groups and people who have constant contact.

Do you have any additional feedback for this project?

The residents of Duffyfield must understand that the Stanley White Recreation Center belongs to New Bern as a whole not just their community.

Let's use the rebuilding of the Stanley White Recreation Center as an opportunity to unite all New Bern residents, and create "One New Bern", where we all Live, work and play in harmony".
