Attempted Murder

On January 17, 2017 at 11:00 pm, officers of the Northglenn Police Department were dispatched to the 11800 block of North Washington Street on the report of shots fired. Officers made contact with the victim in the 100 block of East 120th Avenue. The victim stated two men began breaking out his vehicle windows while he was sitting in a parking lot on North Washington Street. As the victim fled the area the suspects fired several shots.

The victim fled to the 100 block of East 120th Avenue where he was once again approached by the two suspects who pointed a gun at him.

The suspect vehicle, a red Pontiac Sunfire, struck a curb and the suspects fled on foot. The suspects are described as two young Hispanic males wearing dark clothing.

There are no reported injuries.

This case is currently under investigation by the Northglenn Police Department. If you have any information regarding this incident please contact Detective Rick Williams at 303-450-8879.
