

MARCH 2022

GOOD NEIGHBOR AWARD HONOREES

Donna Dohrman

Nominated by Anonymous

Donna is an angel in our Huron Crossing neighborhood and city at large. She takes care of seniors regularly that are part of her church community, Immaculate Heart of Mary. She participates in cleanup days and other volunteer activities. She checks in on her neighbors, and watches out for them and their homes. Donna puts smiles on the faces of kids and adults.

Jerry Downs

Nominated by Virginia Herrera

“

They shovel my driveway and my sidewalk. I don't know what I'd do without them. My husband passed away in September and they've been so wonderful.

Andrew and Tina Guerrero

Nominated by Debra Durant

Andrew and Tina were our neighbors for 20 years. We enjoyed our conversations and always shared our garden harvest with them. After my husband Wayne got sick, Andrew mowed our lawn for us. Tina always checked to see if I needed anything. I appreciated your help and your friendship and hope to continue. Love you guys!

Royce Hanavan

Nominated by David Wilhelm

“

I've been neighbors with Royce since '96. He does my snow shoveling. He's just there for me all the time and even our neighbor next to him, he shovels her walk. Whenever I have a problem in the house, Royce is always here for me. He's the best, that guy is something else!

Shona Hansen

Nominated by Harrell and Patricia Johnson

“

She has been very helpful to my husband and I during the cold and snowy weather, making sure our sidewalks are shoveled and we don't need anything. Very friendly and neighborly all through the year! My husband is 80 years old and I'm almost that.

Brandon and Courtney Mericle

“

Brandon and Courtney have been good neighbors to my late husband Wayne and I for about 4 years. They have two young daughters that Wayne just adored. Brandon helped Wayne with putting in part of the fence between our houses. After Wayne got sick they always checked in on us and after Wayne passed away Brandon and Courtney helped me move. Couldn't have done it without you!

Brent Ramig

Nominated by Karen Liberato, Megan Posey,
Marsha Houdeshell and Maggie Rechura

2022

“He is the kindest, most giving person and would do anything for anybody. Brent is the neighbor everyone would want! He is always the first person to stop and help a neighbor if they need help carrying in a refrigerator, removing snow or jumping your car. He is so incredibly selfless and deserves to be recognized! He also lends us power tools to help with our projects. I truly wish more people were like Brent. That's what we need in this world today are people like him.

Jonathon and Daisy Viera

Jonathon and Daisy have been good neighbors to my late husband Wayne and I for many years. Jonathon was available to help with little projects. They were always available for a cocktail and good conversation. They welcomed us to their family celebrations and made us feel at home. After Wayne got ill, they helped with mowing the lawn, taking items to the goodwill and taking us to an appointment at the hospital. Couldn't have gotten through it all without you guys!
