NATURE OF THE REQUEST FOR APPEAL

Section _____ of the Town of Ocean Ridge Code requires _____

The applicant requests an appeal of the Planning & Zoning Commission's decision for the following reasons (summarize here, and attach detailed description of the basis for the challenge as Exhibit C):

The Applicant shall provide complete facts and circumstances which the Applicant believes constitute a violation of the Town's Land Development Code (LDC), and a clear description of the LDC section(s) which are alleged to have been violated.

The information provided shall be used by the Town Commission in determining probable cause to believe the Planning & Zoning Commission's decision in the matter described. The Town Commission shall make an initial determination regarding probable cause. If a finding of "no probable cause" is determined, the hearing shall thereafter be adjourned, and the aggrieved party shall have a further right to file a Petition for Writ of Certiorari with the Circuit Court, in and for Palm Beach County, Florida.

If "probable cause" is found by the Town Commission, the appellant shall immediately bring his/her case forward. While deemed an "appeal", the hearing before the Town Commission shall be a quasi-judicial, evidentiary hearing, with the right to present and confront all evidence and witnesses. The Commission shall observe fundamental due process requirements, including notice and the right to be heard. However, the Florida Rules of Evidence and Rules of Civil or Appellate Procedure shall not be so strictly enforced as to prohibit relevant hearsay or other relevant information coming before the Commission. The appellant and the Planning & Zoning Commission shall each have one half (1/2) hour within which to present their respective cases, unless otherwise determined by the Town Commission. The Town Commission shall thereafter be free to question either party and shall decide the matter after making "findings of fact" and "determination of law". Any decision of the Town Commission shall be appealed, if at all, within thirty (30) days of being rendered, in writing, as provided by law and Rules of Appellate Procedure.
