NEW BUSINESS

1. Term Limits

Mr. Kasaris said that when we last met, it was determined that we take a month to think about this and get input from the residents and come back in September to decide how to proceed. Mr. Kasaris asked if anyone has changed their mind based on what was discussed last month. The members of Council indicated that they had not changed their minds. Mr. Kasaris said that when we last met the anticipated vote on this measure was 4 in favor, 3 against. He said that we need 5 affirmative votes to place this on the ballot and it appears that we do not have the votes to proceed. Mr. Kasaris said that therefore he sees no reason to move forward with the legislation on Second Reading. He said that he is the sole sponsor of the legislation and is hereby withdrawing his sponsorship to Ordinances 18-87, 18-88 and 18-89. He felt that perhaps this could be taken up with the Charter Review Commission when they next convene.
