Chapter 1

OVERVIEW OF THE PROGRAM AND PLAN

INTRODUCTION

The Oklahoma City Housing Authority (OCHA) receives its operating subsidy for the public housing program from the Department of Housing and Urban Development. OCHA is not a federal department or agency. A public housing agency (OCHA) is a governmental or public body, created and authorized by state law to develop and operate housing and housing programs for low-income families. OCHA enters into an Annual Contributions Contract with HUD to administer the public housing program. OCHA must ensure compliance with federal laws, regulations and notices and must establish policies and procedures to clarify federal requirements and to ensure consistency in program operation.

This chapter contains information about OCHA and its programs with emphasis on the public housing program. It also contains information about the purpose, intent and use of the plan and guide.

There are three parts to this chapter:

Part I: The Oklahoma City Housing Authority (OCHA). This part includes a description of OCHA, its jurisdiction, its programs, and its mission and intent.

Part II: The Public Housing Program. This part contains information about public housing operation, roles and responsibilities, and partnerships.

Part III: The Admissions and Continued Occupancy (ACOP). This part discusses the purpose and organization of the plan and its revision requirements.

PART I: OCHA

1-I.A. OVERVIEW

This part describes OCHA’s creation and authorization, the general structure of the organization, and the relationship between OCHA Board and staff.
1-I.B. ORGANIZATION AND STRUCTURE OF OCHA

Public housing is funded by the federal government and administered by the Oklahoma City Housing Authority for the jurisdiction of the City of Oklahoma City.

OCHA is governed by a board of officials that are generally called “commissioners.” Although some PHAs may use a different title for their officials, this document will hitherto refer to the “Board of Commissioners” or the “Board” when discussing the board of governing officials.

The Board of Commissioners are appointed in accordance with state housing law and generally serve in the same capacity as the directors of a corporation. The Board of Commissioners establishes policies under which OCHA conducts business, and ensures that those policies are followed by OCHA staff. The board is responsible for preserving and expanding the agency’s resources and assuring the agency’s continued viability and success.

Formal actions of OCHA are taken through written resolutions, adopted by the Board and entered into the official records of OCHA.

The principal staff member of OCHA is the Executive Director (ED), who is selected and hired by the Board. The ED oversees the day to day operations of OCHA and is directly responsible for carrying out the policies established by the commissioners. The ED’s duties include hiring, training, and supervising OCHA’s staff, as well as budgeting and financial planning for the agency. Additionally, the ED is charged with ensuring compliance with federal and state laws, and program mandates.
1-I.C. OCHA MISSION

The purpose of a mission statement is to communicate the purpose of the agency to people inside and outside of the agency. It provides the basis for strategy development, identification of critical success factors, resource allocation decisions, as well as ensuring client and stakeholder satisfaction.

OCHA Policy

The Oklahoma Housing Authority’s mission is to provide affordable, decent, safe, and sanitary housing or housing assistance, with quality environments and opportunities to low income people of Oklahoma City.
1-I.D. OCHA’S COMMITMENT TO ETHICS AND SERVICE

As a public service agency, OCHA is committed to providing excellent service to all public housing applicants, residents, and the public. In order to provide superior service, OCHA resolves to:

- Administer applicable federal and state laws and regulations to achieve high ratings in compliance measurement indicators while maintaining efficiency in program operation to ensure fair and consistent treatment of clients served.
- Provide decent, safe, and sanitary housing in good repair – in compliance with program uniform physical condition standards – for very low- and low-income families.
- Achieve a healthy mix of incomes in its public housing developments by attracting and retaining higher income families and by working toward deconcentration of poverty goals.
- Encourage self-sufficiency of participant families and assist in the expansion of family opportunities which address educational, socio-economic, recreational and other human services needs.
- Promote fair housing and the opportunity for very low- and low-income families of all races, ethnicities, national origins, religions, ethnic backgrounds, and with all types of disabilities, to participate in the public housing program and its services.
- Create positive public awareness and expand the level of family and community support in accomplishing OCHA’s mission.
- Attain and maintain a high level of standards and professionalism in day-to-day management of all program components.
- Administer an efficient, high-performing agency through continuous improvement of OCHA’s support systems and commitment to our employees and their development.

OCHA will make every effort to keep residents informed of program rules and regulations, and to advise participants of how the program rules affect them.
PART II: THE PUBLIC HOUSING PROGRAM

1-II.A. OVERVIEW AND HISTORY OF THE PROGRAM

The intent of this section is to provide the public and staff an overview of the history and operation of public housing.

The United States Housing Act of 1937 (the “Act”) is responsible for the birth of federal housing program initiatives, known as public housing. The Act was intended to provide financial assistance to states and cities for public works projects, slum clearance and the development of affordable housing for low-income residents. There have been many changes to the program since its inception in 1937.

The Housing Act of 1965 established the availability of federal assistance, administered through local public agencies, to provide rehabilitation grants for home repairs and rehabilitation. This act also created the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

The Housing Act of 1969 created an operating subsidy for the public housing program for the first time. Until that time, public housing was a self-sustaining program.

In 1998, the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act (QHWRA) – also known as the Public Housing Reform Act or Housing Act of 1998 – was signed into law. Its purpose was to provide more private sector management guidelines to the public housing program and provide residents with greater choices. It also allowed OCHA more remedies to replace or revitalize severely distressed public housing developments. Highlights of the Reform Act include: the establishment of flat rents; the requirement for OCHA to develop five-year and annual plans; income targeting, a requirement that 40% of all new admissions in public housing during any given fiscal year be reserved for extremely low-income families; and resident self-sufficiency incentives.
1-II.B. PUBLIC HOUSING PROGRAM BASICS

HUD writes and publishes regulations in order to implement public housing laws enacted by Congress. HUD contracts with OCHA to administer programs in accordance with HUD regulations and provides an operating subsidy to OCHA. OCHA must create written policies that are consistent with HUD regulations. Among these policies is OCHA’s Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy (ACOP). The ACOP must be approved by the board of commissioners of OCHA.

The job of OCHA pursuant to HUD regulations is to provide decent, safe, and sanitary housing, in good repair, to low-income families at an affordable rent. OCHA screens applicants for public housing and, if they are determined to be eligible for the program, OCHA makes an offer of a housing unit. If the applicant accepts the offer, OCHA and the applicant will enter into a written lease agreement. At this point, the applicant becomes a tenant in the public housing program.

In the context of the public housing program, a tenant is defined as the adult person(s) (other than a live-in aide who (1) executed the lease with OCHA as lessee of the dwelling unit, or, if no such person now resides in the unit, (2) who resides in the unit, and who is the remaining head of household of the tenant family residing in the dwelling unit. [24 CFR 966.53]. The Public Housing Occupancy Guidebook refers to tenants as “residents.” The terms “tenant” and “resident” are used interchangeably in this policy. Additionally, this policy uses the term “family” or “families” for residents or applicants, depending on context.

Since OCHA owns the public housing development, OCHA is the landlord. OCHA must comply with all of the legal and management responsibilities of a landlord in addition to administering the program in accordance with HUD regulations and OCHA policy.

1-II.C. PUBLIC HOUSING PARTNERSHIPS

To administer the public housing program, OCHA must enter into an Annual Contributions Contract (ACC) with HUD. OCHA also enters into a contractual relationship with the tenant through the public housing lease. These contracts define and describe the roles and responsibilities of each party.

In addition to the ACC, OCHA and family must also comply with federal regulations and other HUD publications and directives. For the program to work and be successful, all parties involved – HUD, OCHA, and the tenant – play an important role.

Family (Tenant)
What does HUD do?
Federal law is the source of HUD responsibilities. HUD has the following major responsibilities:

- Develop regulations, requirements, handbooks, notices and other guidance to implement housing legislation passed by Congress
- Allocate operating subsidies to OCHA
- Allocate capital funding to OCHA
- Provide technical assistance to OCHAs on interpreting and applying program requirements
- Monitor OCHA compliance with program requirements and OCHA performance in program administration.

What does OCHA do?
OCHA’s responsibilities originate in federal regulations and the ACC. OCHA owns and manages public housing developments, administers the program under contract with HUD and has the following major responsibilities:

- Ensure compliance with all non-discrimination, equal opportunity, and fair housing laws, and ensure that the program is accessible to persons with disabilities
- Establish local policies and procedures for operating the program
- Accept applications from interested applicant families and determine whether they are income eligible for the program
- Maintain waiting list and select families for admission
- Screen applicant families for suitability as renters
- Maintain housing units by making any necessary repairs in a timely manner
- Make unit offers to families (minimize vacancies without overcrowding)
- Maintain properties to the standard of decent, safe, sanitary, and in good repair (including assuring compliance with uniform physical conditions standards)
- Make sure OCHA has adequate financial resources to maintain its housing stock
- Perform regular reexaminations of family income and composition in accordance with HUD requirements
- Collect rent due from the assisted family and comply with and enforce provisions of the lease
- Ensure that families comply with program rules
- Provide families with prompt and professional service
- Comply with HUD regulations and requirements, the Annual Contributions Contract, HUD-approved applications for funding, OCHA’s ACOP, and other applicable federal, state and local laws.
What does the tenant do?

The tenant’s responsibilities are articulated in the public housing lease. The tenant has the following broad responsibilities:

- Comply with the terms of the lease and OCHA house rules, as applicable
- Provide OCHA with complete and accurate information, determined by OCHA to be necessary for administration of the program
- Cooperate in attending all appointments scheduled by OCHA
- Allow OCHA to inspect the unit at reasonable times and after reasonable notice
- Take responsibility for care of the housing unit, including any violations of uniform physical condition standards caused by the family
- Not engage in drug-related or violent criminal activity
- Notify OCHA before moving or termination of the lease
- Use the assisted unit only for residence and as the sole residence of the family. The assisted unit may not be sublet or assign the lease
- Promptly notify OCHA of any changes in family composition
- Promptly notify OCHA of any changes in income
- Not commit fraud, bribery, or any other corrupt or criminal act in connection with any housing programs
- Take care of the housing unit and report maintenance problems to OCHA promptly

If all parties fulfill their obligations in a professional and timely manner, the program responsibilities will be fulfilled in an effective manner.
1-II.D. APPLICABLE REGULATIONS
Applicable regulations include:

- 24 CFR Part 5: General Program Requirements
- 24 CFR Part 8: Nondiscrimination
- 24 CFR Part 35: Lead-Based Paint
- 24 CFR Part 902: Public Housing Assessment System
- 24 CFR Part 903: Public Housing Agency Plans
- 24 CFR Part 945: Designated Housing
- 24 CFR Part 960: Admission and Occupancy Policies
- 24 CFR Part 966: Lease and Grievance Procedures PART III: THE ADMISSIONS AND CONTINUED OCCUPANCY POLICIES

1-III.A. OVERVIEW AND PURPOSE OF THE POLICY

The ACOP is OCHA’s written statement of policies used to carry out the housing program in accordance with federal law and regulations, and HUD requirements. The ACOP is required by HUD and it must be available for public review [CFR 24 Part 903]. The ACOP also contains policies that support the objectives contained in OCHA’s Agency Plan.

All issues related to public housing not addressed in this ACOP are governed by federal regulations, HUD handbooks and guidebooks, notices and applicable state and local laws. The policies in this ACOP have been designed to ensure compliance with the consolidated ACC and all HUD-approved applications for program funding. OCHA is responsible for complying with all changes in HUD regulations pertaining to public housing. If such changes conflict with this plan, HUD regulations will have precedence.

1-III.B. CONTENTS OF THE POLICY

Unlike the housing choice voucher program, HUD regulations for public housing do not contain a list of what must be included in the ACOP. However, individual regulations contain requirements of inclusion in OCHA’s written policy. At a minimum, the ACOP plan should cover OCHA policies on these subjects:

- The organization of the waiting list and how families are selected and offered available units, including any OCHA admission preferences, procedures for removing applicant names from the waiting list, and procedures for closing and reopening OCHA waiting list (Chapters 4 and 5)
- Transfer policies and the circumstances under which a transfer would take precedence over an admission (Chapter 12)
- Standards for determining eligibility, suitability for tenancy, and the size and type of the unit needed (Chapters 3 and 5)
- Procedures for verifying the information the family has provided (Chapter 7)
- The method for achieving deconcentration of poverty and income-mixing of public housing developments (Chapter 4)
- Grievance procedures (Chapter 14)
- Policies concerning payment by a family to OCHA of amounts the family owes OCHA (Chapter 15 and 16)
- Interim redeterminations of family income and composition (Chapter 9)
- Policies regarding community service requirements (Chapter 11)
- Policies and rules about safety and ownership of pets in public housing (Chapter 10).
New Approach to Policy Development

HUD has developed an approach to monitoring OCHA that emphasizes the importance of consistency in operation and decision-making. The ACOP supports that goal by clearly setting forth OCHA’s operating policies.

A primary focus of HUD’s Rental Integrity Monitoring (RIM) program has been consistency in how PHAs conduct their business and in how HUD monitors OCHA activities. Referring to and following the ACOP is essential to maintaining consistency in applying OCHA policy.

HUD makes a distinction between mandatory policies and non-mandatory policies:

- Mandatory policies: those driven by legislation, regulations, current handbooks, current PIH notices, and legal opinions from the Office of General Counsel
- Optional, non-binding guidance: includes guidebooks, FAQs, PIH notices that have expired, and recommendations from individual HUD staff.

HUD expects OCHA to develop policies and procedures that are consistent with mandatory policies and to make clear the optional policies OCHA has adopted. The ACOP is comprised of mandatory policies and optional OCHA policy. HUD’s new direction emphasizes the need for a clearly written and comprehensive ACOP to guide staff in the clear and consistent application of policy.

HUD suggestions, recommendations, written issuances, and guidance are consistent with mandatory federal policy. Therefore, using HUD guidance in the preparation of OCHA policy, even though it is not mandatory, provides OCHA with a “safe harbor.” If a OCHA adopts its own optional policy, it must make its own determination that such policy is consistent with legislation, regulations, and other mandatory requirements. There may be very good reasons for adopting a policy or procedure that is different than that suggested by HUD, but OCHA should carefully think through those decisions and be able to articulate how their policy is consistent with federal laws, regulations and mandatory policy.

1-III.C. UPDATING AND REVISIONING THE POLICY

OCHA will revise this ACOP as needed to comply with changes in HUD regulations. The original policy and any changes must be approved by the board of commissioners of OCHA, the pertinent sections included in the Agency Plan, and a copy provided to HUD.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will review and update the ACOP as needed to reflect changes in regulations, OCHA operations, or when needed to ensure staff consistency in operation.
Chapter 2

FAIR HOUSING AND EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

INTRODUCTION

This chapter explains the laws and HUD regulations requiring PHAs to affirmatively further civil rights and fair housing in all federally-assisted housing programs. The letter and spirit of these laws are implemented through consistent policy and procedures. The responsibility to further nondiscrimination pertains to all areas of OCHA’s public housing operations.

This chapter describes HUD regulations and PHA policies related to these topics in three parts:

Part I: Nondiscrimination. This part presents the body of laws and regulations governing the responsibilities of OCHA regarding nondiscrimination.

Part II: Policies Related to Persons with Disabilities. This part discusses the rules and policies of the public housing program related to reasonable accommodation for persons with disabilities. These rules and policies are based on the Fair Housing Act (42.U.S.C.) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and incorporate guidance from the Joint Statement of The Department of Housing and Urban Development and the Department of Justice (DOJ), issued May 17, 2004.

PART I: NONDISCRIMINATION

2-I.A. OVERVIEW

Federal laws require PHAs to treat all applicants and tenant families equally, providing the same quality of service, regardless of family characteristics and background. Federal law prohibits discrimination in housing on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, familial status, and disability. In addition, HUD regulations provide for additional protections regarding sexual orientation, gender identity, and marital status. OCHA will comply fully with all federal, state, and local nondiscrimination laws, and with rules and regulations governing fair housing and equal opportunity in housing and employment, including:

- Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964
- Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 (as amended by the Community Development Act of 1974 and the Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988)
- Executive Orders 11063 and 13988
- Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973
- The Age Discrimination Act of 1975
- Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (to the extent that it applies, otherwise Section 504 and the Fair Housing Amendments govern)
- The Equal Access to Housing in HUD Programs Regardless of Sexual Orientation or Gender Identity Final Rule, published in the Federal Register February 3, 2012 and further clarified in Notice PIH 2014-20
- The Violence against Women Act of 2013 (VAWA)
- Any applicable state laws or local ordinances and any legislation protecting individual rights of tenants, applicants, or staff that may subsequently be enacted
- The Equal Access to Housing in HUD Programs Regardless of Sexual Orientation or Gender Identity Final Rule, published in the Federal Register February 3, 2012, and further clarified in Notice PIH 2014-20
- The Violence against Women Act (VAWA)

When more than one civil rights law applies to a situation, the laws will be read and applied together.
2-I.B. NONDISCRIMINATION

Federal regulations prohibit discrimination against certain protected classes and other groups of people. State and local requirements, as well as PHA policies, can prohibit discrimination against additional classes of people.

OCHA shall not discriminate because of race, color, sex, religion, familial status, age, disability or national origin (called “protected classes”).

Familial status includes children under the age of 18 living with parents or legal custodians, pregnant women, and people securing custody of children under the age of 18.

OCHA will not discriminate on the basis of marital status, gender identity, or sexual orientation [FR Notice 02/03/12]; Executive Order 13988.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will not use any of these factors to:

- Deny to any family the opportunity to apply for housing, nor deny to any qualified applicant the opportunity to participate in the public housing program
- Provide housing that is different from that provided to others
- Subject anyone to segregation or disparate treatment
- Subject anyone to sexual harassment
- Restrict anyone's access to any benefit enjoyed by others in connection with the housing program
- Treat a person differently in determining eligibility or other requirements for admission
- Steer an applicant or tenant toward or away from a particular area based on any of these factors
- Deny anyone access to the same level of services
- Deny anyone the opportunity to participate in a planning or advisory group that is an integral part of the housing program
- Discriminate in the provision of residential real estate transactions
- Discriminate against someone because they are related to or associated with a member of a protected class
- Publish or cause to be published an advertisement or notice indicating the availability of housing that prefers or excludes persons who are members of a protected class

Providing Information to Families

OCHA must take steps to ensure that families are fully aware of all applicable civil rights laws. As part of the public housing orientation process, OCHA will provide information to public housing applicant families about civil rights requirements.
2-I.C. DISCRIMINATION COMPLAINTS

General Housing Discrimination Complaints

If an applicant or tenant family believes that any family member has been discriminated against by OCHA, the family should advise OCHA. OCHA should make every reasonable attempt to determine whether the applicant or tenant family’s assertions have merit and take any warranted corrective action.

In all cases, OCHA will advise the family that they may file a fair housing complaint if the family feels they have been discriminated against under the Fair Housing Act.

OCHA Policy

Applicants or tenant families who believe that they have been subject to unlawful discrimination may notify OCHA either orally or in writing.

Within 10 business days of receiving the complaint, OCHA will investigate and attempt to remedy discrimination complaints made against the PHA. OCHA will also advise the family of their right to file a fair housing complaint with HUD’s Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity (FHEO). The fair housing poster, posted in conspicuous and accessible locations in PHA lobbies, will reference how to file a complaint with FHEO.

Complaints under the Equal Access Final Rule [Notice PIH 2014-20]

Notice PIH 2014-20 requires an articulated complaint process for allegations of discrimination under the Equal Access Final rule. The Equal Access Final Rule requires that PHAs provide equal access regardless of marital status, gender identity, or sexual orientation. OCHA will be informed on these obligations by the HUD Field Office or FHEO when an Equal Access complaint investigation begins.

OCHA Policy

Applicants or tenant families who believe that they have been subject to unlawful discrimination based on marital status, gender identity, or sexual orientation under the Equal Access Rule may notify OCHA either orally or in writing.

Within 10 business days of receiving the complaint, OCHA will provide a written notice to those alleged to have violated the rule. OCHA will also send a written notice to the complainant informing them that notice was sent to those alleged to have violated the rule, as well as information on how to complete and submit a housing discrimination complaint form to HUD’s Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity (FHEO).

OCHA will attempt to remedy discrimination complaints made against OCHA and will conduct an investigation into all allegations of discrimination.

Within 10 business days following the conclusion of the OCHA’s investigation, OCHA will provide the complainant and those alleged to have violated the rule with findings and either a proposed corrective action plan or an explanation of why corrective action is not warranted.

Revised 6/28/2023
OCHA will keep a record of all complaints, investigations, notices, and corrective actions. (See Chapter 16.)
VAWA Complaint Processing [Notice FHEO 2023-01]

A complainant may, not later than one year after an alleged VAWA violation has occurred or terminated, file a complaint with FHEO alleging such violation. If there is a violation that began prior to a year before the complaint is filed, but it continues into the one-year time period, HUD will accept the complaint. FHEO will investigate the complaint if it is timely and FHEO otherwise has jurisdiction. If a complaint is filed more than one year after the alleged violation occurred or terminated, FHEO may, but is not required to, investigate the allegations under the additional authority and procedures described in FHEO 2023-01.

Complaints do not need to allege a violation of the Fair Housing Act for FHEO to accept and investigate the complaint.

OCHA Policy

Applicants or tenant families who wish to file a VAWA complaint against OCHA may notify OCHA either orally or in writing.

OCHA will advise the family of their right to file a VAWA complaint with HUD’s Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity (FHEO). OCHA will inform the family that not later than one year after an alleged VAWA violation has occurred or terminated, applicants and tenants who believe they have been injured by a VAWA violation or will be injured by such a violation that is about to occur may file a VAWA complaint using FHEO’s online complaint form via mail, email, or telephone.

OCHA will attempt to remedy complaints made against OCHA and will conduct an investigation into all allegations of discrimination.

OCHA will keep a record of all complaints, investigations, notices, and corrective actions. (See Chapter 16.)
PART II: POLICIES RELATED TO PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

2-II.A. OVERVIEW

One type of disability discrimination prohibited by the Fair Housing Act is the refusal to make reasonable accommodation in rules, policies, practices, or services when such accommodation may be necessary to afford a person with a disability the equal opportunity to use and enjoy a program or dwelling under the program.

OCHA must ensure that persons with disabilities have full access to OCHA’s programs and services. This responsibility begins with the first inquiry of an interested family and continues through every programmatic area of the public housing program [24 CFR 8].

OCHA must provide a notice to each tenant that the tenant may, at any time during the tenancy, request reasonable accommodation of a handicap of a household member, including reasonable accommodation so that the tenant can meet lease requirements or other requirements of tenancy [24 CFR 966.7(b)].

OCHA Policy

OCHA will ask all applicants and resident families if they require any type of accommodations, in writing, on the intake application, reexamination documents, and notices of adverse action by OCHA, by including the following language:

“If you or anyone in your family is a person with disabilities, and you require a specific accommodation in order to fully utilize our programs and services, please contact the housing authority.”

A specific position and phone number will be provided as the contact person for requests for accommodation for persons with disabilities.

OCHA will display posters and other housing information and signage in locations throughout OCHA’s office in such a manner as to be easily readable from a wheelchair.

Revised 6/28/2023
2-II.B. DEFINITION OF REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION

A “reasonable accommodation” is a change, exception, or adjustment to a policy, practice or service that may be necessary for a person with a disability to have an equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling, including public and common use spaces. Since policies and services may have a different effect on persons with disabilities than on other persons, treating persons with disabilities exactly the same as others will sometimes deny them an equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling. [Joint Statement of the Departments of HUD and Justice: Reasonable Accommodations under the Fair Housing Act]

Federal regulations stipulate that requests for accommodations will be considered reasonable if they do not create an “undue financial and administrative burden” for OCHA, or result in a “fundamental alteration” in the nature of the program or service offered. A fundamental alteration is a modification that alters the essential nature of a provider’s operations.

Types of Reasonable Accommodations

When it is reasonable (see definition above and Section 2-II.E), OCHA shall accommodate the needs of a person with disabilities. Examples include but are not limited to:

- Permitting applications and reexaminations to be completed by mail
- Providing “large-print” forms
- Conducting home visits
- Permitting a higher utility allowance for the unit if a person with disabilities requires the use of specialized equipment related to the disability
- Modifying or altering a unit or physical system if such a modification or alteration is necessary to provide equal access to a person with a disability
- Installing a ramp into a dwelling or building
- Installing grab bars in a bathroom
- Installing visual fire alarms for hearing impaired persons
- Allowing a PHA-approved live-in aide to reside in the unit if that person is determined to be essential to the care of a person with disabilities, is not obligated for the support of the person with disabilities, and would not be otherwise living in the unit.
- Providing a designated handicapped-accessible parking space
- Allowing an assistance animal
- Permitting an authorized designee or advocate to participate in the application or certification process and any other meetings with PHA staff
- Displaying posters and other housing information in locations throughout OCHA’s office in such a manner as to be easily readable from a wheelchair
2-II.C. REQUEST FOR AN ACCOMMODATION

If an applicant or participant indicates that an exception, change, or adjustment to a rule, policy, practice, or service is needed because of a disability, HUD requires that OCHA treat the information as a request for a reasonable accommodation, even if no formal request is made [Joint Statement of the Departments of HUD and Justice: Reasonable Accommodations under the Fair Housing Act].

The family must explain what type of accommodation is needed to provide the person with the disability full access to OCHA’s programs and services.

If the need for the accommodation is not readily apparent or known to OCHA, the family must explain the relationship between the requested accommodation and the disability.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will encourage the family to make its request in writing using a reasonable accommodation request form. However, OCHA will consider the accommodation any time the family indicates that an accommodation is needed whether or not a formal written request is submitted.
2-II.D. VERIFICATION OF DISABILITY

The regulatory civil rights definition for persons with disabilities is provided in Exhibit 2-1 at the end of this chapter. The definition of a person with a disability for the purpose of obtaining a reasonable accommodation is much broader than the HUD definition of disability which is used for waiting list preferences and income allowances.

Before providing an accommodation, OCHA must determine that the person meets the definition of a person with a disability, and that the accommodation will enhance the family’s access to OCHA’s programs and services.

If a person’s disability is obvious or otherwise known to OCHA, and if the need for the requested accommodation is also readily apparent or known, no further verification will be required [Joint Statement of the Departments of HUD and Justice: Reasonable Accommodations under the Fair Housing Act].

If a family indicates that an accommodation is required for a disability that is not obvious or otherwise known to OCHA, OCHA must verify that the person meets the definition of a person with a disability, and that the limitations imposed by the disability require the requested accommodation.

When verifying a disability, OCHA will follow the verification policies provided in Chapter 7. All information related to a person’s disability will be treated in accordance with the confidentiality policies provided in Chapter 16 (Program Administration). In addition to the general requirements that govern all verification efforts, the following requirements apply when verifying a disability:

- Third-party verification must be obtained from an individual identified by the family who is competent to make the determination. A doctor or other medical professional, a peer support group, a non-medical service agency, or a reliable third party who is in a position to know about the individual’s disability may provide verification of a disability [Joint Statement of the Departments of HUD and Justice: Reasonable Accommodations under the Fair Housing Act].

- OCHA must request only information that is necessary to evaluate the disability-related need for the accommodation. OCHA may not inquire about the nature or extent of any disability.

- Medical records will not be accepted or retained in the participant file.

- In the event that OCHA does receive confidential information about a person’s specific diagnosis, treatment, or the nature or severity of the disability, OCHA will dispose of it. In place of the information, OCHA will note in the file that the disability and other requested information have been verified, the date the verification was received, and the name and address of the knowledgeable professional who sent the information [Notice PIH 2010-26].
2-II.E. APPROVAL/DENIAL OF A REQUESTED ACCOMMODATION [Joint Statement of the Departments of HUD and Justice: Reasonable Accommodations under the Fair Housing Act, Notice PIH 2010-26]

OCHA must approve a request for an accommodation if the following three conditions are met.

- The request was made by or on behalf of a person with a disability.
- There is a disability-related need for the accommodation.
- The requested accommodation is reasonable, meaning it would not impose an undue financial and administrative burden on OCHA, or fundamentally alter the nature of OCHA’s operations.

Requests for accommodations must be assessed on a case-by-case basis. The determination of undue financial and administrative burden must be made on a case-by-case basis involving various factors, such as the overall size of OCHA’s program with respect to the number of employees, type of facilities and size of budget, type of operation including composition and structure of workforce, the nature and cost of the requested accommodation, and the availability of alternative accommodations that would effectively meet the family’s disability-related needs.

Before making a determination whether to approve the request, OCHA may enter into discussion and negotiation with the family, request more information from the family, or may require the family to sign a consent form so that OCHA may verify the need for the requested accommodation.

OCHA Policy

After a request for an accommodation is presented, OCHA will respond, in writing, within 30 business days.

If OCHA denies a request for an accommodation because there is no relationship, or nexus, found between the disability and the requested accommodation, the notice will inform the family of the right to appeal OCHA’s decision through an informal hearing (if applicable) or the grievance process (see Chapter 14).

If OCHA denies a request for an accommodation because it is not reasonable (it would impose an undue financial and administrative burden or fundamentally alter the nature of OCHA’s operations), OCHA will discuss with the family whether an alternative accommodation could effectively address the family’s disability-related needs without a fundamental alteration to the public housing program and without imposing an undue financial and administrative burden.

If OCHA believes that the family has failed to identify a reasonable alternative accommodation after interactive discussion and negotiation, OCHA will notify the family, in writing, of its determination within 10 business days from the date of the most recent discussion or communication with the family. The notice will inform the family of the right to appeal OCHA’s decision through an informal hearing (if applicable) or the grievance process (see Chapter 14).
2-II.F. PROGRAM ACCESSIBILITY FOR PERSONS WITH HEARING OR VISION IMPAIRMENTS

HUD regulations require OCHA to take reasonable steps to ensure that persons with disabilities related to hearing and vision have reasonable access to OCHA's programs and services [24 CFR 8.6].

At the initial point of contact with each applicant, OCHA shall inform all applicants of alternative forms of communication that can be used other than plain language paperwork.

OCHA Policy

To meet the needs of persons with vision impairments, large-print and audio versions of key program documents will be made available upon request. When visual aids are used in public meetings or presentations, or in meetings with PHA staff, one-on-one assistance will be provided upon request.

Additional examples of alternative forms of communication are sign language interpretation; having material explained orally by staff; or having a third party representative (a friend, relative or advocate, named by the applicant) to receive, interpret and explain housing materials and be present at all meetings.

2-II.G. PHYSICAL ACCESSIBILITY

OCHA must comply with a variety of regulations pertaining to physical accessibility, including the following.

- Notice PIH 2010-26
- Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973
- The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990
- The Architectural Barriers Act of 1968
- The Fair Housing Act of 1988

OCHA’s policies concerning physical accessibility must be readily available to applicants and resident families. They can be found in three key documents.

- This policy, the Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy, describes the key policies that govern OCHA’s responsibilities with regard to physical accessibility.
- Notice PIH 2010-26 summarizes information about pertinent laws and implementing regulations related to nondiscrimination and accessibility in federally-funded housing programs.
- OCHA Plan provides information about self-evaluation, needs assessment, and transition plans.

The design, construction, or alteration of PHA facilities must conform to the Uniform Federal Accessibility Standards (UFAS). Notice PIH 2010-26 contains specific information on calculating the percentages of units for meeting UFAS requirements.

Newly-constructed facilities must be designed to be readily accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities. Alterations to existing facilities must be accessible to the maximum extent feasible, defined as not imposing an undue financial and administrative burden on the operations of the public housing program.
2-II.H. DENIAL OR TERMINATION OF ASSISTANCE

A PHA’s decision to deny or terminate the assistance of a family that includes a person with disabilities is subject to consideration of reasonable accommodation [24 CFR 966.7].

When applicants with disabilities are denied assistance, the notice of denial must inform them of their right to request an informal hearing [24 CFR 960.208(a)].

When a family’s lease is terminated, the notice of termination must inform the family of their right to request a hearing in accordance with OCHA’s grievance process [24 CFR 966.4(l)(3)(ii)].

When reviewing reasonable accommodation requests, OCHA must consider whether reasonable accommodation will allow the family to overcome the problem that led to OCHA’s decision to deny or terminate assistance. If a reasonable accommodation will allow the family to meet the requirements, OCHA must make the accommodation [24 CFR 966.7].

In addition, OCHA must provide reasonable accommodation for persons with disabilities to participate in the hearing process [24 CFR 966.56(h)].
PART III: IMPROVING ACCESS TO SERVICES FOR PERSONS WITH LIMITED ENGLISH PROFICIENCY (LEP)

2-III.A. OVERVIEW

Language for Limited English Proficiency Persons (LEP) can be a barrier to accessing important benefits or services, understanding and exercising important rights, complying with applicable responsibilities, or understanding other information provided by the public housing program. In certain circumstances, failure to ensure that LEP persons can effectively participate in or benefit from federally-assisted programs and activities may violate the prohibition under Title VI against discrimination on the basis of national origin. This part incorporates the Final Guidance to Federal Assistance Recipients Regarding Title VI Prohibition against National Origin Discrimination Affecting Limited English Proficient Persons, published January 22, 2007, in the Federal Register.

OCHA will take affirmative steps to communicate with people who need services or information in a language other than English. These persons will be referred to as Persons with Limited English Proficiency (LEP).

LEP persons are defined as persons who do not speak English as their primary language and who have a limited ability to read, write, speak or understand English. For the purposes of this Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy, LEP persons are public housing applicants and resident families, and parents and family members of applicants and resident families.

In order to determine the level of access needed by LEP persons, OCHA will balance the following four factors: (1) the number or proportion of LEP persons eligible to be served or likely to be encountered by the public housing program; (2) the frequency with which LEP persons come into contact with the program; (3) the nature and importance of the program, activity, or service provided by the program to people’s lives; and (4) the resources available to OCHA and costs. Balancing these four factors will ensure meaningful access by LEP persons to critical services while not imposing undue burdens on OCHA.
2-III.B. ORAL INTERPRETATION

OCHA will offer competent interpretation services free of charge, upon request, to the LEP person.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will utilize a language line for telephone interpreter services.

When exercising the option to conduct remote hearings, however, the OCHA will coordinate with a remote interpretation service which, when available, uses video conferencing technology rather than voice-only interpretation.

Where LEP persons desire, they will be permitted to use, at their own expense, an interpreter of their own choosing, in place of or as a supplement to the free language services offered by OCHA. OCHA, at its discretion, may choose to use the language services even when LEP persons desire to use an interpreter of their choosing. The interpreter may be a family member or friend. If the interpreter chosen by the family is a minor, OCHA will not rely as on the minor to serve as the interpreter.

OCHA will analyze the various kinds of contacts it has with the public, to assess language needs and decide what reasonable steps should be taken. “Reasonable steps” may not be reasonable where the costs imposed substantially exceed the benefits.

Where feasible and possible, according to its language assistance plan (LAP), OCHA will train and hire bilingual staff to be available to act as interpreters and translators, will pool resources with other PHAs, and will standardize documents.

2-III.C. WRITTEN TRANSLATION

Translation is the replacement of a written text from one language into an equivalent written text in another language.

OCHA Policy

In order to comply with written-translation obligations, OCHA will take the following steps:

OCHA will provide written translations of vital documents for each eligible LEP language group that constitutes 5 percent or 1,000 persons, whichever is less, of the population of persons eligible to be served or likely to be affected or encountered. Translation of other documents, if needed, can be provided orally; or

If there are fewer than 50 persons in a language group that reaches the 5 percent trigger, OCHA may not translate vital written materials, but will provide written notice in the primary language of the LEP language group of the right to receive competent oral interpretation of those written materials, free of cost.
2-III.D. IMPLEMENTATION PLAN

After completing the four-factor analysis and deciding what language assistance services are appropriate, OCHA shall determine whether it is necessary to develop a written implementation plan to address the identified needs of the LEP populations it serves.

If OCHA determines that it is not necessary to develop a written implementation plan, the absence of a written plan does not obviate the underlying obligation to ensure meaningful access by LEP persons to OCHA’s public housing program and services.

OCHA Policy

If it is determined that OCHA serves very few LEP persons, and OCHA has very limited resources, OCHA will not develop a written LEP plan, but will consider alternative ways to articulate in a reasonable manner a plan for providing meaningful access. Entities having significant contact with LEP persons, such as schools, grassroots and faith-based organizations, community groups, and groups working with new immigrants will be contacted for input into the process.

If OCHA determines it is appropriate to develop a written LEP plan, the following five steps will be taken: (1) Identifying LEP individuals who need language assistance; (2) identifying language assistance measures; (3) training staff; (4) providing notice to LEP persons; and (5) monitoring and updating the LEP plan.
EXHIBIT 2-1: DEFINITION OF A PERSON WITH A DISABILITY UNDER FEDERAL CIVIL RIGHTS LAWS [24 CFR Parts 8.3 and 100.201]

A person with a disability, as defined under federal civil rights laws, is any person who:

- Has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of the major life activities of an individual, or
- Has a record of such impairment, or
- Is regarded as having such impairment

The phrase “physical or mental impairment” includes:

- Any physiological disorder or condition, cosmetic or disfigurement, or anatomical loss affecting one or more of the following body systems: neurological; musculoskeletal; special sense organs; respiratory, including speech organs; cardiovascular; reproductive; digestive; genito-urinary; hemic and lymphatic; skin; and endocrine; or
- Any mental or psychological disorder, such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, and specific learning disabilities. The term “physical or mental impairment” includes, but is not limited to: such diseases and conditions as orthopedic, visual, speech and hearing impairments, cerebral palsy, autism, epilepsy, muscular dystrophy, multiple sclerosis, cancer, heart disease, diabetes, mental retardation, emotional illness, drug addiction and alcoholism.

“Major life activities” includes, but is not limited to, caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, breathing, learning, and/or working.

“Has a record of such impairment” means has a history of, or has been misclassified as having, a mental or physical impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities.

“Is regarded as having an impairment” is defined as having a physical or mental impairment that does not substantially limit one or more major life activities but is treated by a public entity (such as OCHA) as constituting such a limitation; has none of the impairments defined in this section but is treated by a public entity as having such an impairment; or has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities, only as a result of the attitudes of others toward that impairment.
The definition of a person with disabilities does not include:

- Current illegal drug users
- People whose alcohol use interferes with the rights of others
- Persons who objectively pose a direct threat or substantial risk of harm to others that cannot be controlled with a reasonable accommodation under the public housing program

The above definition of disability determines whether an applicant or participant is entitled to any of the protections of federal disability civil rights laws. Thus, a person who does not meet this definition of disability is not entitled to a reasonable accommodation under federal civil rights and fair housing laws and regulations.

The HUD definition of a person with a disability is much narrower than the civil rights definition of disability. The HUD definition of a person with a disability is used for purposes of receiving the disabled family preference, the $400 elderly/disabled household deduction, the allowance for medical expenses, or the allowance for disability assistance expenses.

The definition of a person with a disability for purposes of granting a reasonable accommodation request is much broader than the HUD definition of disability. Many people will not qualify as a disabled person under the public housing program, yet an accommodation is needed to provide equal opportunity.
Chapter 3

ELIGIBILITY

INTRODUCTION

OCHA is responsible for ensuring that every individual and family admitted to the public housing program meets all program eligibility requirements. This includes any individual approved to join the family after the family has been admitted to the program. The family must provide any information needed by OCHA to confirm eligibility and determine the level of the family’s assistance.

To be eligible for the public housing program:

• The applicant family must:
  – Qualify as a family as defined by HUD and OCHA.
  – Have income at or below HUD-specified income limits.
  – Qualify on the basis of citizenship or the eligible immigrant status of family members.
  – Provide social security number information for household members as required.
  – Consent to OCHA’s collection and use of family information as provided for in OCHA-provided consent forms.
  – Not currently be receiving a duplicative subsidy.

• OCHA must determine that the current or past behavior of household members does not include activities that are prohibited by HUD or OCHA.

This chapter contains three parts:

  Part I: Definitions of Family and Household Members. This part contains HUD and OCHA definitions of family and household members and explains initial and ongoing eligibility issues related to these members.

  Part II: Basic Eligibility Criteria. This part discusses income eligibility, and rules regarding citizenship, social security numbers, and family consent.

  Part III: Denial of Admission. This part covers factors related to an applicant’s past or current conduct (e.g. criminal activity) that can cause OCHA to deny admission.

Revised 8/24/22
PART I: DEFINITIONS OF FAMILY AND HOUSEHOLD MEMBERS

3-I.A. OVERVIEW

Some eligibility criteria and program rules vary depending upon the composition of the family requesting assistance. In addition, some requirements apply to the family as a whole and others apply to individual persons who will live in the public housing unit. This part provides information that is needed to correctly identify family and household members, and explains HUD's eligibility rules.

The terms family and household have different meanings in the public housing program.

Family

To be eligible for admission, an applicant must qualify as a family. Family as defined by HUD, includes but is not limited to the following, regardless of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status, a single person, who may be an elderly person, disabled person, near-elderly person, or any other single person; or a group of persons residing together. Such group includes, but is not limited to a family with or without children (a child who is temporarily away from the home because of placement in foster care is considered a member of the family), an elderly family, a near-elderly family, a disabled family, a displaced family, or the remaining member of a tenant family. OCHA has the discretion to determine if any other group of persons qualifies as a family.

Gender Identity means actual or perceived gender characteristics.

Sexual orientation means homosexuality, heterosexuality, or bisexuality.

OCHA Policy

A family also includes two or more individuals who are not related by blood, marriage, adoption, or other operation of law, but who either can demonstrate that they have lived together previously or certify that each individual’s income and other resources will be available to meet the needs of the family.

Each family must identify the individuals to be included in the family at the time of application, and must update this information if the family’s composition changes.

Household

Household is a broader term that includes additional people who, with OCHA’s permission, live in a public housing unit, such as live-in aides, foster children, and foster adults.
3-I.C. FAMILY BREAKUP AND REMAINING MEMBER OF TENANT FAMILY

Family Breakup

Except under the following conditions, OCHA has discretion to determine which members of an assisted family continue to receive assistance if the family breaks up:

- If the family breakup results from an occurrence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking, the PHA must ensure that the victim retains assistance.
  (For documentation requirements and policies related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, and human trafficking see section 16-VII.D of this ACOP.)

- If a court determines the disposition of property between members of the assisted family, OCHA is bound by the court’s determination of which family members continue to receive assistance.

 OCHA Policy

When a family on the waiting list breaks up into two otherwise eligible families, only one of the new families may retain the original application date. Other former family members may submit a new application with a new application date if the waiting list is open.

If a family breaks up into two otherwise eligible families while living in public housing, only one of the new families will retain occupancy of the unit.

If a court determines the disposition of property between members of an applicant or resident family, OCHA will abide by the court’s determination.

In the absence of a judicial decision or an agreement among the original family members, the PHA will determine which family will retain their placement on the waiting list or continue in occupancy. In making its determination, the PHA will take into consideration the following factors: (1) the interest of any minor children, including custody arrangements; (2) the interest of any ill, elderly, or disabled family members; (3) the interest of any family member who is or has been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking, including a family member who was forced to leave a public housing unit as a result of such actual or threatened abuse, and provides documentation in accordance with section 16-VII.D of this ACOP; (4) any possible risks to family members as a result of criminal activity, and (5) the recommendations of social service professionals.

The HUD definition of family includes the remaining member of a tenant family, which is a member of a resident family who remains in the unit when other members of the family have left the unit [PH Occ GB, p. 26]. Household members such as live-in aides, foster children, and foster adults do not qualify as remaining members of a family.

If dependents are the only “remaining members of a tenant family” and there is no family member able to assume the responsibilities of the head of household, see Chapter 6, Section 6-I.B, for the policy on “Caretakers for a Child.”

3-I.D. HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD [24 CFR 5.504(b)]

Head of household means the adult member of the family who is considered the head for purposes of determining income eligibility and rent. The head of household is responsible for ensuring that the family fulfills all of its responsibilities under the program, alone or in conjunction with a cohead or spouse.

OCHA Policy
The family may designate any qualified family member as the head of household.

The head of household must have the legal capacity to enter into a lease under state and local law. A minor who is emancipated under state law may be designated as head of household.

3-I.E. SPOUSE, COHEAD, AND OTHER ADULT

A family may have a spouse or cohead, but not both [HUD-50058 IB, p. 13].

Spouse means the marriage partner of the head of household.

OCHA Policy
A marriage partner includes the partner in a "common law" marriage as defined in state law. The term “spouse” does not apply to friends, roommates, or significant others who are not marriage partners. A minor who is emancipated under state law may be designated as a spouse.

A cohead is an individual in the household who is equally responsible with the head of household for ensuring that the family fulfills all of its responsibilities under the program, but who is not a spouse. A family can have only one cohead.

OCHA Policy
Minors who are emancipated under state law may be designated as a cohead.

Other adult means a family member, other than the head, spouse, or cohead, who is 18 years of age or older. Foster adults and live-in aides are not considered other adults [HUD-50058 IB, p. 14].
3-I.F. DEPENDENT [24 CFR 5.603]

A dependent is a family member who is under 18 years of age or a person of any age who is a person with a disability or a full-time student, except that the following persons can never be dependents: the head of household, spouse, cohead, foster children/adults and live-in aides. Identifying each dependent in the family is important because each dependent qualifies the family for a deduction from annual income as described in Chapter 6.

Joint Custody of Dependents

OCHA Policy

Dependents that are subject to a joint custody arrangement will be considered a member of the family, if they live with the applicant or resident family 50 percent or more of the time.

When more than one applicant or assisted family (regardless of program) are claiming the same dependents as family members, the family with primary custody at the time of the initial examination or reexamination will be able to claim the dependents. If there is a dispute about which family should claim them, OCHA will make the determination based on available documents such as court orders, an IRS income tax return showing which family has claimed the child for income tax purposes, school records, or other credible documentation.

A full-time student (FTS) is a person who is attending school or vocational training on a full-time basis. The time commitment or subject load that is needed to determine if attendance is full-time is defined by the educational institution.

Identifying each FTS is important because (1) each family member that is an FTS, other than the head, spouse, or cohead, qualifies the family for a dependent deduction and (2) the income of such an FTS is treated differently from the income of other family members.
3-I.H. ELDERLY AND NEAR-ELDERLY PERSONS, AND ELDERLY FAMILY
[24 CFR 5.100, 5.403, 945.105, and FR Notice 02/03/12]

Elderly Persons
An elderly person is a person who is at least 62 years of age.

Near-Elderly Persons
A near-elderly person is a person who is 50-61 years of age.

Elderly Family
An elderly family is one in which the head, spouse, cohead, or sole member is an elderly person. Identifying elderly families is important because these families qualify for the elderly family allowance and the medical allowance as described in Chapter 6 and may qualify for a particular type of development as noted in Chapter 4.

3-I.I. PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES AND DISABLED FAMILY [24 CFR 5.403, FR Notice 02/03/12]

Persons with Disabilities
Under the public housing program, special rules apply to persons with disabilities and to any family whose head, spouse, or cohead is a person with disabilities. The technical definitions of individual with handicaps and persons with disabilities are provided in Exhibit 3-1 at the end of this chapter. These definitions are used for a number of purposes including ensuring that persons with disabilities are not discriminated against based upon disability.

As discussed in Chapter 2, OCHA must make all aspects of the public housing program accessible to persons with disabilities and consider requests for reasonable accommodations when a person’s disability limits their full access to the unit, the program, or OCHA’s services.

Disabled Family
A disabled family is one in which the head, spouse, or cohead is a person with disabilities. Identifying disabled families is important because these families qualify for the disabled family allowance and the medical allowance as described in Chapter 6 and may qualify for a particular type of development as noted in Chapter 4.

Even though persons with drug or alcohol dependencies are considered persons with disabilities for the purpose of non-discrimination, this does not prevent OCHA from denying admission or taking action under the lease for reasons related to alcohol and drug abuse in accordance with the policies found in Part III of this chapter and in Chapter 13.
3-I.J. GUESTS [24 CFR 5.100]

A guest is defined as a person temporarily staying in the unit with the consent of a tenant or other member of the household who has express or implied authority to so consent on behalf of the tenant.

The lease must provide that the tenant has the right to exclusive use and occupancy of the leased unit by the members of the household authorized to reside in the unit in accordance with the lease, including reasonable accommodation of their guests [24 CFR 966.4(d)]. The head of household is responsible for the conduct of visitors and guests, inside the unit as well as anywhere on or near OCHA premises [24 CFR 966.4(f)].

OCHA Policy

A resident family must notify OCHA when overnight guests will be staying in the unit for more than 3 days. A guest can remain in the unit with written permission by OCHA for no more than 30 cumulative days in a calendar year.

A family may request an exception to this policy for valid reasons (e.g., care of a relative recovering from a medical procedure expected to last 20 consecutive days). An exception will not be made unless the family can identify and provide documentation of the residence to which the guest will return. This must be with written permission by OCHA.

Children who are subject to a joint custody arrangement or for whom a family has visitation privileges, that are not included as a family member because they live outside of the public housing unit more than 50 percent of the time, are not subject to the time limitations of guests as described above.

Former residents who have been evicted are not permitted as overnight guests.

Guests who represent the public housing unit address as their residence address or address of record for receipt of benefits or any other purposes will be considered unauthorized occupants. In addition, guests who remain in the unit beyond the allowable time limit will be considered to be unauthorized occupants, and their presence constitutes violation of the lease.
3-I.K. FOSTER CHILDREN AND FOSTER ADULTS

Foster adults are usually persons with disabilities, unrelated to the tenant family, who are unable to live alone [24 CFR 5.609(c)(2)].

The term foster child is not specifically defined by the regulations.

Foster children and foster adults that are living with an applicant or resident family are considered household members but not family members. The income of foster children/adults is not counted in family annual income and foster children/adults do not qualify for a dependent deduction [24 CFR 5.603 and HUD-50058 IB, pp. 13-14].

OCHA Policy

A foster child is a child that is in the legal guardianship or custody of a state, county, or private adoption or foster care agency, yet is cared for by foster parents in their own homes, under some kind of short-term or long-term foster care arrangement with the custodial agency.

Children that are temporarily absent from the home as a result of placement in foster care are discussed in Section 3-I.L.
3-I.I. ABSENT FAMILY MEMBERS

Individuals may be temporarily or permanently absent from the unit for a variety of reasons including educational activities, placement in foster care, employment, and illness.

Definitions of Temporarily and Permanently Absent

OCHA Policy

Generally an individual who is or is expected to be absent from the public housing unit for 180 consecutive days or less is considered temporarily absent and continues to be considered a family member. Generally an individual who is or is expected to be absent from the public housing unit for more than 180 consecutive days is considered permanently absent and no longer a family member. Exceptions to this general policy are discussed below.

Absent Students

OCHA Policy

When someone who has been considered a family member attends school away from home, the person will continue to be considered a family member unless information becomes available to OCHA indicating that the student has established a separate household or the family declares that the student has established a separate household.

Absences Due to Placement in Foster Care [24 CFR 5.403]

Children temporarily absent from the home as a result of placement in foster care are considered members of the family.

OCHA Policy

If a child has been placed in foster care, OCHA will verify with the appropriate agency whether and when the child is expected to be returned to the home. Unless the agency confirms that the child has been permanently removed from the home, the child will be counted as a family member.
Absent Head, Spouse, or Cohead

OCHA Policy

An employed head, spouse, or cohead absent from the unit more than 180 consecutive days due to employment will continue to be considered a family member.

Individuals Confined for Medical Reasons

OCHA Policy

An individual confined to a nursing home or hospital on a permanent basis is not considered a family member.

If there is a question about the status of a family member, OCHA will request verification from a responsible medical professional and will use this determination. If the responsible medical professional cannot provide a determination, the person generally will be considered temporarily absent. The family may present evidence that the family member is confined on a permanent basis and request that the person not be considered a family member.

Return of Permanently Absent Family Members

OCHA Policy

The family must request OCHA approval for the return of any adult family members that OCHA has determined to be permanently absent. The individual is subject to the eligibility and screening requirements discussed in this chapter.
3-I.M. LIVE-IN AIDE

Live-in aide means a person who resides with one or more elderly persons, or near-elderly persons, or persons with disabilities, and who: (1) is determined to be essential to the care and well-being of the person(s), (2) is not obligated for the support of the person(s), and (3) would not be living in the unit except to provide the necessary supportive services [24 CFR 5.403].

OCHA must approve a live-in aide if needed as a reasonable accommodation for a person with disabilities in accordance with 24 CFR 8.

A live-in aide is considered a household member but not a family member. The income of the live-in aide is not counted in determining the annual income of the family [24 CFR 5.609(c)(5)]. Relatives may be approved as live-in aides if they meet all of the criteria defining a live-in aide. However, a relative who serves as a live-in aide is not considered a family member and would not be considered a remaining member of a tenant family.

OCHA Policy

A family’s request for a live-in aide may be made either orally or in writing. OCHA will verify the need for a live-in aide with a reliable, knowledgeable professional as provided by the family, such as a doctor, social worker, or case worker. For continued approval, the family may be required to submit a new, written request—subject to OCHA verification—at each annual reexamination.

In addition, the family and live-in aide will be required to submit a certification stating that the live-in aide is (1) not obligated for the support of the person(s) needing the care, and (2) would not be living in the unit except to provide the necessary supportive services.

OCHA has the discretion not to approve a particular person as a live-in aide, and may withdraw such approval, if [24 CFR 966.4(d)(3)(i)]:

- The person commits fraud, bribery or any other corrupt or criminal act in connection with any federal housing program;
- The person has a history of drug-related criminal activity or violent criminal activity; or
- The person currently owes rent or other amounts to OCHA or to another OCHA in connection with Section 8 or public housing assistance under the 1937 Act.

Within 30 business days of receiving a request for a live-in aide, including all required documentation related to the request, OCHA will notify the family of its decision in writing.

Revised 9/26/18
PART II: BASIC ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

3-II.A. INCOME ELIGIBILITY AND TARGETING

Income Limits

HUD is required by law to establish income limits that determine the income eligibility of applicants for HUD’s assisted housing programs, including the public housing program. The income limits are published annually and are based on HUD estimates of the median incomes for families of different sizes in a particular area or county.

Types of Low-Income Families [24 CFR 5.603(b)]

Low-income family. A family whose annual income does not exceed 80 percent of the median income for the area, adjusted for family size.

Very low-income family. A family whose annual income does not exceed 50 percent of the median income for the area, adjusted for family size.

Extremely low-income family. A family whose annual income does not exceed the federal poverty level or 30 percent of the median income for the area, whichever number is higher.

Area median income is determined by HUD, with adjustments for smaller and larger families. HUD may establish income ceilings higher or lower than 30, 50, or 80 percent of the median income for an area if HUD finds that such variations are necessary because of unusually high or low family incomes.

HUD also publishes over-income limits annually, but these are not used at admission. Over-income limits will be discussed in Chapter 13.

Using Income Limits for Eligibility [24 CFR 960.201]

Income limits are used for eligibility at admission. Eligibility is established by comparing a family's annual income with HUD’s published income limits. To be income eligible, a family must be a low-income family.
Using Income Limits for Targeting [24 CFR 960.202(b)]

At least 40 percent of the families admitted from OCHA waiting list to the public housing program during OCHA fiscal year must be extremely low-income families. This is called the “basic targeting requirement.”

If admissions of extremely low-income families to OCHA’s housing choice voucher program during OCHA fiscal year exceed the 75 percent minimum targeting requirement for that program, such excess shall be credited against OCHA’s public housing basic targeting requirement for the same fiscal year.

The fiscal year credit for housing choice voucher program admissions that exceed the minimum voucher program targeting requirement must not exceed the lower of:

- Ten percent of public housing waiting list admissions during OCHA fiscal year
- Ten percent of waiting list admission to OCHA’s housing choice voucher program during OCHA fiscal year
- The number of qualifying low-income families who commence occupancy during the fiscal year of public housing units located in census tracts with a poverty rate of 30 percent or more. For this purpose, qualifying low-income family means a low-income family other than an extremely low-income family.

For discussion of how income targeting is used in tenant selection, see Chapter 4.
3-II.B. CITIZENSHIP OR ELIGIBLE IMMIGRATION STATUS [24 CFR 5, Subpart E]

Housing assistance is available only to individuals who are U.S. citizens, U.S. nationals (herein referred to as citizens and nationals), or noncitizens that have eligible immigration status. At least one family member must be a citizen, national, or noncitizen with eligible immigration status in order for the family to qualify for any level of assistance.

All applicant families must be notified of the requirement to submit evidence of their citizenship status when they apply. Where feasible, and in accordance with OCHA’s Limited English Proficiency Plan, the notice must be in a language that is understood by the individual if the individual is not proficient in English.

HUD requires each family member to declare whether the individual is a citizen, a national, or an eligible noncitizen, except those members who elect not to contend that they have eligible immigration status. Those who elect not to contend their status are considered to be ineligible noncitizens. For citizens, nationals and eligible noncitizens the declaration must be signed personally by the head, spouse, cohead, and any other family member 18 or older, and by a parent or guardian for minors. The family must identify in writing any family members who elect not to contend their immigration status (see Ineligible Noncitizens below). No declaration is required for live-in aides, foster children, or foster adults.

U.S. Citizens and Nationals

In general, citizens and nationals are required to submit only a signed declaration that claims their status. However, HUD regulations permit OCHA to request additional documentation of their status, such as a passport.

OCHA Policy

Family members who declare citizenship or national status will not be required to provide additional documentation unless OCHA receives information indicating that an individual’s declaration may not be accurate.

Eligible Noncitizens

In addition to providing a signed declaration, those declaring eligible noncitizen status must sign a verification consent form and cooperate with OCHA efforts to verify their immigration status as described in Chapter 7. The documentation required for establishing eligible noncitizen status varies depending upon factors such as the date the person entered the U.S., the conditions under which eligible immigration status has been granted, the person’s age, and the date on which the family began receiving HUD-funded assistance.

Lawful residents of the Marshall Islands, the Federated States of Micronesia, and Palau, together known as the Freely Associated States, or FAS, are eligible for housing assistance under section 141 of the Compacts of Free Association between the U.S. Government and the Governments of the FAS [Public Law 106-504].
Ineligible Noncitizens

Those noncitizens who do not wish to contend their immigration status are required to have their names listed on a noncontending family members listing, signed by the head, spouse, or cohead (regardless of citizenship status), indicating their ineligible immigration status. OCHA is not required to verify a family member’s ineligible status and is not required to report an individual’s unlawful presence in the U.S. to the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS).

Providing housing assistance to noncitizen students is prohibited [24 CFR 5.522]. This prohibition extends to the noncitizen spouse of a noncitizen student as well as to minor children who accompany or follow to join the noncitizen student. Such prohibition does not extend to the citizen spouse of a noncitizen student or to the children of the citizen spouse and noncitizen student. Such a family is eligible for prorated assistance as a mixed family.

Mixed Families

A family is eligible for admission as long as at least one member is a citizen, national, or eligible noncitizen. Families that include eligible and ineligible individuals are considered mixed families. Such families will be given notice that their assistance will be prorated, and that they may request a hearing if they contest this determination. See Chapter 6 for a discussion of how rents are prorated, and Chapter 14 for a discussion of grievance hearing procedures.

Ineligible Families [24 CFR 5.514(d), (e), and (f)]

OCHA may elect to provide assistance to a family before the verification of the eligibility of the individual or one family member [24 CFR 5.512(b)]. Otherwise, no individual or family may be assisted prior to the affirmative establishment by OCHA that the individual or at least one family member is eligible [24 CFR 5.512(a)].

OCHA Policy

OCHA will not provide assistance to a family before the verification of at least one family member as a citizen, national, or eligible noncitizen.

When OCHA determines that an applicant family does not include any citizens, nationals, or eligible noncitizens, following the verification process, the family will be sent a written notice within 10 business days of the determination.

The notice will explain the reasons for the denial of assistance and will advise the family of its right to request an appeal to the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), or to request a grievance hearing with OCHA. The grievance hearing with OCHA may be requested in lieu of the USCIS appeal, or at the conclusion of the USCIS appeal process. The notice must also inform the applicant family that assistance may not be delayed until the conclusion of the USCIS appeal process, but that it may be delayed pending the completion of the grievance hearing process.

Grievance hearing procedures are contained in Chapter 14.
Time Frame for Determination of Citizenship Status [24 CFR 5.508(g)]

For new occupants joining the resident family OCHA must verify status at the first interim or regular reexamination following the person’s occupancy, whichever comes first.

If an individual qualifies for a time extension for the submission of required documents, OCHA must grant such an extension for no more than 30 days [24 CFR 5.508(h)].

Each family member is required to submit evidence of eligible status only one time during continuous occupancy.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will verify the status of applicants at the time other eligibility factors are determined.

3-II.C. SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS [24 CFR 5.216 and 5.218, Notice PIH 2018-24]

The applicant and all members of the applicant’s household must disclose the complete and accurate social security number (SSN) assigned to each household member, and the documentation necessary to verify each SSN. If a child under age 6 (six) has been added to an applicant family within the 6 (six) months prior to program admission, an otherwise eligible family may be admitted to the program and must disclose and document the child’s SSN within 90 days of admission. A detailed discussion of acceptable documentation is provided in Chapter 7.

Note: These requirements do not apply to noncitizens who do not contend eligible immigration status.

In addition, each participant who has not previously disclosed an SSN, has previously disclosed an SSN that HUD or the SSA determined was invalid, or has been issued a new SSN must submit their complete and accurate SSN and the documentation required to verify the SSN at the time of the next interim or annual reexamination or recertification. Participants age 62 or older as of January 31, 2010, whose determination of eligibility was begun before January 31, 2010, are exempt from this requirement and remain exempt even if they move to a new assisted unit.

OCHA must deny assistance to an applicant family if they do not meet the SSN disclosure and documentation requirements contained in 24 CFR 5.216.
3-II.D. FAMILY CONSENT TO RELEASE OF INFORMATION [24 CFR 5.230]

HUD requires each adult family member, and the head of household, spouse, or cohead, regardless of age, to sign form HUD-9886, Authorization for the Release of Information Privacy Act Notice, the form HUD-52675, Debts Owed to Public Housing Agencies and Terminations, and other consent forms as needed to collect information relevant to the family’s eligibility and level of assistance. Chapter 7 provides detailed information concerning the consent forms and verification requirements.

OCHA must deny admission to the program if any member of the applicant family fails to sign and submit consent forms which allow OCHA to obtain information that OCHA has determined is necessary in administration of the public housing program [24 CFR 960.259(a) and (b)].
3-II.E. EIV SYSTEM SEARCHES [Notice PIH 2018-18; EIV FAQs; EIV System Training 9/30/20]

Existing Tenant Search

Prior to admission to the program, the PHA must search for all household members using the EIV Existing Tenant Search module. The PHA must review the reports for any SSA matches involving another PHA or a multifamily entity and follow up on any issues identified. The PHA must provide the family with a copy of the Existing Tenant Search results if requested. At no time may any family member receive duplicative assistance.

If the tenant is a new admission to the PHA, and a match is identified at a multifamily property, the PHA must report the program admission date to the multifamily property and document the notification in the tenant file. The family must provide documentation of move-out from the assisted unit, as applicable.

PHA Policy

The PHA will contact the PHA or owner identified in the report to confirm that the family has moved out of the unit and obtain documentation of current tenancy status, including a form HUD-50058 or 50059, as applicable, showing an end of participation. The PHA will only approve assistance contingent upon the move-out from the currently occupied assisted unit.

Debts Owed to PHAs and Terminations

All adult household members must sign the form HUD-52675, Debts Owed to Public Housing and Terminations. Prior to admission to the program, the PHA must search for each adult family member in the Debts Owed to PHAs and Terminations module.

If a current or former tenant disputes the information in the module, the tenant should contact the PHA directly in writing to dispute the information and provide any documentation that supports the dispute. If the PHA determines that the disputed information is incorrect, the PHA will update or delete the record from EIV. Former tenants may dispute debt and termination information for a period of up to three years from the end of participation date in the program.

PHA Policy

The PHA will require each adult household member to sign the form HUD-52675 once at the eligibility determination. Any new members added to the household after admission will be required to sign the form HUD-52675 prior to being added to the household.

The PHA will search the Debts Owed to PHAs and Terminations module as part of the eligibility determination for new households and as part of the screening process for any household members added after the household is admitted to the program. If any information on debts or terminations is returned by the search, the PHA will determine if this information warrants a denial in accordance with the policies in Part III of this chapter.

Income and Income Validation Tool (IVT) Reports

For each new admission, the PHA is required to review the EIV Income and IVT Reports to confirm and validate family reported income within 120 days of the IMS/PIC submission date of the new admission. The PHA must print and maintain copies of the EIV Income and IVT reports in the tenant file and resolve any discrepancies with the family within 60 days of the EIV Income or IVT report dates.
PART III: DENIAL OF ADMISSION

3-III.A. OVERVIEW

A family that does not meet the eligibility criteria discussed in Parts I and II must be denied admission. In addition, HUD requires or permits OCHA to deny admission based on certain types of current or past behaviors of family members as discussed in this part. OCHA’s authority in this area is limited by the Violence Against Women Act of 2013 (VAWA), which expressly prohibits the denial of admission to an otherwise qualified applicant on the basis or as a direct result of the fact that the applicant is or has been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking [24 CFR 5.2005(b)].

While the regulations state that the PHA must prohibit admission for certain types of criminal activity and give the PHA the option to deny for other types of previous criminal history, more recent HUD rules and OGC guidance must also be taken into consideration when determining whether a particular individual’s criminal history merits denial of admission. When considering any denial of admission, PHAs may not use arrest records as the basis for the denial. Further, HUD does not require the adoption of “One Strike” policies and reminds PHAs of their obligation to safeguard the due process rights of applicants and tenants [Notice PIH 2015-19].

HUD’s Office of General Counsel issued a memo on April 4, 2016, regarding the application of Fair Housing Act standards to the use of criminal records. This memo states that a PHA violates the Fair Housing Act when their policy or practice has an unjustified discriminatory effect, even when the PHA had no intention to discriminate. Where a policy or practice that restricts admission based on criminal history has a disparate impact on a particular race, national origin, or other protected class, that policy or practice is in violation of the Fair Housing Act if it is not necessary to serve a substantial, legitimate, nondiscriminatory interest of the PHA, or if that interest could be served by another practice that has a less discriminatory effect [OGC Memo 4/4/16].

PHAs who impose blanket prohibitions on any person with any conviction record, no matter when the conviction occurred, what the underlying conduct entailed, or what the convicted person has done since then will be unable to show that such policy or practice is necessary to achieve a substantial, legitimate, nondiscriminatory interest. Even a PHA with a more tailored policy or practice that excludes individuals with only certain types of convictions must still prove that its policy is necessary. To do this, the PHA must show that its policy accurately distinguishes between criminal conduct that indicates a demonstrable risk to resident safety and property and criminal conduct that does not.

- Required denial of admission
- Other permitted reasons for denial of admission
- Screening
- Criteria for deciding to deny admission
- Prohibition against denial of admission to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking
- Notice of eligibility or denial

3-III.B. REQUIRED DENIAL OF ADMISSION [24 CFR 960.204]

OCHAs are required to establish standards that prohibit admission of an applicant to the public housing program if they have engaged in certain criminal activity or if OCHA has reasonable cause to believe that a household member’s current use or pattern of use of illegal drugs, or current abuse or pattern of abuse of alcohol may threaten the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents.

Where the statute requires that OCHA prohibit admission for a prescribed period of time after some disqualifying behavior or event, OCHA may choose to continue that prohibition for a longer period of time [24 CFR 960.203(c)(3)(ii)].
HUD requires OCHA to deny assistance in the following cases:

- Any member of the household has been evicted from federally-assisted housing in the last 3 years for drug-related criminal activity. HUD permits but does not require OCHA to admit an otherwise-eligible family if the household member has completed an OCHA-approved drug rehabilitation program or the circumstances which led to eviction no longer exist (e.g. the person involved in the criminal activity no longer lives in the household).

  OCHA Policy

  OCHA will admit an otherwise-eligible family who was evicted from federally-assisted housing within the past 3 years for drug-related criminal activity, if OCHA is able to verify that the household member who engaged in the criminal activity has completed a supervised drug rehabilitation program approved by OCHA, or the person who committed the crime is no longer living in the household.

- OCHA determines that any household member is currently engaged in the use of illegal drugs. Drug means a controlled substance as defined in section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act [21 U.S.C. 802]. Currently engaged in the illegal use of a drug means a person has engaged in the behavior recently enough to justify a reasonable belief that there is continuing illegal drug use by a household member [24 CFR 960.205(b)(1)].

  OCHA Policy

  Currently engaged in is defined as any use of illegal drugs during the previous three months.

- OCHA has reasonable cause to believe that any household member's current use or pattern of use of illegal drugs, or current abuse or pattern of abuse of alcohol, may threaten the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents.

  OCHA Policy

  In determining reasonable cause, the PHA will consider all credible evidence, including but not limited to, any record of convictions, arrests, or evictions of household members related to the use of illegal drugs or the abuse of alcohol. A record or records of arrest will not be used as the sole basis for the denial or proof that the applicant engaged in disqualifying criminal activity. The PHA will also consider evidence from treatment providers or community-based organizations providing services to household members.

- Any household member has ever been convicted of drug-related criminal activity for the production or manufacture of methamphetamine on the premises of federally assisted housing.

- Any household member is subject to a lifetime registration requirement under a state lifetime sex offender registration program.
3-III.C. OTHER PERMITTED REASONS FOR DENIAL OF ADMISSION

HUD permits, but does not require OCHA to deny admission for the reasons discussed in this section.

Criminal Activity [24 CFR 960.203(c)]

OCHA is responsible for screening family behavior and suitability for tenancy. In doing so, OCHA may consider an applicant’s history of criminal activity involving crimes of physical violence to persons or property and other criminal acts which would adversely affect the health, safety, or welfare of other tenants.

OCHA Policy

If any household member is currently engaged in, or has engaged in any of the following criminal activities, within the past three years, the family will be denied admission.

Drug-related criminal activity, defined by HUD as the illegal manufacture, sale, distribution, or use of a drug, or the possession of a drug with intent to manufacture, sell, distribute or use the drug [24 CFR 5.100]. Household members should be aware that federal law still classifies marijuana as an illegal drug, and that federal law overrides Oklahoma’s medical marijuana law. Therefore, the use, sale, or possession of marijuana constitutes “drug-related criminal activity”.

Violent criminal activity, defined by HUD as any criminal activity that has as one of its elements the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force substantial enough to cause, or be reasonably likely to cause, serious bodily injury or property damage [24 CFR 5.100].

Criminal activity that may threaten the health, safety, or welfare of other tenants [24 CFR 960.203(c)(3)].

Criminal activity that may threaten the health or safety of OCHA staff, contractors, subcontractors, or agents.

Criminal sexual conduct, including but not limited to sexual assault, incest, open and gross lewdness, or child abuse.

Evidence of such criminal activity includes, but is not limited to:

Any record of convictions, arrests, or evictions for suspected drug-related or violent criminal activity of household members within the past three years.

A record or records of arrest will not be used as the sole basis for the denial or proof that the applicant engaged in disqualifying criminal activity.

In making its decision to deny assistance, OCHA will consider the factors discussed in Sections 3-III.E and 3-III.F. Upon consideration of such factors, OCHA may, on a case-by-case basis, decide not to deny assistance.
Previous Behavior [960.203(c) and (d) and PH Occ GB, p. 48]

HUD authorizes OCHA to deny admission based on relevant information pertaining to the family’s previous behavior and suitability for tenancy.

In the event of the receipt of unfavorable information with respect to an applicant, OCHA must consider the time, nature, and extent of the applicant’s conduct (including the seriousness of the offense). As discussed in Section 3-III.F, OCHA may also need to consider whether the cause of the unfavorable information may be that the applicant is the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

OCHA Policy

The PHA will deny admission to an applicant family if the PHA determines that the family:

- Has a pattern of unsuitable past performance in meeting financial obligations, including rent within the past three years.
- Has a pattern of disturbance of neighbors, destruction of property, or living or housekeeping habits at prior residences within the past three years which may adversely affect the health, safety, or welfare of other tenants.
- Owe rent or other amounts to this or any other PHA or owner in connection with any assisted housing program.
- Misrepresented or does not provide complete information related to eligibility, including income, award of preferences for admission, expenses, family composition or rent.
- Has committed fraud, bribery, or any other corrupt or criminal act in connection with any federal housing program in the last three years.
- Owes rent or other amounts to any PHA in connection with Section 8, public housing, or other public housing assistance under the 1937 Act, unless the family repays the full amount of the debt prior to being selected from the waiting list.

When denying admission due to family debts as shown in HUD’s EIV system, OCHA will provide the family with a copy of the EIV Debt Owed to OCHA and Termination report.

If the family wishes to dispute the information in the report, the family must contact OCHA that entered the information in EIV in writing, explaining why EIV information is disputed. The family must also provide a copy of the letter and all applicable verification to OCHA to support the family’s claim. OCHA will consider the information provided by the family prior to issuing a notice of denial.
Has engaged in or threatened violent or abusive behavior toward PHA personnel.

Abusive or violent behavior towards PHA personnel includes verbal as well as physical abuse or violence. Use of racial epithets, or other language, written or oral, that is customarily used to intimidate may be considered abusive or violent behavior.

Threatening refers to oral or written threats or physical gestures that communicate intent to abuse or commit violence.

In making its decision to deny admission, OCHA will consider the factors discussed in Sections 3-III.E and 3-III.F. Upon consideration of such factors, OCHA may, on a case-by-case basis, decide not to deny admission. OCHA will consider the existence of mitigating factors, such as loss of employment or other financial difficulties, before denying admission to an applicant based on the failure to meet prior financial obligations.
3-III.D. SCREENING

Screening for Eligibility

OCHAs are authorized to obtain criminal conviction records from law enforcement agencies to screen applicants for admission to the public housing program. This authority assists OCHA in complying with HUD requirements and OCHA policies to deny assistance to applicants who are engaging in or have engaged in certain criminal activities. In order to obtain access to the records OCHA must require every applicant family to submit a consent form signed by each adult household member [24 CFR 5.903].

OCHA may not pass along to the applicant the costs of a criminal records check [24 CFR 960.204(d)].

OCHA Policy

OCHA will perform criminal background checks through local law enforcement for all adult household members.

OCHAs are required to perform criminal background checks necessary to determine whether any household member is subject to a lifetime registration requirement under a state sex offender program in the state where the housing is located, as well as in any other state where a household member is known to have resided [24 CFR 960.204(a)(4)].

OCHA Policy

OCHA will use the Dru Sjodin National Sex Offender database to screen applicants for admission.

Additionally, OCHAs must ask whether the applicant, or any member of the applicant’s household, is subject to a lifetime registered sex offender registration requirement in any state [Notice PIH 2012-28].

If OCHA proposes to deny admission based on a criminal record or on lifetime sex offender registration information, OCHA must notify the household of the proposed action and must provide the subject of the record and the applicant a copy of the record and an opportunity to dispute the accuracy and relevance of the information prior to a denial of admission [24 CFR 5.903(f) and 5.905(d)].
Obtaining Information from Drug Treatment Facilities [24 CFR 960.205]

HUD authorizes OCHAs to request and obtain information from drug abuse treatment facilities concerning applicants. Specifically, OCHA may require each applicant to submit for all household members who are at least 18 years of age, and for each family head, spouse, or cohead regardless of age, one or more consent forms signed by such household members that requests any drug abuse treatment facility to inform OCHA whether the drug abuse treatment facility has reasonable cause to believe that the household member is currently engaging in illegal drug use.

Drug Abuse Treatment Facility means an entity that holds itself out as providing, and provides, diagnosis, treatment, or referral for treatment with respect to the illegal drug use, and is either an identified unit within a general care facility, or an entity other than a general medical care facility.

Currently engaging in illegal use of a drug means illegal use of a drug that occurred recently enough to justify a reasonable belief that there is continuing illegal drug use by a household member.

Any consent form used for the purpose of obtaining information from a drug abuse treatment facility to determine whether a household member is currently engaging in illegal drug use must expire automatically after OCHA has made a final decision to either approve or deny the admission of such person.

Any charges incurred by OCHA for information provided from a drug abuse treatment facility may not be passed on to the applicant or tenant.

If OCHA chooses to obtain such information from drug abuse treatment facilities, it must adopt and implement one of the two following policies:

Policy A: OCHA must submit a request for information to a drug abuse treatment facility for all families before they are admitted. The request must be submitted for each proposed household member who is at least 18 years of age, and for each family head, spouse, or cohead regardless of age.

Policy B: OCHA must submit a request for information only for certain household members, whose criminal record indicates prior arrests or conviction for any criminal activity that may be a basis for denial of admission or whose prior tenancy records indicate that the proposed household member engaged in destruction of property or violent activity against another person, or they interfered with the right of peaceful enjoyment of the premises of other residents.

If OCHA chooses to obtain such information, it must abide by the HUD requirements for records management and confidentiality as described in 24 CFR 960.205(f).

OCHA Policy

OCHA may obtain information from drug abuse treatment facilities to determine whether any applicant family’s household members are currently engaging in illegal drug activity only when OCHA has determined that the family will be denied admission based on a family member’s drug-related criminal activity, and the family claims that the culpable family member has successfully completed a supervised drug or alcohol rehabilitation program.
Screening for Suitability as a Tenant [24 CFR 960.203(c)]

OCHA is responsible for the screening and selection of families to occupy public housing units. OCHA may consider all relevant information. Screening is important to public housing communities and program integrity, and to ensure that assisted housing is provided to those families that will adhere to lease obligations.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will consider the family’s history with respect to the following factors:

- Payment of rent and utilities
- Caring for a unit and premises
- Respecting the rights of other residents to the peaceful enjoyment of their housing
- Criminal activity that is a threat to the health, safety, or property of others
- Behavior of all household members as related to the grounds for denial as detailed in Sections 3-III. B and C
- Compliance with any other essential conditions of tenancy Resources Used to Check Applicant Suitability [PH Occ GB, pp. 47-56]

OCHAs have a variety of resources available to them for determination of the suitability of applicants. Generally, OCHAs should reject applicants who have recent behavior that would warrant lease termination for a public housing resident.

OCHA Policy

In order to determine the suitability of applicants OCHA will examine applicant history for the past three years. Such background checks will include:

Past Performance in Meeting Financial Obligations, Especially Rent

OCHA and landlord references for the past three years, gathering information about past performance meeting rental obligations such as rent payment record, late payment record, whether OCHA/landlord ever began or completed lease termination for non-payment, and whether utilities were ever disconnected in the unit. OCHA’s and landlords will be asked if they would rent to the applicant family again.

Utility company references covering the monthly amount of utilities, late payment, disconnection, return of a utility deposit and whether the applicant can get utilities turned on in their name. (Use of this inquiry will be reserved for applicants applying for units where there are tenant-paid utilities.)

If an applicant has no rental payment history OCHA will check court records of eviction actions and other financial judgments, and credit reports. A lack of credit history will not disqualify someone from becoming a public housing resident, but a poor credit rating may.

Applicants with no rental payment history will also be asked to provide OCHA with personal references. The references will be requested to complete a verification of the applicant’s ability to pay rent if no other documentation of ability to meet financial obligations is available. The applicant will also be required to complete a checklist documenting their ability to meet financial obligations.

If previous landlords or the utility company do not respond to requests from OCHA, the applicant may provide other documentation that demonstrates their ability to meet financial obligations (e.g. rent receipts, cancelled checks, etc.)
Disturbances of Neighbors, Destruction of Property or Living or Housekeeping Habits at Prior Residences that May Adversely Affect Health, Safety, or Welfare of Other Tenants, or Cause Damage to the Unit or the Development

OCHA and landlord references for the past three years, gathering information on whether the applicant kept a unit clean, safe and sanitary; whether they violated health or safety codes; whether any damage was done by the applicant to a current or previous unit or the development, and, if so, how much the repair of the damage cost; whether the applicant’s housekeeping caused insect or rodent infestation; and whether the neighbors complained about the applicant or whether the police were ever called because of disturbances.

Police and court records within the past three years will be used to check for any evidence of disturbance of neighbors or destruction of property that might have resulted in arrest or conviction. A record of arrest(s) will not be used as the basis for the denial or proof that the applicant engaged in disqualifying activity.

A personal reference will be requested to complete a verification of the applicant’s ability to care for the unit and avoid disturbing neighbors if no other documentation is available. In these cases, the applicant will also be required to complete a checklist documenting their ability to care for the unit and to avoid disturbing neighbors.

Home visits may be used to determine the applicant’s ability to care for the unit.
3-III.E. CRITERIA FOR DECIDING TO DENY ADMISSION

Evidence

OCHA Policy

OCHA will use the preponderance of the evidence as the standard for making all admission decisions.

Preponderance of the evidence is defined as evidence which is of greater weight or more convincing than the evidence which is offered in opposition to it; that is, evidence which as a whole shows that the fact sought to be proved is more probable than not. Preponderance of the evidence may not be determined by the number of witnesses, but by the greater weight of all evidence.

HUD authorizes OCHA to consider all relevant circumstances when deciding whether to deny admission based on a family’s past history except in the situations for which denial of admission is mandated (see Section 3-III.B).

In the event OCHA receives unfavorable information with respect to an applicant, consideration must be given to the time, nature, and extent of the applicant’s conduct (including the seriousness of the offense). In a manner consistent with its policies, OCHA may give consideration to factors which might indicate a reasonable probability of favorable future conduct.
OCHA Policy

OCHA will consider the following facts and circumstances prior to making its decision:

- The seriousness of the case, especially with respect to how it would affect other residents’ safety or property
- The effects that denial of admission may have on other members of the family who were not involved in the action or failure to act
- The extent of participation or culpability of individual family members, including whether the culpable family member is a minor or a person with disabilities, or (as discussed further in section 3-III.F) a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking
- The length of time since the violation occurred, including the age of the individual at the time of the conduct, as well as the family’s recent history and the likelihood of favorable conduct in the future

While a record or records of arrest will not be used as the sole basis for denial, an arrest may trigger an investigation to determine whether the applicant actually engaged in disqualifying criminal activity. As part of its investigation, the PHA may obtain the police report associated with the arrest and consider the reported circumstances of the arrest. The PHA may also consider:

- Any statements made by witnesses or the applicant not included in the police report
- Whether criminal charges were filed
  - Whether, if filed, criminal charges were abandoned, dismissed, not prosecuted, or ultimately resulted in an acquittal
- Any other evidence relevant to determining whether or not the applicant engaged in disqualifying activity

Evidence of criminal conduct will be considered if it indicates a demonstrable risk to safety and/or property

Evidence of the applicant family’s participation in or willingness to participate in social service or other appropriate counseling service programs

In the case of drug or alcohol abuse, whether the culpable household member is participating in or has successfully completed a supervised drug or alcohol rehabilitation program or has otherwise been rehabilitated successfully

OCHA will require the applicant to submit evidence of the household member’s current participation in or successful completion of a supervised drug or alcohol rehabilitation program, or evidence of otherwise having been rehabilitated successfully.
Removal of a Family Member’s Name from the Application

Should OCHA’s screening process reveal that an applicant’s household includes an individual subject to state lifetime registered sex offender registration, OCHA must offer the family the opportunity to remove the ineligible family member from the household. If the family is unwilling to remove that individual from the household, OCHA must deny admission to the family [Notice PIH 2012-28].

For other criminal activity, OCHA may permit the family to exclude the culpable family members as a condition of eligibility. [24 CFR 960.203(c)(3)(i)].

OCHA Policy

As a condition of receiving assistance, a family may agree to remove the culpable family member from the application. In such instances, the head of household must certify that the family member will not be permitted to visit or to stay as a guest in the public housing unit.

After admission to the program, the family must present evidence of the former family member’s current address upon OCHA request.

Reasonable Accommodation [PH Occ GB, pp. 58-60]

If the family includes a person with disabilities, OCHA’s decision concerning denial of admission is subject to consideration of reasonable accommodation in accordance with 24 CFR Part 8.

OCHA Policy

If the family indicates that the behavior of a family member with a disability is the reason for the proposed denial of admission, OCHA will determine whether the behavior is related to the disability. If so, upon the family’s request, OCHA will determine whether alternative measures are appropriate as a reasonable accommodation. OCHA will only consider accommodations that can reasonably be expected to address the behavior that is the basis of the proposed denial of admission. See Chapter 2 for a discussion of reasonable accommodation.
3-III.F. PROHIBITION AGAINST DENIAL OF ASSISTANCE TO VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, DATING VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, STALKING, AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

The Violence against Women Act (VAWA) and the HUD regulation at 24 CFR 5.2005(b) prohibit PHAs from denying admission to an otherwise qualified applicant on the basis or as a direct result of the fact that the applicant is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

- Although the VAWA 2022 statute does not specifically include human trafficking in the list of victims protected under VAWA, in 2022 HUD began including human trafficking as part of the list of victims protected under VAWA (as seen in Notices PIH 2022-06, PIH 2022-22, and PIH 2022-24). In the absence of a final rule implementing VAWA 2022 and to mirror HUD’s recent usage, this policy includes human trafficking in addition to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking anywhere such a list appears.

Definitions of key terms used in VAWA are provided in section 16-VII of this ACOP, where general VAWA requirements and policies pertaining to notification, documentation, and confidentiality are also located.

Notification

VAWA requires OCHA to provide applicants who are denied assistance with a VAWA Notice of Occupancy Rights (form HUD-5380) and a domestic violence certification form (HUD-5382) at the time the applicant is denied.

OCHA Policy

OCHA acknowledges that a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking may have an unfavorable history (e.g., a poor credit history, poor rental history, a record of previous damage to an apartment, a prior arrest record) due to adverse factors that would warrant denial under OCHA’s policies.

While OCHA is not required to identify whether adverse factors that resulted in the applicant’s denial are a result of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking, the applicant may inform OCHA that their status as a victim is directly related to the grounds for the denial. OCHA will request that the applicant provide enough information to OCHA to allow OCHA to make an objectively reasonable determination, based on all circumstances, whether the adverse factor is a direct result of their status as a victim.

OCHA will include in its notice of denial information about the protection against denial provided by VAWA in accordance with section 16-VII.C of this ACOP, a notice of VAWA rights, and a copy of the form HUD-5382. OCHA will request in writing that an applicant wishing to claim this protection notify OCHA within 14 business days.

Revised 6/28/2023
Documentation

Victim Documentation [24 CFR 5.2007]

OCHA Policy

If an applicant claims the protection against denial of admission that VAWA provides to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking, the PHA will request in writing that the applicant provide documentation supporting the claim in accordance with section 16-VII.D of this ACOP.
Perpetrator Documentation

OCHA Policy

If the perpetrator of the abuse is a member of the applicant family, the applicant must provide additional documentation consisting of one of the following:

- A signed statement (1) requesting that the perpetrator be removed from the application and (2) certifying that the perpetrator will not be permitted to visit or to stay as a guest in the public housing unit.

- Documentation that the perpetrator has successfully completed, or is successfully undergoing, rehabilitation or treatment. The documentation must be signed by an employee or agent of a domestic violence service provider or by a medical or other knowledgeable professional from whom the perpetrator has sought or is receiving assistance in addressing the abuse. The signer must attest under penalty of perjury to their belief that the rehabilitation was successfully completed or is progressing successfully. The victim and perpetrator must also sign or attest to the documentation.

3-III.G. NOTICE OF ELIGIBILITY OR DENIAL

OCHA will notify an applicant family of its final determination of eligibility in accordance with the policies in Section 4-III.E.

If OCHA uses a criminal record or sex offender registration information obtained under 24 CFR 5, Subpart J, as the basis of a denial, a copy of the record must precede the notice to deny, with an opportunity for the applicant to dispute the accuracy and relevance of the information before OCHA can move to deny the application. In addition, a copy of the record must be provided to the subject of the record [24 CFR 5.903(f) and 5.905(d)].

OCHA Policy

If, based on a criminal record or sex offender registration information an applicant family appears to be ineligible, OCHA will notify the family in writing of the proposed denial and provide a copy of the record to the applicant and to the subject of the record. The family will be given 10 business days to dispute the accuracy and relevance of the information. If the family does not contact OCHA to dispute the information within that 10 day period, OCHA will proceed with issuing the notice of denial of admission. A family that does not exercise their right to dispute the accuracy of the information prior to issuance of the official denial letter will still be given the opportunity to do so as part of the informal hearing process.

Notice requirements related to denying admission to noncitizens are contained in Section 3-II.B.

Notice policies related to denying admission to applicants who may be victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking or human trafficking are contained in Section 3-III.F.
EXHIBIT 3-1: DETAILED DEFINITIONS RELATED TO DISABILITIES

Person with Disabilities [24 CFR 5.403]

The term person with disabilities means a person who has any of the following types of conditions.

- Has a disability, as defined in 42 U.S.C. Section 423(d)(1)(A), which reads:

  Inability to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months

  In the case of an individual who has attained the age of 55 and is blind (within the meaning of “blindness” as defined in section 416(i)(1) of this title), inability by reason of such blindness to engage in substantial gainful activity, requiring skills or ability comparable to those of any gainful activity in which he has previously engaged with some regularity and over a substantial period of time.

- Has a developmental disability as defined in the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act of 2000 [42 U.S.C.15002(8)], which defines developmental disability in functional terms as follows:

  (A) IN GENERAL – The term developmental disability means a severe, chronic disability of an individual that-

  (i) is attributable to a mental or physical impairment or combination of mental and physical impairments;

  (ii) is manifested before the individual attains age 22;

  (iii) is likely to continue indefinitely;

  (iv) results in substantial functional limitations in 3 or more of the following areas of major life activity: (I) self-care, (II) receptive and expressive language, (III) learning, (IV) mobility, (V) self-direction, (VI) capacity for independent living, (VII) economic self-sufficiency; and

  (v) reflects the individual’s need for a combination and sequence of special, interdisciplinary, or generic services, individualized supports, or other forms of assistance that are of lifelong or extended duration and are individually planned and coordinated.

  (B) INFANTS AND YOUNG CHILDREN – An individual from birth to age 9, inclusive, who has a substantial developmental delay or specific congenital or acquired condition, may be considered to have a developmental disability without meeting 3 or more of the criteria described in clauses (i) through (v) of subparagraph (A) if the individual, without services and supports, has a high probability of meeting those criteria later in life.

- Has a physical, mental, or emotional impairment that is expected to be of long-continued and indefinite duration; substantially impedes his or her ability to live independently, and is of such a nature that the ability to live independently could be improved by more suitable housing conditions.

People with the acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS) or any conditions arising from the etiologic agent for AIDS are not excluded from this definition.
A person whose disability is based solely on any drug or alcohol dependence does not qualify as a person with disabilities for the purposes of this program.

For purposes of reasonable accommodation and program accessibility for persons with disabilities, the term person with disabilities refers to an individual with handicaps.

Individual with Handicaps [24 CFR 8.3]

Individual with handicaps means any person who has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities; has a record of such an impairment; or is regarded as having such an impairment. The term does not include any individual who is an alcoholic or drug abuser whose current use of alcohol or drugs prevents the individual from participating in the program or activity in question, or whose participation, by reason of such current alcohol or drug abuse, would constitute a direct threat to property or the safety of others.

As used in this definition, the phrase:

1. Physical or mental impairment includes:
   - (a) Any physiological disorder or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss affecting one or more of the following body systems: neurological; musculoskeletal; special sense organs; respiratory, including speech organs; cardiovascular; reproductive; digestive; genito-urinary; hemic and lymphatic; skin; and endocrine
   - (b) Any mental or psychological disorder, such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, and specific learning disabilities. The term physical or mental impairment includes, but is not limited to, such diseases and conditions as orthopedic, visual, speech and hearing impairments, cerebral palsy, autism, epilepsy, muscular dystrophy, multiple sclerosis, cancer, heart disease, diabetes, mental retardation, emotional illness, drug addiction and alcoholism.

2. Major life activities means functions such as caring for one's self, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning and working.

3. Has a record of such an impairment means has a history of, or has been misclassified as having, a mental or physical impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities.

4. Is regarded as having an impairment means:
   - (a) Has a physical or mental impairment that does not substantially limit one or more major life activities but that is treated by a recipient as constituting such a limitation
   - (b) Has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities only as a result of the attitudes of others toward such impairment
   - (c) Has none of the impairments defined in paragraph (a) of this section but is treated by a recipient as having such an impairment
Chapter 4
APPLICATIONS, WAITING LIST AND TENANT SELECTION

INTRODUCTION

When a family wishes to reside in public housing, the family must submit an application that provides OCHA with the information needed to determine the family’s eligibility. HUD requires OCHA to place all eligible families that apply for public housing on a waiting list. When a unit becomes available, OCHA must select families from the waiting list in accordance with HUD requirements and OCHA policies as stated in its Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy (ACOP) and its annual plan.

OCHA is required to adopt a clear approach to accepting applications, placing families on the waiting list, and selecting families from the waiting list, and must follow this approach consistently. The actual order in which families are selected from the waiting list can be affected if a family has certain characteristics designated by HUD or OCHA to receive preferential treatment.

HUD regulations require that OCHA comply with all equal opportunity requirements and it must affirmatively further fair housing goals in the administration of the program [24 CFR 960.103, PH Occ GB p. 13]. Adherence to the selection policies described in this chapter ensures that OCHA will be in compliance with all relevant fair housing requirements, as described in Chapter 2.

This chapter describes HUD and OCHA policies for accepting applications, managing the waiting list and selecting families from the waiting list. OCHAs policies for assigning unit size and making unit offers are contained in Chapter 5. Together, Chapters 4 and 5 of the ACOP comprise OCHA’s Tenant Selection and Assignment Plan (TSAP).

The policies outlined in this chapter are organized into three sections, as follows:

Part I: The Application Process. This part provides an overview of the application process, and discusses how applicants can obtain and submit applications. It also specifies how OCHA will handle the applications it receives.

Part II: Managing the Waiting List. This part presents the policies that govern how OCHA’s waiting list is structured, when it is opened and closed, and how the public is notified of the opportunity to apply for public housing. It also discusses the process OCHA will use to keep the waiting list current.

Part III: Tenant Selection. This part describes the policies that guide OCHA in selecting families from the waiting list as units become available. It also specifies how in-person interviews will be used to ensure that OCHA has the information needed to make a final eligibility determination.
PART I: THE APPLICATION PROCESS

4-I.A. OVERVIEW

This part describes the policies that guide OCHA’s efforts to distribute and accept applications, and to make preliminary determinations of applicant family eligibility that affect placement of the family on the waiting list. This part also describes OCHA’s obligation to ensure the accessibility of the application process.

OCHA uses an online application system available through the OCHA website as its primary method for all steps of the application process. The online portal system is also used for updating and making changes to original applications.

4-I.B. APPLYING FOR ASSISTANCE

Any family that wishes to reside in public housing must apply for admission to the program [24 CFR 1.4(b)(2)(ii), 24 CFR 960.202(a)(2)(iv), and PH Occ GB, p. 68]. HUD permits OCHA to determine the format and content of its applications, as well how such applications will be made available to interested families and how applications will be accepted by OCHA. However, OCHA must include Form HUD-92006, Supplement to Application for Federally Assisted Housing, as part of OCHA’s application [Notice PIH 2009-36].

OCHA Policy

OCHA has implemented a preliminary application step. This preliminary application step will require families to provide only the information needed to make an initial assessment for placement on the waiting list. Preliminary applications will be accepted via the online application system available through the OCHA website.

When it is expected that a family will be selected from the waiting list within 60 days, the family will be required to complete a full application via the online application system available through the OCHA website and provide all of the information necessary to establish family eligibility and the amount of rent the family will pay when selected from the waiting list.
4-I.C. ACCESSIBILITY OF THE APPLICATION PROCESS

OCHA must take a variety of steps to ensure that the application process is accessible to those people who might have difficulty complying with the standard OCHA application process.

Disabled Populations [24 CFR 8; PH Occ GB, p. 68]

OCHA must provide reasonable accommodation as needed for persons with disabilities to make the application process fully accessible. The facility where applications are accepted and the application process must be fully accessible, or OCHA must provide an alternate approach that provides equal access to the program. Chapter 2 provides a full discussion of OCHA’s policies related to providing reasonable accommodations for people with disabilities.

Limited English Proficiency

OCHA is required to take reasonable steps to ensure meaningful access to their programs and activities by persons with limited English proficiency [24 CFR 1]. Chapter 2 provides a full discussion on OCHA’s policies related to ensuring access to people with limited English proficiency (LEP).
4-I.D. PLACEMENT ON THE WAITING LIST

OCHA must review each completed application received and make a preliminary assessment of the family’s eligibility. Applicants for whom the waiting list is open must be placed on the waiting list unless OCHA determines the family to be ineligible. Where the family is determined to be ineligible, OCHA must notify the family in writing [24 CFR 960.208(a); PH Occ GB, p. 41].

No applicant has a right or entitlement to be listed on the waiting list, or to any particular position on the waiting list.

Ineligible for Placement on the Waiting List

OCHA Policy

If OCHA determines from the information provided that a family is ineligible, the family will not be placed on the waiting list. When a family is determined to be ineligible, OCHA will send written notification of the ineligibility determination within 10 business days of receipt of the completed application. The notice will specify the reasons for ineligibility, and will inform the family of its right to request an informal hearing and explain the process for doing so (see Chapter 14).

Eligible for Placement on the Waiting List

OCHA Policy

Applicants will be placed on the waiting list according to OCHA preference(s) and the date and time their complete application is received by OCHA unless notified in writing of their ineligibility within 10 business days of receipt of the complete application.

OCHA will assign families on the waiting list according to the bedroom size for which a family qualifies as established in its occupancy standards (see Chapter 5). Families may request to be placed on the waiting list for a unit size smaller than designated by the occupancy guidelines (as long as the unit is not overcrowded according to OCHA standards and local codes). However, in these cases, the family must agree not to request a transfer for three years after admission, unless they have a change in family size or composition.

Placement on the waiting list does not indicate that the family is, in fact, eligible for admission. When the family is selected from the waiting list, OCHA will verify any preference(s) claimed and determine eligibility and suitability for admission to the program.
PART II: MANAGING THE WAITING LIST

4-II.A. OVERVIEW

OCHA must have policies regarding the type of waiting list it will utilize as well as how the waiting list will be organized and managed. This includes policies on notifying the public on the opening and closing of the waiting list to new applicants, updating family information, purging the list of families that are no longer interested in or eligible for public housing, and conducting outreach to ensure a sufficient number of applicants.

In addition, HUD imposes requirements on how OCHA may structure its waiting list and how families must be treated if they apply for public housing at an PHA that administers more than one assisted housing program.

4-II.B. ORGANIZATION OF THE WAITING LIST

OCHA’s public housing waiting list must be organized in such a manner to allow OCHA to accurately identify and select families in the proper order, according to the admissions policies described in this ACOP.

OCHA Policy

The waiting list will contain the following information for each applicant listed:

- Name and social security number of head of household
- Unit size required (number of family members)
- Amount and source of annual income
- Accessibility requirement, if any
- Date and time of application or application number
- Household type (family, elderly, disabled)
- Admission preference, if any
- Race and ethnicity of the head of household
- The specific site(s) selected (only if OCHA offers site-based waiting lists)
OCHA may adopt one community-wide waiting list or site-based waiting lists. OCHA must obtain approval from HUD through submission of its Annual Plan before it may offer site-based waiting lists. Site-based waiting lists allow families to select the development where they wish to reside and must be consistent with all applicable civil rights and fair housing laws and regulations [24 CFR 903.7(b)(2)].

OCHA Policy

OCHA will provide low rent public housing assistance to applicants according to a site-based waiting list policy for the following developments:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Senior and/or Disabled-</th>
<th>Family-</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2. The Towers Apartments</td>
<td>10. Oak Grove</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Classen Senior Center</td>
<td>11. Ambassador Courts</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Andrews Square</td>
<td>13. Scattered Sites</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. Reding Senior Center</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7. Wyatt F. Jeltz Center</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8. Hillcrest Senior Citizen</td>
<td></td>
</tr>

HUD requires that public housing applicants must be offered the opportunity to be placed on the waiting list for any tenant-based or project-based voucher or moderate rehabilitation program that OCHA operates if 1) the other programs’ waiting lists are open, and 2) the family is qualified for the other programs [24 CFR 982.205(a)(2)(i)].

HUD permits, but does not require, that OCHA maintain a single merged waiting list for their public housing, Section 8, and other subsidized housing programs [24 CFR 982.205(a)(1)].

OCHA Policy

OCHA will not merge the public housing waiting list with the waiting list for any other program OCHA operates.

Revised 6/28/2023
4-II.C. OPENING AND CLOSING THE WAITING LIST

Closing the Waiting List

OCHA is permitted to close the waiting list, in whole or in part, if it has an adequate pool of families to fully lease units in all of its developments. OCHA may close the waiting list completely, or restrict intake by preference, type of project, or by size and type of dwelling unit. [PH Occ GB, p. 31].

OCHA Policy

OCHA may close the waiting list when the estimated waiting period for housing applicants on the list reaches 24 months for the most current applicants. Where OCHA has particular preferences or other criteria that require a specific category of family, OCHA may elect to continue to accept applications from these applicants while closing the waiting list to others.

Reopening the Waiting List

If the waiting list has been closed, it may be reopened at any time. OCHA should publish a notice announcing the opening of the waiting list in local newspapers of general circulation, minority media, and other suitable media outlets. Such notice must comply with HUD fair housing requirements. OCHA should specify who may apply, and where and when applications will be received.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will announce the reopening of the waiting list at least 10 business days prior to the date applications will first be accepted. If the list is only being reopened for certain categories of families, this information will be contained in the notice. The notice will specify where, when, and how applications are to be received.

To ensure that public notices broadly reach potential applicants in all communities throughout the housing market area, OCHA will distribute public notices to local community-based organizations, such as social service agencies and religious institutions; distribute the notice online through the OCHA’s website or social media platforms and other online platforms for local housing news; and make use of any local newspapers of general circulation, minority media, and other suitable means.

OCHA will give public notice by publishing the relevant information in suitable media outlets including, but not limited to:

4-II.D. FAMILY OUTREACH [24 CFR 903.2(d); 24 CFR 903.7(a) and (b)]

OCHA should conduct outreach as necessary to ensure that OCHA has a sufficient number of applicants on the waiting list to fill anticipated vacancies and to assure that OCHA is affirmatively furthering fair housing and complying with the Fair Housing Act.

Because HUD requires OCHA to admit a specified percentage of extremely low income families, OCHA may need to conduct special outreach to ensure that an adequate number of such families apply for public housing.

OCHA outreach efforts must comply with fair housing requirements. This includes:

- Analyzing the housing market area and the populations currently being served to identify underserved populations
- Ensuring that outreach efforts are targeted to media outlets that reach eligible populations that are underrepresented in the program
- Avoiding outreach efforts that prefer or exclude people who are members of a protected class

OCHA outreach efforts must be designed to inform qualified families about the availability of units under the program. These efforts may include, as needed, any of the following activities:

- Submitting press releases to local newspapers, including minority newspapers
- Developing informational materials and flyers to distribute to other agencies
- Providing application forms to other public and private agencies that serve the low income population
- Developing partnerships with other organizations that serve similar populations, including agencies that provide services for persons with disabilities

OCHA Policy

OCHA will monitor the characteristics of the population being served and the characteristics of the population as a whole in OCHA’s jurisdiction. Targeted outreach efforts will be undertaken if a comparison suggests that certain populations are being underserved.
4-II.E. REPORTING CHANGES IN FAMILY CIRCUMSTANCES

OCHA Policy

While the family is on the waiting list, the family must inform OCHA, within 10 business days, of changes in family size or composition, preference status, or contact information, including current residence, mailing address, and phone number. The changes must be submitted in writing.

Changes in an applicant's circumstances while on the waiting list may affect the family's qualification for a particular bedroom size or entitlement to a preference. When an applicant reports a change that affects their placement on the waiting list, the waiting list will be updated accordingly.
4-II.F. UPDATING THE WAITING LIST

HUD requires OCHA to establish policies that describe the circumstances under which applicants will be removed from the waiting list [24 CFR 960.202(a)(2)(iv)].

Purging the Waiting List

The decision to remove an applicant family that includes a person with disabilities from the waiting list is subject to reasonable accommodation. If the applicant did not respond to OCHA’s request for information or updates because of the family member’s disability, OCHA must, upon the family’s request, reinstate the applicant family to their former position on the waiting list as a reasonable accommodation [24 CFR 8.4(a), 24 CFR 100.204(a), and PH Occ GB, p. 39 and 40]. See Chapter 2 for further information regarding reasonable accommodations.

OCHA Policy

The waiting list will be updated as needed to ensure that all applicant information is current and timely.

To update the waiting list, OCHA will send an update request via first class mail to each family on the waiting list to determine whether the family continues to be interested in, and to qualify for, the program. This update request will be sent to the last address that OCHA has on record for the family. The update request will provide a deadline by which the family must respond and will state that failure to respond will result in the applicant’s name being removed from the waiting list.

This update request will be sent to the last address that OCHA has on record for the family as well as any additional contact methods identified by the family. The update request will provide a deadline by which the family must respond and will state that failure to respond will result in the applicant’s name being removed from the waiting list.

The family’s response must be in writing and may be delivered in person, by mail, electronically/email, through the online portal system, or by fax. Responses should be postmarked or received by OCHA not later than 30 business days from the date of OCHA letter. OCHA may use the online portal system to accept and updates and changes during the purging of the waiting list process.

If the family fails to respond or update within the online portal system within 30 business days, the family will be removed from the waiting list without further notice.

If the notice is returned by the post office, the applicant will be removed from the waiting list without further notice.

When a family is removed from the waiting list during the update process for failure to respond, no informal hearing will be offered in such cases. Such failures to act on the part of the applicant prevent OCHA from making an eligibility determination; therefore no informal hearing is required.

If a family is removed from the waiting list for failure to respond, OCHA may reinstate the family if the lack of response was due to OCHA error, to circumstances beyond the family’s control, as a result of a family member’s disability, or as a direct result of status as a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking, including an adverse factor resulting from such abuse.

Revised 6/28/2023
If a family is removed from the waiting list for failure to respond, OCHA may reinstate the family if the lack of response was due to OCHA error, or to circumstances beyond the family’s control.

Removal from the Waiting List

OCHA Policy

OCHA will remove an applicant from the waiting list upon request by the applicant family. In such cases no informal hearing is required.

If OCHA determines that the family is not eligible for admission (see Chapter 3) at any time while the family is on the waiting list the family will be removed from the waiting list.

If a family is removed from the waiting list because OCHA has determined the family is not eligible for admission, a notice will be sent to the family’s address of record as well as to any alternate address provided on the initial application. The notice will state the reasons the family was removed from the waiting list and will inform the family how to request an informal hearing regarding OCHA’s decision (see Chapter 14) [24 CFR 960.208(a)].
PART III: TENANT SELECTION

4-III.A. OVERVIEW

OCHA must establish tenant selection policies for families being admitted to public housing [24 CFR 960.201(a)]. OCHA must not require any specific income or racial quotas for any developments [24 CFR 903.2(d)]. OCHA must not assign persons to a particular section of a community or to a development or building based on race, color, religion, sex, disability, familial status or national origin for purposes of segregating populations [24 CFR 1.4(b)(1)(i) and 24 CFR 903.2(d)(1)].

The order in which families will be selected from the waiting list depends on the selection method chosen by OCHA and is impacted in part by any selection preferences that the family qualifies for. The availability of units also may affect the order in which families are selected from the waiting list.

OCHA must maintain a clear record of all information required to verify that the family is selected from the waiting list according to OCHA’s selection policies [24 CFR 960.206(e)(2)]. OCHA’s policies must be posted any place where OCHA receives applications. OCHA must provide a copy of its tenant selection policies upon request to any applicant or tenant. OCHA may charge the family for providing a copy of its tenant selection policies [24 CFR 960.202(c)(2)].

OCHA Policy

When an applicant or resident family requests a copy of OCHA’s tenant selection policies, OCHA will provide copies to them for $0.25 per page.
4-III.B. SELECTION METHOD

OCHA must describe the method for selecting applicant families from the waiting list, including the system of admission preferences that OCHA will use.

Local Preferences [24 CFR 960.206]

OCHA is permitted to establish local preferences and to give priority to serving families that meet those criteria. HUD specifically authorizes and places restrictions on certain types of local preferences. HUD also permits OCHA to establish other local preferences, at its discretion. Any local preferences established must be consistent with OCHA plan and the consolidated plan, and must be based on local housing needs and priorities that can be documented by generally accepted data sources [24 CFR 960.206(a)].

OCHA will use the following local preference:

A Substandard Housing Preference for admissions will be given to the following programs: Persons/Families participating in the Continuum of Care (COC) programs referred to OCHA by coordinated entry system, families that are displaced that currently lives in a Community Enhancement Corporation owned unit, and families under the Family Unification Program (FUP) referred by the Department of Health and Human Services with an Individual Service Plan.

As authorized by the Executive Director, families who are defined as a “displaced person” and have been affected by a State or Federally declared disaster.

- Displaced person is defined as a person displaced by governmental action or a person whose dwelling has been extensively damaged or destroyed as a result of a disaster, declared or otherwise formally recognized pursuant to Federal disaster relief laws.

Income Targeting Requirement [24 CFR 960.202(b)]

HUD requires that extremely low-income (ELI) families make up at least 40 percent of the families admitted to public housing during OCHA’s fiscal year. ELI families are those with annual incomes at or below the federal poverty level or 30 percent of the area median income, whichever number is higher [Federal Register notice 6/25/14]. To ensure this requirement is met, OCHA may skip non-ELI families on the waiting list in order to select an ELI family.

If OCHA also operates a housing choice voucher (HCV) program, admissions of extremely low-income families to OCHA’s HCV program during a OCHA fiscal year that exceed the 75 percent minimum target requirement for the voucher program, shall be credited against OCHA’s basic targeting requirement in the public housing program for the same fiscal year. However, under these circumstances the fiscal year credit to the public housing program must not exceed the lower of: (1) ten percent of public housing waiting list admissions during OCHA fiscal year; (2) ten percent of waiting list admissions to OCHA’s housing choice voucher program during OCHA fiscal year; or (3) the number of qualifying low-income families who commence occupancy during the fiscal year of OCHA public housing units located in census tracts with a poverty rate of 30 percent or more. For this purpose, qualifying low-income family means a low-income family other than an extremely low-income family.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will monitor progress in meeting the ELI requirement throughout the fiscal year. ELI families will be selected ahead of other eligible families on an as-needed basis to ensure that the income targeting requirement is met.

A mixed population development is a public housing development or portion of a development that was reserved for elderly families and disabled families at its inception (and has retained that character) or OCHA at some point after its inception obtained HUD approval to give preference in tenant selection for all units in the development (or portion of a development) to elderly and disabled families [24 CFR 960.102]. Elderly family means a family whose head, spouse, cohead, or sole member is a person who is at least 62 years of age. Disabled family means a family whose head, spouse, cohead, or sole member is a person with disabilities [24 CFR 5.403]. OCHA must give elderly and disabled families equal preference in selecting these families for admission to mixed population developments. OCHA may not establish a limit on the number of elderly or disabled families that may occupy a mixed population development. In selecting elderly and disabled families to fill these units, OCHA must first offer the units that have accessibility features for families that include a person with a disability and require the accessibility features of such units. OCHA may not discriminate against elderly or disabled families that include children (Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988).

Units Designated for Elderly or Disabled Families [24 CFR 945]

OCHA may designate projects or portions of a public housing project specifically for elderly or disabled families. OCHA must have a HUD-approved allocation plan before the designation may take place.

Among the designated developments, OCHA must also apply any preferences that it has established. If there are not enough elderly families to occupy the units in a designated elderly development, OCHA may allow near-elderly families to occupy the units [24 CFR 945.303(c)(1)]. Near-elderly family means a family whose head, spouse, or cohead is at least 50 years old, but is less than 62 [24 CFR 5.403].

If there are an insufficient number of elderly families and near-elderly families for the units in a development designated for elderly families, OCHA must make available to all other families any unit that is ready for re-rental and has been vacant for more than 60 consecutive days [24 CFR 945.303(c)(2)].

The decision of any disabled family or elderly family not to occupy or accept occupancy in designated housing shall not have an adverse affect on their admission or continued occupancy in public housing or their position on or placement on the waiting list. However, this protection does not apply to any family who refuses to occupy or accept occupancy in designated housing because of the race, color, religion, sex, disability, familial status, or national origin of the occupants of the designated housing or the surrounding area [24 CFR 945.303(d)(1) and (2)].

This protection does apply to an elderly family or disabled family that declines to accept occupancy, respectively, in a designated project for elderly families or for disabled families, and requests occupancy in a general occupancy project or in a mixed population project [24 CFR 945.303(d)(3)].

OCHA Policy

OCHA does have designated Elderly only developments. Shartel Towers, Reding Senior Center, Wyatt F. Jeltz Center and Hillcrest Senior Center have been approved as designated elderly only developments.

Deconcentration of Poverty and Income-Mixing [24 CFR 903.1 and 903.2]

OCHA’s admission policy must be designed to provide for deconcentration of poverty and income-mixing by bringing higher income tenants into lower income projects and lower income tenants into higher income projects. A statement of OCHA’s deconcentration policies must be included in its annual plan [24 CFR 903.7(b)].

OCHA’s deconcentration policy must comply with its obligation to meet the income targeting requirement [24 CFR 903.2(c)(5)].

Developments subject to the deconcentration requirement are referred to as ‘covered developments’ and include general occupancy (family) public housing developments. The following developments are not subject to deconcentration and income mixing requirements: developments operated by a PHA with fewer than 100 public housing units; mixed population or developments designated specifically for elderly or disabled families; developments operated by a PHA with only one general occupancy development; developments approved for demolition or for conversion to tenant-based public housing; and developments approved for a mixed-finance plan using HOPE VI or public housing funds [24 CFR 903.2(b)].

To implement the statutory requirement to deconcentrate poverty and provide for income mixing in covered developments, OCHA must comply with the following steps:

Step 1. OCHA must determine the average income of all families residing in all covered developments. OCHA may use the median income, instead of average income, provided that OCHA includes a written explanation in its annual plan justifying the use of median income.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will determine the average income of all families in all covered developments on an annual basis.

Step 2. OCHA must determine the average income (or median income, if median income was used in Step 1) of all families residing in each covered development. In determining average income for each development, OCHA has the option of adjusting its income analysis for unit size in accordance with procedures prescribed by HUD.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will determine the average income of all families residing in each covered development (not adjusting for unit size) on an annual basis.

Step 3. OCHA must then determine whether each of its covered developments falls above, within, or below the established income range (EIR), which is from 85% to 115% of the average family income determined in Step 1. However, the upper limit must never be less than the income at which a family would be defined as an extremely low-income family (federal poverty level or 30 percent of median income, whichever number is higher).
Step 4. OCHA with covered developments having average incomes outside the EIR must then determine whether or not these developments are consistent with its local goals and annual plan.

Step 5. Where the income profile for a covered development is not explained or justified in the annual plan submission, OCHA must include in its admission policy its specific policy to provide for deconcentration of poverty and income mixing.

Depending on local circumstances OCHA’s deconcentration policy may include, but is not limited to the following:

- Providing incentives to encourage families to accept units in developments where their income level is needed, including rent incentives, affirmative marketing plans, or added amenities
- Targeting investment and capital improvements toward developments with an average income below the EIR to encourage families with incomes above the EIR to accept units in those developments
- Establishing a preference for admission of working families in developments below the EIR
- Skipping a family on the waiting list to reach another family in an effort to further the goals of deconcentration
- Providing other strategies permitted by statute and determined by OCHA in consultation with the residents and the community through the annual plan process to be responsive to local needs and OCHA strategic objectives

A family has the sole discretion whether to accept an offer of a unit made under OCHA's deconcentration policy. OCHA must not take any adverse action toward any eligible family for choosing not to accept an offer of a unit under OCHA's deconcentration policy [24 CFR 903.2(c)(4)].

If, at annual review, the average incomes at all general occupancy developments are within the EIR, OCHA will be considered to be in compliance with the deconcentration requirement and no further action is required.

OCHA Policy

For developments outside the EIR OCHA will take the following actions to provide for deconcentration of poverty and income mixing:

OCHA will provide for deconcentration of poverty and income mixing by bringing higher income residents into lower income developments and lower income residents into higher income developments. To determine this, OCHA will compare the relative income of each development occupied predominantly by families with children and determine the average household income of such developments and define higher –income families as those with incomes over 115% of this average, lower –income families as those with incomes under 115% of this average and lower income developments as those where the average family income is under 115% of this average.
Order of Selection [24 CFR 960.206(e)]

OCHA system of preferences may select families either according to the date and time of application or by a random selection process.

OCHA Policy

Families will be selected from the waiting list based on preference. Among applicants with the same preference, families will be selected on a first-come, first-served basis according to the date and time their complete application is received by OCHA.

When selecting applicants from the waiting list, OCHA will match the characteristics of the available unit (unit size, accessibility features, unit type) to the applicants on the waiting lists. OCHA will offer the unit to the highest ranking applicant who qualifies for that unit size or type, or that requires the accessibility features.

By matching unit and family characteristics, it is possible that families who are lower on the waiting list may receive an offer of housing ahead of families with an earlier date and time of application or higher preference status.

Factors such as deconcentration or income mixing and income targeting will also be considered in accordance with HUD requirements and OCHA policy.
4-III.C. NOTIFICATION OF SELECTION

When the family has been selected from the waiting list, OCHA must notify the family [24 CFR 960.208].

OCHA Policy

OCHA will notify the family by phone, mail and electronically/email. OCHA will inform the family of the following:

- Documents that must be provided to document the legal identity of household members, including information about what constitutes acceptable documentation
- Documents that must be provided to document eligibility for a preference, if applicable
- Other documents and information

If documents are not uploaded to the online portal or received by OCHA in the time period given, then OCHA will send a 5 day card to the family to respond. If they fail to respond they will be removed from the waiting list without further notice.

If a notification letter is returned to OCHA with no forwarding address, the family will be removed from the waiting list without further notice. Such failure to act on the part of the applicant prevents OCHA from making an eligibility determination; therefore no informal hearing will be offered.

Revised 6/28/2023
4-III.D. THE APPLICATION INTERVIEW

HUD recommends that OCHA obtain the information and documentation needed to make an eligibility determination through a private interview. Being invited to attend an interview does not constitute admission to the program.

Assistance cannot be provided to the family until all SSN documentation requirements are met. However, if OCHA determines that an applicant family is otherwise eligible to participate in the program, the family may retain its place on the waiting list for a period of time determined by OCHA [Notice PIH 2018-24].

Reasonable accommodation must be made for persons with disabilities who are unable to attend an interview due to their disability [24 CFR 8.4(a) and 24 CFR 100.204(a)].

OCHA Policy

Families selected from the waiting list may be required to participate in an eligibility interview, if OCHA is unable to obtain all the required documents and verifications through the online portal system. Due to the Covid 19 Pandemic, since March 2020, interviews have been conducted over the phone and not in person.

The head of household and the spouse/cohead will be strongly encouraged to attend the interview together. However, either the head of household or the spouse/cohead may attend the interview on behalf of the family. Verification of information pertaining to adult members of the household not present at the interview will not begin until signed release forms are returned to OCHA.

The interview will be conducted only if the head of household or spouse/cohead provides appropriate documentation of legal identity (Chapter 7 provides a discussion of proper documentation of legal identity). If the family representative does not provide the required documentation, the appointment may be rescheduled when the proper documents have been obtained.

Pending disclosure and documentation of social security numbers, OCHA will allow the family to retain its place on the waiting list for 30 days. If not all household members have disclosed their SSNs at the next time a unit becomes available, OCHA will offer a unit to the next eligible applicant family on the waiting list.

If the family is claiming a waiting list preference, the family must provide documentation to verify their eligibility for a preference (see Chapter 7). If the family is verified as eligible for the preference, OCHA will proceed with the interview. If OCHA determines the family is not eligible for the preference, the interview will not proceed and the family will be placed back on the waiting list according to the date and time of their application.

The family must provide the information necessary to establish the family’s eligibility, including suitability, and to determine the appropriate amount of rent the family will pay. The family must also complete required forms, provide required signatures, and submit required documentation. If any materials are missing, OCHA will provide the family with a written list of items that must be submitted.

Revised 9/25/19
Any required documents or information that the family is unable to provide at the interview must be provided within 10 business days of the interview (Chapter 7 provides details about longer submission deadlines for particular items, including documentation of Social Security numbers and eligible noncitizen status). If the family is unable to obtain the information or materials within the required time frame, the family may request an extension. If the required documents and information are not provided within the required time frame (plus any extensions), the family will be sent a notice of denial (see Chapter 3).

An advocate, interpreter, or other assistant may assist the family with the application and the interview process.

Interviews will be conducted in English. For limited English proficient (LEP) applicants, OCHA will provide translation services in accordance with OCHA’s LEP plan.

If the family is unable to attend a scheduled interview, the family should contact OCHA in advance of the interview to schedule a new appointment. In all circumstances, if a family does not attend a scheduled interview, OCHA will send another notification letter with a new interview appointment time. Applicants who fail to attend two scheduled interviews without OCHA approval will have their applications made inactive based on the family’s failure to supply information needed to determine eligibility. The second appointment letter will state that failure to appear for the appointment without a request to reschedule will be interpreted to mean that the family is no longer interested and their application will be made inactive. Such failure to act on the part of the applicant prevents OCHA from making an eligibility determination, therefore OCHA will not offer an informal hearing.
4-III.E. FINAL ELIGIBILITY DETERMINATION [24 CFR 960.208]

OCHA must verify all information provided by the family (see Chapter 7). Based on verified information related to the eligibility requirements, including OCHA suitability standards, OCHA must make a final determination of eligibility (see Chapter 3).

When a determination is made that a family is eligible and satisfies all requirements for admission, including tenant selection criteria, the applicant must be notified of the approximate date of occupancy insofar as that date can be reasonably determined [24 CFR 960.208(b)].

OCHA Policy

OCHA will notify a family of their eligibility determination and will provide the approximate date of occupancy.

OCHA must promptly notify any family determined to be ineligible for admission of the basis for such determination, and must provide the applicant upon request, within a reasonable time after the determination is made, with an opportunity for an informal hearing on such determination [24 CFR 960.208(a)].

OCHA Policy

If OCHA determines that the family is ineligible, OCHA will send written notification of the ineligibility determination. The notice will specify the reasons for ineligibility, and will inform the family of its right to request an informal hearing (see Chapter 14).

If OCHA uses a criminal record or sex offender registration information obtained under 24 CFR 5, Subpart J, as the basis of a denial, a copy of the record must precede the notice to deny, with an opportunity for the applicant to dispute the accuracy and relevance of the information before OCHA can move to deny the application. See Section 3-III.G for OCHA’s policy regarding such circumstances.

Upon making an eligibility determination, OCHA must provide the family a notice of VAWA rights as well as the HUD VAWA self-certification form (form HUD-5382) in accordance with the Violence Against Women Act and as outlined in 16-VII.C. The notice and self-certification form must accompany the written notification of eligibility determination. This notice must be provided in both of the following instances: (1) when a family actually begins receiving assistance (lease execution); or (2) when a family is notified of its ineligibility.
Chapter 5

OCCUPANCY STANDARDS AND UNIT OFFERS

INTRODUCTION

OCHA must establish policies governing occupancy of dwelling units and offering dwelling units to qualified families.

This chapter contains policies for assigning unit size and making unit offers. OCHA’s waiting list and selection policies are contained in Chapter 4. Together, Chapters 4 and 5 of the ACOP comprise OCHA’s Tenant Selection and Assignment Plan (TSAP).

Policies in this chapter are organized in two parts.

Part I: Occupancy Standards. This part contains OCHA’s standards for determining the appropriate unit size for families of different sizes, compositions, and types.

Part II: Unit Offers. This part contains OCHA’s policies for making unit offers, and describes actions to be taken when unit offers are refused.

PART I: OCCUPANCY STANDARDS

5-I.A. OVERVIEW

Occupancy standards are established by OCHA to ensure that units are occupied by families of the appropriate size. This policy maintains the maximum usefulness of the units, while preserving them from underutilization or from excessive wear and tear due to overcrowding. Part I of this chapter explains the occupancy standards. These standards describe the methodology and factors OCHA will use to determine the size unit for which a family qualifies, and includes the identification of the minimum and maximum number of household members for each unit size. This part also identifies circumstances under which an exception to the occupancy standards may be approved.
5-I.B. DETERMINING UNIT SIZE

In selecting a family to occupy a particular unit, OCHA may match characteristics of the family with the type of unit available, for example, number of bedrooms [24 CFR 960.206(c)].

HUD does not specify the number of persons who may live in public housing units of various sizes. PHAs are permitted to develop appropriate occupancy standards as long as the standards do not have the effect of discriminating against families with children [PH Occ GB, p. 62].

Although OCHA does determine the size of unit the family qualifies for under the occupancy standards, OCHA does not determine who shares a bedroom/sleeping room.

OCHA’s occupancy standards for determining unit size must be applied in a manner consistent with fair housing requirements.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will use the same occupancy standards for each of its developments.

OCHA’s occupancy standards are as follows:

OCHA will assign one bedroom for each two persons within the household, except in the following circumstances:

- Persons of the opposite sex (other than spouses, and children under age 5) will not be required to share a bedroom.
- Persons of different generations will not be required to share a bedroom, except children born into the household may share a room with a parent until 1 year of age before they will be eligible for a transfer.
- Adult household members (other than spouses) will not be required to share a bedroom upon admission.
- Live-in aides will be allocated a separate bedroom. No additional bedrooms will be provided for the live-in aide’s family.
- Single person families will be allocated a zero or one bedroom.
- Children related to a household member by birth, adoption, or court awarded custody will be considered when determining unit size.
- Foster children will be considered when determining unit size. The family may add foster children to the household as long as it does not overcrowd the unit based on the PHA’s occupancy standards.
- Children away at school, but for whom the unit is considered the primary residence, and children temporarily placed outside the home, will be considered when determining unit size.
Children in the process of being adopted will be considered when determining unit size.

Children who will live in the unit less than 50 percent of the time will not be considered when determining unit size.

OCHA will reference the following standards in determining the appropriate unit bedroom size for a family:

5-I.C. EXCEPTIONS TO OCCUPANCY STANDARDS

Types of Exceptions

OCHA Policy

OCHA will consider granting exceptions to the occupancy standards at the family’s request if OCHA determines the exception is justified by the relationship, age, sex, health or disability of family members, or other personal circumstances.

For example, an exception may be granted if a larger bedroom size is needed for medical equipment due to its size and/or function, or as a reasonable accommodation for a person with disabilities. An exception may also be granted for a smaller bedroom size in cases where the number of household members exceeds the maximum number of persons allowed for the unit size in which the family resides (according to the chart in Section 5-I.B) and the family does not want to transfer to a larger size unit.

When evaluating exception requests OCHA will consider the size and configuration of the unit. In no case will OCHA grant an exception that is in violation of local housing or occupancy codes, regulations or laws.

Requests from applicants to be placed on the waiting list for a unit size smaller than designated by the occupancy standards will be approved as long as the unit is not overcrowded according to local code, and the family agrees not to request a transfer for a period of two years from the date of admission, unless they have a subsequent change in family size or composition.

To prevent vacancies, OCHA may provide an applicant family with a larger unit than the occupancy standards permit. However, in these cases the family must agree to move to a suitable, smaller unit when another family qualifies for the larger unit and there is an appropriate size unit available for the family to transfer to.

Processing of Exceptions

OCHA Policy

All requests for exceptions to the occupancy standards must be submitted in writing.

In the case of a request for exception as a reasonable accommodation, OCHA will encourage the resident to make the request in writing using a reasonable accommodation request form. However, OCHA will consider the exception request any time the resident indicates that an accommodation is needed whether or not a formal written request is submitted.

Requests for a larger size unit must explain the need or justification for the larger size unit, and must include appropriate documentation. Requests based on health-related reasons must be verified by a knowledgeable professional source, unless the disability and the disability-related request for accommodation is readily apparent or otherwise known.

OCHA will notify the family of its decision within 10 business days of receiving the family’s request.
PART II: UNIT OFFERS
24 CFR 1.4(b)(2)(ii); 24 CFR 960.208

5-II.A. OVERVIEW

OCHA must assign eligible applicants to dwelling units in accordance with a plan that is consistent with civil rights and nondiscrimination laws.

In filling an actual or expected vacancy, OCHA must offer the dwelling unit to an applicant in the appropriate offer sequence. OCHA will offer the unit until it is accepted. This section describes OCHA’s policies with regard to the number of unit offers that will be made to applicants selected from the waiting list. This section also describes OCHA’s policies for offering units with accessibility features.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will maintain a record of units offered, including location, date and circumstances of each offer, each acceptance or rejection, including the reason for the rejection.

5-II.B. NUMBER OF OFFERS

OCHA Policy

The PHA has adopted a “one offer plan” for offering units to applicants. Under this plan the first qualified applicant in sequence on the waiting list will be made one offer of a unit of the appropriate size, at a site in which the applicant has applied to reside.

If more than one unit of the appropriate type and size is available, the first unit to be offered will be the first unit that is ready for occupancy.
5-II.C. TIME LIMIT FOR UNIT OFFER ACCEPTANCE OR REFUSAL

OCHA Policy

Applicants must accept or refuse a unit offer within 2 business days of the date of the unit offer.

Offers made by telephone will be confirmed by letter.

5-II.D. REFUSALS OF UNIT OFFERS

Good Cause for Unit Refusal

An elderly or disabled family may decline an offer for designated housing. Such a refusal must not adversely affect the family's position on or placement on the public housing waiting list [24 CFR 945.303(d)].

OCHA Policy

Applicants may refuse to accept a unit offer for “good cause.” Good cause includes situations in which an applicant is willing to move but is unable to do so at the time of the unit offer, or the applicant demonstrates that acceptance of the offer would cause undue hardship not related to considerations of the applicant’s race, color, national origin, etc. [PH Occ GB, p. 104]. Examples of good cause for refusal of a unit offer include, but are not limited to, the following:

The family demonstrates to OCHA’s satisfaction that accepting the unit offer will require an adult household member to quit a job, drop out of an educational institution or job training program, or take a child out of day care or an educational program for children with disabilities.

The family demonstrates to the PHA’s satisfaction that accepting the offer will place a family member’s life, health, or safety in jeopardy. The family should offer specific and compelling documentation such as restraining orders; other court orders; risk assessments related to witness protection from a law enforcement agency; or documentation of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking in accordance with section 16-VII.D of this ACOP. Reasons offered must be specific to the family. Refusals due to location alone do not qualify for this good cause exemption.

A health professional verifies temporary hospitalization or recovery from illness of the principal household member, other household members (as listed on final application) or live-in aide necessary to the care of the principal household member.
The unit is inappropriate for the applicant’s disabilities, or the family does not need the accessible features in the unit offered and does not want to be subject to a 30-day notice to move.

The unit has lead-based paint and the family includes children under the age of six.

In the case of a unit refusal for good cause the applicant will not be removed from the waiting list as described later in this section. The applicant will remain at the top of the waiting list until the family receives an offer for which they do not have good cause to refuse.

OCHA will require documentation of good cause for unit refusals.

Unit Refusal without Good Cause

OCHA Policy

When an applicant rejects the final unit offer without good cause, the PHA will place the applicant’s name at the bottom of the waiting list.

To place the applicant’s name at the bottom of the waiting list, the PHA will change the date and time of application to the date and time of the final unit offer rejection. The applicant will retain any local preferences for which he or she qualifies.
5-II.E. ACCESSIBLE UNITS [24 CFR 8.27]

OCHAs must adopt suitable means to assure that information regarding the availability of accessible units reaches eligible individuals with disabilities, and take reasonable nondiscriminatory steps to maximize the utilization of such units by eligible individuals whose disability requires the accessibility features of a particular unit.

When an accessible unit becomes vacant, before offering such units to a non-disabled applicant OCHA must offer such units:

• First, to a current resident of another unit of the same development, or other public housing development under OCHA’s control, who has a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit and is occupying a unit not having such features, or if no such occupant exists, then

• Second, to an eligible qualified applicant on the waiting list having a disability that requires the special features of the vacant unit.

When offering an accessible unit to an applicant not having a disability requiring the accessibility features of the unit, OCHA may require the applicant to agree (and may incorporate this agreement in the lease) to move to a non-accessible unit when available.

OCHA Policy

Families requiring an accessible unit may be over-housed in such a unit if there are no resident or applicant families of the appropriate size who also require the accessible features of the unit.

When there are no resident or applicant families requiring the accessible features of the unit, including families who would be over-housed, OCHA will offer the unit to a non-disabled applicant.

When offering an accessible unit to a non-disabled applicant, OCHA will require the applicant to agree to move to an available non-accessible unit within 30 days when either a current resident or an applicant needs the features of the unit and there is another unit available for the non-disabled family. This requirement will be a provision of the lease agreement.

5-II.F. DESIGNATED HOUSING

When applicable, OCHA’s policies for offering units designated for elderly families only or for disabled families only are described in OCHA’s Designated Housing Plan.
Chapter 6

INCOME AND RENT DETERMINATIONS

[24 CFR Part 5, Subparts E and F; 24 CFR 960, Subpart C]

INTRODUCTION

A family’s annual income is used to determine their income eligibility for the public housing program and is also used to calculate the amount of the family’s rent payment. OCHA will use the policies and methods described in this chapter to ensure that only income-eligible families receive assistance and that no family pays more or less rent than is required under the regulations. This chapter describes HUD regulations and OCHA policies related to these topics in three parts as follows:

Part I: Annual Income. HUD regulations specify the sources of income to include and exclude to arrive at a family’s annual income. These requirements and OCHA policies for calculating annual income are found in Part I.

Part II: Adjusted Income. Once annual income has been established HUD regulations require OCHA to subtract from annual income any of five mandatory deductions for which a family qualifies. These requirements and OCHA policies for calculating adjusted income are found in Part II.

Part III: Calculating Rent. This part describes the statutory formula for calculating total tenant payment (TTP), the use of utility allowances, and the methodology for determining family rent payment. Also included here are flat rents and the family’s choice in rents.
PART I: ANNUAL INCOME

6-I.A. OVERVIEW

The general regulatory definition of annual income shown below is from 24 CFR 5.609.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>5.609 Annual income.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>(a) Annual income means all amounts, monetary or not, which:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(1) Go to, or on behalf of, the family head or spouse (even if temporarily absent) or to any other family member; or</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(2) Are anticipated to be received from a source outside the family during the 12-month period following admission or annual reexamination effective date; and</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(3) Which are not specifically excluded in paragraph [5.609(c)].</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(4) Annual income also means amounts derived (during the 12-month period) from assets to which any member of the family has access.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

In addition to this general definition, HUD regulations establish policies for treating specific types of income and assets. The full texts of those portions of the regulations are provided in exhibits at the end of this chapter as follows:

- Annual Income Inclusions (Exhibit 6-1)
- Annual Income Exclusions (Exhibit 6-2)
- Treatment of Family Assets (Exhibit 6-3)
- Earned Income Disallowance (Exhibit 6-4)
- The Effect of Welfare Benefit Reduction (Exhibit 6-5)

Sections 6-I.B and 6-I.C discuss general requirements and methods for calculating annual income. The rest of this section describes how each source of income is treated for the purposes of determining annual income. HUD regulations present income inclusions and exclusions separately [24 CFR 5.609(b) and 24 CFR 5.609(c)]. In this ACOP, however, the discussions of income inclusions and exclusions are integrated by topic (e.g., all policies affecting earned income are discussed together in section 6-ID). Verification requirements for annual income are discussed in Chapter 7.
6-I.B. HOUSEHOLD COMPOSITION AND INCOME

Income received by all family members must be counted unless specifically excluded by the regulations. It is the responsibility of the head of household to report changes in family composition. The rules on which sources of income are counted vary somewhat by family member. The chart below summarizes how family composition affects income determinations.

Temporarily Absent Family Members

The income of family members approved to live in the unit will be counted, even if the family member is temporarily absent from the unit [HCV GB, p. 5-18].

OCHA Policy

Generally an individual who is or is expected to be absent from the assisted unit for 180 consecutive days or less is considered temporarily absent and continues to be considered a family member. Generally an individual who is or is expected to be absent from the assisted unit for more than 180 consecutive days is considered permanently absent and no longer a family member. Exceptions to this general policy are discussed below.

Absent Students

OCHA Policy

When someone who has been considered a family member attends school away from home, the person will continue to be considered a family member unless information becomes available to OCHA indicating that the student has established a separate household or the family declares that the student has established a separate household.
Absences Due to Placement in Foster Care

Children temporarily absent from the home as a result of placement in foster care are considered members of the family [24 CFR 5.403].

OCHA Policy

If a child has been placed in foster care, OCHA will verify with the appropriate agency whether and when the child is expected to be returned to the home. Unless the agency confirms that the child has been permanently removed from the home, the child will be counted as a family member.

Absent Head, Spouse, or Cohead

OCHA Policy

An employed head, spouse, or cohead absent from the unit more than 180 consecutive days due to employment will continue to be considered a family member.

Individuals Confined for Medical Reasons

OCHA Policy

An individual confined to a nursing home or hospital on a permanent basis is not considered a family member.

If there is a question about the status of a family member, OCHA will request verification from a responsible medical professional and will use this determination. If the responsible medical professional cannot provide a determination, the person generally will be considered temporarily absent. The family may present evidence that the family member is confined on a permanent basis and request that the person not be considered a family member.

Joint Custody of Children

OCHA Policy

Dependents that are subject to a joint custody arrangement will be considered a member of the family, if they live with the applicant or resident family 50 percent or more of the time.

When more than one applicant or assisted family (regardless of program) are claiming the same dependents as family members, the family with primary custody at the time of the initial examination or reexamination will be able to claim the dependents. If there is a dispute about which family should claim them, OCHA will make the determination based on available documents such as court orders, an IRS income tax return showing which family has claimed the child for income tax purposes, school records, or other credible documentation.
Caretakers for a Child

OCHA Policy

The approval of a caretaker is at OCHA’s discretion and subject to OCHA’s screening criteria. If neither a parent nor a designated guardian remains in a household, OCHA will take the following actions.

If a responsible agency has determined that another adult is to be brought into the unit to care for a child for an indefinite period, the designated caretaker will not be considered a family member until a determination of custody or legal guardianship is made.

If a caretaker has assumed responsibility for a child without the involvement of a responsible agency or formal assignment of custody or legal guardianship, the caretaker will be treated as a visitor for 90 days. After the 90 days has elapsed, the caretaker will be considered a family member unless information is provided that would confirm that the caretaker’s role is temporary. In such cases OCHA will extend the caretaker’s status as an eligible visitor.

At any time that custody or guardianship legally has been awarded to a caretaker, the lease will be transferred to the caretaker, as head of household.

During any period that a caretaker is considered a visitor, the income of the caretaker is not counted in annual income and the caretaker does not qualify the family for any deductions from income.
6-I.C. ANTICIPATING ANNUAL INCOME

OCHA is required to count all income “anticipated to be received from a source outside the family during the 12-month period following admission or annual reexamination effective date” [24 CFR 5.609(a)(2)]. Policies related to anticipating annual income are provided below.

Basis of Annual Income Projection

OCHA generally will use current circumstances to determine anticipated income for the coming 12-month period. HUD authorizes OCHA to use other than current circumstances to anticipate income when:

- An imminent change in circumstances is expected [HCV GB, p. 5-17]
- It is not feasible to anticipate a level of income over a 12-month period (e.g., seasonal or cyclic income) [24 CFR 5.609(d)]
- OCHA believes that past income is the best available indicator of expected future income [24 CFR 5.609(d)]

PHAs are required to use HUD’s Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system in its entirety as a third party source to verify employment and income information, and to reduce administrative subsidy payment errors in accordance with HUD administrative guidance [24 CFR 5.233(a)(2)].

HUD allows OCHA to use tenant-provided documents to project income once EIV data has been received in such cases where the family does not dispute the EIV employer data and where OCHA does not determine it is necessary to obtain additional third-party data.

OCHA Policy

When EIV is obtained and the family does not dispute the EIV employer data, OCHA will use current tenant-provided documents to project annual income. When the tenant-provided documents are pay stubs, OCHA will make every effort to obtain current and consecutive pay stubs dated within the last 60 days.

OCHA will obtain written and/or oral third-party verification in accordance with the verification requirements and policy in Chapter 7 in the following cases:

- If EIV or other UIV data is not available,
- If the family disputes the accuracy of the EIV employer data, and/or
- If OCHA determines additional information is needed.

In such cases, OCHA will review and analyze current data to anticipate annual income. In all cases, the family file will be documented with a clear record of the reason for the decision, and a clear audit trail will be left as to how OCHA annualized projected income.

When OCHA cannot readily anticipate income based upon current circumstances (e.g., in the case of seasonal employment, unstable working hours, or suspected fraud), OCHA will review and analyze historical data for patterns of employment, paid benefits, and receipt of other income and use the results of this analysis to establish annual income.
Any time current circumstances are not used to project annual income, a clear rationale for the decision will be documented in the file. In all such cases the family may present information and documentation to OCHA to show why the historic pattern does not represent the family’s anticipated income.

Known Changes in Income

If OCHA verifies an upcoming increase or decrease in income, annual income will be calculated by applying each income amount to the appropriate part of the 12-month period.

Example: An employer reports that a full-time employee who has been receiving $8/hour will begin to receive $8.25/hour in the eighth week after the effective date of the reexamination. In such a case OCHA would calculate annual income as follows: ($8/hour × 40 hours × 7 weeks) + ($8.25 × 40 hours × 45 weeks).

The family may present information that demonstrates that implementing a change before its effective date would create a hardship for the family. In such cases OCHA will calculate annual income using current circumstances and then require an interim reexamination when the change actually occurs. This requirement will be imposed even if OCHA’s policy on reexaminations does not require interim reexaminations for other types of changes.

When tenant-provided third-party documents are used to anticipate annual income, they will be dated within the last 60 days of the reexamination interview date.

Projecting Income

In HUD’s EIV webcast of January 2008, HUD made clear that PHA’s are not to use EIV quarterly wages to project annual income.
6-I.D. EARNED INCOME

Types of Earned Income Included in Annual Income

Wages and Related Compensation [24 CFR 5.609(b)(1)]

The full amount, before any payroll deductions, of wages and salaries, overtime pay, commissions, fees, tips and bonuses, and other compensation for personal services is included in annual income.

OCHA Policy

For persons who regularly receive bonuses or commissions, OCHA will verify and then average amounts received for the two years preceding admission or reexamination. If only a one-year history is available, OCHA will use the prior year amounts. In either case the family may provide, and OCHA will consider, a credible justification for not using this history to anticipate future bonuses or commissions. If a new employee has not yet received any bonuses or commissions, OCHA will count only the amount estimated by the employer. The file will be documented appropriately.

Some Types of Military Pay

All regular pay, special pay and allowances of a member of the Armed Forces are counted [24 CFR 5.609(b)(8)] except for the special pay to a family member serving in the Armed Forces who is exposed to hostile fire [24 CFR 5.609(c)(7)].

Types of Earned Income Not Counted in Annual Income

Temporary, Nonrecurring, or Sporadic Income [24 CFR 5.609(c)(9)]

This type of income (including gifts) is not included in annual income.

OCHA Policy

Sporadic income is income that is not received periodically and cannot be reliably predicted. For example, the income of an individual who works occasionally as a handyman would be considered sporadic if future work could not be anticipated and no historic, stable pattern of income existed.

Children’s Earnings [24 CFR 5.609(c)(1)]

Employment income earned by children (including foster children) under the age of 18 years is not included in annual income. (See Eligibility chapter for a definition of foster children.)

Certain Earned Income of Full-Time Students

Earnings in excess of $480 for each full-time student 18 years old or older (except for the head, spouse, or cohead) are not counted [24 CFR 5.609(c)(11)]. To be considered “full-time,” a student must be considered “full-time” by an educational institution with a degree or certificate program [HCV GB, p. 5-29].

Income of a Live-in Aide

Income earned by a live-in aide, as defined in [24 CFR 5.403], is not included in annual income [24 CFR 5.609(c)(5)]. (See Eligibility chapter for a full discussion of live-in aides.)
Income Earned under Certain Federal Programs [24 CFR 5.609(c)(17)]

Income from some federal programs is specifically excluded from consideration as income, including:

- Payments to volunteers under the Domestic Volunteer Services Act of 1973 (42 U.S.C. 5044(g), 5058)
- Awards under the federal work-study program (20 U.S.C. 1087 uu)
- Payments received from programs funded under Title V of the Older Americans Act of 1985 (42 U.S.C. 3056(f))
- Allowances, earnings, and payments to AmeriCorps participants under the National and Community Service Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. 12637(d))
- Allowances, earnings, and payments to participants in programs funded under the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (29 U.S.C. 2931)

Resident Service Stipend [24 CFR 5.600(c)(8)(iv)]

Amounts received under a resident service stipend are not included in annual income. A resident service stipend is a modest amount (not to exceed $200 per individual per month) received by a resident for performing a service for OCHA, on a part-time basis, that enhances the quality of life in the development. Such services may include, but are not limited to, fire patrol, hall monitoring, lawn maintenance, resident initiatives coordination, and serving as a member of OCHA’s governing board. No resident may receive more than one such stipend during the same period of time.

State and Local Employment Training Programs

Incremental earnings and benefits to any family member resulting from participation in qualifying state or local employment training programs (including training programs not affiliated with a local government) and training of a family member as resident management staff are excluded from annual income. Amounts excluded by this provision must be received under employment training programs with clearly defined goals and objectives and are excluded only for the period during which the family member participates in the training program [24 CFR 5.609(c)(8)(v)].

OCHA Policy

OCHA defines training program as “a learning process with goals and objectives, generally having a variety of components, and taking place in a series of sessions over a period of time. It is designed to lead to a higher level of proficiency, and it enhances the individual’s ability to obtain employment. It may have performance standards to measure proficiency. Training may include, but is not limited to: (1) classroom training in a specific occupational skill, (2) on-the-job training with wages subsidized by the program, or (3) basic education” [expired Notice PIH 98-2, p. 3].

OCHA defines incremental earnings and benefits as the difference between (1) the total amount of welfare assistance and earnings of a family member prior to enrollment in a training program and (2) the total amount of welfare assistance and earnings of the family member after enrollment in the program [expired Notice PIH 98-2, pp. 3–4].

In calculating the incremental difference, OCHA will use as the pre-enrollment income the total annualized amount of the family member’s welfare assistance and earnings reported on the family’s most recently completed HUD-50058.

End of participation in a training program must be reported in accordance with the PHA’s interim reporting requirements (see Chapter 11).

HUD-Funded Training Programs

Amounts received under training programs funded in whole or in part by HUD [24 CFR 5.609(c)(8)(i)] are excluded from annual income. Eligible sources of funding for the training include operating subsidy, Section 8 administrative fees, and modernization, Community Development Block Grant (CDBG), HOME program, and other grant funds received from HUD.

OCHA Policy

To qualify as a training program, the program must meet the definition of training program provided above for state and local employment training programs.

Earned Income Tax Credit. Earned income tax credit (EITC) refund payments received on or after January 1, 1991 (26 U.S.C. 32(j)), are excluded from annual income [24 CFR 5.609(c)(17)]. Although many families receive the EITC annually when they file taxes, an EITC can also be received throughout the year. The prorated share of the annual EITC is included in the employee’s payroll check.

Earned Income Disallowance. The earned income disallowance is discussed in section 6-I.E below.

The earned income disallowance (EID) encourages people to enter the work force by not including the full value of increases in earned income for a period of time. The full text of 24 CFR 960.255 is included as Exhibit 6-4 at the end of this chapter. Eligibility criteria and limitations on the disallowance are summarized below.

Eligibility

This disallowance applies only to individuals in families already participating in the public housing program (not at initial examination). To qualify, the family must experience an increase in annual income that is the result of one of the following events:

- Employment of a family member who was previously unemployed for one or more years prior to employment. Previously unemployed includes a person who annually has earned not more than the minimum wage applicable to the community multiplied by 500 hours. The applicable minimum wage is the federal minimum wage unless there is a higher state or local minimum wage.

- Increased earnings by a family member whose earnings increase during participation in an economic self-sufficiency or job-training program. A self-sufficiency program includes a program designed to encourage, assist, train, or facilitate the economic independence of HUD-assisted families or to provide work to such families [24 CFR 5.603(b)].

- New employment or increased earnings by a family member who has received benefits or services under Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) or any other state program funded under Part A of Title IV of the Social Security Act within the past six months. If the benefits are received in the form of monthly maintenance, there is no minimum amount. If the benefits or services are received in a form other than monthly maintenance, such as one-time payments, wage subsidies, or transportation assistance, the total amount received over the six-month period must be at least $500.
Calculation of the Disallowance
Calculation of the earned income disallowance for an eligible member of a qualified family begins with a comparison of the member’s current income with their “baseline income.” The family member’s baseline income is their income immediately prior to qualifying for the EID. The family member’s baseline income remains constant throughout the period that they are participating in the EID.

Calculation Method

Initial 12-Month Exclusion
During the initial exclusion period of 12 consecutive months, the full amount (100 percent) of any increase in income attributable to new employment or increased earnings is excluded.

OCHA Policy
The initial EID exclusion period will begin on the first of the month following the date an eligible member of a qualified family is first employed or first experiences an increase in earnings.

Second 12-Month Exclusion
During the second exclusion period of 12 consecutive months, OCHA must exclude at least 50 percent of any increase in income attributable to employment or increased earnings.

OCHA Policy
During the second 12-month exclusion period, OCHA will exclude 100 percent of any increase in income attributable to new employment or increased earnings.

Lifetime Limitation
The EID has a two-year (24-month) lifetime maximum. The two-year eligibility period begins at the same time that the initial exclusion period begins and ends 24 months later. During the 24-month period, an individual remains eligible for EID even if they receive assistance from a different housing agency, move between public housing and Section 8 assistance, or have breaks in assistance.
Individual Savings Accounts [24 CFR 960.255(d)]

OCHA Policy

OCHA chooses not to establish a system of individual savings accounts (ISAs) for families who qualify for the EID.

The following rules pertaining to ISAs do not apply to this public housing program.

A qualified family paying income-based rent may choose an ISA instead of being given the EID. OCHA must advise the family that the ISA option is available. Families who choose the ISA will pay the higher rent and OCHA will deposit the difference between the higher rent and the EID rent in the savings account.

Amounts deposited to ISAs may only be withdrawn for the following reasons:

- Because the family is purchasing a home
- To pay education costs of family members
- Because the family is moving out of public or assisted housing
- To pay any other expenses OCHA authorizes to promote economic self-sufficiency

OCHA is required to maintain ISAs in interest bearing accounts, for which the family is credited with interest earned. OCHA may not charge the family a fee for maintaining the account.

At least once each year OCHA must provide the family with a statement of the balance in their account, including any interest earned, if required by state law.

OCHA Policy

OCHA chooses not to establish a system of individual savings accounts (ISAs) for families who qualify for the EID.

The following rules pertaining to ISAs do not apply to this public housing program.

If the family moves out of public housing, OCHA must return the balance in the family’s ISA, less any amounts the family owes OCHA.
6-I.F. BUSINESS INCOME [24 CFR 5.609(b)(2)]

Annual income includes “the net income from the operation of a business or profession. Expenditures for business expansion or amortization of capital indebtedness shall not be used as deductions in determining net income. An allowance for depreciation of assets used in a business or profession may be deducted, based on straight line depreciation, as provided in Internal Revenue Service regulations. Any withdrawal of cash or assets from the operation of a business or profession will be included in income, except to the extent the withdrawal is reimbursement of cash or assets invested in the operation by the family” [24 CFR 5.609(b)(2)].

Business Expenses

Net income is “gross income less business expense” [HCV GB, p. 5-19].

OCHA Policy

To determine business expenses that may be deducted from gross income, OCHA will use current applicable Internal Revenue Service (IRS) rules for determining allowable business expenses [see IRS Publication 535], unless a topic is addressed by HUD regulations or guidance as described below.

Business Expansion

HUD regulations do not permit OCHA to deduct from gross income expenses for business expansion.

OCHA Policy

Business expansion is defined as any capital expenditures made to add new business activities, to expand current facilities, or to operate the business in additional locations. For example, purchase of a street sweeper by a construction business for the purpose of adding street cleaning to the services offered by the business would be considered a business expansion. Similarly, the purchase of a property by a hair care business to open at a second location would be considered a business expansion.
Capital Indebtedness

HUD regulations do not permit OCHA to deduct from gross income the amortization of capital indebtedness.

OCHA Policy

Capital indebtedness is defined as the principal portion of the payment on a capital asset such as land, buildings, and machinery. This means OCHA will allow as a business expense interest, but not principal, paid on capital indebtedness.

Negative Business Income

If the net income from a business is negative, no business income will be included in annual income; a negative amount will not be used to offset other family income.

Withdrawal of Cash or Assets from a Business

HUD regulations require OCHA to include in annual income the withdrawal of cash or assets from the operation of a business or profession unless the withdrawal reimburses a family member for cash or assets invested in the business by the family.

OCHA Policy

Acceptable investments in a business include cash loans and contributions of assets or equipment. For example, if a member of a tenant family provided an up-front loan of $2,000 to help a business get started, OCHA will not count as income any withdrawals from the business up to the amount of this loan until the loan has been repaid. Investments do not include the value of labor contributed to the business without compensation.

Co-owned Businesses

OCHA Policy

If a business is co-owned with someone outside the family, the family must document the share of the business it owns. If the family’s share of the income is lower than its share of ownership, the family must document the reasons for the difference.
6-I.G. ASSETS [24 CFR 5.609(b)(3) and 24 CFR 5.603(b)]

Overview
There is no asset limitation for participation in the public housing program. However, HUD requires that OCHA include in annual income the anticipated “interest, dividends, and other net income of any kind from real or personal property” [24 CFR 5.609(b)(3)]. This section discusses how the income from various types of assets is determined. For most types of assets, OCHA must determine the value of the asset in order to compute income from the asset. Therefore, for each asset type, this section discusses:

- How the value of the asset will be determined
- How income from the asset will be calculated

Exhibit 6-1 provides the regulatory requirements for calculating income from assets [24 CFR 5.609(b)(3)], and Exhibit 6-3 provides the regulatory definition of net family assets. This section begins with a discussion of general policies related to assets and then provides HUD rules and OCHA policies related to each type of asset.

Optional policies for family self-certification of assets are found in Chapter 7

General Policies

Income from Assets
OCHA generally will use current circumstances to determine both the value of an asset and the anticipated income from the asset. As is true for all sources of income, HUD authorizes OCHA to use other than current circumstances to anticipate income when (1) an imminent change in circumstances is expected (2) it is not feasible to anticipate a level of income over 12 months or (3) OCHA believes that past income is the best indicator of anticipated income. For example, if a family member owns real property that typically receives rental income but the property is currently vacant, OCHA can take into consideration past rental income along with the prospects of obtaining a new tenant.

OCHA Policy
Any time current circumstances are not used to determine asset income, a clear rationale for the decision will be documented in the file. In such cases the family may present information and documentation to OCHA to show why the asset income determination does not represent the family’s anticipated asset income.
Valuing Assets

The calculation of asset income sometimes requires OCHA to make a distinction between an asset’s market value and its cash value.

- The market value of an asset is its worth in the market (e.g., the amount a buyer would pay for real estate or the total value of an investment account).
- The cash value of an asset is its market value less all reasonable amounts that would be incurred when converting the asset to cash.

OCHA Policy

Reasonable costs that would be incurred when disposing of an asset include, but are not limited to, penalties for premature withdrawal, broker and legal fees, and settlement costs incurred in real estate transactions [HCV GB, p. 5-28 and PH Occ GB, p. 121].

Lump-Sum Receipts

Payments that are received in a single lump sum, such as inheritances, capital gains, lottery winnings, insurance settlements, and proceeds from the sale of property, are generally considered assets, not income. However, such lump-sum receipts are counted as assets only if they are retained by a family in a form recognizable as an asset (e.g., deposited in a savings or checking account) [RHIIP FAQs]. (For a discussion of lump-sum payments that represent the delayed start of a periodic payment, most of which are counted as income, see sections 6-I.H and 6-I.I.)

Imputing Income from Assets [24 CFR 5.609(b)(3), Notice PIH 2012-29]

When net family assets are $5,000 or less, OCHA will include in annual income the actual income anticipated to be derived from the assets. When the family has net family assets in excess of $5,000, OCHA will include in annual income the greater of (1) the actual income derived from the assets or (2) the imputed income. Imputed income from assets is calculated by multiplying the total cash value of all family assets by an average passbook savings rate as determined by OCHA.

- Note: The HUD field office no longer provides an interest rate for imputed asset income. The “safe harbor” is now for OCHA to establish a passbook rate within 0.75 percent of a national average.
- OCHA must review its passbook rate annually to ensure that it remains within 0.75 percent of the national average.

OCHA Policy

OCHA initially set the imputed asset passbook rate at the national rate established by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC).

OCHA will review the passbook rate annually. The rate will not be adjusted unless the current PHA rate is no longer within 0.75 percent of the national rate. If it is no longer within 0.75 percent of the national rate, the passbook rate will be set at the current national rate.
The effective date of changes to the passbook rate will be determined at the time of the review.

Determining Actual Anticipated Income from Assets

It may or may not be necessary for OCHA to use the value of an asset to compute the actual anticipated income from the asset. When the value is required to compute the anticipated income from an asset, the market value of the asset is used. For example, if the asset is a property for which a family receives rental income, the anticipated income is determined by annualizing the actual monthly rental amount received for the property; it is not based on the property’s market value. However, if the asset is a savings account, the anticipated income is determined by multiplying the market value of the account by the interest rate on the account.

Withdrawal of Cash or Liquidation of Investments

Any withdrawal of cash or assets from an investment will be included in income except to the extent that the withdrawal reimburses amounts invested by the family. For example, when a family member retires, the amount received by the family from a retirement investment plan is not counted as income until the family has received payments equal to the amount the family member deposited into the retirement investment plan.

Jointly Owned Assets

The regulation at 24 CFR 5.609(a)(4) specifies that annual income includes “amounts derived (during the 12-month period) from assets to which any member of the family has access.”

OCHA Policy

If an asset is owned by more than one person and any family member has unrestricted access to the asset, the PHA will count the full value of the asset. A family member has unrestricted access to an asset when they can legally dispose of the asset without the consent of any of the other owners.

If an asset is owned by more than one person, including a family member, but the family member does not have unrestricted access to the asset, OCHA will prorate the asset according to the percentage of ownership. If no percentage is specified or provided for by state or local law, OCHA will prorate the asset evenly among all owners.
Assets Disposed Of for Less than Fair Market Value [24 CFR 5.603(b)]

HUD regulations require OCHA to count as a current asset any business or family asset that was disposed of for less than fair market value during the two years prior to the effective date of the examination/reexamination, except as noted below.

Minimum Threshold

OCHA may set a threshold below which assets disposed of for less than fair market value will not be counted [HCV GB, p. 5-27].

OCHA Policy

OCHA will not include the value of assets disposed of for less than fair market value unless the cumulative fair market value of all assets disposed of during the past two years exceeds the gross amount received for the assets by more than $1,000.

When the two-year period expires, the income assigned to the disposed asset(s) also expires. If the two-year period ends between annual recertifications, the family may request an interim recertification to eliminate consideration of the asset(s).

Assets placed by the family in nonrevocable trusts are considered assets disposed of for less than fair market value except when the assets placed in trust were received through settlements or judgments.

Separation or Divorce

The regulation also specifies that assets are not considered disposed of for less than fair market value if they are disposed of as part of a separation or divorce settlement and the applicant or tenant receives important consideration not measurable in dollar terms.

OCHA Policy

All assets disposed of as part of a separation or divorce settlement will be considered assets for which important consideration not measurable in monetary terms has been received. In order to qualify for this exemption, a family member must be subject to a formal separation or divorce settlement agreement established through arbitration, mediation, or court order.

Foreclosure or Bankruptcy

Assets are not considered disposed of for less than fair market value when the disposition is the result of a foreclosure or bankruptcy sale.

Family Declaration

OCHA Policy

Families must sign a declaration form at initial certification and each annual recertification identifying all assets that have been disposed of for less than fair market value or declaring that no assets have been disposed of for less than fair market value. OCHA may verify the value of the assets disposed of if other information available to OCHA does not appear to agree with the information reported by the family.
Types of Assets

Checking and Savings Accounts

For regular checking accounts and savings accounts, cash value has the same meaning as market value. If a checking account does not bear interest, the anticipated income from the account is zero.

OCHA Policy

In determining the value of a checking account, OCHA will use the current balance.

In determining the value of a savings account, OCHA will use the current balance.

In determining the anticipated income from an interest-bearing checking or savings account, OCHA will multiply the value of the account by the current rate of interest paid on the account.

Investment Accounts Such as Stocks, Bonds, Saving Certificates, and Money Market Funds

Interest or dividends earned by investment accounts are counted as actual income from assets even when the earnings are reinvested. The cash value of such an asset is determined by deducting from the market value any broker fees, penalties for early withdrawal, or other costs of converting the asset to cash.

OCHA Policy

In determining the market value of an investment account, OCHA will use the value of the account on the most recent investment report.

How anticipated income from an investment account will be calculated depends on whether the rate of return is known.

For assets that are held in an investment account with a known rate of return (e.g., savings certificates), asset income will be calculated based on that known rate (market value multiplied by rate of earnings).

When the anticipated rate of return is not known (e.g., stocks), OCHA will calculate asset income based on the earnings for the most recent reporting period.

Revised 6/28/2023
Equity in Real Property or Other Capital Investments

Equity (cash value) in a property or other capital asset is the estimated current market value of the asset less the unpaid balance on all loans secured by the asset and reasonable costs (such as broker fees) that would be incurred in selling the asset [HCV GB, p. 5-25 and PH, p. 121].

OCHA Policy

In determining the equity, OCHA will determine market value by examining recent sales of at least three properties in the surrounding or similar neighborhood that possess comparable factors that affect market value.

OCHA will first use the payoff amount for the loan (mortgage) as the unpaid balance to calculate equity. If the payoff amount is not available, OCHA will use the basic loan balance information to deduct from the market value in the equity calculation.

Equity in real property and other capital investments is considered in the calculation of asset income except for the following types of assets:

- Equity accounts in HUD homeownership programs [24 CFR 5.603(b)]
- Equity in real property when a family member’s main occupation is real estate [HCV GB, p. 5-25]. This real estate is considered a business asset, and income related to this asset will be calculated as described in section 6-I.F.
- Interests in Indian Trust lands [24 CFR 5.603(b)]
- Real property and capital assets that are part of an active business or farming operation [HCV GB, p. 5-25]

OCHA must also deduct from the equity the reasonable costs for converting the asset to cash. Using the formula for calculating equity specified above, the net cash value of real property is the market value of the loan (mortgage) minus the expenses to convert to cash [Notice PIH 2012-3].

OCHA Policy

For the purposes of calculating expenses to convert to cash for real property, OCHA will use ten percent of the market value of the home.

A family may have real property as an asset in two ways: (1) owning the property itself and (2) holding a mortgage or deed of trust on the property. In the case of a property owned by a family member, the anticipated asset income generally will be in the form of rent or other payment for the use of the property. If the property generates no income, actual anticipated income from the asset will be zero.
In the case of a mortgage or deed of trust held by a family member, the outstanding balance (unpaid principal) is the cash value of the asset. The interest portion only of payments made to the family in accordance with the terms of the mortgage or deed of trust is counted as anticipated asset income.

OCHA Policy

In the case of capital investments owned jointly with others not living in a family’s unit, a prorated share of the property’s cash value will be counted as an asset unless OCHA determines that the family receives no income from the property and is unable to sell or otherwise convert the asset to cash.

Trusts

A trust is a legal arrangement generally regulated by state law in which one party (the creator or grantor) transfers property to a second party (the trustee) who holds the property for the benefit of one or more third parties (the beneficiaries).

Revocable Trusts

If any member of a family has the right to withdraw the funds in a trust, the value of the trust is considered an asset [HCV GB, p. 5-25]. Any income earned as a result of investment of trust funds is counted as actual asset income, whether the income is paid to the family or deposited in the trust.

Nonrevocable Trusts

In cases where a trust is not revocable by, or under the control of, any member of a family, the value of the trust fund is not considered an asset. However, any income distributed to the family from such a trust is counted as a periodic payment or a lump-sum receipt, as appropriate [24 CFR 5.603(b)]. (Periodic payments are covered in section 6-I.H. Lump-sum receipts are discussed earlier in this section.)

Retirement Accounts

Company Retirement/Pension Accounts

In order to correctly include or exclude as an asset any amount held in a company retirement or pension account by an employed person, OCHA must know whether the money is accessible before retirement [HCV GB, p. 5-26].

While a family member is employed, only the amount the family member can withdraw without retiring or terminating employment is counted as an asset [HCV GB, p. 5-26].

After a family member retires or terminates employment, any amount distributed to the family member is counted as a periodic payment or a lump-sum receipt, as appropriate [HCV GB, p. 5-26], except to the extent that it represents funds invested in the account by the family member. (For more on periodic payments, see section 6-I.H.) The balance in the account is counted as an asset only if it remains accessible to the family member.

IRA, Keogh, and Similar Retirement Savings Accounts

IRA, Keogh, and similar retirement savings accounts are counted as assets even though early withdrawal would result in a penalty [HCV GB, p. 5-25].
Personal Property

Personal property held as an investment, such as gems, jewelry, coin collections, antique cars, etc., is considered an asset [HCV GB, p. 5-25].

OCHA Policy

In determining the value of personal property held as an investment, OCHA will use the family’s estimate of the value. OCHA may obtain an appraisal if there is reason to believe that the family’s estimated value is off by $50 or more. The family must cooperate with the appraiser but cannot be charged any costs related to the appraisal.

Generally, personal property held as an investment generates no income until it is disposed of. If regular income is generated (e.g., income from renting the personal property), the amount that is expected to be earned in the coming year is counted as actual income from the asset.

Necessary items of personal property are not considered assets [24 CFR 5.603(b)].

OCHA Policy

Necessary personal property consists of only those items not held as an investment. It may include clothing, furniture, household furnishings, jewelry, and vehicles, including those specially equipped for persons with disabilities.

Life Insurance

The cash value of a life insurance policy available to a family member before death, such as a whole life or universal life policy, is included in the calculation of the value of the family’s assets [HCV GB 5-25]. The cash value is the surrender value. If such a policy earns dividends or interest that the family could elect to receive, the anticipated amount of dividends or interest is counted as income from the asset whether or not the family actually receives it.
6-I.H. PERIODIC PAYMENTS

Periodic payments are forms of income received on a regular basis. HUD regulations specify periodic payments that are and are not included in annual income.

Periodic Payments Included in Annual Income

- Periodic payments from sources such as social security, unemployment and welfare assistance, annuities, insurance policies, retirement funds, and pensions. However, periodic payments from retirement accounts, annuities, and similar forms of investments are counted only after they exceed the amount contributed by the family [24 CFR 5.609(b)(4) and (b)(3)].

- Disability or death benefits and lottery receipts paid periodically, rather than in a single lump sum [24 CFR 5.609(b)(4) and HCV, p. 5-14]

Lump-Sum Payments for the Delayed Start of a Periodic Payment

Most lump sums received as a result of delays in processing periodic payments, such as unemployment or welfare assistance, are counted as income. However, lump-sum receipts for the delayed start of periodic social security or supplemental security income (SSI) payments are not counted as income. Additionally, any deferred disability benefits that are received in a lump sum or in prospective monthly amounts from the Department of Veterans Affairs are to be excluded from annual income [24 CFR 5.609(c)(14)].

OCHA Policy

When a delayed-start payment is received and reported during the period in which OCHA is processing an annual reexamination, OCHA will adjust the tenant rent retroactively for the period the payment was intended to cover. The family may pay in full any amount due or request to enter into a repayment agreement with OCHA.

Treatment of Overpayment Deductions from Social Security Benefits

OCHA must make a special calculation of annual income when the Social Security Administration (SSA) overpays an individual, resulting in a withholding or deduction from their benefit amount until the overpayment is paid in full. The amount and duration of the withholding will vary depending on the amount of the overpayment and the percent of the benefit rate withheld. Regardless of the amount withheld or the length of the withholding period, the PHA must use the reduced benefit amount after deducting only the amount of the overpayment withholding from the gross benefit amount [Notice PIH 2018-24].

Applying SSA COLA to Current Annual and Interim Reexaminations

Effective the day after SSA has announced the COLA, PHAs are required to factor in the COLA when determining Social Security and SSI annual income for all annual reexaminations and interim reexaminations of family income that have not yet been completed and will be effective January 1st or later of the upcoming year [Notice PIH 2018-24].
Periodic Payments Excluded from Annual Income

- Payments received for the care of foster children or foster adults (usually persons with disabilities, unrelated to the tenant family, who are unable to live alone) [24 CFR 5.609(c)(2)]. Kinship care payments are considered equivalent to foster care payments and are also excluded from annual income [Notice PIH 2012-1].

  OCHA Policy

  OCHA will exclude payments for the care of foster children and foster adults only if the care is provided through an official arrangement with a local welfare agency [HCV GB, p. 5-18].

- Amounts paid by a state agency to a family with a member who has a developmental disability and is living at home to offset the cost of services and equipment needed to keep the developmentally disabled family member at home [24 CFR 5.609(c)(16)].

- Amounts received under the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (42 U.S.C. 1626(c)) [24 CFR 5.609(c)(17)].

- Amounts received under the Child Care and Development Block Grant Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. 9858q) [24 CFR 5.609(c)(17)].

- Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) refund payments (26 U.S.C. 32(j)) [24 CFR 5.609(c)(17)].
  Note: EITC may be paid periodically if the family elects to receive the amount due as part of payroll payments from an employer.

- Lump sums received as a result of delays in processing Social Security and SSI payments (see section 6-I.H.) [24 CFR 5.609(c)(14)].

- Lump-sums or prospective monthly amounts received as deferred disability benefits from the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) [24 CFR 5.609(c)(14)].

6-I.I. PAYMENTS IN LIEU OF EARNINGS

Payments in lieu of earnings, such as unemployment and disability compensation, worker’s compensation, and severance pay, are counted as income [24 CFR 5.609(b)(5)] if they are received either in the form of periodic payments or in the form of a lump-sum amount or prospective monthly amounts for the delayed start of a periodic payment. If they are received in a one-time lump sum (as a settlement, for instance), they are treated as lump-sum receipts [24 CFR 5.609(c)(3)]. (See also the discussion of periodic payments in section 6-I.H and the discussion of lump-sum receipts in section 6-I.G.)
6-I.J. WELFARE ASSISTANCE

Overview
Welfare assistance is counted in annual income. Welfare assistance includes Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) and any payments to individuals or families based on need that are made under programs funded separately or jointly by federal, state, or local governments [24 CFR 5.603(b)].

Sanctions Resulting in the Reduction of Welfare Benefits [24 CFR 5.615]
OCHA must make a special calculation of annual income when the welfare agency imposes certain sanctions on certain families. The full text of the regulation at 24 CFR 5.615 is provided as Exhibit 6-5. The requirements are summarized below. This rule applies only if a family was a public housing resident at the time the sanction was imposed.

Covered Families
The families covered by 24 CFR 5.615 are those “who receive welfare assistance or other public assistance benefits (‘welfare benefits’) from a State or other public agency (‘welfare agency’) under a program for which Federal, State or local law requires that a member of the family must participate in an economic self-sufficiency program as a condition for such assistance” [24 CFR 5.615(b)]

Imputed Income
When a welfare agency imposes a sanction that reduces a family’s welfare income because the family commits fraud or fails to comply with the agency’s economic self-sufficiency program or work activities requirement, OCHA must include in annual income “imputed” welfare income. OCHA must request that the welfare agency provide the reason for the reduction of benefits and the amount of the reduction of benefits. The imputed welfare income is the amount that the benefits were reduced as a result of the sanction.

This requirement does not apply to reductions in welfare benefits: (1) at the expiration of the lifetime or other time limit on the payment of welfare benefits, (2) if a family member is unable to find employment even though the family member has complied with the welfare agency economic self-sufficiency or work activities requirements, or (3) because a family member has not complied with other welfare agency requirements [24 CFR 5.615(b)(2)].

For special procedures related to grievance hearings based upon OCHA’s denial of a family’s request to lower rent when the family experiences a welfare benefit reduction, see Chapter 14, Grievances and Appeals.

Offsets
The amount of the imputed welfare income is offset by the amount of additional income the family begins to receive after the sanction is imposed. When the additional income equals or exceeds the imputed welfare income, the imputed income is reduced to zero [24 CFR 5.615(c)(4)].
6-I.K. PERIODIC AND DETERMINABLE ALLOWANCES [24 CFR 5.609(b)(7)]

Annual income includes periodic and determinable allowances, such as alimony and child support payments, and regular contributions or gifts received from organizations or from persons not residing with a tenant family.

Alimony and Child Support

OCHA must count alimony or child support amounts awarded as part of a divorce or separation agreement.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will count court-awarded amounts for alimony and child support unless OCHA verifies that (1) the payments are not being made and (2) the family has made reasonable efforts to collect amounts due, including filing with courts or agencies responsible for enforcing payments [HCV GB, pp. 5-23 and 5-47].

Families who do not have court-awarded alimony and child support awards are not required to seek a court award and are not required to take independent legal action to obtain collection.

Regular Contributions or Gifts

OCHA must count as income regular monetary and nonmonetary contributions or gifts from persons not residing with a tenant family [24 CFR 5.609(b)(7)]. Temporary, nonrecurring, or sporadic income and gifts are not counted [24 CFR 5.609(c)(9)].

OCHA Policy

Examples of regular contributions include: (1) regular payment of a family’s bills (e.g., utilities, telephone, rent, credit cards, and car payments), (2) cash or other liquid assets provided to any family member on a regular basis, and (3) “in-kind” contributions such as groceries and clothing provided to a family on a regular basis.

Nonmonetary contributions will be valued at the cost of purchasing the items, as determined by OCHA. For contributions that may vary from month to month (e.g., utility payments), OCHA will include an average amount based upon past history.
6-I.I. ADDITIONAL EXCLUSIONS FROM ANNUAL INCOME

Other exclusions contained in 24 CFR 5.609(c) and updated by FR Notice 5/20/14 that have not been discussed earlier in this chapter include the following:

- Reimbursement of medical expenses [24 CFR 5.609(c)(4)]
- The full amount of student financial assistance paid directly to the student or to the educational institution [24 CFR 5.609(c)(6)].

  OCHA Policy

  Regular financial support from parents or guardians to students for food, clothing personal items, and entertainment is not considered student financial assistance and is included in annual income.

- Amounts received by participants in other publicly assisted programs which are specifically for or in reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses incurred and which are made solely to allow participation in a specific program [24 CFR 5.609(c)(8)(iii)]
- Amounts received by a person with a disability that are disregarded for a limited time for purposes of Supplemental Security Income eligibility and benefits because they are set aside for use under a Plan to Attain Self-Sufficiency (PASS) [(24 CFR 5.609(c)(8)(ii)]
- Reparation payments paid by a foreign government pursuant to claims filed under the laws of that government by persons who were persecuted during the Nazi era [24 CFR 5.609(c)(10)]
- Adoption assistance payments in excess of $480 per adopted child [24 CFR 5.609(c)(12)]
- Refunds or rebates on property taxes paid on the dwelling unit [24 CFR 5.609(c)(15)]
- Amounts paid by a state agency to a family with a member who has a developmental disability and is living at home to offset the cost of services and equipment needed to keep the developmentally disabled family member at home [24 CFR 5.609(c)(16)]
- Amounts specifically excluded by any other federal statute [24 CFR 5.609(c)(17), FR Notice 5/20/14]. HUD publishes an updated list of these exclusions periodically. It includes:

  (a) The value of the allotment provided to an eligible household under the Food Stamp Act of 1977 (7 U.S.C. 2017 (b))

  (b) Benefits under Section 1780 of the School Lunch Act and Child Nutrition Act of 1966, including WIC

  (c) Payments to volunteers under the Domestic Volunteer Services Act of 1973 (42 U.S.C. 5044(g), 5058)

  (d) Payments received under the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (43 U.S.C. 1626(c))

  (e) Income derived from certain submarginal land of the United States that is held in trust for certain Indian tribes (25 U.S.C. 459e)

  (f) Payments or allowances made under the Department of Health and Human Services’ Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (42 U.S.C. 8624(f))
(g) Payments received under programs funded in whole or in part under the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (29 U.S.C. 2931)

(h) Deferred disability benefits from the Department of Veterans Affairs, whether received as a lump sum or in monthly prospective amounts

(i) Income derived from the disposition of funds to the Grand River Band of Ottawa Indians (Pub. L. 94-540, 90 Stat. 2503-04)

(j) Payments, funds, or distributions authorized, established, or directed by the Seneca Nation Settlement Act of 1990 (25 U.S.C. 1774f(b))

(k) A lump sum or periodic payment received by an individual Indian pursuant to the Class Action Settlement Agreement in the United States District Court case entitled Elouise Cobell et al. v. Ken Salazar et al., for a period of one year from the time of receipt of that payment as provided in the Claims Resolution Act of 2010

(l) The first $2,000 of per capita shares received from judgment funds awarded by the Indian Claims Commission or the U. S. Claims Court, the interests of individual Indians in trust or restricted lands, including the first $2,000 per year of income received by individual Indians from funds derived from interests held in such trust or restricted lands (25 U.S.C. 1407-1408)

(m) Benefits under the Indian Veterans Housing Opportunity Act of 2010 (only applies to Native American housing programs)

(n) Payments received from programs funded under Title V of the Older Americans Act of 1985 (42 U.S.C. 3056(f))

(o) Payments received on or after January 1, 1989, from the Agent Orange Settlement Fund or any other fund established pursuant to the settlement in In Re Agent Orange product liability litigation, M.D.L. No. 381 (E.D.N.Y.)

(p) Payments received under 38 U.S.C. 1833(c) to children of Vietnam veterans born with spinal bifida, children of women Vietnam veterans born with certain birth defects, and children of certain Korean service veterans born with spinal bifida

(q) Payments received under the Maine Indian Claims Settlement Act of 1980 (25 U.S.C. 1721)

(r) The value of any child care provided or arranged (or any amount received as payment for such care or reimbursement for costs incurred for such care) under the Child Care and Development Block Grant Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. 9858q)

(s) Earned income tax credit (EITC) refund payments received on or after January 1, 1991 (26 U.S.C. 32(j))

(t) Payments by the Indian Claims Commission to the Confederated Tribes and Bands of Yakima Indian Nation or the Apache Tribe of Mescalero Reservation (Pub. L. 95-433)
(u) Amounts of scholarships funded under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, including awards under federal work-study programs or under the Bureau of Indian Affairs student assistance programs (20 U.S.C. 1087uu). For Section 8 programs, the exception found in § 237 of Public Law 109–249 applies and requires that the amount of financial assistance in excess of tuition shall be considered income in accordance with the provisions codified at 24 CFR 5.609(b)(9), except for those persons with disabilities as defined by 42 U.S.C. 1437a(b)(3)(E) (Pub. L. 109–249)

(v) Allowances, earnings and payments to AmeriCorps participants under the National and Community Service Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. 12637(d))

(w) Any amount of crime victim compensation (under the Victims of Crime Act) received through crime victim assistance (or payment or reimbursement of the cost of such assistance) as determined under the Victims of Crime Act because of the commission of a crime against the applicant under the Victims of Crime Act (42 U.S.C. 10602)

(x) Any amounts in an "individual development account" as provided by the Assets for Independence Act, as amended in 2002

(y) Payments made from the proceeds of Indian tribal trust cases as described in Notice PIH 2013–30, "Exclusion from Income of Payments under Recent Tribal Trust Settlements" (25 U.S.C. 117b(a))

(z) Major disaster and emergency assistance received under the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act and comparable disaster assistance provided by states, local governments, and disaster assistance organizations

(aa) Distributions from an ABLE account and actual or imputed interest on the ABLE account balance
PART II: ADJUSTED INCOME

6-II.A. INTRODUCTION

Overview

HUD regulations require OCHA to deduct from annual income any of five mandatory deductions for which a family qualifies. The resulting amount is the family’s adjusted income. Mandatory deductions are found in 24 CFR 5.611.

5.611(a) Mandatory deductions. In determining adjusted income, the responsible entity (PHA) must deduct the following amounts from annual income:

1. $480 for each dependent;
2. $400 for any elderly family or disabled family;
3. The sum of the following, to the extent the sum exceeds three percent of annual income:
   (i) Unreimbursed medical expenses of any elderly family or disabled family;
   (ii) Unreimbursed reasonable attendant care and auxiliary apparatus expenses for each member of the family who is a person with disabilities, to the extent necessary to enable any member of the family (including the member who is a person with disabilities) to be employed. This deduction may not exceed the earned income received by family members who are 18 years of age or older and who are able to work because of such attendant care or auxiliary apparatus; and
4. Any reasonable child care expenses necessary to enable a member of the family to be employed or to further their education.

This part covers policies related to these mandatory deductions. Verification requirements related to these deductions are found in Chapter 7, Verifications.

Anticipating Expenses

OCHA Policy

Generally, OCHA will use current circumstances to anticipate expenses. When possible, for costs that are expected to fluctuate during the year (e.g., child care during school and nonschool periods and cyclical medical expenses), OCHA will estimate costs based on historic data and known future costs.

If a family has an accumulated debt for medical or disability assistance expenses, OCHA will include as an eligible expense the portion of the debt that the family expects to pay during the period for which the income determination is being made. However, amounts previously deducted will not be allowed even if the amounts were not paid as expected in a preceding period. OCHA may require the family to provide documentation of payments made in the preceding year.

6-II.B. DEPENDENT DEDUCTION

An allowance of $480 is deducted from annual income for each dependent [24 CFR 5.611(a)(1)]. Dependent is defined as any family member other than the head, spouse, or cohead who is under the age of 18 or who is 18 or older and is a person with disabilities or a full-time student. Foster children, foster adults, and live-in aides are never considered dependents [24 CFR 5.603(b)].

6-II.C. ELDERLY OR DISABLED FAMILY DEDUCTION

A single deduction of $400 is taken for any elderly or disabled family [24 CFR 5.611(a)(2)]. An elderly family is a family whose head, spouse, cohead, or sole member is 62 years of age or older, and a disabled family is a family whose head, spouse, cohead, or sole member is a person with disabilities [24 CFR 5.403].

6-II.D. MEDICAL EXPENSES DEDUCTION [24 CFR 5.611(a)(3)(i)]

Unreimbursed medical expenses may be deducted to the extent that, in combination with any disability assistance expenses, they exceed three percent of annual income.

The medical expense deduction is permitted only for families in which the head, spouse, or cohead is at least 62 or is a person with disabilities. If a family is eligible for a medical expense deduction, the medical expenses of all family members are counted [VG, p. 28].

Definition of Medical Expenses

HUD regulations define medical expenses at 24 CFR 5.603(b) to mean “medical expenses, including medical insurance premiums, that are anticipated during the period for which annual income is computed, and that are not covered by insurance.”

OCHA Policy

The most current IRS Publication 502, Medical and Dental Expenses, will be used as a reference to determine the costs that qualify as medical expenses.

Families That Qualify for Both Medical and Disability Assistance Expenses

OCHA Policy

This policy applies only to families in which the head, spouse, or cohead is 62 or older or is a person with disabilities.

When expenses anticipated by a family could be defined as either medical or disability assistance expenses, OCHA will consider them medical expenses unless it is clear that the expenses are incurred exclusively to enable a person with disabilities to work.

6-II.E. DISABILITY ASSISTANCE EXPENSES DEDUCTION [24 CFR 5.603(b) and 24 CFR 5.611(a)(3)(ii)]

Reasonable expenses for attendant care and auxiliary apparatus for a disabled family member may be deducted if they: (1) are necessary to enable a family member 18 years or older to work, (2) are not paid to a family member or reimbursed by an outside source, (3) in combination with any medical expenses, exceed three percent of annual income, and (4) do not exceed the earned income received by the family member who is enabled to work.

Earned Income Limit on the Disability Assistance Expense Deduction

A family can qualify for the disability assistance expense deduction only if at least one family member (who may be the person with disabilities) is enabled to work [24 CFR 5.603(b)].

The disability expense deduction is capped by the amount of “earned income received by family members who are 18 years of age or older and who are able to work” because of the expense [24 CFR 5.611(a)(3)(ii)]. The earned income used for this purpose is the amount verified before any earned income disallowances or income exclusions are applied.

OCHA Policy

The family must identify the family members enabled to work as a result of the disability assistance expenses. In evaluating the family’s request, OCHA will consider factors such as how the work schedule of the relevant family members relates to the hours of care provided, the time required for transportation, the relationship of the family members to the person with disabilities, and any special needs of the person with disabilities that might determine which family members are enabled to work.

When OCHA determines that the disability assistance expenses enable more than one family member to work, the disability assistance expenses will be capped by the sum of the family members’ incomes [PH Occ GB, p. 124].
Eligible Disability Expenses

Examples of auxiliary apparatus are provided in the PH Occupancy Guidebook as follows: “Auxiliary apparatus: Including wheelchairs, walkers, scooters, reading devices for persons with visual disabilities, equipment added to cars and vans to permit their use by the family member with a disability, or service animals” [PH Occ GB, p. 124], but only if these items are directly related to permitting the disabled person or other family member to work [HCV GB, p. 5-30].

HUD advises OCHA to further define and describe auxiliary apparatus [VG, p. 30].

Eligible Auxiliary Apparatus

OCHA Policy

Expenses incurred for maintaining or repairing an auxiliary apparatus are eligible. In the case of an apparatus that is specially adapted to accommodate a person with disabilities (e.g., a vehicle or computer), the cost to maintain the special adaptations (but not maintenance of the apparatus itself) is an eligible expense. The cost of service animals trained to give assistance to persons with disabilities, including the cost of acquiring the animal, veterinary care, food, grooming, and other continuing costs of care, will be included.

Eligible Attendant Care

The family determines the type of attendant care that is appropriate for the person with disabilities.

OCHA Policy

Attendant care includes, but is not limited to, reasonable costs for home medical care, nursing services, in-home or center-based care services, interpreters for persons with hearing impairments, and readers for persons with visual disabilities.

Attendant care expenses will be included for the period that the person enabled to work is employed plus reasonable transportation time. The cost of general housekeeping and personal services is not an eligible attendant care expense. However, if the person enabled to work is the person with disabilities, personal services necessary to enable the person with disabilities to work are eligible.

If the care attendant also provides other services to the family, OCHA will prorate the cost and allow only that portion of the expenses attributable to attendant care that enables a family member to work. For example, if the care provider also cares for a child who is not the person with disabilities, the cost of care must be prorated. Unless otherwise specified by the care provider, the calculation will be based upon the number of hours spent in each activity and/or the number of persons under care.
Payments to Family Members

No disability expenses may be deducted for payments to a member of a tenant family [23 CFR 5.603(b)]. However, expenses paid to a relative who is not a member of the tenant family may be deducted if they are not reimbursed by an outside source.

Necessary and Reasonable Expenses

The family determines the type of care or auxiliary apparatus to be provided and must describe how the expenses enable a family member to work. The family must certify that the disability assistance expenses are necessary and are not paid or reimbursed by any other source.

OCHA Policy

OCHA determines the reasonableness of the expenses based on typical costs of care or apparatus in the locality. To establish typical costs, OCHA will collect information from organizations that provide services and support to persons with disabilities. A family may present, and OCHA will consider, the family’s justification for costs that exceed typical costs in the area.

Families That Qualify for Both Medical and Disability Assistance Expenses

OCHA Policy

This policy applies only to families in which the head, spouse, or cohead is 62 or older or is a person with disabilities.

When expenses anticipated by a family could be defined as either medical or disability assistance expenses, OCHA will consider them medical expenses unless it is clear that the expenses are incurred exclusively to enable a person with disabilities to work.
6-II.F. CHILD CARE EXPENSE DEDUCTION

HUD defines child care expenses at 24 CFR 5.603(b) as “amounts anticipated to be paid by the family for the care of children under 13 years of age during the period for which annual income is computed, but only where such care is necessary to enable a family member to actively seek employment, be gainfully employed, or to further their education and only to the extent such amounts are not reimbursed. The amount deducted shall reflect reasonable charges for child care. In the case of child care necessary to permit employment, the amount deducted shall not exceed the amount of employment income that is included in annual income.”

Child care expenses do not include child support payments made to another on behalf of a minor who is not living in an assisted family’s household [VG, p. 26]. However, child care expenses for foster children that are living in the assisted family’s household are included when determining the family’s child care expenses.

Qualifying for the Deduction

Determining Who Is Enabled to Pursue an Eligible Activity

OCHA Policy

The family must identify the family member(s) enabled to pursue an eligible activity. The term eligible activity in this section means any of the activities that may make the family eligible for a child care deduction (seeking work, pursuing an education, or being gainfully employed).

In evaluating the family’s request, OCHA will consider factors such as how the schedule for the claimed activity relates to the hours of care provided, the time required for transportation, the relationship of the family member(s) to the child, and any special needs of the child that might help determine which family member is enabled to pursue an eligible activity.

Seeking Work

OCHA Policy

If the child care expense being claimed is to enable a family member to seek employment, the family must provide evidence of the family member’s efforts to obtain employment at each reexamination. The deduction may be reduced or denied if the family member’s job search efforts are not commensurate with the child care expense being allowed by OCHA.
Furthering Education

OCHA Policy

If the child care expense being claimed is to enable a family member to further their education, the member must be enrolled in school (academic or vocational) or participating in a formal training program. The family member is not required to be a full-time student, but the time spent in educational activities must be commensurate with the child care claimed.

Being Gainfully Employed

OCHA Policy

If the child care expense being claimed is to enable a family member to be gainfully employed, the family must provide evidence of the family member’s employment during the time that child care is being provided. Gainful employment is any legal work activity (full- or part-time) for which a family member is compensated.

Earned Income Limit on Child Care Expense Deduction

When a family member looks for work or furthers their education, there is no cap on the amount that may be deducted for child care – although the care must still be necessary and reasonable. However, when child care enables a family member to work, the deduction is capped by “the amount of employment income that is included in annual income” [24 CFR 5.603(b)].

The earned income used for this purpose is the amount of earned income verified after any earned income disallowances or income exclusions are applied.

When the person who is enabled to work is a person who receives the earned income disallowance (EID) or a full-time student whose earned income above $480 is excluded, child care costs related to enabling a family member to work may not exceed the portion of the person’s earned income that actually is included in annual income. For example, if a family member who qualifies for the EID makes $15,000 but because of the EID only $5,000 is included in annual income, child care expenses are limited to $5,000.

OCHA must not limit the deduction to the least expensive type of child care. If the care allows the family to pursue more than one eligible activity, including work, the cap is calculated in proportion to the amount of time spent working [HCV GB, p. 5-30].

OCHA Policy

When the child care expense being claimed is to enable a family member to work, only one family member’s income will be considered for a given period of time. When more than one family member works during a given period, OCHA generally will limit allowable child care expenses to the earned income of the lowest-paid member. The family may provide information that supports a request to designate another family member as the person enabled to work.
Eligible Child Care Expenses

The type of care to be provided is determined by the tenant family. OCHA may not refuse to give a family the child care expense deduction because there is an adult family member in the household that may be available to provide child care [VG, p. 26].

Allowable Child Care Activities

OCHA Policy

For school-age children, costs attributable to public or private school activities during standard school hours are not considered. Expenses incurred for supervised activities after school or during school holidays (e.g., summer day camp, after-school sports league) are allowable forms of child care.

The costs of general housekeeping and personal services are not eligible. Likewise, child care expenses paid to a family member who lives in the family’s unit are not eligible; however, payments for child care to relatives who do not live in the unit are eligible.

If a child care provider also renders other services to a family or child care is used to enable a family member to conduct activities that are not eligible for consideration, OCHA will prorate the costs and allow only that portion of the expenses that is attributable to child care for eligible activities. For example, if the care provider also cares for a child with disabilities who is 13 or older, the cost of care will be prorated. Unless otherwise specified by the child care provider, the calculation will be based upon the number of hours spent in each activity and/or the number of persons under care.

Necessary and Reasonable Costs

Child care expenses will be considered necessary if: (1) a family adequately explains how the care enables a family member to work, actively seek employment, or further their education, and (2) the family certifies, and the child care provider verifies, that the expenses are not paid or reimbursed by any other source.

OCHA Policy

Child care expenses will be considered for the time required for the eligible activity plus reasonable transportation time. For child care that enables a family member to go to school, the time allowed may include not more than one study hour for each hour spent in class.

To establish the reasonableness of child care costs, OCHA will use the schedule of child care costs from a qualified local entity that either subsidizes child care costs or licenses child care providers. Families may present, and OCHA will consider, justification for costs that exceed typical costs in the area.
6-II.G. PERMISSIVE DEDUCTIONS [24 CFR 5.611(b)(1)]

Permissive deductions are additional, optional deductions that may be applied to annual income. As with mandatory deductions, permissive deductions must be based on need or family circumstance and deductions must be designed to encourage self-sufficiency or other economic purpose. If OCHA offers permissive deductions, they must be granted to all families that qualify for them and should complement existing income exclusions and deductions [PH Occ GB, p. 128].

The Form HUD-50058 Instruction Booklet states that the maximum allowable amount for total permissive deductions is less than $90,000 per year.

OCHA Policy

OCHA has opted not to use permissive deductions. However, OCHA does not require rent or pro-rated rent to be paid for all new residents during the initial month they lease in to the Public Housing program. Their first rent payment is due the first day of the month following their lease signing.

PART III: CALCULATING RENT

6-III.A. OVERVIEW OF INCOME-BASED RENT CALCULATIONS

The first step in calculating income-based rent is to determine each family’s total tenant payment (TTP). Then, if the family is occupying a unit that has tenant-paid utilities, the utility allowance is subtracted from the TTP. The result of this calculation, if a positive number, is the tenant rent. If the TTP is less than the utility allowance, the result of this calculation is a negative number, and is called the utility reimbursement, which may be paid to the family or directly to the utility company by OCHA.

TTP Formula [24 CFR 5.628]

HUD regulations specify the formula for calculating the total tenant payment (TTP) for a tenant family. TTP is the highest of the following amounts, rounded to the nearest dollar:

- 30 percent of the family’s monthly adjusted income (adjusted income is defined in Part II)
- 10 percent of the family’s monthly gross income (annual income, as defined in Part I, divided by 12)
- The welfare rent (in as-paid states only)
- A minimum rent between $0 and $50 that is established by OCHA
- The alternative non-public housing rent, as determined in accordance with 24 CFR 960.102

OCHA has authority to suspend and exempt families from minimum rent when a financial hardship exists, as defined in section 6-III.B.

Welfare Rent [24 CFR 5.628]

OCHA Policy

Welfare rent does not apply in this locality.

Revised 6/28/2023
Minimum Rent [24 CFR 5.630]

OCHA Policy

The minimum rent for this locality is $50.

Optional Changes to Income-Based Rents [24 CFR 960.253(c)(2) and PH Occ GB, pp. 131-134]

PHAs have been given very broad flexibility to establish their own, unique rent calculation systems as long as the rent produced is not higher than that calculated using the TTP and mandatory deductions. At the discretion of OCHA, rent policies may structure a system that uses combinations of permissive deductions, escrow accounts, income-based rents, and the required flat and minimum rents.

OCHA’s minimum rent and rent choice policies still apply to affected families. Utility allowances are applied to PHA designed income-based rents in the same manner as they are applied to the regulatory income-based rents.

The choices are limited only by the requirement that the method used not produce a TTP or tenant rent greater than the TTP or tenant rent produced under the regulatory formula.

OCHA Policy

OCHA chooses not to adopt optional changes to income-based rents.

Ceiling Rents [24 CFR 960.253 (c)(2) and (d)]

Ceiling rents are used to cap income-based rents. They are part of the income-based formula. If the calculated TTP exceeds the ceiling rent for the unit, the ceiling rent is used to calculate tenant rent (ceiling rent/TTP minus utility allowance). Increases in income do not affect the family since the rent is capped. The use of ceiling rents fosters upward mobility and income mixing.

Because of the mandatory use of flat rents, the primary function of ceiling rents now is to assist families who cannot switch back to flat rent between annual reexaminations and would otherwise be paying an income-based tenant rent that is higher than the flat rent.

Ceiling rents must be set to the level required for flat rents (which will require the addition of the utility allowance to the flat rent for properties with tenant-paid utilities) [PH Occ GB, p. 135].

OCHA Policy

OCHA chooses not to use ceiling rents.

Utility Reimbursement [24 CFR 960.253(c)(4)]

Utility reimbursement occurs when any applicable utility allowance for tenant-paid utilities exceeds the TTP. HUD permits OCHA to pay the reimbursement to the family or directly to the utility provider.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will make utility reimbursements to the family.

OCHA may make all utility reimbursement payments to qualifying families on a monthly basis or may make quarterly payments when the monthly reimbursement amount is $15.00 or less. Reimbursements must be made once per calendar-year quarter, either prospectively or retroactively, and must be prorated if the family leaves the program in advance of its next quarterly reimbursement. OCHA must also adopt hardship policies for families for whom receiving quarterly reimbursement would create a financial hardship. OCHA must issue reimbursements that exceed $15.00 per month on a monthly basis.

OCHA Policy
OCHA will issue all utility reimbursements monthly.

6-III.B. FINANCIAL HARDSHIPS AFFECTING MINIMUM RENT [24 CFR 5.630]
Overview
If OCHA establishes a minimum rent greater than zero, OCHA must grant an exemption from the minimum rent if a family is unable to pay the minimum rent because of financial hardship.

The financial hardship exemption applies only to families required to pay the minimum rent. If a family’s TTP is higher than the minimum rent, the family is not eligible for a hardship exemption. If OCHA determines that a hardship exists, the TTP is the highest of the remaining components of the family’s calculated TTP.

HUD-Defined Financial Hardship

Financial hardship includes the following situations:

(1) The family has lost eligibility for or is awaiting an eligibility determination for a federal, state, or local assistance program. This includes a family member who is a noncitizen lawfully admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act who would be entitled to public benefits but for Title IV of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Act of 1996.

OCHA Policy
A hardship will be considered to exist only if the loss of eligibility has an impact on the family’s ability to pay the minimum rent.

For a family waiting for a determination of eligibility, the hardship period will end as of the first of the month following (1) implementation of assistance, if approved, or (2) the decision to deny assistance. A family whose request for assistance is denied may request a hardship exemption based upon one of the other allowable hardship circumstances.

(2) The family would be evicted because it is unable to pay the minimum rent.

OCHA Policy
For a family to qualify under this provision, the cause of the potential eviction must be the family’s failure to pay rent or tenant-paid utilities.

(3) Family income has decreased because of changed family circumstances, including the loss of employment.
(4) A death has occurred in the family.

OCHA Policy

In order to qualify under this provision, a family must describe how the death has created a financial hardship (e.g., because of funeral-related expenses or the loss of the family member’s income).

(5) The family has experienced other circumstances determined by OCHA.

OCHA Policy

OCHA has not established any additional hardship criteria.

Implementation of Hardship Exemption

Determination of Hardship

When a family requests a financial hardship exemption, OCHA must suspend the minimum rent requirement beginning the first of the month following the family’s request.

OCHA then determines whether the financial hardship exists and whether the hardship is temporary or long-term.

OCHA Policy

OCHA defines temporary hardship as a hardship expected to last 90 days or less. Long term hardship is defined as a hardship expected to last more than 90 days.

OCHA may not evict the family for nonpayment of minimum rent during the 90-day period beginning the month following the family’s request for a hardship exemption.

When the minimum rent is suspended, the TTP reverts to the highest of the remaining components of the calculated TTP. The example below demonstrates the effect of the minimum rent exemption.

OCHA Policy

To qualify for a hardship exemption, a family must submit a request for a hardship exemption in writing. The request must explain the nature of the hardship and how the hardship has affected the family’s ability to pay the minimum rent.

OCHA will make the determination of hardship within 30 calendar days.

No Financial Hardship

If OCHA determines there is no financial hardship, OCHA will reinstate the minimum rent and require the family to repay the amounts suspended.

For procedures pertaining to grievance hearing requests based upon OCHA’s denial of a hardship exemption, see Chapter 14, Grievances and Appeals.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will require the family to repay the suspended amount within 30 calendar days of OCHA’s notice that a hardship exemption has not been granted.

Temporary Hardship

If OCHA determines that a qualifying financial hardship is temporary, OCHA must suspend the minimum rent for the 90-day period beginning the first of the month following the date of the family’s request for a hardship exemption.

At the end of the 90-day suspension period, the family must resume payment of the minimum rent and must repay OCHA the amounts suspended. HUD requires OCHA to offer a reasonable repayment agreement, on terms and conditions established by OCHA. OCHA also may determine that circumstances have changed and the hardship is now a long-term hardship.

For procedures pertaining to grievance hearing requests based upon OCHA’s denial of a hardship exemption, see Chapter 14, Grievances and Appeals.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will enter into a repayment agreement in accordance with OCHA’s repayment agreement policy (see Chapter 16).
Long-Term Hardship

If OCHA determines that the financial hardship is long-term, OCHA must exempt the family from the minimum rent requirement for so long as the hardship continues. The exemption will apply from the first of the month following the family’s request until the end of the qualifying hardship. When the financial hardship has been determined to be long-term, the family is not required to repay the minimum rent.

OCHA Policy

The hardship period ends when any of the following circumstances apply:

(1) At an interim or annual reexamination when the family’s calculated TTP is greater than the minimum rent or an updated Minimum Rent Exemption form is not completed.

(2) For hardship conditions based on loss of income, the hardship condition will continue to be recognized until new sources of income are received that are at least equal to the amount lost. For example, if a hardship is approved because a family no longer receives a $60/month child support payment, the hardship will continue to exist until the family receives at least $60/month in income from another source or once again begins to receive the child support.

(3) For hardship conditions based upon hardship-related expenses, the minimum rent exemption will continue to be recognized until the cumulative amount exempted is equal to the expense incurred.

6-III.C. UTILITY ALLOWANCES [24 CFR 965, Subpart E]

Overview

Utility allowances are provided to families paying income-based rents when the cost of utilities is not included in the rent. When determining a family’s income-based rent, OCHA must use the utility allowance applicable to the type of dwelling unit leased by the family.

For policies on establishing and updating utility allowances, see Chapter 16.

Reasonable Accommodation and Individual Relief

On request from a family, OCHA must approve a utility allowance that is higher than the applicable amount for the dwelling unit if a higher utility allowance is needed as a reasonable accommodation to make the program accessible to and usable by the family with a disability [PH Occ GB, p. 172].

Residents with disabilities may not be charged for the use of certain resident-supplied appliances if there is a verified need for special equipment because of the disability [24 CFR 8 and 100, PH Occ GB, p. 172].

See Chapter 2 for policies related to reasonable accommodations.

Further, OCHA may grant requests for relief from charges in excess of the utility allowance on reasonable grounds, such as special needs of the elderly, ill, or residents with disabilities, or special factors not within control of the resident, as OCHA deems appropriate. The family must request the higher allowance and provide OCHA with an explanation about the additional allowance required.

OCHA should develop criteria for granting individual relief, notify residents about the availability of individual relief, and notify participants about the availability of individual relief programs (sometimes referred to as “Medical Baseline discounts”) offered by the local utility company [Utility Allowance GB, p. 19; 24 CFR 965.508].

OCHA Policy

The family must request the higher allowance and provide OCHA with information about the amount of additional allowance required.

OCHA will consider the following criteria as valid reasons for granting individual relief:

The family’s consumption was mistakenly portrayed as excessive due to defects in the meter or errors in the meter reading.

The excessive consumption is caused by a characteristic of the unit or owner-supplied equipment that is beyond the family’s control, such as a particularly inefficient refrigerator or inadequate insulation. The allowance should be adjusted to reflect the higher consumption needs associated with the unit until the situation is remedied. The resident should be granted individual relief until the allowance is adjusted.

The excessive consumption is due to special needs of the family that are beyond their control, such as the need for specialized equipment in the case of a family member who is ill, elderly, or who has a disability.

In determining the amount of the reasonable accommodation or individual relief, OCHA will allow a reasonable measure of additional usage as necessary. To arrive at the amount of additional utility cost of specific equipment, the family may provide information from the manufacturer of the equipment, or the family or OCHA may conduct an internet search for an estimate of usage or additional monthly cost.

Information on reasonable accommodation and individual relief for charges in excess of the utility allowance will be provided to all residents at move-in and with any notice of proposed allowances, schedule surcharges, and revisions. OCHA will also provide information on utility relief programs or medical discounts (sometimes referred to as “Medical Baseline discounts”) that may be available through local utility providers.

The family must request the higher allowance and provide OCHA with information about the amount of additional allowance required.

At its discretion, OCHA may reevaluate the need for the increased utility allowance as a reasonable accommodation at any regular reexamination.

If the excessive consumption is caused by a characteristic of the unit or OCHA-supplied equipment that is beyond the family’s control, such as a particularly inefficient refrigerator or inadequate insulation, the individual relief to the resident will cease when the situation is remedied.
Utility Allowance Revisions [24 CFR 965.507]

OCHA must review at least annually the basis on which utility allowances have been established and, if reasonably required in order to continue adherence to standards described in 24 CFR 965.505, must establish revised allowances.

The PHA must revise the utility allowance schedule if there is a rate change that by itself or together with prior rate changes not adjusted for, results in a change of 10 percent or more from the rates on which such allowances were based.

Adjustments to resident payments as a result of such changes must be retroactive to the first day of the month following the month in which the last rate change taken into account in such revision became effective. Such rate changes are not subject to the 60-day notice [24 CFR 965.507(b)].

The tenant rent calculations must reflect any changes in OCHA’s utility allowance schedule [24 CFR 960.253(c)(3)].

OCHA Policy

Between annual reviews of utility allowances, OCHA will only revise its utility allowances due to a rate change, when required to by the regulation.

6-III.D. PRORATED RENT FOR MIXED FAMILIES [24 CFR 5.520]

HUD regulations prohibit assistance to ineligible family members. A mixed family is one that includes at least one U.S. citizen or eligible immigrant and any number of ineligible family members. Except for non-public housing over income families, the PHA must prorate the assistance provided to a mixed family. The PHA will first determine TTP as if all family members were eligible and then prorate the rent based upon the number of family members that actually are eligible. To do this, the PHA must:

1) Subtract the TTP from the flat rent applicable to the unit. The result is the maximum subsidy for which the family could qualify if all members were eligible.

2) Divide the family maximum subsidy by the number of persons in the family to determine the maximum subsidy per each family member who is eligible (member maximum subsidy).

3) Multiply the member maximum subsidy by the number of eligible family members.

4) Subtract the subsidy calculated in the last step from the flat rent. This is the prorated TTP.

5) Subtract the utility allowance for the unit from the prorated TTP. This is the prorated rent for the mixed family.

OCHA Policy

Revised public housing flat rents will be applied to a mixed family’s rent calculation at the first annual reexamination after the revision is adopted.

6) When the mixed family’s TTP is greater than the applicable flat rent, use the TTP as the prorated TTP. The prorated TTP minus the utility allowance is the prorated rent for the 6-III.E. FLAT RENTS AND FAMILY CHOICE IN RENTS [24 CFR 960.253]

Flat Rents [24 CFR 960.253(b)]

The flat rent is designed to encourage self-sufficiency and to avoid creating disincentives for continued residency by families who are attempting to become economically self-sufficient. Changes in family income, expenses, or composition will not affect the flat rent amount because it is outside the income-based formula.

Policies related to the reexamination of families paying flat rent are contained in Chapter 9, and policies related to the establishment and review of flat rents are contained in Chapter 16.

Family Choice in Rents [24 CFR 960.253(a) and (e)]

With the exception of non-public housing over income families, once each year, the PHA must offer families the choice between a flat rent and an income-based rent. The family may not be offered this choice more than once a year. The PHA must document that flat rents were offered to families under the methods used to determine flat rents for the PHA.

OCHA Policy

The annual OCHA offer to a family of the choice between flat and income-based rent will be conducted upon admission and upon each subsequent annual reexamination.

OCHA will require families to submit their choice of flat or income-based rent in writing and will maintain such requests in the tenant file as part of the admission or annual reexamination process.

OCHA must provide sufficient information for families to make an informed choice. This information must include OCHA’s policy on switching from flat rent to income-based rent due to financial hardship and the dollar amount of the rent under each option. However, if the family chose the flat rent for the previous year OCHA is required to provide an income-based rent amount only in the year that a reexamination of income is conducted or if the family specifically requests it and submits updated income information.

Switching from Flat Rent to Income-Based Rent Due to Hardship [24 CFR 960.253(f)]

With the exception of non-public housing over-income families, a family can opt to switch from flat rent to income-based rent at any time if they are unable to pay the flat rent due to financial hardship. If the PHA determines that a financial hardship exists, the PHA must immediately allow the family to switch from flat rent to the income-based rent.

OCHA Policy

Upon determination by OCHA that a financial hardship exists, OCHA will allow a family to switch from flat rent to income-based rent effective the first of the month following the family’s request.

Reasons for financial hardship include:

- The family has experienced a decrease in income because of changed circumstances, including loss or reduction of employment, death in the family, or reduction in or loss of
• The family has experienced an increase in expenses, because of changed circumstances, for medical costs, child care, transportation, education, or similar items
• Such other situations determined by OCHA to be appropriate

OCHA Policy

OCHA considers payment of flat rent to be a financial hardship whenever the switch to income-based rent would be lower than the flat rent [PH Occ GB, p. 137].
Flat Rents and Earned Income Disallowance [A&O FAQs]

Because the EID is a function of income-based rents, a family paying flat rent cannot qualify for the EID even if a family member experiences an event that would qualify the family for the EID. If the family later chooses to pay income-based rent, they would only qualify for the EID if a new qualifying event occurred.

Under the EID original calculation method, a family currently paying flat rent that previously qualified for the EID while paying income-based rent and is currently within their exclusion period would have the exclusion period continue while paying flat rent as long as the employment that is the subject of the exclusion continues. A family paying flat rent could therefore see a family member’s exclusion period expire while the family is paying flat rent.

Under the EID revised calculation method, a family currently paying flat rent that previously qualified for the EID while paying income-based rent and is currently within their exclusion period would have the exclusion period continue while paying flat rent regardless whether the employment that is the subject of the exclusion continues. A family paying flat rent could therefore see a family member’s exclusion period expire while the family is paying flat rent.
24 CFR 5.609

(a) Annual income means all amounts, monetary or not, which:

(1) Go to, or on behalf of, the family head or spouse (even if temporarily absent) or to any other family member; or

(2) Are anticipated to be received from a source outside the family during the 12-month period following admission or annual reexamination effective date; and

(3) Which are not specifically excluded in paragraph (c) of this section.

(4) Annual income also means amounts derived (during the 12-month period) from assets to which any member of the family has access.

(b) Annual income includes, but is not limited to:

(1) The full amount, before any payroll deductions, of wages and salaries, overtime pay, commissions, fees, tips and bonuses, and other compensation for personal services;

(2) The net income from the operation of a business or profession. Expenditures for business expansion or amortization of capital indebtedness shall not be used as deductions in determining net income. An allowance for depreciation is permitted only as authorized in paragraph (b)(2) of this section. Any withdrawal of cash or assets from an investment will be included in income, except to the extent the withdrawal is reimbursement of cash or assets invested by the family. Where the family has net family assets in excess of $5,000, annual income shall include the greater of the actual income derived from all net family assets or a percentage of the value of such assets based on the current passbook savings rate, as determined by HUD;

(3) Interest, dividends, and other net income of any kind from real or personal property. Expenditures for amortization of capital indebtedness shall not be used as deductions in determining net income. An allowance for depreciation is permitted only as authorized in paragraph (b)(2) of this section. Any withdrawal of cash or assets from an investment will be included in income, except to the extent the withdrawal is reimbursement of cash or assets invested by the family. Where the family has net family assets in excess of $5,000, annual income shall include the greater of the actual income derived from all net family assets or a percentage of the value of such assets based on the current passbook savings rate, as determined by HUD;

(4) The full amount of periodic amounts received from Social Security, annuities, insurance policies, retirement funds, pensions, disability or death benefits, and other similar types of periodic receipts, including a lump-sum amount or prospective monthly amounts for the delayed start of a periodic amount (except as provided in paragraph (c)(14) of this section);

(5) Payments in lieu of earnings, such as unemployment and disability compensation, worker's compensation and severance pay (except as provided in paragraph (c)(3) of this section);

(6) Welfare assistance payments.

(i) Welfare assistance payments made under the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program are included in annual income only to the extent such payments:

(A) Qualify as assistance under the TANF program definition at 45 CFR 260.31; and

(B) Are not otherwise excluded under paragraph (c) of this section.

1 Text of 45 CFR 260.31 follows (next page).
(ii) If the welfare assistance payment includes an amount specifically designated for shelter and utilities that is subject to adjustment by the welfare assistance agency in accordance with the actual cost of shelter and utilities, the amount of welfare assistance income to be included as income shall consist of:

(A) The amount of the allowance or grant exclusive of the amount specifically designated for shelter or utilities; plus

(B) The maximum amount that the welfare assistance agency could in fact allow the family for shelter and utilities. If the family's welfare assistance is ratably reduced from the standard of need by applying a percentage, the amount calculated under this paragraph shall be the amount resulting from one application of the percentage.

7 Periodic and determinable allowances, such as alimony and child support payments, and regular contributions or gifts received from organizations or from persons not residing in the dwelling;

8 All regular pay, special pay and allowances of a member of the Armed Forces (except as provided in paragraph (c)(7) of this section)

9 For section 8 programs only and as provided in 24 CFR 5.612, any financial assistance, in excess of amounts received for tuition, that an individual receives under the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.), from private sources, or from an institution of higher education (as defined under the Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1002)), shall be considered income to that individual, except that financial assistance described in this paragraph is not considered annual income for persons over the age of 23 with dependent children. For purposes of this paragraph, “financial assistance” does not include loan proceeds for the purpose of determining income.

HHS DEFINITION OF "ASSISTANCE"

45 CFR: GENERAL TEMPORARY ASSISTANCE FOR NEEDY FAMILIES

260.31 What does the term “assistance” mean?

(a)(1) The term “assistance” includes cash, payments, vouchers, and other forms of benefits designed to meet a family's ongoing basic needs (i.e., for food, clothing, shelter, utilities, household goods, personal care items, and general incidental expenses).

(2) It includes such benefits even when they are:

(i) Provided in the form of payments by a TANF agency, or other agency on its behalf, to individual recipients; and

(ii) Conditioned on participation in work experience or community service (or any other work activity under 261.30 of this chapter).

(3) Except where excluded under paragraph (b) of this section, it also includes supportive services such as transportation and child care provided to families who are not employed.

(b) [The definition of “assistance”] excludes: (1) Nonrecurrent, short-term benefits that:

(i) Are designed to deal with a specific crisis situation or episode of need;

(ii) Are not intended to meet recurrent or ongoing needs; and

(iii) Will not extend beyond four months.

(2) Work subsidies (i.e., payments to employers or third parties to help cover the costs of employee wages, benefits, supervision, and training);

(3) Supportive services such as child care and transportation provided to families who are employed;

(4) Refundable earned income tax credits;

(5) Contributions to, and distributions from, Individual Development Accounts;

(6) Services such as counseling, case management, peer support, child care information and referral, transitional services, job retention, job advancement, and other employment-related services that do not provide basic income support; and

(7) Transportation benefits provided under a Job Access or Reverse Commute project, pursuant to section 404(k) of [the Social Security] Act, to an individual who is not otherwise receiving assistance
EXHIBIT 6-2: ANNUAL INCOME EXCLUSIONS

24 CFR 5.609

(e) Annual income does not include the following:

(1) Income from employment of children (including foster children) under the age of 18 years;

(2) Payments received for the care of foster children or foster adults (usually persons with disabilities, unrelated to the tenant family, who are unable to live alone);

(3) Lump-sum additions to family assets, such as inheritances, insurance payments (including payments under health and accident insurance and worker's compensation), capital gains and settlement for personal or property losses (except as provided in paragraph (b)(5) of this section);

(4) Amounts received by the family that are specifically for, or in reimbursement of, the cost of medical expenses for any family member;

(5) Income of a live-in aide, as defined in Sec. 5.403;

(6) Subject to paragraph (b)(9) of this section, the full amount of student financial assistance paid directly to the student or to the educational institution;

(7) The special pay to a family member serving in the Armed Forces who is exposed to hostile fire;

(8) (i) Amounts received under training programs funded by HUD;

(ii) Amounts received by a person with a disability that are disregarded for a limited time for purposes of Supplemental Security Income eligibility and benefits because they are set aside for use under a Plan to Attain Self-Sufficiency (PASS);

(iii) Amounts received by a participant in other publicly assisted programs which are specifically for or in reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses incurred (special equipment, clothing, transportation, child care, etc.) and which are made solely to allow participation in a specific program;

(iv) Amounts received under a resident service stipend. A resident service stipend is a modest amount (not to exceed $200 per month) received by a resident for performing a service for OCHA or owner, on a part-time basis, that enhances the quality of life in the development. Such services may include, but are not limited to, fire patrol, hall monitoring, lawn maintenance, resident initiatives coordination, and serving as a member of OCHA's governing board. No resident may receive more than one such stipend during the same period of time;

(v) Incremental earnings and benefits resulting to any family member from participation in qualifying State or local employment training programs (including training programs not affiliated with a local government) and training of a family member as resident management staff. Amounts excluded by this provision must be received under employment training programs with clearly defined goals and objectives, and are excluded only for the period during which the family member participates in the employment training program;

(9) Temporary, nonrecurring or sporadic income (including gifts);

(10) Reparation payments paid by a foreign government pursuant to claims filed under the laws of that government by persons who were persecuted during the Nazi era;

(11) Earnings in excess of $480 for each full-time student 18 years old or older (excluding the head of household and spouse);

(12) Adoption assistance payments in excess of $480 per adopted child;

(13) [Reserved]

(14) Deferred periodic amounts from supplemental security income and social security benefits that are received in a lump sum amount or in prospective monthly amounts, or any deferred Department of Veterans Affairs disability benefits that are received in a lump sum amount or prospective monthly amounts.
(15) Amounts received by the family in the form of refunds or rebates under State or local law for property taxes paid on the dwelling unit;

(16) Amounts paid by a State agency to a family with a member who has a developmental disability and is living at home to offset the cost of services and equipment needed to keep the developmentally disabled family member at home; or

(17) Amounts specifically excluded by any other Federal statute from consideration as income for purposes of determining eligibility or benefits under a category of assistance programs that includes assistance under any program to which the exclusions set forth in 24 CFR 5.609(c) apply. A notice will be published in the Federal Register and distributed to PHAs and housing owners identifying the benefits that qualify for this exclusion. Updates will be published and distributed when necessary. [See the following chart for a list of benefits that qualify for this exclusion.]
24 CFR 5.603(b) Net Family Assets

(1) Net cash value after deducting reasonable costs that would be incurred in disposing of real property, savings, stocks, bonds, and other forms of capital investment, excluding interests in Indian trust land and excluding equity accounts in HUD homeownership programs. The value of necessary items of personal property such as furniture and automobiles shall be excluded.

(2) In cases where a trust fund has been established and the trust is not revocable by, or under the control of, any member of the family or household, the value of the trust fund will not be considered an asset so long as the fund continues to be held in trust. Any income distributed from the trust fund shall be counted when determining annual income under Sec. 5.609.

(3) In determining net family assets, PHAs or owners, as applicable, shall include the value of any business or family assets disposed of by an applicant or tenant for less than fair market value (including a disposition in trust, but not in a foreclosure or bankruptcy sale) during the two years preceding the date of application for the program or reexamination, as applicable, in excess of the consideration received therefor. In the case of a disposition as part of a separation or divorce settlement, the disposition will not be considered to be for less than fair market value if the applicant or tenant receives important consideration not measurable in dollar terms.

(4) For purposes of determining annual income under Sec. 5.609, the term "net family assets" does not include the value of a home currently being purchased with assistance under part 982, subpart M of this title. This exclusion is limited to the first 10 years after the purchase date of the home.
EXHIBIT 6-4: EARNED INCOME DISALLOWANCE

24 CFR 960.255 Self-sufficiency incentive–Disallowance of increase in annual income.

(a) Definitions. The following definitions apply for purposes of this section.

Baseline income. The annual income immediately prior to implementation of the disallowance described in paragraph (c)(1) of this section of a person who is a member of a qualified family.

Disallowance. Exclusion from annual income.

Previously unemployed includes a person who has earned, in the twelve months previous to employment, no more than would be received for 10 hours of work per week for 50 weeks at the established minimum wage.

Qualified family. A family residing in public housing:

(i) Whose annual income increases as a result of employment of a family member who was unemployed for one or more years previous to employment;

(ii) Whose annual income increases as a result of increased earnings by a family member during participation in any economic self-sufficiency or other job training program; or

(iii) Whose annual income increases, as a result of new employment or increased earnings of a family member, during or within six months after receiving assistance, benefits or services under any state program for temporary assistance for needy families funded under Part A of Title IV of the Social Security Act, as determined by OCHA in consultation with the local agencies administering temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) and Welfare-to-Work (WTW) programs. The TANF program is not limited to monthly income maintenance, but also includes such benefits and services as onetime payments, wage subsidies and transportation assistance—provided that the total amount over a six-month period is at least $500.

(b) Disallowance of increase in annual income.

(1) Initial twelve month exclusion. During the 12-month period beginning on the date on which a member of a qualified family is first employed or the family first experiences an increase in annual income attributable to employment, the PHA must exclude from the annual income (as defined in § 5.609 of this title) of a qualified family any increase in the income of the family member as a result of employment over the baseline income of that family member.

(2) Phase-in of rent increase. Upon the expiration of the 12-month period defined in paragraph (b)(1) of this section and for the subsequent 12-month period, OCHA must exclude from the annual income of a qualified family at least 50 percent of any increase in income of such family member as a result of employment over the family member’s baseline income.

(3) Maximum 2-year disallowance. The disallowance of increased income of an individual family member as provided in paragraph (b)(1) or (b)(2) of this section is limited to a lifetime 24-month period. It applies for a maximum of 12 months for disallowance under paragraph (b)(1) of this section and a maximum of 12 months for disallowance under paragraph (b)(2) of this section, during the 24-month period starting from the initial exclusion under paragraph (b)(1) of this section.

(4) Effect of changes on currently participating families. Families eligible for and participating in the disallowance of earned income under this section prior to May 9, 2016 will continue to be governed by this section in effect as it existed immediately prior to that date.

(c) Inapplicability to admission. The disallowance of increases in income as a result of employment under this section does not apply for purposes of admission to the program (including the determination of income eligibility and income targeting).
(d) Individual Savings Accounts. As an alternative to the disallowance of increases in income as a result of employment described in paragraph (b) of this section, OCHA may choose to provide for individual savings accounts for public housing residents who pay an income-based rent, in accordance with a written policy, which must include the following provisions:

1. OCHA must advise the family that the savings account option is available;
2. At the option of the family, OCHA must deposit in the savings account the total amount that would have been included in tenant rent payable to OCHA as a result of increased income that is disallowed in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section;
3. Amounts deposited in a savings account may be withdrawn only for the purpose of:
   - (i) Purchasing a home;
   - (ii) Paying education costs of family members;
   - (iii) Moving out of public or assisted housing; or
   - (iv) Paying any other expense authorized by OCHA for the purpose of promoting the economic self-sufficiency of residents of public housing;
4. OCHA must maintain the account in an interest bearing investment and must credit the family with the net interest income, and OCHA may not charge a fee for maintaining the account;
5. At least annually OCHA must provide the family with a report on the status of the account; and
6. If the family moves out of public housing, OCHA shall pay the tenant any balance in the account, minus any amounts owed to OCHA.
EXHIBIT 6-5: THE EFFECT OF WELFARE BENEFIT REDUCTION

24 CFR 5.615

Public housing program and Section 8 tenant-based assistance program: How welfare benefit reduction affects family income.

(a) Applicability. This section applies to covered families who reside in public housing (part 960 of this title) or receive Section 8 tenant-based assistance (part 982 of this title).

(b) Definitions. The following definitions apply for purposes of this section:

Covered families. Families who receive welfare assistance or other public assistance benefits ("welfare benefits") from a State or other public agency ("welfare agency") under a program for which Federal, State, or local law requires that a member of the family must participate in an economic self-sufficiency program as a condition for such assistance.

Economic self-sufficiency program. See definition at Sec. 5.603.

Imputed welfare income. The amount of annual income not actually received by a family, as a result of a specified welfare benefit reduction, that is nonetheless included in the family's annual income for purposes of determining rent.

Specified welfare benefit reduction.

(1) A reduction of welfare benefits by the welfare agency, in whole or in part, for a family member, as determined by the welfare agency, because of fraud by a family member in connection with the welfare program; or because of welfare agency sanction against a family member for noncompliance with a welfare agency requirement to participate in an economic self-sufficiency program.

(2) "Specified welfare benefit reduction" does not include a reduction or termination of welfare benefits by the welfare agency:

(i) at expiration of a lifetime or other time limit on the payment of welfare benefits;

(ii) because a family member is not able to obtain employment, even though the family member has complied with welfare agency economic self-sufficiency or work activities requirements; or

(iii) because a family member has not complied with other welfare agency requirements.

(c) Imputed welfare income.

(1) A family's annual income includes the amount of imputed welfare income (because of a specified welfare benefits reduction, as specified in notice to OCHA by the welfare agency), plus the total amount of other annual income as determined in accordance with Sec. 5.609.

(2) At the request of OCHA, the welfare agency will inform OCHA in writing of the amount and term of any specified welfare benefit reduction for a family member, and the reason for such reduction, and will also inform OCHA of any subsequent changes in the term or amount of such specified welfare benefit reduction. OCHA will use this information to determine the amount of imputed welfare income for a family.

(3) A family's annual income includes imputed welfare income in family annual income, as determined at OCHA's interim or regular reexamination of family income and composition, during the term of the welfare benefits reduction (as specified in information provided to OCHA by the welfare agency).
(4) The amount of the imputed welfare income is offset by the amount of additional income a family receives that commences after the time the sanction was imposed. When such additional income from other sources is at least equal to the imputed welfare income, OCHA may not include imputed welfare income in annual income if the family was not an assisted resident at the time of sanction.

(d) Review of PHA decision.

(1) Public housing. If a public housing tenant claims that OCHA has not correctly calculated the amount of imputed welfare income in accordance with HUD requirements, and if OCHA denies the family's request to modify such amount, OCHA shall give the tenant written notice of such denial, with a brief explanation of the basis for OCHA determination of the amount of imputed welfare income. OCHA notice shall also state that if the tenant does not agree with OCHA determination, the tenant may request a grievance hearing in accordance with part 966, subpart B of this title to review OCHA determination. The tenant is not required to pay an escrow deposit pursuant to Sec. 966.55(e) for the portion of tenant rent attributable to the imputed welfare income in order to obtain a grievance hearing on OCHA determination.

(2) Section 8 participant. A participant in the Section 8 tenant-based assistance program may request an informal hearing, in accordance with Sec. 982.555 of this title, to review OCHA determination of the amount of imputed welfare income that must be included in the family's annual income in accordance with this section. If the family claims that such amount is not correctly calculated in accordance with HUD requirements, and if OCHA denies the family's request to modify such amount, OCHA shall give the family written notice of such denial, with a brief explanation of the basis for OCHA determination of the amount of imputed welfare income. Such notice shall also state that if the family does not agree with OCHA determination, the family may request an informal hearing on the determination under OCHA hearing procedure.

(e) PHA relation with welfare agency.

(1) OCHA must ask welfare agencies to inform OCHA of any specified welfare benefits reduction for a family member, the reason for such reduction, the term of any such reduction, and any subsequent welfare agency determination affecting the amount or term of a specified welfare benefits reduction. If the welfare agency determines a specified welfare benefits reduction for a family member, and gives OCHA written notice of such reduction, the family's annual incomes shall include the imputed welfare income because of the specified welfare benefits reduction.

(2) OCHA is responsible for determining the amount of imputed welfare income that is included in the family's annual income as a result of a specified welfare benefits reduction as determined by the welfare agency, and specified in the notice by the welfare agency to OCHA. However, OCHA is not responsible for determining whether a reduction of welfare benefits by the welfare agency was correctly determined by the welfare agency in accordance with welfare program requirements and procedures, nor for providing the opportunity for review or hearing on such welfare agency determinations.

(3) Such welfare agency determinations are the responsibility of the welfare agency, and the family may seek appeal of such determinations through the welfare agency's normal due process procedures. OCHA shall be entitled to rely on the welfare agency notice to OCHA of the welfare agency's determination of a specified welfare benefits reduction.
Chapter 7

VERIFICATION

INTRODUCTION

OCHA must verify all information that is used to establish the family’s eligibility and level of assistance and is required to obtain written authorization from the family in order to collect the information. Applicants and program participants must cooperate with the verification process as a condition of receiving assistance. OCHA must not pass on the cost of verification to the family.

OCHA will follow the verification guidance provided by HUD in Notice PIH 2018-18 and any subsequent guidance issued by HUD. This chapter summarizes those requirements and provides supplementary OCHA policies.

Part I describes the general verification process. Part II provides more detailed requirements related to family information. Part III provides information on income and assets, and Part IV covers mandatory deductions.

Verification policies, rules and procedures will be modified as needed to accommodate persons with disabilities. All information obtained through the verification process will be handled in accordance with the records management policies established by OCHA.

PART I: GENERAL VERIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

7-I.A. FAMILY CONSENT TO RELEASE OF INFORMATION

The family must supply any information that OCHA or HUD determines is necessary to the administration of the program and must consent to OCHA verification of that information [24 CFR 960.259(a)(1)].

Consent Forms

It is required that all adult applicants and tenants sign form HUD-9886, Authorization for Release of Information. The purpose of form HUD-9886 is to facilitate automated data collection and computer matching from specific sources and provides the family's consent only for the specific purposes listed on the form. HUD and OCHA may collect information from State Wage Information Collection Agencies (SWICAs) and current and former employers of adult family members. Only HUD is authorized to collect information directly from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the Social Security Administration (SSA). Adult family members must sign other consent forms as needed to collect information relevant to the family’s eligibility and level of assistance.

Penalties for Failing to Consent [24 CFR 5.232]

If any family member who is required to sign a consent form fails to do so, OCHA will deny admission to applicants and terminate the lease of tenants. The family may request a hearing in accordance with OCHA's grievance procedures.
7-LB. OVERVIEW OF VERIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

HUD’s Verification Hierarchy [Notice PIH 2018-18]

HUD mandates the use of the EIV system and offers administrative guidance on the use of other methods to verify family information and specifies the circumstances in which each method will be used. In general, HUD requires OCHA to use the most reliable form of verification that is available and to document the reasons when OCHA uses a lesser form of verification.

In order of priority, the forms of verification that OCHA will use are:

- Up-front Income Verification (UIV) using HUD’s Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system
- Up-front Income Verification (UIV) using a non-HUD system
- Written Third Party Verification (may be provided by applicant or resident)
- Written Third-party Verification Form
- Oral Third-party Verification
- Self-Certification

Each of the verification methods is discussed in subsequent sections below.

Requirements for Acceptable Documents

OCHA Policy

Any documents used for verification must be the original (not photocopies) and generally must be dated within 60 days of the OCHA request. The documents must not be damaged, altered or in any way illegible.

Print-outs from web pages are considered original documents.

The PHA staff member who views the original document must make a photocopy

Any family self-certifications must be made in a format acceptable to the PHA and must be signed by the family member whose information or status is being verified.
File Documentation

OCHA must document in the file how the figures used in income and rent calculations were determined. All verification attempts, information obtained, and decisions reached during the verification process will be recorded in the family’s file in sufficient detail to demonstrate that OCHA has followed all of the verification policies set forth in this ACOP. The record should be sufficient to enable a staff member or HUD reviewer to understand the process followed and conclusions reached.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will document, in the family file, the following:

- Reported family annual income
- Value of assets
- Expenses related to deductions from annual income
- Other factors influencing the adjusted income or income-based rent determination

When OCHA is unable to obtain third-party verification, OCHA will document in the family file the reason that third-party verification was not available [24 CFR 960.259(c)(1); Notice PIH 2018-18].
7-I.C. UP-FRONT INCOME VERIFICATION (UIV)

Up-front income verification (UIV) refers to OCHA’s use of the verification tools available from independent sources that maintain computerized information about earnings and benefits. UIV will be used to the extent that these systems are available to OCHA.

There may be legitimate differences between the information provided by the family and UIV-generated information. If the family disputes the accuracy of UIV data, no adverse action can be taken until OCHA has independently verified the UIV information and the family has been granted the opportunity to contest any adverse findings through OCHA's informal review/hearing processes. (For more on UIV and income projection, see section 6-I.C.)

Upfront Income Verification Using HUD’s Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) System (Mandatory)

OCHAs must use HUD’s EIV system in its entirety as a third-party source to verify tenant employment and income information during mandatory reexaminations or recertifications of family composition and income in accordance with 24 CFR 5.236 and administrative guidance issued by HUD. HUD’s EIV system contains data showing earned income, unemployment benefits, social security benefits, and SSI benefits for participant families. The following policies apply to the use of HUD’s EIV system.

EIV Income and IVT Reports

The data shown on income and Income Validation Tool (IVT) reports is updated quarterly. Data may be between three and six months old at the time reports are generated.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will obtain income and IVT reports for annual reexaminations on a monthly basis. Reports will be generated as part of the regular reexamination process.

Income and IVT reports will be compared to family-provided information as part of the annual reexamination process. Income reports may be used in the calculation of annual income, as described in Chapter 6.I.C. Income reports may also be used to meet the regulatory requirement for third party verification, as described above. Policies for resolving discrepancies between income and IVT reports and family-provided information will be resolved as described in Chapter 6.I.C. and in this chapter.

Income and IVT reports will be used in interim reexaminations to identify any discrepancies between reported income and income shown in the EIV system, and as necessary to verify earned income, and to verify and calculate unemployment benefits, Social Security and/or SSI benefits. EIV will also be used to verify that families claiming zero income are not receiving income from any of these sources.

Income and IVT reports will be retained in resident files with the applicable annual or interim reexamination documents for the duration of the tenancy.

When OCHA determines through EIV reports and third-party verification that a family has concealed or under-reported income, corrective action will be taken pursuant to the policies in Chapter 15, Program Integrity.
EIV Identity Verification

The EIV system verifies resident identities against Social Security Administration (SSA) records. These records are compared to Public and Indian Housing Information Center (PIC) data for a match on social security number, name, and date of birth.

OCHA is required to use EIV’s Identity Verification Report on a monthly basis to improve the availability of income information in EIV [Notice PIH 2018-18].

When identity verification for a resident fails, a message will be displayed within the EIV system and no income information will be displayed.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will identify residents whose identity verification has failed by reviewing EIV’s Identity Verification Report on a monthly basis. OCHA will attempt to resolve PIC/SSA discrepancies by obtaining appropriate documentation from the tenant. When OCHA determines that discrepancies exist as a result of OCHA errors, such as spelling errors or incorrect birth dates, it will correct the errors promptly.

Upfront Income Verification Using Non-HUD Systems (Optional)

In addition to mandatory use of the EIV system, HUD encourages OCHA to utilize other upfront verification sources.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will inform all applicants and residents of its use of the following UIV resources during the admission and reexamination process:

- HUD’s EIV system
- Oklahoma Employment Security Commission
- Department of Human Services
- Work Number (if purchased)
7-I.D. THIRD-PARTY WRITTEN AND ORAL VERIFICATION

HUD’s current verification hierarchy defines two types of written third-party verification. The more preferable form, “written third-party verification,” consists of an original document generated by a third-party source, which may be received directly from a third-party source or provided to OCHA by the family. If written third-party verification is not available, OCHA must attempt to obtain a “written third-party verification form.” This is a standardized form used to collect information from a third party.

Written Third-Party Verification [Notice PIH 2018-18]

Written third-party verification documents must be original and authentic and may be supplied by the family or received from a third-party source.

Examples of acceptable tenant-provided documents include, but are not limited to: pay stubs, payroll summary reports, employer notice or letters of hire and termination, SSA benefit verification letters, bank statements, child support payment stubs, welfare benefit letters and/or printouts, and unemployment monetary benefit notices.

OCHA is required to obtain, at minimum, two current and consecutive pay stubs for determining annual income from wages.

OCHA may reject documentation provided by the family if the document is not an original, if the document appears to be forged, or if the document is altered, mutilated, or illegible.

OCHA Policy

Third-party documents provided by the family must be dated within 60 days of OCHA request date.

If OCHA determines that third-party documents provided by the family are not acceptable, OCHA will explain the reason to the family and request additional documentation.

As verification of earned income, the PHA will require the family to provide the two most current, consecutive pay stubs. At the PHA’s discretion, if additional paystubs are needed due to the family’s circumstances (e.g., sporadic income, fluctuating schedule, etc.), the PHA may request additional paystubs or a payroll record.
Written Third-Party Verification Form

When upfront verification is not available and the family is unable to provide written third-party documents, OCHA must request a written third-party verification form. HUD’s position is that this traditional third-party verification method presents administrative burdens and risks which may be reduced through the use of family-provided third-party documents.

OCHAs may mail, fax, or email third-party written verification form requests to third-party sources.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will send third-party verification forms directly to the third party.

Third-party verification forms will be sent when third-party verification documents are unavailable or are rejected by OCHA.

Oral Third-Party Verification [Notice PIH 2018-18]

For third-party oral verification, OCHA contact sources, identified by UIV techniques or by the family, by telephone or in person.

Oral third-party verification is mandatory if neither form of written third-party verification is available.

Third-party oral verification may be used when requests for written third-party verification forms have not been returned within a reasonable time—e.g., 10 business days.

OCHAs should document in the file the date and time of the telephone call or visit, the name of the person contacted, the telephone number, as well as the information confirmed.

OCHA Policy

In collecting third-party oral verification, OCHA staff will record in the family’s file the name and title of the person contacted, the date and time of the conversation (or attempt), the telephone number used, and the facts provided.

When any source responds verbally to the initial written request for verification OCHA will accept the verbal response as oral verification but will also request that the source complete and return any verification forms that were provided.
When Third-Party Verification is Not Required [Notice PIH 2018-18]

Third-party verification may not be available in all situations. HUD has acknowledged that it may not be cost-effective or reasonable to obtain third-party verification of income, assets, or expenses when these items would have a minimal impact on the family’s total tenant payment.

OCHA Policy

If the family cannot provide original documents, OCHA will pay the service charge required to obtain third-party verification, unless it is not cost effective in which case a self-certification will be acceptable as the only means of verification. The cost of verification will not be passed on to the family.

The cost of postage and envelopes to obtain third-party verification of income, assets, and expenses is not an unreasonable cost [VG, p. 18].

Primary Documents

Third-party verification is not required when legal documents are the primary source, such as a birth certificate or other legal documentation of birth.

Imputed Assets

OCHA may accept a self-certification from the family as verification of assets disposed of for less than fair market value [HCV GB, p. 5-28].

OCHA Policy

OCHA will accept a self-certification from a family as verification of assets disposed of for less than fair market value [HCV GB, p. 5-28].

Value of Assets and Asset Income [24 CFR 960.259]

For families with net assets totaling $5,000 or less, OCHA may accept the family’s declaration of asset value and anticipated asset income. However, OCHA is required to obtain third-party verification of all assets regardless of the amount during the intake process, whenever a family member is added, and at least every three years thereafter.

OCHA Policy

For families with net assets totaling $5,000 or less, OCHA will accept the family’s self-certification of the value of family assets and anticipated asset income when applicable. The family’s declaration must show each asset and the amount of income expected from that asset. All family members 18 years of age and older must sign the family’s declaration.

OCHA will use third-party documentation for assets as part of the intake process, whenever a family member is added to verify the individual’s assets, and every three years thereafter.
7-I.E. SELF-CERTIFICATION

When HUD requires third-party verification, self-certification, or “tenant declaration,” is used as a last resort when OCHA is unable to obtain third-party verification.

Self-certification, however, is an acceptable form of verification when:

- A source of income is fully excluded
- Net family assets total $5,000 or less and OCHA has adopted a policy to accept self-certification at annual recertification, when applicable
- OCHA has adopted a policy to implement streamlined annual recertifications for fixed sources of income (See Chapter 9)

When OCHA was required to obtain third-party verification but instead relies on a tenant declaration for verification of income, assets, or expenses, the family’s file must be documented to explain why third-party verification was not available.

OCHA Policy

When information cannot be verified by a third party or by review of documents, family members will be required to submit self-certifications attesting to the accuracy of the information they have provided to OCHA.

OCHA may require a family to certify that a family member does not receive a particular type of income or benefit.

The self-certification must be made in a format acceptable to the PHA and must be signed by the family member whose information or status is being verified.
PART II: VERIFYING FAMILY INFORMATION

7-II.A. VERIFICATION OF LEGAL IDENTITY

OCHA Policy

OCHA will require families to furnish verification of legal identity for each household member.

If a document submitted by a family is illegible for any reason or otherwise questionable, more than one of these documents may be required.

If none of these documents can be provided and at OCHA’s discretion, a third party who knows the person may attest to the person’s identity. The certification must be provided in a format acceptable to PHA and be signed by the family member whose information or status is being verified.

Legal identity will be verified for all applicants at the time of eligibility determination and in cases where the PHA has reason to doubt the identity of a person representing themselves to be a tenant or a member of a tenant family.
7-II.B. SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS [24 CFR 5.216 and Notice PIH 2018-24]

The family must provide documentation of a valid social security number (SSN) for each member of the household, with the exception of individuals who do not contend eligible immigration status. Exemptions also include, existing residents who were at least 62 years of age as of January 31, 2010, and had not previously disclosed an SSN.

OCHA must accept the following documentation as acceptable evidence of the social security number:

- An original SSN card issued by the Social Security Administration (SSA)
- An original SSA-issued document, which contains the name and SSN of the individual
- An original document issued by a federal, state, or local government agency, which contains the name and SSN of the individual

OCHA may only reject documentation of an SSN provided by an applicant or resident if the document is not an original document, if the original document has been altered, mutilated, is illegible, or if the document appears to be forged.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will explain to the applicant or resident the reasons the document is not acceptable and request that the individual obtain and submit acceptable documentation of the SSN to OCHA within 90 days.

If an applicant family includes a child under 6 years of age who joined the household within the 6 months prior to the date of program admission, an otherwise eligible family may be admitted and must provide documentation of the child’s SSN within 90 days. A 90-day extension will be granted if OCHA determines that the resident’s failure to comply was due to unforeseen circumstances and was outside of the resident’s control.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will grant one additional 90-day extension, if needed, for reasons beyond the applicant’s control, such as delayed processing of the SSN application by the SSA, natural disaster, fire, death in the family, or other emergency.

When a resident requests to add a new household member who is at least 6 years of age, or who is under the age of 6 and has an SSN, the resident must provide the complete and accurate SSN assigned to each new member at the time of reexamination or recertification, in addition to the documentation required to verify it. OCHA may not add the new household member until such documentation is provided.

Revised 9/25/19
When a resident requests to add a new household member who is under the age of 6 and has not been assigned an SSN, the resident must provide the SSN assigned to each new child and the required documentation within 90 calendar days of the child being added to the household. A 90-day extension will be granted if OCHA determines that the resident’s failure to comply was due to unforeseen circumstances and was outside of the resident’s control. During the period OCHA is awaiting documentation of the SSN, the child will be counted as part of the assisted household.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will grant one additional 90-day extension if needed for reasons beyond the resident’s control such as delayed processing of the SSN application by the SSA, natural disaster, fire, death in the family, or other emergency.

Social security numbers must be verified only once during continuously-assisted occupancy.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will verify each disclosed SSN by:

- Obtaining documentation from applicants and residents that is acceptable as evidence of social security numbers
- Making a copy of the original documentation submitted, returning it to the individual, and retaining a copy in the file folder

Once the individual’s verification status is classified as “verified,” OCHA may, at its discretion, remove and destroy copies of documentation accepted as evidence of social security numbers. The retention of the EIV Summary Report or Income Report is adequate documentation of an individual’s SSN.

OCHA Policy

Once an individual’s status is classified as “verified” in HUD’s EIV system, the PHA will not remove and destroy copies of documentation accepted as evidence of social security numbers.

7-II.C. DOCUMENTATION OF AGE

A birth certificate or other official record of birth is the preferred form of age verification for all family members. For elderly family members an original document that provides evidence of the receipt of social security retirement benefits is acceptable.

OCHA Policy

If an official record of birth or evidence of social security retirement benefits cannot be provided, OCHA will require the family to submit other documents that support the reported age of the family member (e.g., school records, driver's license if birth year is recorded) and to provide a self-certification.

Age must be verified only once during continuously-assisted occupancy.
7-II.D. FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS

Applicants and tenants are required to identify the relationship of each household member to the head of household. Definitions of the primary household relationships are provided in the Eligibility chapter.

OCHA Policy

Family relationships are verified only to the extent necessary to determine a family’s eligibility and level of assistance. Certification by the head of household normally is sufficient verification of family relationships.

Marriage

OCHA Policy

Certification by the head of household is normally sufficient verification. If OCHA has reasonable doubts about a marital relationship, OCHA will require the family to document the marriage with a marriage certificate or other documentation to verify that the couple is married.

In the case of a common law marriage, the couple must demonstrate that they hold themselves to be married (e.g., by telling the community they are married, calling each other husband and wife, using the same last name, filing joint income tax returns).

Separation or Divorce

OCHA Policy

Certification by the head of household is normally sufficient verification. If OCHA has reasonable doubts about a divorce or separation, OCHA will require the family to provide documentation of the divorce or separation with a certified copy of a divorce decree, signed by a court officer; a copy of a court-ordered maintenance or other court record; or other documentation that shows a couple is divorced or separated.

If no court document is available, documentation from a community-based agency will be accepted.
Absence of Adult Member

OCHA Policy

If an adult member who was formerly a member of the household is reported to be permanently absent, the family must provide evidence to support that the person is no longer a member of the family (e.g., documentation of another address at which the person resides such as a lease or utility bill), if the PHA so requests.

Foster Children and Foster Adults

OCHA Policy

Third-party verification from the state or local government agency responsible for the placement of the individual with the family is required.

7-IIE. VERIFICATION OF STUDENT STATUS

OCHA Policy

OCHA requires families to provide information about the student status of all students who are 18 years of age or older. This information will be verified only if:

The family claims full-time student status for an adult other than the head, spouse, or cohead, or

The family claims a child care deduction to enable a family member to further their education.
7-II.F. DOCUMENTATION OF DISABILITY

OCHA must verify the existence of a disability in order to allow certain income disallowances and deductions from income. OCHA is not permitted to inquire about the nature or extent of a person’s disability [24 CFR 100.202(c)]. OCHA may not inquire about a person’s diagnosis or details of treatment for a disability or medical condition. If OCHA receives a verification document that provides such information, OCHA will not place this information in the tenant file. Under no circumstances will OCHA request a resident’s medical record(s). For more information on health care privacy laws, see the Department of Health and Human Services’ Web site at www.os.dhhs.gov.

OCHA may make the following inquiries, provided it makes them of all applicants, whether or not they are persons with disabilities [VG, p. 24]:

- Inquiry into an applicant’s ability to meet the requirements of ownership or tenancy
- Inquiry to determine whether an applicant is qualified for a dwelling available only to persons with disabilities or to persons with a particular type of disability
- Inquiry to determine whether an applicant for a dwelling is qualified for a priority available to persons with disabilities or to persons with a particular type of disability
- Inquiry about whether an applicant for a dwelling is a current illegal abuser or addict of a controlled substance
- Inquiry about whether an applicant has been convicted of the illegal manufacture or distribution of a controlled substance

Family Members Receiving SSA Disability Benefits

Verification of receipt of disability benefits from the Social Security Administration (SSA) is sufficient for verification of disability for the purpose of qualification for waiting list preferences or certain income disallowances and deductions [VG, p. 23].

OCHA Policy

For family members claiming disability who receive disability payments from the SSA, OCHA will attempt to obtain information about disability benefits through HUD’s Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system. If documentation is not available through HUD’s EIV system, OCHA will request a current (dated within the last 60 days) SSA benefit verification letter from each family member claiming disability status. If a family member is unable to provide the document, OCHA will ask the family to obtain a benefit verification letter either by calling SSA at 1-800-772-1213 or by requesting one from www.ssa.gov. Once the family receives the benefit verification letter, they will be required to provide the letter to the PHA.
Family Members Not Receiving SSA Disability Benefits

Receipt of veteran’s disability benefits, worker’s compensation, or other non-SSA benefits based on the individual’s claimed disability are not sufficient verification that the individual meets HUD’s definition of disability in 24 CFR 5.403, necessary to qualify for waiting list preferences or certain income disallowances and deductions.

OCHA Policy

For family members claiming disability who do not receive SSI or other disability payments from the SSA, a knowledgeable professional must provide third-party verification that the family member meets the HUD definition of disability. See the Eligibility chapter for the HUD definition of disability. The knowledgeable professional will verify whether the family member does or does not meet the HUD definition.

7-II.G. CITIZENSHIP OR ELIGIBLE IMMIGRATION STATUS [24 CFR 5.508]

Overview

Housing assistance is not available to persons who are not citizens, nationals, or eligible immigrants. Prorated assistance is provided for "mixed families" containing both eligible and ineligible persons. See the Eligibility chapter for detailed discussion of eligibility requirements. This chapter (7) discusses HUD and OCHA verification requirements related to citizenship status.

The family must provide a certification that identifies each family member as a U.S. citizen, a U.S. national, an eligible noncitizen or an ineligible noncitizen and submit the documents discussed below for each family member. Once eligibility to receive assistance has been verified for an individual it need not be collected or verified again during continuously-assisted occupancy [24 CFR 5.508(g)(5)]

U.S. Citizens and Nationals

HUD requires a declaration for each family member who claims to be a U.S. citizen or national. The declaration must be signed personally by any family member 18 or older and by a guardian for minors.

OCHA may request verification of the declaration by requiring presentation of a birth certificate, United States passport or other appropriate documentation.

OCHA Policy

Family members who claim U.S. citizenship or national status will not be required to provide additional documentation unless OCHA receives information indicating that an individual’s declaration may not be accurate.
Eligible Immigrants

Documents Required

All family members claiming eligible immigration status must declare their status in the same manner as U.S. citizens and nationals.

The documentation required for eligible noncitizens varies depending upon factors such as the date the person entered the U.S., the conditions under which eligible immigration status has been granted, age, and the date on which the family began receiving HUD-funded assistance. Exhibit 7-1 at the end of this chapter summarizes documents family members must provide.

OCHA Verification [HCV GB, pp 5-3 and 5-7]

For family members age 62 or older who claim to be eligible immigrants, proof of age is required in the manner described in 7-II.C. of this ACOP. No further verification of eligible immigration status is required.

For family members under the age of 62 who claim to be eligible immigrants, OCHA must verify immigration status with the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS).

OCHA will follow all USCIS protocols for verification of eligible immigration status.

7-II.H. VERIFICATION OF PREFERENCE STATUS

The PHA must verify any preferences claimed by an applicant that determined their placement on the waiting list.

OCHA Policy

OCHA offers a Substandard Housing Preference for admissions will be given to the following programs: Persons/Families participating in the Journey Home and Continuum of Care (COC) programs and families under the Family Unification Program (FUP) referred by the Department of Health and Human Services with an Individual Services Plan., described in Section 4-III.B.

And as authorized by the Executive Director, families who are defined as a “displaced person” and have been affected by a State or federally declared disaster.

OCHA will verify any preferences claimed by an applicant that determined his or her placement on the waiting list by a referral form or documentation from the proper social service or emergency service agency.

The PHA also offers a preference for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking as described in Section 4-III.B. To verify that applicants qualify for the preference, the PHA will follow documentation requirements outlined in Section 16-VII.D.
PART III: VERIFYING INCOME AND ASSETS

Chapter 6, Part I of this ACOP describes in detail the types of income that are included and excluded and how assets and income from assets are handled. Any assets and income reported by the family must be verified. This part provides OCHA policies that supplement the general verification procedures specified in Part I of this chapter.

7-III.A. EARNED INCOME

Tips

OCHA Policy

Unless tip income is included in a family member’s W-2 by the employer, persons who work in industries where tips are standard will be required to sign a certified estimate of tips received for the prior year and tips anticipated to be received in the coming year.

Wages

OCHA Policy

For wages other than tips, the family must provide originals of the two most current, consecutive pay stubs.

7-III.B. BUSINESS AND SELF EMPLOYMENT INCOME

OCHA Policy

Business owners and self-employed persons will be required to provide:

An audited financial statement for the previous fiscal year if an audit was conducted. If an audit was not conducted, a statement of income and expenses must be submitted and the business owner or self-employed person must certify to its accuracy.

All schedules completed for filing federal and local taxes in the preceding year.

If accelerated depreciation was used on the tax return or financial statement, an accountant's calculation of depreciation expense, computed using straight-line depreciation rules.

OCHA will provide a format for any person who is unable to provide such a statement to record income and expenses for the coming year. The business owner/self-employed person will be required to submit the information requested and to certify to its accuracy at all future reexaminations.

At any reexamination OCHA may request documents that support submitted financial statements such as manifests, appointment books, cash books, or bank statements.

If a family member has been self-employed less than three (3) months, OCHA will accept the family member's certified estimate of income and schedule an interim reexamination in three (3) months. If the family member has been self-employed for three (3) to twelve (12) months OCHA will require the family to provide documentation of income and expenses for this period and use that information to project income.
7-III.C. PERIODIC PAYMENTS AND PAYMENTS IN LIEU OF EARNINGS

For policies governing streamlined income determinations for fixed sources of income, please see Chapter 9.

Social Security/SSI Benefits

Verification requirements for Social Security (SS) and Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits differ for applicants and participants.

For applicants, since EIV does not contain SS or SSI benefit information, the PHA must ask applicants to provide a copy of their current SS and/or SSI benefit letter (dated within the last 60 calendar days) for each family member that receives SS and/or SSI benefits. If the family is unable to provide the document or documents, the PHA should help the applicant request a benefit verification letter from SSA’s website at www.ssa.gov or ask the family to request one by calling SSA at 1-800-772-1213. The PHA must obtain the original benefit letter from the applicant, make a photocopy of the document for the file, and return the original to the family.

For participants, the PHA must obtain information through the HUD EIV system and confirm with the participants that the current listed benefit amount is correct.

- If the participant agrees with the amount reported in EIV, the PHA must use the EIV-reported gross benefit amount to calculate annual income from Social Security. PHAs are required to use the EIV-reported SS and SSI benefit amounts when calculating income unless the tenant disputes the EIV-reported amount. For example, an SSA benefit letter may list the monthly benefit amount as $450.80 and EIV displays the amount as $450.00. The PHA must use the EIV-reported amount unless the participant disputes the amount.

- If the participant disputes the EIV-reported benefit amount, or if benefit information is not available in EIV, the PHA must request a current SSA benefit verification letter (dated within the last 60 calendar days) from each family member that receives SS and/or SSI benefits. If the family is unable to provide the document or documents, the PHA should help the participant request a benefit verification letter from SSA’s website at www.ssa.gov or ask the family to request one by calling SSA at 1-800-772-1213. The PHA must obtain the original benefit letter from the participant, make a photocopy of the document for the file, and return the original to the family.

- Photocopies of social security checks or bank statements are not acceptable forms of verification for SS/SSI benefits.
7-III.D. ALIMONY OR CHILD SUPPORT

OCHA Policy

The methods OCHA will use to verify alimony and child support payments differ depending on whether the family declares that it receives regular payments.

If the family declares that it receives regular payments, verification will be obtained in the following order of priority:

Copies of the receipts and/or payment stubs for the 60 days prior to OCHA request
Third-party verification form from the state or local child support enforcement agency
Third-party verification form from the person paying the support Family's self-certification of amount received

If the family declares that it receives irregular or no payments, in addition to the verification process listed above, the family must provide evidence that it has taken all reasonable efforts to collect amounts due. This may include:

A statement from any agency responsible for enforcing payment that shows the family has requested enforcement and is cooperating with all enforcement efforts
If the family has made independent efforts at collection, a written statement from the attorney or other collection entity that has assisted the family in these efforts

Note: Families are not required to undertake independent enforcement action.
7-III.E. ASSETS AND INCOME FROM ASSETS

Assets Disposed of for Less than Fair Market Value

The family must certify whether any assets have been disposed of for less than fair market value in the preceding two years. OCHA needs to verify only those certifications that warrant documentation [HCV GB, p. 5-28].

OCHA Policy

OCHA will verify the value of assets disposed of only if:

- OCHA does not already have a reasonable estimation of its value from previously collected information, or
- The amount reported by the family in the certification appears obviously in error.

Example 1: An elderly resident reported a $10,000 certificate of deposit at the last annual reexamination and OCHA verified this amount. Now the person reports that she has given this $10,000 to her son. OCHA has a reasonable estimate of the value of the asset; therefore, reverification of the value of the asset is not necessary.

Example 2: A family member has disposed of its 1/4 share of real property located in a desirable area and has valued her share at approximately 5,000. Based upon market conditions, this declaration does not seem realistic. Therefore, OCHA will verify the value of this asset.

7-III.F. NET INCOME FROM RENTAL PROPERTY

OCHA Policy

The family must provide:

- A current executed lease for the property that shows the rental amount or certification from the current tenant
- A self-certification from the family members engaged in the rental of property providing an estimate of expenses for the coming year and the most recent IRS Form 1040 with Schedule E (Rental Income). If Schedule E was not prepared, OCHA will require the family members involved in the rental of property to provide a self-certification of income and expenses for the previous year and may request documentation to support the statement including: tax statements, insurance invoices, bills for reasonable maintenance and utilities, and bank statements or amortization schedules showing monthly interest expense.
7-III.G. RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

OCHA Policy

OCHA will accept written third-party documents supplied by the family as evidence of the status of retirement accounts.

The type of original document that will be accepted depends upon the family member’s retirement status.

Before retirement, OCHA will accept an original document from the entity holding the account with a date that shows it is the most recently scheduled statement for the account but in no case earlier than 6 months from the effective date of the examination.

Upon retirement, OCHA will accept an original document from the entity holding the account that reflects any distributions of the account balance, any lump sums taken and any regular payments.

After retirement, OCHA will accept an original document from the entity holding the account dated no earlier than 12 months before that reflects any distributions of the account balance, any lump sums taken and any regular payments.
7-III.H. INCOME FROM EXCLUDED SOURCES
A detailed discussion of excluded income is provided in Chapter 6, Part I.

HUD guidance on verification of excluded income draws a distinction between income which is fully excluded and income which is only partially excluded.

For fully excluded income, OCHA is not required to follow the verification hierarchy, document why third-party verification is not available, or report the income on the 50058. Fully excluded income is defined as income that is entirely excluded from the annual income determination (for example, food stamps, earned income of a minor, or foster care funds) [Notice PIH 2013-04].

OCHAs may accept a family’s signed application or reexamination form as self-certification of fully excluded income. They do not have to require additional documentation. However, if there is any doubt that a source of income qualifies for full exclusion, OCHA has the option of requiring additional verification.

For partially excluded income, OCHA is required to follow the verification hierarchy and all applicable regulations, and to report the income on the 50058. Partially excluded income is defined as income where only a certain portion of what is reported by the family qualifies to be excluded and the remainder is included in annual income (for example, the income of an adult full-time student, or income excluded under the earned income disallowance).

OCHA Policy

OCHA will accept the family’s self-certification as verification of fully excluded income. OCHA may request additional documentation if necessary to document the income source.

OCHA will verify the source and amount of partially excluded income as described in Part 1 of this chapter.

7-III.I. ZERO ANNUAL INCOME STATUS

OCHA Policy

OCHA will check UIV sources and/or request information from third-party sources to verify that certain forms of income such as unemployment benefits, TANF, SS, SSI, earned income, etc., are not being received by families claiming to have zero annual income.

PART IV: VERIFYING MANDATORY DEDUCTIONS

7-IV.A. DEPENDENT AND ELDERLY/DISABLED HOUSEHOLD DEDUCTIONS

The dependent and elderly/disabled family deductions require only that OCHA verify that the family members identified as dependents or elderly/disabled persons meet the statutory definitions. No further verifications are required.

Dependent Deduction

See Chapter 6 (6-II.B.) for a full discussion of this deduction. OCHA will verify that:
• Any person under the age of 18 for whom the dependent deduction is claimed is not the head, spouse or cohead of the family and is not a foster child.

• Any person age 18 or older for whom the dependent deduction is claimed is not a foster adult or live-in aide, and is a person with a disability or a full time student.

Elderly/Disabled Family Deduction

See the Eligibility chapter for a definition of elderly and disabled families and Chapter 6 (6-II.C.) for a discussion of the deduction. OCHA will verify that the head, spouse, or cohead is 62 years of age or older or a person with disabilities.

7-IV.B. MEDICAL EXPENSE DEDUCTION

Policies related to medical expenses are found in 6-II.D. The amount of the deduction will be verified following the standard verification procedures described in Part I.

Amount of Expense

OCHA Policy

Medical expenses will be verified through:

- Written third-party documents provided by the family, such as pharmacy printouts or receipts.

- OCHA will make a best effort to determine what expenses from the past are likely to continue to occur in the future. OCHA will also accept evidence of monthly payments or total payments that will be due for medical expenses during the upcoming 12 months.

- Written third-party verification forms, if the family is unable to provide acceptable documentation.

- If third-party or document review is not possible, written family certification as to costs anticipated to be incurred during the upcoming 12 months.

In addition, OCHA must verify that:

- The household is eligible for the deduction.

- The costs to be deducted are qualified medical expenses.

- The expenses are not paid for or reimbursed by any other source.

- Costs incurred in past years are counted only once.
Eligible Household
The medical expense deduction is permitted only for households in which the head, spouse, or cohead is at least 62 or a person with disabilities. OCHA will verify that the family meets the definition of an elderly or disabled family provided in the Eligibility chapter, and as described in Chapter 7 (7-IV.A) of this plan.

Qualified Expenses
To be eligible for the medical expenses deduction, the costs must qualify as medical expenses. See Chapter 6 (6-II.D.) for OCHA’s policy on what counts as a medical expense.

Unreimbursed Expenses
To be eligible for the medical expenses deduction, the costs must not be reimbursed by another source.

OCHA Policy
The family will be required to certify that the medical expenses are not paid or reimbursed to the family from any source. If expenses are verified through a third party, the third party must certify that the expenses are not paid or reimbursed from any other source.

Expenses Incurred in Past Years

OCHA Policy
When anticipated costs are related to on-going payment of medical bills incurred in past years, OCHA will verify:

The anticipated repayment schedule
The amounts paid in the past, and
Whether the amounts to be repaid have been deducted from the family’s annual income in past years
7-IV.C. DISABILITY ASSISTANCE EXPENSES

Policies related to disability assistance expenses are found in 6-II.E. The amount of the deduction will be verified following the standard verification procedures described in Part I.

Amount of Expense

Attendant Care

OCHA Policy
Expenses for attendant care will be verified through:

- Written third-party documents provided by the family, such as receipts or cancelled checks.
- Third-party verification form signed by the provider, if family-provided documents are not available.
- If third-party verification is not possible, written family certification as to costs anticipated to be incurred for the upcoming 12 months.

Auxiliary Apparatus

OCHA Policy
Expenses for auxiliary apparatus will be verified through:

- Written third-party documents provided by the family, such as billing statements for purchase of auxiliary apparatus, or other evidence of monthly payments or total payments that will be due for the apparatus during the upcoming 12 months.
- Third-party verification form signed by the provider, if family-provided documents are not available.
- If third-party or document review is not possible, written family certification of estimated apparatus costs for the upcoming 12 months.

In addition, OCHA must verify that:

- The family member for whom the expense is incurred is a person with disabilities (as described in 7-II.F above).
- The expense permits a family member, or members, to work (as described in 6-II.E.).
- The expense is not reimbursed from another source (as described in 6-II.E.).

Family Member is a Person with Disabilities

To be eligible for the disability assistance expense deduction, the costs must be incurred for attendant care or auxiliary apparatus expense associated with a person with disabilities. OCHA will verify that the expense is incurred for a person with disabilities (See 7-II.F.).

Family Member(s) Permitted to Work

OCHA must verify that the expenses claimed actually enable a family member, or members, (including the person with disabilities) to work.
OCHA Policy

OCHA will request third-party verification from a rehabilitation agency or knowledgeable medical professional indicating that the person with disabilities requires attendant care or an auxiliary apparatus to be employed, or that the attendant care or auxiliary apparatus enables another family member, or members, to work (See 6-II.E.). This documentation may be provided by the family.

If third-party verification has been attempted and is either unavailable or proves unsuccessful, the family must certify that the disability assistance expense frees a family member, or members (possibly including the family member receiving the assistance), to work.

Unreimbursed Expenses

To be eligible for the disability expenses deduction, the costs must not be reimbursed by another source.

OCHA Policy

The family will be required to certify that attendant care or auxiliary apparatus expenses are not paid by or reimbursed to the family from any source.

7-IV.D. CHILD CARE EXPENSES

Policies related to child care expenses are found in Chapter 6 (6-II.F). The amount of the deduction will be verified following the standard verification procedures described in Part I. In addition, OCHA must verify that:

- The child is eligible for care (12 or younger).
- The costs claimed are not reimbursed.
- The costs enable a family member to work, actively seek work, or further their education.
- The costs are for an allowable type of child care.
- The costs are reasonable.

Eligible Child

To be eligible for the child care deduction, the costs must be incurred for the care of a child under the age of 13. OCHA will verify that the child being cared for (including foster children) is under the age of 13 (See 7-II.C.).

Unreimbursed Expense

To be eligible for the child care deduction, the costs must not be reimbursed by another source.

OCHA Policy

The family and the care provider will be required to certify that the child care expenses are not paid by or reimbursed to the family from any source.
Pursuing an Eligible Activity

OCHA must verify that the family member(s) that the family has identified as being enabled to seek work, pursue education, or be gainfully employed, are actually pursuing those activities.

OCHA Policy

Information to be Gathered

OCHA will verify information about how the schedule for the claimed activity relates to the hours of care provided, the time required for transportation, the time required for study (for students), the relationship of the family member(s) to the child, and any special needs of the child that might help determine which family member is enabled to pursue an eligible activity.

Seeking Work

Whenever possible OCHA will use documentation from a state or local agency that monitors work-related requirements (e.g., welfare or unemployment). In such cases OCHA will request family-provided verification from the agency of the member’s job seeking efforts to date and require the family to submit to OCHA any reports provided to the other agency.

In the event third-party verification is not available, OCHA will provide the family with a form on which the family member must record job search efforts. OCHA will review this information at each subsequent reexamination for which this deduction is claimed.

Furthering Education

OCHA will request third-party documentation to verify that the person permitted to further his or her education by the child care is enrolled and provide information about the timing of classes for which the person is registered. The documentation may be provided by the family.

Gainful Employment

The PHA will request third-party documentation to verify that the person permitted to further their education by the child care is enrolled and provide information about the timing of classes for which the person is registered. The documentation may be provided by the family.
Allowable Type of Child Care

The type of care to be provided is determined by the family, but must fall within certain guidelines, as discussed in Chapter 6.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will verify that the type of child care selected by the family is allowable, as described in Chapter 6 (6-II.F).

OCHA will verify that the fees paid to the child care provider cover only child care costs (e.g., no housekeeping services or personal services) and are paid only for the care of an eligible child (e.g., prorate costs if some of the care is provided for ineligible family members).

OCHA will verify that the child care provider is not an assisted family member. Verification will be made through the head of household’s declaration of family members who are expected to reside in the unit.

Reasonableness of Expenses

Only reasonable child care costs can be deducted.

OCHA Policy

The actual costs the family incurs will be compared with OCHA’s established standards of reasonableness for the type of care in the locality to ensure that the costs are reasonable.

If the family presents a justification for costs that exceed typical costs in the area, OCHA will request additional documentation, as required, to support a determination that the higher cost is appropriate.
Exhibit 7-1: Summary of Documentation Requirements for Noncitizens

[HCV GB, pp. 5-9 and 5-10]

- All noncitizens claiming eligible status must sign a declaration of eligible immigrant status on a form acceptable to OCHA.
- Except for persons 62 or older, all noncitizens must sign a verification consent form.
- Additional documents are required based upon the person's status.

Elderly Noncitizens
- A person 62 years of age or older who claims eligible immigration status also must provide proof of age such as birth certificate, passport, or documents showing receipt of SS old-age benefits.

INTRODUCTION

Public housing leases are the contractual basis of the legal relationship between OCHA and the tenant. All units must be occupied pursuant to a dwelling lease agreement that complies with HUD regulations.

HUD regulations require OCHA to inspect each dwelling unit prior to move-in, at move-out, and annually during the period of occupancy. In addition, OCHA may conduct additional inspections in accordance with OCHA policy.

This chapter is divided into two parts as follows:

Part I: Leasing. This part describes pre-leasing activities and OCHA’s policies pertaining to lease execution, lease modification, and payments under the lease.

Part II: Inspections. This part describes OCHA’s policies for inspecting dwelling units.

PART I: LEASING

8-I.A. OVERVIEW

An eligible family may occupy a public housing dwelling unit under the terms of a lease. The lease must meet all regulatory requirements, and must also comply with applicable state and local laws and codes.

The term of the lease must be for a period of 12 months. The lease must be renewed automatically for another 12-month term, except that OCHA may not renew the lease if the family has violated the community service requirement and if the family is determined to be over income for 24 consecutive months [24 CFR 966.4(a)(2)].

OCHA must adopt smoke-free policies, which HUD required to be implemented no later than July 30, 2018. The policy is attached as Exhibit 8-1.

OCHA must include in the ACOP residential minimum heating standards policies [Notice PIH 2018-19]. The policy is included in Part I of this chapter.

Part I of this chapter contains regulatory information on leasing, where applicable, as well as OCHA’s leasing policies.

For policies on lease requirements for families whose incomes have exceeded the over-income limit for 24 consecutive months, see 13-III.C., Over-Income Families.
8-I.B. LEASE ORIENTATION

OCHA Policy

After unit acceptance but prior to occupancy, an OCHA representative will conduct a lease orientation with the family. The head of household or spouse is required to attend.

Orientation Agenda

OCHA Policy

When families attend the lease orientation, they will be provided with:

- A copy of the lease
- A copy of OCHA’s grievance procedure
- A copy of the house rules
- A copy of OCHA’s schedule of maintenance charges
- A copy of “Is Fraud Worth It?” (form HUD-1141-OIG), which explains the types of actions a family must avoid and the penalties for program abuse
- A copy of “What You Should Know about EIV,” a guide to the Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system published by HUD as an attachment to Notice PIH 2017-12
- A copy of the VAWA notice of occupancy rights (see section 16-VII.C)
- A copy of form HUD-5382, Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking
- A copy of the PHA’s smoke-free policy
- The HUD pamphlet on lead-based paint entitled, “Protect Your Family from Lead in Your Home.”

Topics to be discussed and explained to all families include:

- Applicable deposits and all other charges
- Review and explanation of lease provisions
- Unit maintenance requests and work orders
- OCHA’s interim reporting requirements
- Review and explanation of occupancy forms
- Community service requirements
- Family choice of rent
- VAWA protections
- Smoke-free policies

Revised 6/28/2023
8-I.C. EXECUTION OF LEASE

The lease must be executed by the tenant and OCHA, except for automatic renewals of a lease [24 CFR 966.4(a)(3)].

A lease is executed at the time of admission for all new residents. A new lease is also executed at the time of transfer from one OCHA unit to another.

The lease must state the composition of the household as approved by OCHA (family members and any OCHA-approved live-in aide) [24 CFR 966.4(a)(1)(v)]. See Section 8-I.D. for policies regarding changes in family composition during the lease term.

OCHA Policy

The head of household, spouse or cohead, and all other adult members of the household will be required to sign the public housing lease prior to admission. An appointment will be scheduled for the parties to execute the lease. The head of household will be provided a copy of the executed lease and OCHA will retain a copy in the resident’s file.

Files for households that include a live-in aide will contain file documentation signed by the live-in aide, that the live-in aide is not a party to the lease and is not entitled to OCHA assistance. The live-in aide is only approved to live in the unit while serving as the care attendant for the family member who requires the care.

8-I.D. MODIFICATIONS TO THE LEASE

The lease may be modified at any time by written agreement of the tenant and OCHA [24 CFR 966.4(a)(3)].

Modifications to the Lease Form

OCHA may modify its lease from time to time. However, OCHA must give residents at least thirty (30) days advance notice of the proposed changes and an opportunity to comment on the changes. OCHA must also consider any comments before formally adopting a new lease [24 CFR 966.3].

After proposed changes have been incorporated into the lease and approved by the Board, each family must be notified at least 60 days in advance of the effective date of the new lease or lease revision. A resident’s refusal to accept permissible and reasonable lease modifications that are made in accordance with HUD requirements, or are required by HUD, is grounds for termination of tenancy [24 CFR 966.4(l)(2)(iii)(E)].

OCHA Policy

The family will have 30 days to accept the revised lease. If the family does not accept the offer of the revised lease within that 30 day timeframe, the family’s tenancy will be terminated for other good cause in accordance with the policies in Chapter 13.

Schedules of special charges and rules and regulations are subject to modification or revision. Because these schedules are incorporated into the lease by reference, residents and resident organizations must be provided at least thirty days written notice of the reason(s) for any proposed modifications or revisions, and must be given an opportunity to present written comments. The notice must be delivered directly or mailed to each tenant; or posted in at least three conspicuous places within each structure or building in which the affected dwelling units are located, as well as in a conspicuous place at the project office, if any, or if none, a similar central business location within the project. Comments must be taken into consideration before any proposed modifications or revisions become effective [24 CFR 966.5].

After the proposed revisions become effective they must be publicly posted in a conspicuous manner in the project office and must be furnished to applicants and tenants on request [24 CFR 966.5].

OCHA Policy

When OCHA proposes to modify or revise schedules of special charges or rules and regulations, the PHA will post copies of the notice in the central office, in each project office, and in at least 3 conspicuous places in each structure that contains dwelling units.

Other Modifications

OCHA Policy

The lease will be amended to reflect all changes in family composition.

If, for any reason, any member of the household ceases to reside in the unit, the lease will be amended by drawing a line through the person's name. The head of household and OCHA will be required to initial and date the change.

If a new household member is approved by OCHA to reside in the unit, the person’s name and birth date will be added to the lease. The head of household and OCHA will be required to initial and date the change. If the new member of the household is an adult, s/he will also be required to sign and date the lease.

Policies governing when and how changes in family composition must be reported are contained in Chapter 9, Reexaminations.

8-I.E. SECURITY DEPOSITS [24 CFR 966.4(b)(5)]

At the option of OCHA, the lease may require security deposits. The amount of the security deposit cannot exceed one month’s rent or a reasonable fixed amount as determined by OCHA. OCHA may allow for gradual accumulation of the security deposit by the family, or the family may be required to pay the security deposit in full prior to occupancy. Subject to applicable laws, interest earned on security deposits may be refunded to the tenant after vacating the unit, or used for tenant services or activities.

OCHA Policy

Residents must pay a security deposit to OCHA at the time of admission. The amount of the security deposit will be based on the bedroom size of the unit and approved by the Board of Commissioners, and must be paid prior to occupancy. In special circumstances, the deposit may be paid out in three installments until paid in full. One payment at the time of admission, one payment within 30 days, and final payment within 60 days of admission.

OCHA will hold the security deposit for the period the family occupies the unit. OCHA will not use the security deposit for rent or other charges while the resident is living in the unit.
Within 30 days of move-out, OCHA will refund to the resident the amount of the security deposit, less any amount needed to pay the cost of unpaid rent, damages listed on the move-out inspection report that exceed normal wear and tear, and other charges due under the lease.

OCHA will provide the resident with a written list of any charges against the security deposit within 30 days of the move-out inspection. If the resident disagrees with the amount charged, OCHA will provide a meeting to discuss the charges.

If the resident transfers to another unit, the tenant will be required to pay a new security deposit to the new unit.

8-I.F. PAYMENTS UNDER THE LEASE

Rent Payments [24 CFR 966.4(b)(1)]

Families must pay the amount of the monthly tenant rent determined by OCHA in accordance with HUD regulations and other requirements. The amount of the tenant rent is subject to change in accordance with HUD requirements.

The lease must specify the initial amount of the tenant rent at the beginning of the initial lease term, and OCHA must give written notice stating any change in the amount of tenant rent and when the change is effective.

OCHA Policy

The tenant rent is due and payable at OCHA-designated locations on the first of every month. If the first falls on a weekend or holiday, the rent is due and payable on the first business day thereafter.

If a family’s tenant rent changes, OCHA will notify the family of the new amount and the effective date by sending a "Notice of Rent Adjustment" which will become an attachment to the lease.
Late Fees and Nonpayment [24 CFR 966.4(b)(3); Notice PIH 2021-29]

At the option of OCHA, the lease may provide for payment of penalties when the family is late in paying tenant rent [24 CFR 966.4(b)(3)].

The lease must provide that late payment fees are not due and collectible until two weeks after OCHA gives written notice of the charges. The written notice is considered an adverse action, and must meet the requirements governing a notice of adverse action [24 CFR 966.4(b)(4)].

The notice of proposed adverse action must identify the specific grounds for the action and inform the family of their right for a hearing under OCHA grievance procedures. OCHA must not take the proposed action until the time for the tenant to request a grievance hearing has expired, or (if a hearing was requested within the required timeframe,) the grievance process has been completed [24 CFR 966.4(e)(8)].

OCHA Policy

If the family fails to pay their rent by the fifth day of the month, and OCHA has not agreed to accept payment at a later date, a 30-day Notice to Vacate (during nationwide emergency orders) or a 14-day Notice to Vacate (upon expiration of nationwide emergency orders) will be issued to the resident for failure to pay rent, demanding payment in full or the surrender of the premises.

In addition, if the resident fails to make payment by the end of office hours on the seventh day of the month, a late fee of $25.00 will be charged. Notices of late fees will be in accordance with requirements regarding notices of adverse action. Charges are due and payable 14 calendar days after billing. If the family requests a grievance hearing within the required timeframe, OCHA may not take action for nonpayment of the charges until the conclusion of the grievance process. If the resident can document financial hardship, the late fee may be waived on a case-by-case basis.

When a check is returned for insufficient funds or is written on a closed account, the rent will be considered unpaid and a returned check fee of $25.00 will be charged to the family.
Excess Utility Charges

If OCHA charges the tenant for consumption of excess utilities, the lease must state the basis for the determination of such charges. The imposition of charges for consumption of excess utilities is permissible only if the charges are determined by an individual check meter servicing the leased unit or result from the use of major tenant-supplied appliances [24 CFR 966.4(b)(2)].

Schedules of special charges for utilities that are required to be incorporated in the lease by reference must be publicly posted in a conspicuous manner in the development office and must be furnished to applicants and tenants on request [24 CFR 966.5].

The lease must provide that charges for excess utility consumption are not due and collectible until two weeks after OCHA gives written notice of the charges. The written notice is considered an adverse action, and must meet the requirements governing a notice of adverse action [24 CFR 966.4(b)(4)].

The notice of proposed adverse action must identify the specific grounds for the action and inform the family of their right to a hearing under OCHA grievance procedures. OCHA must not take the proposed action until the time for the tenant to request a grievance hearing has expired, or (if a hearing was requested within the required timeframe,) the grievance process has been completed [24 CFR 966.4(e)(8)].

OCHA Policy

When applicable, families will be charged for excess utility usage according to OCHA’s current posted schedule. Notices of excess utility charges will be mailed monthly and will be in accordance with requirements regarding notices of adverse actions. Charges are due and payable 14 calendar days after billing. If the family requests a grievance hearing within the required timeframe, OCHA may not take action for nonpayment of the charges until the conclusion of the grievance process.

Nonpayment of excess utility charges is a violation of the lease and is grounds for eviction.
Maintenance and Damage Charges

If OCHA charges the tenant for maintenance and repair beyond normal wear and tear, the lease must state the basis for the determination of such charges [24 CFR 966.4(b)(2)].

Schedules of special charges for services and repairs which are required to be incorporated in the lease by reference must be publicly posted in a conspicuous manner in the development office and must be furnished to applicants and tenants on request [24 CFR 966.5].

The lease must provide that charges for maintenance and repair beyond normal wear and tear are not due and collectible until two weeks after OCHA gives written notice of the charges. The written notice is considered an adverse action, and must meet the requirements governing a notice of adverse action [24 CFR 966.4(b)(4)].

The notice of proposed adverse action must identify the specific grounds for the action and inform the family of their right for a hearing under OCHA grievance procedures. OCHA must not take the proposed action until the time for the tenant to request a grievance hearing has expired, or (if a hearing was requested within the required timeframe,) the grievance process has been completed [24 CFR 966.4(e)(8)].

OCHA Policy

When applicable, families will be charged for maintenance and/or damages according to OCHA’s current schedule. Work that is not covered in the schedule will be charged based on the actual cost of labor and materials to make needed repairs (including overtime, if applicable).

Notices of maintenance and damage charges will be mailed monthly and will be in accordance with requirements regarding notices of adverse actions. Charges are due and payable 14 calendar days after billing. If the family requests a grievance hearing within the required timeframe, OCHA may not take action for nonpayment of the charges until the conclusion of the grievance process.

Nonpayment of maintenance and damage charges is a violation of the lease and is grounds for eviction.
8-I.G. MINIMUM HEATING STANDARDS [Notice PIH 2018-19]

OCHA Policy

OCHA is not located in an area where state or local residential heating standards exist and will utilize the HUD-prescribed standards for public housing units. Therefore, OCHA’s minimum heating standards are as follows:

Minimum temperature capability:

OCHA is allowed flexibility in maintenance of the indoor temperature when the outdoor temperature approaches the design day temperature. At no point should indoor temperatures in occupied space drop below 55 degrees Fahrenheit. This flexibility applies when at least one of the below criteria are met:

1. The outside temperature reaches or drops below the design day temperature, or

2. The outside temperature is within five degrees Fahrenheit of the design day temperature for more than two continuous days

Measurement:

Temperature measurements must be taken according to the following methodology: three foot off the floor and two feet from exterior wall in a habitable room.
PART II: INSPECTIONS

8-II.A. OVERVIEW

HUD regulations require OCHA to inspect each dwelling unit prior to move-in, at move-out, and annually during occupancy. In addition, OCHA may require additional inspections, in accordance with OCHA Policy. This part contains OCHA’s policies governing inspections, notification of unit entry, and inspection results.

8-II.B. TYPES OF INSPECTIONS

Move-In Inspections [24 CFR 966.4(i)]

The lease must require OCHA and the family to inspect the dwelling unit prior to occupancy in order to determine the condition of the unit and equipment in the unit. A copy of the initial inspection, signed by OCHA and the tenant, must be provided to the tenant and retained in the resident file.

OCHA Policy

Any adult family member may attend the initial inspection and sign the inspection form for the head of household.

Move-Out Inspections [24 CFR 966.4(i)]

The PHA must inspect the unit at the time the resident vacates the unit and must allow the resident to participate in the inspection if they wish, unless the tenant vacates without notice to the PHA. The PHA must provide to the tenant a statement of any charges to be made for maintenance and damage beyond normal wear and tear.

The difference between the condition of the unit at move-in and move-out establishes the basis for any charges against the security deposit so long as the work needed exceeds that for normal wear and tear.

OCHA Policy

When applicable, OCHA will provide the tenant with a statement of charges to be made for maintenance and damage beyond normal wear and tear, within 30 business days of conducting the move-out inspection.

Annual Inspections [24 CFR 5.705]

Section 6(f)(3) of the United States Housing Act of 1937 requires that OCHA inspect each public housing project annually to ensure that the project’s units are maintained in decent, safe, and sanitary condition. OCHA shall continue using the Uniform Physical Condition Standards (UPCS) in 24 CFR 5, Subpart G, Physical Condition Standards and Inspection Requirements, to conduct annual project inspections. These standards address the inspection of the site area, building systems and components, and dwelling units.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will inspect all occupied units annually using HUD’s Uniform Physical Condition Standards (UPCS).
Quality Control Inspections

The purpose of quality control inspections is to assure that all defects were identified in the original inspection, and that repairs were completed at an acceptable level of craftsmanship and within an acceptable time frame.

OCHA Policy

Supervisory quality control inspections will be conducted in accordance with OCHA’s maintenance plan.

Special Inspections

OCHA Policy

OCHA staff may conduct a special inspection for any of the following reasons:

- Housekeeping
- Unit condition
- Suspected lease violation
- Preventive maintenance
- Routine maintenance
- There is reasonable cause to believe an emergency exists

Other Inspections

OCHA Policy

Building exteriors, grounds, common areas and systems will be inspected according to OCHA’s maintenance plan.
8-II.C. NOTICE AND SCHEDULING OF INSPECTIONS

Notice of Entry

Non-emergency Entries [24 CFR 966.4(j)(1)]

OCHA may enter the unit, with reasonable advance notification to perform routine inspections and maintenance, make improvements and repairs, or to show the unit for re-leasing. A written statement specifying the purpose of OCHA entry delivered to the dwelling unit at least two days before such entry is considered reasonable advance notification.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will notify the resident in writing at least 48 hours prior to any non-emergency inspection.

Entry for repairs requested by the family will not require prior notice. Resident-requested repairs presume permission for OCHA to enter the unit.

Except for emergencies, management will not enter the dwelling unit to perform inspections where a pet resides unless accompanied for the entire duration of the inspection by the pet owner or responsible person designated by the pet owner in accordance with the pet policies in Section 10-II.D.

Emergency Entries [24 CFR 966.4(j)(2)]

OCHA may enter the dwelling unit at any time without advance notice when there is reasonable cause to believe that an emergency exists. If no adult household member is present at the time of an emergency entry, OCHA must leave a written statement showing the date, time and purpose of the entry prior to leaving the dwelling unit.

Scheduling of Inspections

OCHA Policy

Inspections will be conducted during business hours. If a family needs to reschedule an inspection, they must notify OCHA at least 24 hours prior to the scheduled inspection. OCHA will reschedule the inspection no more than once unless the resident has a verifiable good cause to delay the inspection. OCHA may request verification of such cause.

Attendance at Inspections

Residents are required to be present for move-in inspections [24 CFR 966.4(i)]. There is no such requirement for other types of inspections.

OCHA Policy

Except at move-in inspections, the resident is not required to be present for the inspection. The resident may attend the inspection if he or she wishes.

If no one is at home, the inspector will enter the unit, conduct the inspection and leave a copy of the inspection report in the unit.
8-II.D. INSPECTION RESULTS

OCHA is obligated to maintain dwelling units and the project in decent, safe and sanitary condition and to make necessary repairs to dwelling units [24 CFR 966.4(e)].

Emergency Repairs [24 CFR 966.4(h)]

If the unit is damaged to the extent that conditions are created which are hazardous to the life, health, or safety of the occupants, the tenant must immediately notify OCHA of the damage, and OCHA must make repairs within a reasonable time frame.

If the damage was caused by a household member or guest, OCHA must charge the family for the reasonable cost of repairs. OCHA may also take lease enforcement action against the family.

If OCHA cannot make repairs quickly, OCHA must offer the family standard alternative accommodations. If OCHA can neither repair the defect within a reasonable time frame nor offer alternative housing, rent shall be abated in proportion to the seriousness of the damage and loss in value as a dwelling. Rent shall not be abated if the damage was caused by a household member or guest, or if the resident rejects the alternative accommodations.

OCHA Policy

When conditions in the unit are hazardous to life, health, or safety, OCHA will make repairs or otherwise abate the situation within 24 hours.

Defects hazardous to life, health or safety include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Any condition that jeopardizes the security of the unit
- Major plumbing leaks or flooding, waterlogged ceiling or floor in imminent danger of falling
- Natural or LP gas or fuel oil leaks
- Any electrical problem or condition that could result in shock or fire
- Absence of a working heating system when outside temperature near freezing temperatures
- Utilities not in service, including no running hot water
- Conditions that present the imminent possibility of injury
- Obstacles that prevent safe entrance or exit from the unit
- Absence of a functioning toilet in the unit
- Inoperable smoke detectors
- In situations where the unit or building has a fuel burning appliance or an attached garage, missing or inoperable carbon monoxide detectors
Non-emergency Repairs

OCHA Policy

OCHA will correct non-life threatening health and safety defects within 30 business days of the inspection date. If OCHA is unable to make repairs within that period due to circumstances beyond OCHA’s control (e.g. required parts or services are not available, weather conditions, etc.) OCHA will notify the family of an estimated date of completion.

The family must allow OCHA access to the unit to make repairs.

Except for emergencies, management will not enter the dwelling unit to perform repairs where a pet resides unless accompanied for the entire duration of the repair by the pet owner or responsible person designated by the pet owner in accordance with the pet policies in Section 10-II.D.

Resident-Caused Damages

OCHA Policy

Damages to the unit beyond wear and tear will be billed to the tenant in accordance with the policies in 8-I.F., Maintenance and Damage Charges.

Repeated or excessive damages to the unit beyond normal wear and tear will be considered a serious or repeated violation of the lease.

Housekeeping

OCHA Policy

Residents whose housekeeping habits pose a non-emergency health or safety risk, encourage insect or rodent infestation, or cause damage to the unit are in violation of the lease. In these instances, OCHA will provide proper notice of a lease violation.

A reinspection will be conducted within 30 days to confirm that the resident has complied with the requirement to abate the problem. Failure to abate the problem or allow for a reinspection is considered a violation of the lease and may result in termination of tenancy in accordance with Chapter 13.

Notices of lease violation will also be issued to residents who purposely disengage the unit’s smoke detector. Only one warning will be given. A second incidence will result in lease termination.
In accordance with HUD regulations, the Oklahoma City Housing Authority has adopted these smoke-free/tobacco-free policies.

This policy applies to all employees, residents, household members, guests, and service persons. Residents are responsible for ensuring that household members and guests comply with this rule.

Definitions.

a. Authority means the Oklahoma City Housing Authority.

b. Authority-Owned Property means any building or property owned by the Authority.

c. Smoking means inhaling, exhaling, breathing, or carrying any lighted cigar, cigarette, or other Tobacco Product or similar lighted product in any manner or in any form.

d. Tobacco-Free means the prohibition of the use of any Tobacco Products, including Vapor Products, by anyone, anywhere on Authority-Owned Property, at any time.

e. Tobacco Product means any product that contains or is derived from tobacco or common tobacco alternatives (i.e., herbal snuff) and is intended for human consumption excluding drugs or devices approved for cessation by the United States Food and Drug Administration.

f. Vapor Product means noncombustible products, that may or may not contain nicotine, that employ a mechanical heating element, battery electronic circuit, or other mechanism, regardless of shape or size, that can be used to produce vapor in a solution or other form. “Vapor products” shall include any vapor cartridge or other container with or without nicotine or other form that is intended to be used with an electronic cigarette, electronic cigar, electronic cigarillo, electronic pipe, or similar product or device. “Vapor products” do not include any products regulated by the United States Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act.

Generally. The Authority desires to mitigate (i) the irritation and known health effects caused by secondhand smoke and Tobacco Products; (ii) the increased maintenance, cleaning, and redecorating costs from smoking; (iii) the increased risk of fire from smoking; and (iv) the litter and damage caused by use of Tobacco Products and Vapor Products on Authority-Owned Property. Authority-Owned Property shall be Tobacco-Free. Smoking, use of Tobacco Products, and use of Vapor Products are prohibited in all dwelling units, including any associated balconies, decks, or patios, and in the common.

EXHIBIT 8-1: SMOKE-FREE POLICY/TOBACCO-FREE POLICY

In accordance with HUD regulations, the Oklahoma City Housing Authority has adopted these smoke-free/tobacco-free policies.

This policy applies to all employees, residents, household members, guests, and service persons. Residents are responsible for ensuring that household members and guests comply with this rule.

Definitions.

a. Authority means the Oklahoma City Housing Authority.

b. Authority-Owned Property means any building or property owned by the Authority.

c. Smoking means inhaling, exhaling, breathing, or carrying any lighted cigar, cigarette, or other Tobacco Product or similar lighted product in any manner or in any form.

d. Tobacco-Free means the prohibition of the use of any Tobacco Products, including Vapor Products, by anyone, anywhere on Authority-Owned Property, at any time.

e. Tobacco Product means any product that contains or is derived from tobacco or common tobacco alternatives (i.e., herbal snuff) and is intended for human consumption excluding drugs or devices approved for cessation by the United States Food and Drug Administration.

f. Vapor Product means noncombustible products, that may or may not contain nicotine, that employ a mechanical heating element, battery electronic circuit, or other mechanism, regardless of shape or size, that can be used to produce vapor in a solution or other form. “Vapor products” shall include any vapor cartridge or other container with or without nicotine or other form that is intended to be used with an electronic cigarette, electronic cigar, electronic cigarillo, electronic pipe, or similar product or device. “Vapor products” do not include any products regulated by the United States Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act.

Generally. The Authority desires to mitigate (i) the irritation and known health effects caused by secondhand smoke and Tobacco Products; (ii) the increased maintenance, cleaning, and redecorating costs from smoking; (iii) the increased risk of fire from smoking; and (iv) the litter and damage caused by use of Tobacco Products and Vapor Products on Authority-Owned Property. Authority-Owned Property shall be Tobacco-Free. Smoking, use of Tobacco Products, and use of Vapor Products are prohibited in all dwelling units, including any associated balconies, decks, or patios, and in the common. areas of the buildings, including, but not limited to, community rooms, community bathrooms, lobbies, reception areas, hallways, laundry rooms, stairways, offices, and elevators. Smoking and use of vapor products are prohibited on all Authority-Owned Property.

Authority Not a Guarantor of Tobacco-Free Environment. The Authority’s adoption of a tobacco-free living environment does not make the Authority or any of its managing agents the guarantor of tenant or guest health, or of the tobacco-free condition of any unit or common area. The Authority specifically disclaims any implied or express warranties that the building, common areas, or premises will have any higher or improved air quality standards than any other rental property. The Authority cannot and does not warranty or promise that the rental premises or common areas will be free from secondhand smoke. However, the Authority shall take reasonable steps to enforce the Tobacco-Free terms of its Lease and this Policy. The Authority is not required to take steps in response to tobacco usage unless the Authority knows of said tobacco usage or has been given written notice of said tobacco usage. Authority tenants acknowledge that the Authority’s ability to police, monitor, or enforce this Policy is dependent in significant part on voluntary compliance by tenants and guests. Tenants with respiratory ailments, allergies or any other physical or mental condition relating to smoke are put on notice that the Authority does not assume any higher duty of care to enforce this Policy than any other Authority policy or any portion of any public housing lease.

Effect of Violation. A material violation of this Policy by an Authority tenant or tenant’s guest shall be a material breach of that tenant’s public housing lease and may be good cause for termination or non-renewal by the Authority. Proof of violations of this Policy shall be by preponderance of evidence as one or more of the following: the smell of burning tobacco, burns inside the dwelling, ashes or other such items related to any Tobacco Products or Vapor Products. [Note: Tenants should be aware that federal law still classifies marijuana as an illegal drug, and that federal law overrides Oklahoma’s medical marijuana law. Therefore, the use, sale, or possession of marijuana on Authority-owned property is strictly prohibited.]

Reasonable Accommodation

While addiction to nicotine or smoking is not a disability, the OCHA will provide reasonable accommodation to persons with disabilities who smoke that are in compliance with the requirements of this smoke-free policy.
Chapter 9

REEXAMINATIONS

INTRODUCTION

With the exception of non-public housing over income families OCHA is required to reexamine each family’s income and composition periodically, and to adjust the family’s rent accordingly. OCHA must adopt policies for conducting annual and interim reexaminations that are consistent with regulatory requirements, and must conduct reexaminations in accordance with such policies [24 CFR 960.257(c)].

The frequency with which OCHA must reexamine the income and composition of a family depends on whether the family pays income-based rent or flat rent. HUD requires OCHA to offer all families the choice of paying income-based rent or flat rent at least annually. OCHA’s policies for offering families a choice of rents are located in Chapter 6.

This chapter discusses both annual and interim reexaminations.

Part I: Annual Reexaminations for Families Paying Income Based Rents. This part discusses the requirements for annual reexamination of income and family composition. Full reexaminations are conducted at least once a year for families paying income-based rents.

Part II: Reexaminations for Families Paying Flat Rents. This part contains OCHA’s policies for conducting full reexaminations of family income and composition for families paying flat rents. These full reexaminations are conducted at least once every three years. This part also contains OCHA’s policies for conducting annual updates of family composition for flat rent families.

Part III: Interim Reexaminations. This part includes HUD requirements and OCHA policies related to when a family may and must report changes that occur between annual reexaminations.

Part IV: Recalculating Tenant Rent. After gathering and verifying required information for an annual or interim reexamination, OCHA must recalculate the tenant rent. While the basic policies that govern these calculations are provided in Chapter 6, this part describes the policies that affect these calculations during a reexamination.

Policies governing reasonable accommodation, family privacy, required family cooperation, and program abuse, as described elsewhere in this ACOP, apply to annual and interim reexaminations.
PART I: ANNUAL REEXAMINATIONS FOR FAMILIES PAYING INCOME-BASED RENTS [24 CFR 960.257]

9-I.A. OVERVIEW

For those families who choose to pay income-based rent, OCHA must conduct a reexamination of income and family composition at least annually [24 CFR 960.257(a)(1)]. For families who choose flat rents, OCHA must conduct a reexamination of family composition at least annually, and must conduct a reexamination of family income at least once every three years [24 CFR 960.257(a)(2)]. For any non-public housing over income families, OCHA may not conduct an annual reexamination of family income. Policies related to the reexamination process for families paying flat rent are located in Part II of this chapter.

For all residents of public housing, whether those residents are paying income-based or flat rents, OCHA must conduct an annual review of community service requirement compliance. This annual reexamination is also a good time to have residents sign consent forms for criminal background checks in case the criminal history of a resident is needed at some point for the purposes of lease enforcement or eviction.

OCHA is required to obtain all of the information necessary to conduct reexaminations. How that information will be collected is left to the discretion of OCHA. Families are required to provide current and accurate information on income, assets, allowances and deductions, family composition and community service compliance as part of the reexamination process [24 CFR 960.259].

This part contains OCHA’s policies for conducting annual reexaminations.

Revised 6/28/2023

HUD permits OCHA to streamline the income determination process for family members with fixed sources of income. While third-party verification of all income sources must be obtained during the intake process and every three years thereafter, in the intervening years OCHA may determine income from fixed sources by applying a verified cost of living adjustment (COLA) or rate of interest. OCHA may, however, obtain third-party verification of all income, regardless of the source. Further, upon request of the family, OCHA must perform third-party verification of all income sources.

Fixed sources of income include Social Security and SSI benefits, pensions, annuities, disability or death benefits, and other sources of income subject to a COLA or rate of interest. The determination of fixed income may be streamlined even if the family also receives income from other non-fixed sources.

Two streamlining options are available, depending upon the percentage of the family’s income that is received from fixed sources. If at least 90 percent of the family’s income is from fixed sources, the PHA may streamline the verification of fixed income but is not required to verify non-fixed income amounts. If the family receives less than 90 percent of its income from fixed sources, the PHA may streamline the verification of fixed income and must verify non-fixed income annually.

OCHA Policy

OCHA may streamline the annual reexamination process by applying the verified COLA or interest rate to fixed-income sources. OCHA will document in the file how the determination that a source of income is a fixed amount was made.

If a family member with a fixed source of income is added, OCHA will use third-party verification of all income amounts for that family member.

If verification of the COLA or rate of interest is not available, OCHA will obtain third-party verification of income amounts.

Third-party verification of fixed sources of income will be obtained during the intake process and at least once every three years thereafter.

Third-party verification of non-fixed income will be obtained annually regardless of the percentage of family income received from fixed sources.

9-1.C. SCHEDULING ANNUAL REEXAMINATIONS

OCHA must establish a policy to ensure that the annual reexamination for each family paying an income-based rent is completed within a 12 month period [24 CFR 960.257(a)(1)].

OCHA Policy

Generally, OCHA will schedule annual reexaminations to coincide with the family's anniversary date. OCHA will begin the annual reexamination process approximately 90 to 120 days in advance of the scheduled effective date.

Anniversary date is defined as 12 months from the effective date of the family’s last annual reexamination or, during a family’s first year in the program, from the effective date of the family’s initial examination (admission).
If the family transfers to a new unit, OCHA will perform a new annual reexamination, and the anniversary date will not be changed.

OCHA may also schedule an annual reexamination for completion prior to the anniversary date for administrative purposes.

Notification of and Participation in the Annual Reexamination Process

OCHA is required to obtain information needed to conduct annual reexaminations. How that information will be collected is left to the discretion of OCHA. However, OCHA should give tenants who were not provided the opportunity to provide contact information at the time of admission the option to complete Form HUD-92006 at this time. OCHA should provide the family with the opportunity to update, change, or remove information from the HUD-92006 at the time of the annual reexamination [Notice PIH 2009-36].

OCHA Policy

Families generally are required to participate in an annual reexamination interview, which must be attended by the head of household, spouse, or cohead. If participation in an in-person interview poses a hardship because of a family member’s disability, the family should contact OCHA to request a reasonable accommodation (See Chapter 2). At OCHA’s discretion, OCHA may use an online portal system through the OCHA website to complete the annual/interim reexamination process.

Notification of annual reexamination interviews will be sent by first-class mail or hand delivered and will contain the date, time, and location of the interview. In addition, it will inform the family of the information and documentation that must be brought to the interview.

If the family is unable to attend a scheduled interview, the family should contact OCHA in advance of the interview to schedule a new appointment. In all circumstances, if a family does not attend the scheduled interview OCHA will send a second notification with a new interview appointment time.

If a family fails to attend two scheduled interviews without OCHA approval, the family will be in violation of their lease and may be terminated in accordance with the policies in Chapter 13.

An advocate, interpreter, or other assistant may assist the family in the interview process.
9-I.D. CONDUCTING ANNUAL REEXAMINATIONS

The terms of the public housing lease require the family to furnish information regarding income and family composition as may be necessary for the redetermination of rent, eligibility, and the appropriateness of the housing unit [24 CFR 966.4(c)(2)].

OCHA Policy

Families will be asked to bring all required information (as described in the reexamination notice) to the reexamination appointment or uploaded through the online portal system. The required information will include an OCHA-designated reexamination form, an Authorization for the Release of Information/Privacy Act Notice, as well as supporting documentation related to the family’s income, expenses, and family composition.

Any required documents or information that the family is unable to provide at the time of the interview or any stated deadline must be provided within 10 business days of the interview. If the family is unable to obtain the information or materials within the required time frame, the family may request an extension.

If the family does not provide the required documents or information within the required time frame (plus any extensions), the family will be in violation of their lease and may be terminated in accordance with the policies in Chapter 13.

The information provided by the family generally must be verified in accordance with the policies in Chapter 7. Unless the family reports a change, or the agency has reason to believe a change has occurred in information previously reported by the family, certain types of information that are verified at admission typically do not need to be re-verified on an annual basis. These include:

- Legal identity
- Age
- Social security numbers
- A person’s disability status
- Citizenship or immigration status

Revised 6/28/2023
Change in Unit Size

Changes in family or household composition may make it appropriate to consider transferring the family to comply with occupancy standards. OCHA may use the results of the annual reexamination to require the family to move to an appropriate size unit [24 CFR 960.257(a)(4)]. Policies related to such transfers are located in Chapter 12.

Criminal Background Checks

Information obtained through criminal background checks may be used for lease enforcement and eviction [24 CFR 5.903(e)(1)(ii)]. Criminal background checks of residents will be conducted in accordance with the policy in Section 13-IV.B.

OCHA Policy

Each household member age 18 and over will be required to execute a consent form for a criminal background check as part of the annual reexamination process.

Additionally, HUD recommends that at annual reexaminations OCHA ask whether the tenant, or any member of the tenant’s household, is subject to a lifetime sex offender registration requirement in any state [Notice PIH 2012-28].

OCHA Policy

At the annual reexamination, OCHA will ask whether the tenant, or any member of the tenant’s household, is subject to a lifetime sex offender registration requirement in any state. OCHA will use the Dru Sjodin National Sex Offender database to verify the information provided by the tenant.

If OCHA proposes to terminate assistance based on lifetime sex offender registration information, OCHA must notify the household of the proposed action and must provide the subject of the record and the tenant a copy of the record and an opportunity to dispute the accuracy and relevance of the information prior to termination. [24 CFR 5.903(f) and 5.905(d)]. (See Chapter 13.)

Compliance with Community Service

For families who include nonexempt individuals, OCHA must determine compliance with community service requirements once each 12 months [24 CFR 960.257(a)(3)].

See Chapter 11 for OCHA’s policies governing compliance with the community service requirement.
9-I.E. EFFECTIVE DATES

As part of the annual reexamination process, OCHA must make appropriate adjustments in the rent after consultation with the family and upon verification of the information [24 CFR 960.257(a)(1)].

OCHA Policy

In general, an increase in the tenant rent that results from an annual reexamination will take effect on the family’s anniversary date, and the family will be notified at least 30 days in advance.

If less than 30 days remain before the scheduled effective date, the increase will take effect on the first of the month following the end of the 30-day notice period.

If OCHA chooses to schedule an annual reexamination for completion prior to the family’s anniversary date for administrative purposes, the effective date will be determined by OCHA, but will always allow for the 30-day notice period.

If the family causes a delay in processing the annual reexamination, increases in the tenant rent will be applied retroactively, to the scheduled effective date of the annual reexamination. The family will be responsible for any underpaid rent and may be offered a repayment agreement in accordance with the policies in Chapter 16.

In general, a decrease in the tenant rent that results from an annual reexamination will take effect on the family’s anniversary date.

If OCHA chooses to schedule an annual reexamination for completion prior to the family’s anniversary date for administrative purposes, the effective date will be determined by OCHA.

If the family causes a delay in processing the annual reexamination, decreases in the tenant rent will be applied prospectively, from the first day of the month following completion of the reexamination processing.

Delays in reexamination processing are considered to be caused by the family if the family fails to provide information requested by OCHA by the date specified, and this delay prevents OCHA from completing the reexamination as scheduled.
PART II: REEXAMINATIONS FOR FAMILIES PAYING FLAT RENTS
[24 CFR 960.253(f)]

9-II.A. OVERVIEW
HUD requires that OCHA offer all families the choice of paying income-based rent or flat rent at least annually. OCHA’s policies for offering families a choice of rents are located in Chapter 6.

For families who choose flat rents, OCHA must conduct a reexamination of family composition at least annually, and must conduct a reexamination of family income at least once every three years [24 CFR 960.253(f)]. OCHA is only required to provide the amount of income-based rent the family might pay in those years that OCHA conducts a full reexamination of income and family composition, or upon request of the family after the family submits updated income information [24 CFR 960.253(e)(2)].

As it does for families that pay income-based rent, OCHA must also review compliance with the community service requirement for families with nonexempt individuals.

This part contains OCHA’s policies for conducting reexaminations of families who choose to pay flat rents.

9-II.B. FULL REEXAMINATION OF FAMILY INCOME AND COMPOSITION

Frequency of Reexamination

OCHA Policy
For families paying flat rents, OCHA will conduct a full reexamination of family income and composition once every three years.

Reexamination Policies

OCHA Policy
In conducting full reexaminations for families paying flat rents, OCHA will follow the policies used for the annual reexamination of families paying income-based rent as set forth in Sections 9-I.B through 9-I.D above.
9-II.C. REEXAMINATION OF FAMILY COMPOSITION (“ANNUAL UPDATE”)

As noted above, full reexaminations are conducted every three years for families paying flat rents. In the years between full reexaminations, regulations require OCHA to conduct a reexamination of family composition (“annual update”) [24 CFR 960.257(a)(2)].

The annual update process is similar to the annual reexamination process, except that OCHA does not collect information about the family’s income and expenses, and the family’s rent is not recalculated following an annual update.

Scheduling

OCHA must establish a policy to ensure that the reexamination of family composition for families choosing to pay the flat rent is completed at least annually [24 CFR 960.257(a)(2)].

OCHA Policy

For families paying flat rents, annual updates will be conducted in each of the 2 years following the full reexamination.

In scheduling the annual update, OCHA will follow the policy used for scheduling the annual reexamination of families paying income-based rent as set forth in Section 9-I.B. above.

Conducting Annual Updates

The terms of the public housing lease require the family to furnish information necessary for the redetermination of rent and family composition [24 CFR 966.4(c)(2)].

OCHA Policy

Generally, the family will not be required to attend an interview for an annual update. However, if OCHA determines that an interview is warranted, the family may be required to attend.

Notification of the annual update will be sent by first-class mail or hand delivered and will inform the family of the information and documentation that must be provided to OCHA. The family will have 10 business days to submit the required information to OCHA. If the family is unable to obtain the information or documents within the required time frame, the family may request an extension. OCHA will accept required documentation by mail, electronically/email, by fax, or in person.

If the family’s submission is incomplete, or the family does not submit the information in the required time frame, OCHA will send a second written notice to the family. The family will have 10 business days from the date of the second notice to provide the missing information or documentation to OCHA.

If the family does not provide the required documents or information within the required time frame (plus any extensions), the family will be in violation of their lease and may be terminated in accordance with the policies in Chapter 13.
Change in Unit Size

Changes in family or household composition may make it appropriate to consider transferring the family to comply with occupancy standards. OCHA may use the results of the annual update to require the family to move to an appropriate size unit [24 CFR 960.257(a)(4)]. Policies related to such transfers are located in Chapter 12.

Criminal Background Checks

Information obtained through criminal background checks may be used for lease enforcement and eviction [24 CFR 5.903(e)]. Criminal background checks of residents will be conducted in accordance with the policy in Section 13-IV.B.

OCHA Policy

Each household member age 18 and over will be required to execute a consent form for criminal background check as part of the annual update process.

Compliance with Community Service

For families who include nonexempt individuals, OCHA must determine compliance with community service requirements once each 12 months [24 CFR 960.257(a)(3)].

See Chapter 11 for OCHA’s policies governing compliance with the community service requirement.
PART III: INTERIM REEXAMINATIONS [24 CFR 960.257; 24 CFR 966.4]

9-III.A. OVERVIEW

Family circumstances may change during the period between annual reexaminations. HUD and OCHA policies define the types of information about changes in family circumstances that must be reported, and under what circumstances OCHA must process interim reexaminations to reflect those changes. HUD regulations also permit OCHA to conduct interim reexaminations of income or family composition at any time.

In addition to specifying what information the family must report, HUD regulations permit the family to request an interim determination if other aspects of the family’s income or composition change. OCHA must complete the interim reexamination within a reasonable time after the family’s request.

This part includes HUD and OCHA policies that describe the changes families are required to report, the changes families may choose to report, and how OCHA will process both OCHA- and family-initiated interim reexaminations.

9-III.B. CHANGES IN FAMILY AND HOUSEHOLD COMPOSITION

OCHA must adopt policies prescribing when and under what conditions the family must report changes in family composition. However, due to provisions of the public housing lease, OCHA has limited discretion in this area.

Changes in family or household composition may make it appropriate to consider transferring the family to comply with occupancy standards. Policies related to such transfers are located in Chapter 12.

OCHA Policy

All families, those paying income-based rent as well as flat rent, must report all changes in family and household composition that occur between annual reexaminations (or annual updates).

OCHA will conduct interim reexaminations to account for any changes in household composition that occur between annual reexaminations.

New Family Members Not Requiring Approval

The addition of a family member as a result of birth, adoption, or court-awarded custody does not require OCHA approval. However, the family is required to promptly notify OCHA of the addition [24 CFR 966.4(a)(1)(v)].

OCHA Policy

The family must inform OCHA of the birth, adoption, or court-awarded custody of a child within 10 business days.
New Family and Household Members Requiring Approval

With the exception of children who join the family as a result of birth, adoption, or court-awarded custody, a family must request PHA approval to add a new family member [24 CFR 966.4(a)(1)(v)] or other household member (live-in aide or foster child) [24 CFR 966.4(d)(3)].

OCHA may adopt reasonable policies concerning residence by a foster child or a live-in aide, and defining the circumstances in which OCHA’s consent will be given or denied. Under such policies, the factors considered by OCHA may include [24 CFR 966.4(d)(3)(i)]:

- Whether the addition of a new occupant may necessitate a transfer of the family to another unit, and whether such units are available.
- OCHA’s obligation to make reasonable accommodation for persons with disabilities.

OCHA Policy

Families must request OCHA approval to add a new family member, live-in aide, foster child, or foster adult. This includes any person not on the lease who is expected to stay in the unit for more than 14 consecutive days or a total of 30 cumulative calendar days during any 12-month period and therefore no longer qualifies as a “guest.” Requests must be made in writing and approved by OCHA prior to the individual moving into the unit.

If adding a person to a household (other than a child by birth, adoption, or court-awarded custody) will require a transfer to a larger size unit (under the transfer policy in Chapter 12), OCHA will approve the addition only if the family can demonstrate that there are medical needs or other extenuating circumstances, including reasonable accommodation, that should be considered by OCHA. Exceptions will be made on a case-by-case basis.

OCHA will not approve the addition of a new family or household member unless the individual meets OCHA’s eligibility criteria (see Chapter 3) and documentation requirements (See Chapter 7, Part II).

If OCHA determines that an individual does not meet OCHA’s eligibility criteria or documentation requirements, OCHA will notify the family in writing of its decision to deny approval of the new family or household member and the reasons for the denial.

OCHA will make its determination within 10 business days of receiving all information required to verify the individual’s eligibility.

Departure of a Family or Household Member

OCHA Policy

If a family member ceases to reside in the unit, the family must inform OCHA within 10 business days. This requirement also applies to family members who had been considered temporarily absent, who are now permanently absent.

If a live-in aide, foster child, or foster adult ceases to reside in the unit, the family must inform OCHA within 10 business days.

Revised 6/28/2023
9-III.C. CHANGES AFFECTING INCOME OR EXPENSES

Interim reexaminations can be scheduled either because OCHA has reason to believe that changes in income or expenses may have occurred, or because the family reports a change. When a family reports a change, OCHA may take different actions depending on whether the family reported the change voluntarily, or because it was required to do so.

OCHA Policy

This section only applies to families paying income-based rent. Families paying flat rent are not required to report changes in income or expenses.

OCHA-initiated Interim Reexaminations

OCHA-initiated interim reexaminations are those that are scheduled based on circumstances or criteria defined by OCHA. They are not scheduled because of changes reported by the family.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will conduct interim reexaminations in each of the following instances:

For families receiving the Earned Income Disallowance (EID), OCHA will conduct an interim reexamination at the start, to adjust the exclusion with any changes in income, and at the conclusion of the 24-month eligibility period.

If the family has reported zero income, OCHA will conduct an interim reexamination every 3 months as long as the family continues to report that they have no income.

If at the time of the annual reexamination, it is not feasible to anticipate a level of income for the next 12 months (e.g. seasonal or cyclic income), OCHA will schedule an interim reexamination to coincide with the end of the period for which it is feasible to project income.

If at the time of the annual reexamination, tenant declarations were used on a provisional basis due to the lack of third-party verification, and third-party verification becomes available, OCHA will conduct an interim reexamination.

OCHA may conduct an interim reexamination at any time in order to correct an error in a previous reexamination, or to investigate a tenant fraud complaint.
Family-Initiated Interim Reexaminations

OCHA must adopt policies prescribing when and under what conditions the family must report changes in family income or expenses [24 CFR 960.257(c)]. In addition, HUD regulations require that the family be permitted to obtain an interim reexamination any time the family has experienced a change in circumstances since the last determination [24 CFR 960.257(b)].

Required Reporting

HUD regulations give OCHA the discretion to determine the circumstances under which families will be required to report changes affecting income.

OCHA Policy

Families should report all increases in earned income, including new employment, within 10 business days of the date the change takes effect.

OCHA will conduct interim reexaminations for families that qualify for the earned income disallowance (EID), and only when the EID family’s rent will change as a result of the increase. OCHA will conduct in interim reexamination any time a new adult household member is added and that adult household member has additional income. In all other cases, OCHA will note the information in the tenant file, but will not conduct an interim reexamination.

Families are not required to report any other changes in income or expenses.

Optional Reporting

The family may request an interim reexamination any time the family has experienced a change in circumstances since the last determination [24 CFR 960.257(b)]. OCHA must process the request if the family reports a change that will result in a reduced family income [PH Occ GB, p. 159].

If a family reports a decrease in income from the loss of welfare benefits due to fraud or non-compliance with a welfare agency requirement to participate in an economic self-sufficiency program, the family’s share of the rent will not be reduced [24 CFR 5.615]. For more information regarding the requirement to impute welfare income see Chapter 6.

OCHA Policy

If a family reports a change that it was not required to report and that would result in an increase in the tenant rent, OCHA will note the information in the tenant file, but will not conduct an interim reexamination.

If a family reports a change that it was not required to report and that would result in a decrease in the tenant rent, OCHA will conduct an interim reexamination. See Section 9-III.D. for effective dates.

Families may report changes in income or expenses at any time.
9-III.D. PROCESSING THE INTERIM REEXAMINATION

Method of Reporting

OCHA Policy

The family may notify OCHA of changes either orally or in writing. If the family provides oral notice, OCHA may also require the family to submit the changes in writing.

Generally, the family will not be required to attend an interview for an interim reexamination. However, if OCHA determines that an interview is warranted, the family may be required to attend.

Based on the type of change reported, OCHA will determine the documentation the family will be required to submit. The family must submit any required information or documents within 10 business days of receiving a request from OCHA. This time frame may be extended for good cause with OCHA approval. OCHA will accept required documentation by mail, electronically/email, by fax, or in person.

Effective Dates

OCHA must make the interim reexamination within a reasonable time after the family request [24 CFR 960.257(b)].

OCHA Policy

If the tenant rent is to increase:

The increase generally will be effective on the first of the month following 30 days’ notice to the family.

If a family fails to report a change within the required time frames, or fails to provide all required information within the required time frames, the increase will be applied retroactively, to the date it would have been effective had the information been provided on a timely basis. The family will be responsible for any underpaid rent and may be offered a repayment agreement in accordance with the policies in Chapter 16.

If the tenant rent is to decrease:

The decrease will be effective on the first day of the month following the month in which the change was reported.
PART IV: RECALCULATING TENANT RENT

9-IV.A. OVERVIEW

For those families paying income-based rent, OCHA must recalculate the rent amount based on the income information received during the reexamination process and notify the family of the changes [24 CFR 966.4, 960.257]. While the basic policies that govern these calculations are provided in Chapter 6, this part lays out policies that affect these calculations during a reexamination.

The tenant rent calculations must reflect any changes in OCHA’s utility allowance schedule [24 CFR 960.253(c)(3)]. Chapter 16 discusses how utility allowance schedules are established.

OCHA Policy

Unless OCHA is required to revise utility allowances retroactively, revised utility allowances will be applied to a family’s rent calculations at the first annual reexamination after the allowance is adopted.

9-IV.C. NOTIFICATION OF NEW TENANT RENT

The public housing lease requires OCHA to give the tenant written notice stating any change in the amount of tenant rent, and when the change is effective [24 CFR 966.4(b)(1)(ii)].

When OCHA redetermines the amount of rent (Total Tenant Payment or Tenant Rent) payable by the tenant, not including determination of OCHA’s schedule of Utility Allowances for families in OCHA’s Public Housing Program, or determines that the tenant must transfer to another unit based on family composition, OCHA must notify the tenant that the tenant may ask for an explanation stating the specific grounds of OCHA determination, and that if the tenant does not agree with the determination, the tenant shall have the right to request a hearing under OCHA’s grievance procedure [24 CFR 966.4(c)(4)].

OCHA Policy

The notice to the family will include the annual and adjusted income amounts that were used to calculate the tenant rent.

9-IV.D. DISCREPANCIES

During an annual or interim reexamination, OCHA may discover that information previously reported by the family was in error, or that the family intentionally misrepresented information. In addition, OCHA may discover errors made by OCHA. When errors resulting in the overpayment or underpayment of rent are discovered, corrections will be made in accordance with the policies in Chapter 15.
Chapter 10

PETS

[24 CFR 5, Subpart C; 24 CFR 960, Subpart G]

INTRODUCTION

This chapter explains OCHA's policies on the keeping of pets and describes any criteria or standards pertaining to the policies. The rules adopted are reasonably related to the legitimate interest of OCHA to provide a decent, safe and sanitary living environment for all tenants, and to protect and preserve the physical condition of the property, as well as the financial interest of OCHA.

The chapter is organized as follows:

Part I: Assistance Animals. This part explains the difference between assistance animals, including service and support animals, and pets, and contains policies related to the designation of an assistance animal as well as their care and handling.

Part II: Pet policies for all developments. This part includes pet policies that are common to both elderly/disabled developments and general occupancy developments.

Part III: Pet deposits and fees for elderly/disabled developments. This part contains policies for pet deposits and fees that are applicable to elderly/disabled developments.

Part IV: Pet deposits and fees for general occupancy developments. This part contains policies for pet deposits and fees that are applicable to general occupancy developments.
PART I: ASSISTANCE ANIMALS
[Section 504; Fair Housing Act (42 U.S.C.); 24 CFR 5.303; 24 CFR 960.705; Notice FHEO 2020-01]

10-I.A. OVERVIEW

This part discusses situations under which permission for an assistance animal, including service and support animals, may be denied, and also establishes standards for the care of assistance animals.

Notice FHEO 2020-01 was published January 28, 2020. The notice provides guidance to help OCHA and other housing providers to distinguish between a person with a non-obvious disability who has a legitimate need for an assistance animal and a person without a disability who simply wants to have a pet or avoid the costs and limitations imposed by OCHA’s pet policies. FHEO 2020-01 makes clear that the notice is guidance and a tool for OCHA and other housing providers to use at their discretion and provides a set of best practices for addressing requests for assistance animals. The guidance in FHEO 2020-01 should be read together with HUD’s regulations prohibiting discrimination under the Fair Housing Act (FHA) and the HUD/Department of Justice (DOJ) Joint Statement on Reasonable Accommodation under the Fair Housing Act. Housing providers may also be subject to the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and should therefore refer also to DOJ’s regulations implementing Titles II and III of the ADA at 28 CFR Parts 35 and 36, in addition to DOJ’s other guidance on assistance animals.

There are two types of assistance animals: (1) service animals, and (2) other animals that do work, perform tasks, provide assistance, and/or provide therapeutic emotional support for individuals with disabilities (i.e., support animals).

Assistance animals, including service and support animals, are not pets and thus are not subject to OCHA’s pet policies described in Parts II through IV of this chapter [24 CFR 5.303; 960.705; Notice FHEO 2020-01].
10-I.B. APPROVAL OF ASSISTANCE ANIMALS [Notice FHEO 2020-01]

Service Animals

Notice FHEO 2020-01 states that OCHA should initially follow the Department of Justice (DOJ) analysis to assessing whether an animal is a service animal under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Under the ADA, a service animal means any dog that is individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability, including a physical, sensory, psychiatric, intellectual, or other mental disability. Other species of animals, whether wild or domestic, trained or untrained, are not service animals for the purposes of this definition. The work or tasks performed by a service animal must be directly related to the individual’s disability.

As a best practice, housing providers may use the following questions to help them determine if an animal is a service animal under the ADA:

- Is the animal a dog? If not, the animal is not a service animal but may be another type of assistance animal for which an accommodation is needed (support animal).

- Is it readily apparent that the dog is trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of the individual with a disability? If yes, further inquiries are inappropriate because the animal is a service animal. If not, it is advisable that OCHA limit its inquiries to the following two questions: (1) Is the animal required because of the disability? and (2) What work or task has the animal been trained to perform?

If the answer to question (1) is “yes” and work or a task is identified in response to question (2), grant the requested accommodation if otherwise reasonable. If the answer to either question is “no,” the animal does not qualify as a service animal but may be a support animal.

A service animal must be permitted in all areas of the facility where members of the public are allowed.

Support Animals (Assistance Animals other than Service Animals)

If the animal does not qualify as a service animal, OCHA must next determine whether the animal would qualify as a support animal (other type of assistance animal). If the individual has indeed requested a reasonable accommodation to get or keep an animal in connection with a physical or mental impairment or disability, OCHA may use the following questions to help them assess whether to grant the accommodation in accordance with the policies outlined in Chapter 2 (OCHA is not required to grant a reasonable accommodation that has not been requested):

- Does the person have an observable disability or does OCHA already have information giving them reason to believe that the person has a disability? If not, has the person requesting the accommodation provided information that reasonably supports that the person seeking the accommodation has a disability?

- If the person has an observable disability, OCHA already has information giving them reason to believe the person has a disability, or the person has provided information supporting that they have a disability, then has the person provided information that reasonably supports that the animal does work, performs tasks, provides assistance, and/or provides therapeutic emotional support with respect to the individual’s disability?

- If yes, is the animal commonly kept in households? An animal commonly kept in households would be a dog, cat, small bird, rabbit, hamster, gerbil, other rodent, fish, turtle, or other small, domesticated animal that is traditionally kept in the home for pleasure rather than for commercial purposes. For purposes of this assessment, reptiles (other than turtles), barnyard animals, monkeys, kangaroos, and other non-domesticated animals are not considered common household animals.

If the individual is requesting to keep a unique animal not commonly kept in households, then the requestor has the substantial burden of demonstrating a disability-related therapeutic need for the specific animal or the specific type of animal. Such individuals are encouraged to submit documentation from a health care professional.

General Considerations

A person with a disability is not automatically entitled to have an assistance animal. Reasonable accommodation requires that there is a relationship between the person’s disability and their need for the animal [PH Occ GB, p. 179].

Before denying a reasonable accommodation request due to lack of information confirming an individual’s disability or disability-related need for an animal, OCHA is encouraged to engage in a good-faith dialog with the requestor called the “interactive process” [FHEO 2020-01].

A PHA may not refuse to allow a person with a disability to have an assistance animal merely because the animal does not have formal training. Some, but not all, animals that assist persons with disabilities are professionally trained. Other assistance animals are trained by the owners themselves and, in some cases, no special training is required. The question is whether or not the animal performs the assistance or provides the benefit needed by the person with the disability [PH Occ GB, p. 178].

A PHA’s refusal to permit persons with a disability to use and live with an assistance animal that is needed to assist them, would violate Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Fair Housing Act unless [PH Occ GB, p. 179]:

- There is reliable objective evidence that the animal poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others that cannot be reduced or eliminated by a reasonable accommodation
- There is reliable objective evidence that the animal would cause substantial physical damage to the property of others

The Fair Housing Act does not require a dwelling to be made available to an individual whose tenancy would constitute a direct threat to the health or safety of other individuals or would result in substantial physical damage to the property of others. OCHA may therefore refuse a reasonable accommodation for an assistance animal if the specific animal poses a direct threat that cannot be eliminated or reduced to an acceptable level through the actions the individual takes to maintain or control the animal (e.g., keeping the animal in a security enclosure).

While most requests for reasonable accommodations involve one animal, requests sometimes involve more than one animal (for example, a person has a disability-related need for both animals, or two people living together each have a disability-related need for a separate assistance animal). The decision-making process in Notice FHEO 2020-01 should be used in accordance with the reasonable accommodation policies in Chapter 2 for all requests for exceptions or modifications to OCHA’s rules, policies, practices, and procedures so that persons with disabilities can have assistance animals in the housing where they reside.

PHAs have the authority to regulate service animals and assistance animals under applicable federal, state, and local law [24 CFR 5.303(b)(3); 960.705(b)(3)].

PHA Policy

For an animal to be excluded from the pet policy and be considered a service animal, it must be a trained dog, and there must be a person with disabilities in the household who requires the dog’s services.

For an animal to be excluded from the pet policy and be considered a support animal, there must be a person with disabilities in the household, there must be a disability-related need for the animal, and the family must request and the PHA approve a reasonable accommodation in accordance with the criteria outlined in Notice FHEO 2020-01 and the policies contained in Chapter 2.

10-I.C. CARE AND HANDLING

HUD regulations do not affect any authority a PHA may have to regulate assistance animals, including service animals, under federal, state, and local law [24 CFR 5.303; 24 CFR 960.705].

PHA Policy

Residents are responsible for feeding, maintaining, providing veterinary care, and controlling their assistance animals. A resident may do this on their own or with the assistance of family, friends, volunteers, or service providers.

Residents must care for assistance animals in a manner that complies with state and local laws, including anti-cruelty laws.

Residents must ensure that assistance animals do not pose a direct threat to the health or safety of others, or cause substantial physical damage to the development, dwelling unit, or property of other residents.

When a resident’s care or handling of an assistance animal violates these policies, the PHA will consider whether the violation could be reduced or eliminated by a reasonable accommodation. If the PHA determines that no such accommodation can be made, the PHA may withdraw the approval of a particular assistance animal.

PART II: PET POLICIES FOR ALL DEVELOPMENTS

[24 CFR 5, Subpart C; 24 CFR 960, Subpart G]

10-II.A. OVERVIEW

The purpose of a pet policy is to establish clear guidelines for ownership of pets and to ensure that no applicant or resident is discriminated against regarding admission or continued occupancy because of ownership of pets. It also establishes reasonable rules governing the keeping of common household pets. This part contains pet policies that apply to all developments.
10-II.B. MANAGEMENT APPROVAL OF PETS

Registration of Pets

OCHA may require registration of the pet with OCHA [24 CFR 960.707(b)(5)].

OCHA Policy

Pets must be registered with OCHA before they are brought onto the premises.

Registration includes documentation signed by a licensed veterinarian or state/local authority that the pet has received all inoculations required by state or local law, and that the pet has no communicable disease(s) and is pest-free. This registration must be renewed annually and will be coordinated with the annual reexamination date.

Pets will not be approved to reside in a unit until completion of the registration requirements.

Refusal to Register Pets

OCHA Policy

OCHA will refuse to register a pet if:

- The pet is not a common household pet as defined in Section 10-II.C. below:
- Keeping the pet would violate any pet restrictions listed in this policy
- The pet owner fails to provide complete pet registration information, or fails to update the registration annually
- The applicant has previously been charged with animal cruelty under state or local law; or has been evicted, had to relinquish a pet or been prohibited from future pet ownership due to pet rule violations or a court order
- OCHA reasonably determines that the pet owner is unable to keep the pet in compliance with the pet rules and other lease obligations. The pet's temperament and behavior may be considered as a factor in determining the pet owner's ability to comply with provisions of the lease.

If OCHA refuses to register a pet, a written notification will be sent to the pet owner within 10 business days of OCHA’s decision. The notice will state the reason for refusing to register the pet and will inform the family of their right to appeal the decision in accordance with OCHA’s grievance procedures.

Pet Agreement

OCHA Policy

Residents who have been approved to have a pet must enter into a pet agreement with OCHA, or the approval of the pet will be withdrawn.

The pet agreement is the resident’s certification that they have received a copy of the PHA’s pet policy and applicable house rules, that they have read the policies and/or rules, understand them, and agree to comply with them.
The resident further certifies by signing the pet agreement that they understand that noncompliance with the PHA’s pet policy and applicable house rules may result in the withdrawal of PHA approval of the pet or termination of tenancy.

10-II.C. STANDARDS FOR PETS [24 CFR 5.318; 960.707(b)]

OCHA may establish reasonable requirements related to pet ownership including, but not limited to:

- Limitations on the number of animals in a unit, based on unit size
- Prohibitions on types of animals that OCHA classifies as dangerous, provided that such classifications are consistent with applicable state and local law
- Prohibitions on individual animals, based on certain factors, including the size and weight of the animal
- Requiring pet owners to have their pets spayed or neutered

Cat declawing is not a requirement or condition of pet ownership in public housing and HUD encourages OCHA to refrain from engaging in this practice [New PH OCC GB, Pet Ownership, p. 9].

- OCHA may not require pet owners to have any pet’s vocal cords removed.

OCHA may not require pet owners to obtain or carry liability insurance.

Definition of “Common Household Pet”

There is no regulatory definition of common household pet for public housing programs, although the regulations for pet ownership in both elderly/disabled and general occupancy developments use the term. The regulations for pet ownership in elderly/disabled developments expressly authorize OCHA to define the term [24 CFR 5.306(2)].

OCHA Policy

Common household pet means a domesticated animal, such as a dog, cat, bird, or fish that is traditionally recognized as a companion animal and is kept in the home for pleasure rather than commercial purposes.

The following animals are not considered common household pets:

- Reptiles
- Rodents
- Insects
- Arachnids
- Wild animals or feral animals
- Pot-bellied pigs
- Animals used for commercial breeding
Pet Restrictions

OCHA Policy
The following animals are not permitted:

- Any animal whose adult weight will exceed 15 pounds
- Any animal whose adult height will exceed 15 inches
- Dogs of the pit bull, Rottweiler, chow, Doberman or boxer breeds
- Ferrets or other animals whose natural protective mechanisms pose a risk to small children of serious bites or lacerations
- Any animal not permitted under state or local law or code

Number of Pets

OCHA Policy
Residents may own a maximum of 2 pets, only 1 of which may be a dog or cat.

In the case of fish, residents may keep no more than can be maintained in a safe and healthy manner in a tank holding up to 10 gallons. Such a tank or aquarium will be counted as 1 pet.

Other Requirements

OCHA Policy
Dogs and cats must be spayed or neutered at the time of registration or, in the case of underage animals, within 30 days of the pet reaching 6 months of age. Exceptions may be made upon veterinary certification that subjecting this particular pet to the procedure would be temporarily or permanently medically unsafe or unnecessary.

Pets must be licensed in accordance with state or local law. Residents must provide proof of licensing at the time of registration and annually, in conjunction with the resident’s annual reexamination.

10-ILD. PET RULES

Pet owners must maintain pets responsibly, in accordance with OCHA policies, and in compliance with applicable state and local public health, animal control, and animal cruelty laws and regulations [24 CFR 5.315; 24 CFR 960.707(a)].

Pet Area Restrictions

OCHA Policy
Pets must be maintained within the resident's unit. When outside of the unit (within the building or on the grounds) dogs and cats must be kept on a leash (no longer than 5 feet) or carried. They must be under the control of the resident or other responsible individual at all times.

Pets other than dogs or cats must be kept in a cage or carrier when outside of the unit.
Pets are not permitted in common areas including lobbies, community rooms and laundry areas except for those common areas which are entrances to and exits from the building.

Pet owners are not permitted to exercise pets or permit pets to deposit waste on project premises outside of the areas designated for such purposes.

Designated Pet/No-Pet Areas [24 CFR 5.318(g), PH Occ GB, p. 182]

OCHA may designate buildings, floors of buildings, or sections of buildings as no-pet areas where pets generally may not be permitted. Pet rules may also designate buildings, floors of building, or sections of building for residency by pet-owning tenants.

OCHA may direct initial tenant moves as may be necessary to establish pet and no-pet areas. OCHA may not refuse to admit, or delay admission of, an applicant on the grounds that the applicant’s admission would violate a pet or no-pet area. OCHA may adjust the pet and no-pet areas or may direct such additional moves as may be necessary to accommodate such applicants for tenancy or to meet the changing needs of the existing tenants.

OCHAs may not designate an entire development as a no-pet area, since regulations permit residents to own pets.

OCHA Policy

With the exception of common areas as described in the previous policy, OCHA has not designated any buildings, floors of buildings, or sections of buildings as no-pet areas. In addition, OCHA has not designated any buildings, floors of buildings, or sections of buildings for residency of pet-owning tenants.
Cleanliness

OCHA Policy
The pet owner shall be responsible for the removal of waste from the exercise area by placing it in a sealed plastic bag and disposing of it in a container provided by OCHA.

The pet owner shall take adequate precautions to eliminate any pet odors within or around the unit and to maintain the unit in a sanitary condition at all times.

Litter box requirements:
   - Pet owners must promptly dispose of waste from litter boxes and must maintain litter boxes in a sanitary manner.
   - Litter shall not be disposed of by being flushed through a toilet.
   - Litter boxes shall be kept inside the resident's dwelling unit.

Alterations to Unit

OCHA Policy
Pet owners shall not alter their unit, patio, premises or common areas to create an enclosure for any animal.

Installation of pet doors is prohibited.

Noise

OCHA Policy
Pet owners must agree to control the noise of pets so that such noise does not constitute a nuisance to other residents or interrupt their peaceful enjoyment of their housing unit or premises. This includes, but is not limited to loud or continuous barking, howling, whining, biting, scratching, chirping, or other such activities.

Pet Care

OCHA Policy
Each pet owner shall be responsible for adequate care, nutrition, exercise and medical attention for their pet.

Each pet owner shall be responsible for appropriately training and caring for their pet to ensure that the pet is not a nuisance or danger to other residents and does not damage OCHA property.

No animals may be tethered or chained inside or outside the dwelling unit at any time.
Responsible Parties

OCHA Policy

The pet owner will be required to designate two responsible parties for the care of the pet if the health or safety of the pet is threatened by the death or incapacity of the pet owner, or by other factors that render the pet owner unable to care for the pet.

A resident who cares for another resident's pet must notify OCHA and sign a statement that they agree to abide by all of the pet rules.

Inspections and Repairs

OCHA Policy

Except for emergencies, management will not enter the dwelling unit for performance of repairs or inspections where a pet resides unless accompanied for the entire duration of the inspection or repair by the pet owner or responsible person designated by the pet owner. The pet must be held under physical restraint by the pet owner or responsible person until management has completed its tasks. Any delays or interruptions suffered by management in the inspection, maintenance, and upkeep of the premises due to the presence of a pet may be cause for lease termination.

Pets Temporarily on the Premises

OCHA Policy

Pets that are not owned by a tenant are not allowed on the premises. Residents are prohibited from feeding or harboring stray animals.

This rule does not apply to visiting pet programs sponsored by a humane society or other non-profit organizations, and approved by OCHA.

Pet Rule Violations

OCHA Policy

All complaints of cruelty and all dog bites will be referred to animal control or an applicable agency for investigation and enforcement.

If a determination is made on objective facts supported by written statements, that a resident/pet owner has violated the pet rules, written notice will be served.

The notice will contain a brief statement of the factual basis for the determination and the pet rule(s) that were violated. The notice will also state:

- That the pet owner has 5 business days from the effective date of the service of notice to correct the violation or make written request for a meeting to discuss the violation
- That the pet owner is entitled to be accompanied by another person of their choice at the meeting
- That the pet owner's failure to correct the violation, request a meeting, or appear at a requested meeting may result in initiation of procedures to remove the pet, or to terminate the pet owner's tenancy

Notice for Pet Removal

OCHA Policy

If the pet owner and OCHA are unable to resolve the violation at the meeting or the pet owner fails to correct the violation in the time period allotted by OCHA, OCHA may serve notice to remove the pet.

The notice will contain:

- A brief statement of the factual basis for OCHA's determination of the pet rule that has been violated
- The requirement that the resident/pet owner must remove the pet within 30 calendar days of the notice
- A statement that failure to remove the pet may result in the initiation of termination of tenancy procedures

Pet Removal

OCHA Policy

If the death or incapacity of the pet owner threatens the health or safety of the pet, or other factors occur that render the owner unable to care for the pet, the situation will be reported to the responsible party designated by the pet owner.

If the responsible party is unwilling or unable to care for the pet, or if OCHA after reasonable efforts cannot contact the responsible party, OCHA may contact the appropriate state or local agency and request the removal of the pet.

Termination of Tenancy

OCHA Policy

OCHA may initiate procedures for termination of tenancy based on a pet rule violation if:

- The pet owner has failed to remove the pet or correct a pet rule violation within the time period specified
- The pet rule violation is sufficient to begin procedures to terminate tenancy under terms of the lease

Emergencies

OCHA Policy

OCHA will take all necessary steps to ensure that pets that become vicious, display symptoms of severe illness, or demonstrate behavior that constitutes an immediate threat to the health or safety of others, are immediately removed from the premises by referring the situation to the appropriate state or local entity authorized to remove such animals.

If it is necessary for OCHA to place the pet in a shelter facility, the cost will be the responsibility of the pet owner.
If the pet is removed as a result of any aggressive act on the part of the pet, the pet will not be allowed back on the premises.

PART III: PET DEPOSITS AND FEES IN ELDERLY/DISABLED DEVELOPMENTS

10-III.A. OVERVIEW
This part describes OCHA’s policies for pet deposits and fees in elderly, disabled and mixed population developments. Policies governing deposits and fees in general occupancy developments are described in Part IV.

10-III.B. PET DEPOSITS

Payment of Deposit
OCHA may require tenants who own or keep pets in their units to pay a refundable pet deposit. This deposit is in addition to any other financial obligation generally imposed on tenants of the project [24 CFR 5.318(d)(1)].

The maximum amount of pet deposit that may be charged by OCHA on a per dwelling unit basis, is the higher of the total tenant payment (TTP) or such reasonable fixed amount as OCHA may require. OCHA may permit gradual accumulation of the pet deposit by the pet owner [24 CFR 5.318(d)(3)].

The pet deposit is not part of the rent payable by the resident [24 CFR 5.318(d)(5)].

OCHA Policy

Pet owners are required to pay a pet deposit in addition to any other required deposits. The amount of the deposit is $200.00, and must be paid in full before the pet is brought on the premises. Pets registered in Family Housing prior to January 1, 2001 are exempt from the deposit.

Refund of Deposit [24 CFR 5.318(d)(1)]

OCHA may use the pet deposit only to pay reasonable expenses directly attributable to the presence of the pet, including (but not limited to) the costs of repairs and replacements to, and fumigation of, the tenant’s dwelling unit. OCHA must refund the unused portion of the pet deposit to the tenant within a reasonable time after the tenant moves from the project or no longer owns or keeps a pet in the unit.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will refund the pet deposit to the resident, less the costs of any damages caused by the pet to the dwelling unit, within 30 days of move-out or removal of the pet from the unit.

The resident will be billed for any amount that exceeds the pet deposit.

OCHA will provide the resident with a written list of any charges against the pet deposit within 30 business days of the move-out inspection. If the resident disagrees with the amount charged to the pet deposit, OCHA will provide a meeting to discuss the charges.
10-III.C. OTHER CHARGES

Pet-Related Damages During Occupancy

OCHA Policy

All reasonable expenses incurred by OCHA as a result of damages directly attributable to the presence of the pet in the project will be the responsibility of the resident, including:

- The cost of repairs and replacements to the resident's dwelling unit
- Fumigation of the dwelling unit
- Repairs to common areas of the project

The expense of flea elimination shall also be the responsibility of the resident.

If the resident is in occupancy when such costs occur, the resident shall be billed for such costs in accordance with the policies in Section 8-I.G, Maintenance and Damage Charges. Pet deposits will not be applied to the costs of pet-related damages during occupancy.

Charges for pet-related damage are not part of rent payable by the resident.

Pet Waste Removal Charge

The regulations do not address OCHA’s ability to impose charges for house pet rule violations. However, charges for violation of OCHA pet rules may be treated like charges for other violations of the lease and OCHA tenancy rules.

OCHA Policy

A separate pet waste removal charge of $15.00 per occurrence will be assessed against pet owners who fail to remove pet waste in accordance with this policy.

Notices of pet waste removal charges will be in accordance with requirements regarding notices of adverse action. Charges are due and payable 14 calendar days after billing. If the family requests a grievance hearing within the required timeframe, OCHA may not take action for nonpayment of the charge until the conclusion of the grievance process.

Charges for pet waste removal are not part of rent payable by the resident.
PART IV: PET DEPOSITS AND FEES IN GENERAL OCCUPANCY DEVELOPMENTS

10-IV.A. OVERVIEW
This part describes OCHA’s policies for pet deposits and fees for those who reside in general occupancy developments.

10-IV.B. PET DEPOSITS
OCHA may require a refundable pet deposit to cover additional costs attributable to the pet and not otherwise covered [24 CFR 960.707(b)(1)].

OCHA requires that a resident to pay a pet deposit must place the deposit in an account of the type required under applicable State or local law for pet deposits, or if there are no such requirements, for rental security deposits, if applicable. OCHA must comply with such laws as to retention of the deposit, interest, and return of the deposit to the resident, and any other applicable requirements [24 CFR 960.707(d)].

Payment of Deposit

OCHA Policy
Pet owners are required to pay a pet deposit in addition to any other required deposits. The amount of the deposit is $200.00, and must be paid in full before the pet is brought on the premises. Pets registered in Family Housing prior to January 1, 2001 are exempt from the deposit.

The pet deposit is not part of rent payable by the resident.

Refund of Deposit

OCHA Policy
OCHA will refund the pet deposit to the resident, less the costs of any damages caused by the pet to the dwelling unit, within 30 days of move-out or removal of the pet from the unit.

The resident will be billed for any amount that exceeds the pet deposit.

OCHA will provide the resident with a written list of any charges against the pet deposit within 30 business days of the move-out inspection. If the resident disagrees with the amount charged to the pet deposit, OCHA will provide a meeting to discuss the charges.

10-IV.C. NON-REFUNDABLE NOMINAL PET FEE
OCHA may require payment of a non-refundable nominal pet fee to cover the reasonable operating costs to the development relating to the presence of pets [24 CFR 960.707(b)(1)].

OCHA Policy
OCHA does not require pet owners to pay a non-refundable nominal pet fee.
10-IV.D. OTHER CHARGES

Pet-Related Damages During Occupancy

OCHA Policy

All reasonable expenses incurred by OCHA as a result of damages directly attributable to the presence of the pet in the project will be the responsibility of the resident, including:

- The cost of repairs and replacements to the resident's dwelling unit
- Fumigation of the dwelling unit
- Repairs to common areas of the project

The expense of flea elimination shall also be the responsibility of the resident.

If the resident is in occupancy when such costs occur, the resident shall be billed for such costs in accordance with the policies in Section 8-I.G, Maintenance and Damage Charges. Pet deposits will not be applied to the costs of pet-related damages during occupancy.

Charges for pet-related damage are not part of rent payable by the resident.

Pet Waste Removal Charge

The regulations do not address OCHA’s ability to impose charges for house pet rule violations. However, charges for violation of OCHA pet rules may be treated like charges for other violations of the lease and OCHA tenancy rules.

OCHA Policy

A separate pet waste removal charge of $15.00 per occurrence will be assessed against pet owners who fail to remove pet waste in accordance with this policy.

Such charges will be due and payable 14 calendar days after billing.

Charges for pet waste removal are not part of rent payable by the resident.
Chapter 11

COMMUNITY SERVICE

INTRODUCTION
This chapter explains HUD regulations requiring OCHA to implement a community service program for all nonexempt adults living in public housing.

This chapter describes HUD regulations and OCHA policies related to these topics in two parts:

   Part I: Community Service Requirements. This part describes who is subject to the community service requirement, who is exempt, and HUD’s definition of economic self-sufficiency.

   Part II: OCHA Implementation of Community Service. This part provides OCHA policy regarding OCHA implementation and program design.

PART I: COMMUNITY SERVICE REQUIREMENT

11-I.A. OVERVIEW
HUD regulations pertaining to the community service requirement are contained in 24 CFR 960 Subpart F (960.600 through 960.609). PHA’s and residents must comply with the community service requirement, effective with PHA fiscal years that commenced on or after October 1, 2000. Per 903.7(l)(1)(iii), PHA Plan must contain a statement of how OCHA will comply with the community service requirement, including any cooperative agreement that OCHA has entered into or plans to enter into.

Community service is the performance of voluntary work or duties that are a public benefit, and that serve to improve the quality of life, enhance resident self-sufficiency, or increase resident self-responsibility in the community. Community service is not employment and may not include political activities [24 CFR 960.601(b)].

In administering community service requirements, OCHA must comply with all nondiscrimination and equal opportunity requirements [24 CFR 960.605(c)(5)].

11-I.B. REQUIREMENTS
Each adult resident of OCHA, who is not exempt, must [24 CFR 960.603(a)]:

   • Contribute 8 hours per month of community service; or
   • Participate in an economic self-sufficiency program (as defined in the regulations) for 8 hours per month; or
   • Perform 8 hours per month of combined activities (community service and economic self-sufficiency programs).
   • The required community service or self-sufficiency activity may be completed 8 hours each month or may be aggregated across a year. Any blocking of hours is acceptable as long as 96 hours is completed by each annual certification of compliance [Notice PIH 2015-12].
Definitions

Exempt Individual [24 CFR 960.601(b), Notice PIH 2015-12]

An exempt individual is an adult who:

- Is age 62 years or older
- Is blind or disabled (as defined under section 216[i][i] or 1614 of the Social Security Act), and who certifies that because of this disability s/he is unable to comply with the service provisions
- Is a primary caretaker of such an individual
- Is engaged in work activities

  OCHA Policy

  OCHA will consider 20 hours per week as the minimum number of hours needed to qualify for a work activity exemption.

- Is able to meet requirements of being exempted under a state program funded under part A of Title IV of the Social Security Act, or under any other welfare program of the state in which OCHA is located, including a state-administered welfare-to-work program
  - This exemption applies to anyone whose characteristics or family situation meet the welfare agency exemption criteria and can be verified.
- Is a member of a family receiving assistance, benefits, or services under a state program funded under Part A of Title IV of the Social Security Act, or under any other welfare program of the state in which OCHA is located, including a state-administered welfare-to-work program and the supplemental nutrition assistance program (SNAP), and has not been found by the state or other administering entity to be in noncompliance with such program.
- Is a member of a non-public housing over-income family.
Community Service [24 CFR 960.601(b), Notice PIH 2015-12]

Community service is the performance of voluntary work or duties that are a public benefit, and that serve to improve the quality of life, enhance resident self-sufficiency, or increase resident self-responsibility in the community. Community service is not employment and may not include political activities.

Eligible community service activities include, but are not limited to, work at:

- Local public or nonprofit institutions such as schools, head start programs, before or after school programs, child care centers, hospitals, clinics, hospices, nursing homes, recreation centers, senior centers, adult day care programs, homeless shelters, feeding programs, food banks (distributing either donated or commodity foods), or clothes closets (distributing donated clothing)
- Nonprofit organizations serving OCHA residents or their children such as: Boy or Girl Scouts, Boys or Girls Club, 4-H clubs, Police Assistance League (PAL), organized children’s recreation, mentoring or education programs, Big Brothers or Big Sisters, garden centers, community clean-up programs, beautification programs
- Programs funded under the Older Americans Act, such as Green Thumb, Service Corps of Retired Executives, senior meals programs, senior centers, Meals on Wheels
- Public or nonprofit organizations dedicated to seniors, youth, children, residents, citizens, special-needs populations or with missions to enhance the environment, historic resources, cultural identities, neighborhoods, or performing arts
- OCHA housing to improve grounds or provide gardens (so long as such work does not alter OCHA’s insurance coverage); or work through resident organizations to help other residents with problems, including serving on the Resident Advisory Board
- Care for the children of other residents so parent may volunteer
- Political Activity is specifically excluded.

OCHA may form their own policy in regards to accepting community services at profit-motivated entities, acceptance of volunteer work performed at homes or offices of general private citizens, and court-ordered or probation-based work.

OCHA Policy

Community services at profit-motivated entities, volunteer work performed at homes or offices of general private citizens, and court-ordered or probation-based work will not be considered eligible community service activities.
Economic Self-Sufficiency Program [24 CFR 5.603(b), Notice PIH 2015-12]

For purposes of satisfying the community service requirement, an economic self-sufficiency program is defined by HUD as any program designed to encourage, assist, train, or facilitate economic independence of assisted families or to provide work for such families.

Eligible self-sufficiency activities include, but are not limited to:

- Job readiness or job training
- Training programs through local one-stop career centers, workforce investment boards (local entities administered through the U.S. Department of Labor), or other training providers
- Employment counseling, work placement, or basic skills training
- Education, including higher education (junior college or college), GED classes, or reading, financial, or computer literacy classes
- Apprenticeships (formal or informal)
- English proficiency or English as a second language classes
- Budgeting and credit counseling
- Any other program necessary to ready a participant to work (such as substance abuse or mental health counseling)

Work Activities [42 U.S.C. 607(d)]

As it relates to an exemption from the community service requirement, work activities means:

- Unsubsidized employment
- Subsidized private sector employment
- Subsidized public sector employment
- Work experience (including work associated with the refurbishing of publicly assisted housing) if sufficient private sector employment is not available
- On-the-job training
- Job search and job readiness assistance
- Community service programs
- Vocational educational training (not to exceed 12 months with respect to any individual)
- Job skills training directly related to employment
- Education directly related to employment, in the case of a recipient who has not received a high school diploma or a certificate of high school equivalency
- Satisfactory attendance at secondary school or in a course of study leading to a certificate of general equivalence, in the case of a recipient who has not completed secondary school or received such a certificate
Notification Requirements [24 CFR 960.605(c)(2), Notice PIH 2015-12, Notice PIH 2016-06]

OCHA must give each family a written description of the community service requirement, the process for claiming status as an exempt person, and the process for OCHA verification of exempt status. OCHA must also notify the family of its determination identifying the family members who are subject to the service requirement, and the family members who are exempt. In addition, the family must sign a certification, such as Attachment A of Notice PIH 2015-12, that they have received and read the policy and understand that if they are not exempt, failure to comply with the requirement will result in nonrenewal of their lease. The family must also sign a certification at annual reexamination, such as Attachment B of Notice PIH 2015-12, certifying that they understand the requirement.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will provide the family with a copy of the Community Service Policy found in Exhibit 11-1 of this chapter, at lease-up, lease renewal, when a family member is determined to be subject to the community service requirement during the lease term, and at any time upon the family’s request. The policy will notify the family that self-certification forms are subject to review by OCHA.

On an annual basis, at the time of lease renewal, OCHA will notify the family in writing of the family members who are subject to the community service requirement and the family members who are exempt. If the family includes nonexempt individuals the notice will include a list of agencies in the community that provide volunteer and/or training opportunities, as well as a documentation form on which they may record the activities they perform and the number of hours contributed. The form will also have a place for a signature by an appropriate official, who will certify to the activities and hours completed.

11-I.C. DETERMINATION OF EXEMPTION STATUS AND COMPLIANCE [24 CFR 960.605(c)(3)]

OCHA must review and verify family compliance with service requirements annually at least thirty days before the end of the twelve month lease term. The policy for documentation and verification of compliance with service requirements may be found at Section 11-I.D., Documentation and Verification.

OCHA Policy

Where the lease term does not coincide with the effective date of the annual reexamination, OCHA will change the effective date of the annual reexamination to coincide with the lease term. In making this change, OCHA will ensure that the annual reexamination is conducted within 12 months of the last annual reexamination.

Annual Determination

Determination of Exemption Status

An exempt individual is excused from the community service requirement [24 CFR 960.603(a)].
OCHA Policy

At least 30 days prior to lease renewal, OCHA will review and verify the exemption status of all adult family members. This verification will only be done on an annual basis unless the family reports a change or OCHA has reason to believe that an individual’s exemption status has changed. For individuals who are exempt because they are 62 years of age and older, verification of exemption status will be done only at the initial examination.

Upon completion of the verification process, OCHA will notify the family of its determination in accordance with the policy in Section 11-I.B., Notification Requirements.

Determination of Compliance

OCHA must review resident family compliance with service requirements annually at least 30 days before the end of the twelve month lease term [24 CFR 960.605(c)(3)]. As part of this review, OCHA must verify that any family member that is not exempt from the community service requirement has met their service obligation.

OCHA Policy

Approximately 30 days prior to the end of the lease term, OCHA will provide written notice requiring the family to submit documentation that all subject family members have complied with the service requirement. The family will have 10 business days to submit OCHA required documentation form(s).

If the family fails to submit the required documentation within the required timeframe, or OCHA approved extension, the subject family members will be considered noncompliant with community service requirements, and notices of noncompliance will be issued pursuant to the policies in Section 11-I.E., Noncompliance.

Change in Status between Annual Determinations

OCHA Policy

Exempt to Nonexempt Status

If an exempt individual becomes nonexempt during the 12-month lease term, it is the family’s responsibility to report this change to OCHA within 10 business days.

Within 10 business days of a family reporting such a change, or OCHA determining such a change is necessary, OCHA will provide written notice of the effective date of the requirement, a list of agencies in the community that provide volunteer and/or training opportunities, as well as a documentation form on which the family member may record the activities performed and number of hours contributed.

The effective date of the community service requirement will be the first of the month following 30 day notice.

Determination of Initial Compliance

When an adult family member becomes subject to community service, they must perform 8 hours of community service for the months they are subject to the requirement before the end of the lease term (anniversary date).
Example 1: Alberto Jones turns 18 on 5/10/15 and is not exempt from the community service requirement. His community service requirement begins on 6/1/15, and his initial compliance is reviewed before the end of the lease term (anniversary date), which is 11/30/15.
- Alberto must perform 6 months of community service in his initial compliance period, before the end of the lease term (anniversary date).

Example 2: Lisa Dewhurst leaves her job on 9/20/14 and is not exempt from the community service requirement. Her community service requirement begins on 10/1/14, and her initial compliance is reviewed before the end of the lease term (anniversary date), which is 6/30/15.
- Ms. Dewhurst must perform 9 months of community service in her initial compliance period, before the end of the lease term (anniversary date).

Nonexempt to Exempt Status

If a nonexempt person becomes exempt during the twelve month lease term, it is the family’s responsibility to report this change to OCHA within 10 business days. Any claim of exemption will be verified by OCHA in accordance with the policy at 11-L.D., Documentation and Verification of Exemption Status.

Within 10 business days of a family reporting such a change, or OCHA determining such a change is necessary, OCHA will provide the family written notice that the family member is no longer subject to the community service requirement, if OCHA is able to verify the exemption.

The exemption will be effective immediately.

11-L.D. DOCUMENTATION AND VERIFICATION [24 CFR 960.605(c)(4), 960.607, Notice PIH 2016-08]

OCHA must retain reasonable documentation of service requirement performance or exemption in participant files.

Documentation and Verification of Exemption Status

OCHA Policy

All family members who claim they are exempt from the community service requirement will be required to sign the community service exemption certification form. OCHA will provide a completed copy to the family and will keep a copy in the tenant file.

OCHA will verify that an individual is exempt from the community service requirement by following the verification hierarchy and documentation requirements in Chapter 7.

OCHA makes the final determination whether or not to grant an exemption from the community service requirement. If a resident does not agree with OCHA’s determination, s/he can dispute the decision through OCHA’s grievance procedures (see Chapter 14).

Documentation and Verification of Compliance

At each regularly scheduled reexamination, each nonexempt family member presents a signed standardized certification form developed by OCHA of community service and self-sufficiency activities performed over the last 12 months [Notice PIH 2015-12].

If qualifying community service activities are administered by an organization other than OCHA, a family member who is required to fulfill a service requirement must provide documentation required by OCHA. OCHA may require a self-certification or certification from a third party [24 CFR 960.607].

If OCHA accepts self-certification of compliance with the community service requirement, it must provide a form which includes a statement that the client performed the required hours, contact information for the community service provider, a description of activities performed, and dates of service.

If OCHA accepts self-certification, it must validate a sample of certifications through third-party documentation. OCHA must notify families that self-certification forms are available and that a sample of self-certifications will be validated.

HUD strongly encourages OCHA to investigate community service compliance when there are questions of accuracy.

OCHA Policy

Each individual who is subject to the community service requirement will be required to record their community service or self-sufficiency activities and the number of hours contributed on the required form. The certification form will also include places for signatures and phone numbers of supervisors, instructors, and counselors certifying to the number of hours contributed.

Families will be required to submit the documentation to OCHA, upon request by OCHA, at least annually.

If OCHA has reasonable cause to believe that the certification provided by the family is false or fraudulent, OCHA has the right to require additional third-party verification.

11-I.E. NONCOMPLIANCE

Noncompliant Residents

The lease specifies that it is renewed automatically for all purposes, unless the family fails to comply with the community service requirement and families determined to be over-income for 24 consecutive months. Violation of the service requirement is grounds for nonrenewal of the lease at the end of the twelve month lease term, but not for termination of tenancy during the course of the twelve month lease term [24 CFR 960.603(b)].

OCHA may not evict a family due to Community Service and Self-Sufficiency Requirement (CSSR) noncompliance. However, if OCHA finds a tenant is noncompliant with CSSR, OCHA must provide written notification to the tenant of the noncompliance which must include:

Revised 6/28/2023
• A brief description of the finding of non-compliance with CSSR.

• A statement that OCHA will not renew the lease at the end of the current 12-month lease term unless the tenant enters into a written work-out agreement with OCHA or the family provides written assurance that is satisfactory to OCHA explaining that the tenant or other noncompliant resident no longer resides in the unit. Such written work-out agreement must include the means through which a noncompliant family member will comply with the CSSR requirement [24 CFR 960.607(c), Notice PIH 2015-12].

The notice must also state that the tenant may request a grievance hearing on OCHA’s determination, in accordance with OCHA’s grievance procedures, and that the tenant may exercise any available judicial remedy to seek timely redress for OCHA’s nonrenewal of the lease because of OCHA’s determination.

OCHA Policy

The notice of noncompliance will be sent at least 45 days prior to the end of the lease term. The family will have 10 business days from the date of the notice of noncompliance to enter into a written work-out agreement to cure the noncompliance over the 12 month term of the new lease, provide documentation that the noncompliant resident no longer resides in the unit, or to request a grievance hearing.

If the family reports that a noncompliant family member is no longer residing in the unit, the family must provide documentation that the family member has actually vacated the unit before OCHA will agree to continued occupancy of the family. Documentation must consist of a certification signed by the head of household as well as evidence of the current address of the family member that previously resided with them.

If the family does not request a grievance hearing, or does not take either corrective action required by the notice of noncompliance within the required 10 business day timeframe, OCHA will terminate tenancy in accordance with the policies in Section 13-IV.D.

Should a family member refuse to sign a written work-out agreement, or fail to comply with the terms of the work-out agreement, OCHA is required to initiate termination of tenancy proceedings at the end of the current 12-month lease (see 24 CFR 966.53(c)) for failure to comply with lease requirements. When initiating termination of tenancy proceedings, OCHA will provide the following procedural safeguards:

• Adequate notice to the tenant of the grounds for terminating the tenancy and for non-renewal of the lease;

• Right of the tenant to be represented by counsel;

• Opportunity for the tenant to refute the evidence presented by OCHA, including the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses and present any affirmative legal or equitable defense which the tenant may have; and,

• A decision on the merits.
OCHA Policy

Notices of continued noncompliance will be sent at least 30 days prior to the end of the lease term and will also serve as the family’s termination notice. The notice will meet the requirements for termination notices described in Section 13-IV.D, Form, Delivery, and Content of the Notice.

The family will have 10 business days from the date of the notice of non-compliance to provide documentation that the noncompliant resident no longer resides in the unit, or to request a grievance hearing.

If the family reports that a noncompliant family member is no longer residing in the unit, the family must provide documentation that the family member has actually vacated the unit before OCHA will agree to continued occupancy of the family. Documentation must consist of a certification signed by the head of household as well as evidence of the current address of the noncompliant family member that previously resided with them.

If the family does not request a grievance hearing, or provide such documentation within the required 10 business day timeframe, the family’s lease and tenancy will automatically terminate at the end of the current lease term without further notice.

PART II: IMPLEMENTATION OF COMMUNITY SERVICE

11-ILA. OVERVIEW

OCHA must develop a policy for administration of the community service and economic self-sufficiency requirements for public housing. It is in OCHA’s best interests to develop a viable, effective community service program, to provide residents the opportunity to engage in the community and to develop competencies.

OCHA Implementation of Community Service

OCHA may not substitute any community service or self-sufficiency activities performed by residents for work ordinarily performed by OCHA employees, or replace a job at any location where residents perform activities to satisfy the service requirement [24 CFR 960.609].

OCHA Policy

OCHA will normally not allow residents to complete community service at OCHA. However, if special circumstances arise, OCHA will notify its insurance company if residents will be performing community service at OCHA. In addition, OCHA will ensure that the conditions under which the work is to be performed are not hazardous.

If a disabled resident certifies that s/he is able to perform community service, OCHA will ensure that requests for reasonable accommodation are handled in accordance with the policies in Chapter 2.
OCHA Program Design

OCHA may administer qualifying community service or economic self-sufficiency activities directly, or may make community service activities available through a contractor, or through partnerships with qualified organizations, including resident organizations, and community agencies or institutions [24 CFR 960.605(b)].

OCHA Policy

OCHA will attempt to provide the broadest choice possible to residents as they choose community service activities.

OCHA’s goal is to design a service program that gives residents viable opportunities to become involved in the community and to gain competencies and skills. OCHA will work with resident organizations and community organizations to design, implement, assess and recalibrate its community service program.

OCHA will make every effort to identify volunteer opportunities throughout the community, especially those in proximity to public housing developments. To the greatest extent possible, OCHA will provide names and contacts at agencies that can provide opportunities for residents, including persons with disabilities, to fulfill their community service obligations.

Any written agreements or partnerships with contractors and/or qualified organizations, including resident organizations, are described in OCHA Plan.

OCHA will provide in-house opportunities for volunteer work or self-sufficiency programs when possible.

When OCHA has a ROSS program, a ROSS Service Coordinator, or an FSS program, OCHA will coordinate individual training and service plans (ITSPs) with the community service requirement. Regular meetings with OCHA coordinators will satisfy community service activities and OCHA coordinators will verify community service hours within individual monthly logs.
EXHIBIT 11-1: COMMUNITY SERVICE AND SELF-SUFFICIENCY POLICY

A. Background

The Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998 requires that all nonexempt (see definitions) public housing adult residents (18 or older) contribute eight (8) hours per month of community service (volunteer work) or participate in eight (8) hours of training, counseling, classes or other activities that help an individual toward self-sufficiency and economic independence. This is a requirement of the public housing lease.

B. Definitions

Community Service – community service activities include, but are not limited to, work at:

- Local public or nonprofit institutions such as schools, head start programs, before or after school programs, child care centers, hospitals, clinics, hospices, nursing homes, recreation centers, senior centers, adult day care programs, homeless shelters, feeding programs, food banks (distributing either donated or commodity foods), or clothes closets (distributing donated clothing)

- Nonprofit organizations serving OCHA residents or their children such as: Boy or Girl Scouts, Boys or Girls Club, 4-H clubs, Police Assistance League (PAL), organized children’s recreation, mentoring or education programs, Big Brothers or Big Sisters, garden centers, community clean-up programs, beautification programs

- Programs funded under the Older Americans Act, such as Green Thumb, Service Corps of Retired Executives, senior meals programs, senior centers, Meals on Wheels

- Public or nonprofit organizations dedicated to seniors, youth, children, residents, citizens, special-needs populations or with missions to enhance the environment, historic resources, cultural identities, neighborhoods, or performing arts

- OCHA housing to improve grounds or provide gardens (so long as such work does not alter OCHA’s insurance coverage); or work through resident organizations to help other residents with problems, including serving on the Resident Advisory Board

- Care for the children of other residents so parent may volunteer

Note: Political activity is excluded.
Self-Sufficiency Activities – self-sufficiency activities include, but are not limited to:

- Job readiness or job training
- Training programs through local one-stop career centers, workforce investment boards (local entities administered through the U.S. Department of Labor), or other training providers
- Employment counseling, work placement, or basic skills training
- Education, including higher education (junior college or college), or reading, financial, or computer literacy classes
- Apprenticeships (formal or informal)
- English proficiency or English as a second language classes
- Budgeting and credit counseling
- Any other program necessary to ready a participant to work (such as substance abuse or mental health counseling)

Exempt Adult – an adult member of the family who meets any of the following criteria:

- Is 62 years of age or older
- Is blind or a person with disabilities (as defined under section 216[i][I] or 1614 of the Social Security Act), and who certifies that because of this disability they are unable to comply with the service provisions, or is the primary caretaker of such an individual
- Is engaged in work activities
- Is able to meet requirements under a state program funded under part A of Title IV of the Social Security Act, or under any other welfare program of the state in which OCHA is located, including a state-administered welfare-to-work program; or
- Is a member of a family receiving assistance, benefits, or services under a state program funded under part A of Title IV of the Social Security Act, or under any other welfare program of the state in which OCHA is located, including a state-administered welfare-to-work program and the supplemental nutrition assistance program (SNAP), and has not been found by the state or other administering entity to be in noncompliance with such program
- Is a member of a non-public housing over-income family.

OCHAs can use reasonable guidelines in clarifying the work activities in coordination with TANF, as appropriate.

Work Activities – as it relates to an exemption from the community service requirement, work activities means:

- Unsubsidized employment
- Subsidized private sector employment
- Subsidized public sector employment
- Work experience (including work associated with the refurbishing of publicly assisted housing)
if sufficient private sector employment is not available

- On-the-job training
- Job search and job readiness assistance
- Community service programs
- Vocational educational training (not to exceed 12 months with respect to any individual)
- Job skills training directly related to employment
- Education directly related to employment, in the case of a recipient who has not received a high school diploma or a certificate of high school equivalency
- Satisfactory attendance at secondary school or in a course of study leading to a certificate of general equivalence, in the case of a recipient who has not completed secondary school or received such a certificate
- Provision of child care services to an individual who is participating in a community service program

C. Requirements of the Program

1. The eight (8) hours per month may be either volunteer work or self-sufficiency program activity, or a combination of the two.

2. At least eight (8) hours of activity must be performed each month, or may be aggregated across a year. Any blocking of hours is acceptable as long as long as 96 hours is completed by each annual certification of compliance.

3. Family obligation:
   - At lease execution, all adult members (18 or older) of a public housing resident family must:
     - Sign a certification (Attachment A) that they have received and read this policy and understand that if they are not exempt, failure to comply with the community service requirement will result in a nonrenewal of their lease; and
     - Declare if they are exempt. If exempt, they must complete the Exemption Form (Exhibit 11-3) and provide documentation of the exemption.
   - Upon written notice from OCHA, nonexempt family members must present complete documentation of activities performed during the applicable lease term. This documentation will include places for signatures of supervisors, instructors, or counselors, certifying the number of hours.
   - If a family member is found to be noncompliant at the end of the 12-month lease term, they, and the head of household, will be required to sign an agreement with the housing authority to make up the deficient hours over the next twelve (12) month period, or the lease will be terminated.
   - At annual reexamination, the family must also sign a certification certifying that they understand the community service requirement.

Revised 6/28/2023
4. Change in exempt status:
   • If, during the twelve (12) month lease period, a nonexempt person becomes exempt, it is they responsibility to report this to OCHA and provide documentation of exempt status.
   • If, during the twelve (12) month lease period, an exempt person becomes nonexempt, it is they responsibility to report this to OCHA. Upon receipt of this information OCHA will provide the person with the appropriate documentation form(s) and a list of agencies in the community that provide volunteer and/or training opportunities.

D. Authority Obligation

1. To the greatest extent possible and practicable, OCHA will:
   • Provide names and contacts at agencies that can provide opportunities for residents, including residents with disabilities, to fulfill their community service obligations.
   • Provide in-house opportunities for volunteer work or self-sufficiency activities.

2. OCHA will provide the family with a copy of this policy, and all applicable exemption verification forms and community service documentation forms, at lease-up, lease renewal, when a family member becomes subject to the community service requirement during the lease term, and at any time upon the family’s request.

3. Although exempt family members will be required to submit documentation to support their exemption, OCHA will verify the exemption status in accordance with its verification policies. OCHA will make the final determination as to whether or not a family member is exempt from the community service requirement. Residents may use OCHA’s grievance procedure if they disagree with OCHA’s determination.

4. Noncompliance of family member:
   • At least thirty (30) days prior to the end of the 12-month lease term, OCHA will begin reviewing the exempt or nonexempt status and compliance of family members;
   • If, at the end of the initial 12-month lease term under which a family member is subject to the community service requirement, OCHA finds the family member to be noncompliant, OCHA will not renew the lease unless:
     – The head of household and any other noncompliant resident enter into a written agreement with OCHA, to make up the deficient hours over the next twelve (12) month period; or – The family provides written documentation satisfactory to OCHA that the noncompliant family member no longer resides in the unit.
   • If, at the end of the next 12-month lease term, the family member is still not compliant, a 30-day notice to terminate the lease will be issued and the entire family will have to vacate, unless the family provides written documentation satisfactory to OCHA that the noncompliant family member no longer resides in the unit;
   • The family may use OCHA’s grievance procedure to dispute the lease termination.
All adult family members must sign and date below, certifying that they have read and received a copy of this Community Service and Self-Sufficiency Policy.

EXHIBIT 11-2: DEFINITION OF A PERSON WITH A DISABILITY UNDER SOCIAL SECURITY ACTS 216(i)(I) and Section 1416(excerpt) FOR PURPOSES OF EXEMPTION FROM COMMUNITY SERVICE

Social Security Act:

216(i)(I): Except for purposes of sections 202(d), 202(e), 202(f), 223, and 225, the term “disability” means (A) inability to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months, or (B) blindness; and the term “blindness” means central visual acuity of 20/200 or less in the better eye with the use of a correcting lens. An eye which is accompanied by a limitation in the fields of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees shall be considered for purposes of this paragraph as having a central visual acuity of 20/200 or less.

Section 1416 (excerpt):

SEC. 1614. [42 U.S.C. 1382c] (a)(1) For purposes of this title, the term “aged, blind, or disabled individual” means an individual who—

(A) is 65 years of age or older, is blind (as determined under paragraph (2)), or is disabled (as determined under paragraph (3)), and

(B)(i) is a resident of the United States, and is either (I) a citizen or (II) an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence or otherwise permanently residing in the United States under color of law (including any alien who is lawfully present in the United States as a result of the application of the provisions of section 212(d)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act), or

(ii) is a child who is a citizen of the United States and, who is living with a parent of the child who is a member of the Armed Forces of the United States assigned to permanent duty ashore outside the United States.

(2) An individual shall be considered to be blind for purposes of this title if he has central visual acuity of 20/200 or less in the better eye with the use of a correcting lens. An eye which is accompanied by a limitation in the fields of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees shall be considered for purposes of the first sentence of this subsection as having a central visual acuity of 20/200 or less. An individual shall also be considered to be blind for purposes of this title if he is blind as defined under a State plan approved under Title X or XVI as in effect for October 1972 and received aid under such plan (on the basis of blindness) for December 1973, so long as he is continuously blind as so defined.

(3)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (C), an individual shall be considered to be disabled for purposes of this title if he is unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve months.

EXHIBIT 11-4: CSSR WORK-OUT AGREEMENT

Date: ________________________________

Noncompliant Adult: ________________________________

Adult family member: ________________________________

Community Service & Self-Sufficiency Requirement (CSSR):

Under Section 12 of the U.S. Housing Act, Oklahoma City Housing Authority is required to enforce the community service and self-sufficiency requirement (CSSR). Under the CSSR, each nonexempt adult family member residing in public housing must perform 8 hours per month of community service or self sufficiency activities.

Noncompliance: Oklahoma City Housing Authority has found that the nonexempt individual named above is in noncompliance with the CSSR. This work-out agreement is OCHA’s written notification to you of this noncompliance.

Our records show that for the most recent lease term you were required to perform ________ hours of CSSR activities. However, there were ________ hours of verified CSSR activities. Therefore, you are in noncompliance for _______ hours.

Oklahoma City Housing Authority will not renew the lease at the end of the current 12-month lease term unless the head of household and noncompliant adult sign a written work-out agreement with Oklahoma City Housing Authority or the family provides written assurance that is satisfactory to Oklahoma City Housing Authority explaining that the noncompliant adult no longer resides in the unit. The regulations require that the work-out agreement include the means through which a noncompliant family member will comply with the CSSR requirement. [24 CFR 960.607(c), Notice PIH 2015-12]. The terms of the CSSR work-out agreement are on the reverse side of this page.

Enforcement: Should a family member refuse to sign this CSSR work-out agreement, or fail to comply with the terms of this CSSR work-out agreement, or fail to provide satisfactory written assurance that the noncompliant adult no longer resides in the unit, Oklahoma City Housing Authority is required to initiate termination of tenancy proceedings at the end of the current 12-month lease [24 CFR 966.53(c)].

Chapter 12

TRANSFER POLICY

INTRODUCTION
This chapter explains OCHA’s transfer policy, based on HUD regulations, HUD guidance, and OCHA policy decisions.

This chapter describes HUD regulations and OCHA policies related to transfers in four parts:

- Part I: Emergency Transfers. This part describes emergency transfers, emergency transfer procedures, and payment of transfer costs.
- Part II: OCHA Required Transfers. This part describes types of transfers that may be required by OCHA, notice requirements, and payment of transfer costs.
- Part III: Transfers Requested by Residents. This part describes types of transfers that may be requested by residents, eligibility requirements, security deposits, payment of transfer costs, and handling of transfer requests.
- Part IV: Transfer Processing. This part describes creating a waiting list, prioritizing transfer requests, the unit offer policy, examples of good cause, deconcentration, transferring to another development and reexamination.

OCHA may require the tenant to move from the unit under some circumstances. There are also emergency circumstances under which alternate accommodations for the tenant must be provided, that may or may not require a transfer.

The tenant may also request a transfer, such as a request for a new unit as a reasonable accommodation.

OCHA must have specific policies in place to deal with acceptable transfer requests.

PART I: EMERGENCY TRANSFERS

12-I.A. OVERVIEW

HUD categorizes certain situations that require emergency transfers [PH Occ GB, p. 147]. The emergency transfer differs from a typical transfer in that it requires immediate action by OCHA.

In the case of a genuine emergency, it may be unlikely that OCHA will have the time or resources to immediately transfer a tenant. Due to the immediate need to vacate the unit, placing the tenant on a transfer waiting list would not be appropriate. Under such circumstances, if an appropriate unit is not immediately available, OCHA should find alternate accommodations for the tenant until the emergency passes, or a permanent solution, i.e., return to the unit or transfer to another unit, is possible.
12-I.B. EMERGENCY TRANSFERS

If the dwelling unit is damaged to the extent that conditions are created which are hazardous to life, health, or safety of the occupants, OCHA must offer standard alternative accommodations, if available, where necessary repairs cannot be made within a reasonable time [24 CFR 966.4(h)].

VAWA requires OCHA to adopt an emergency transfer plan for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking.

OCHA Policy

The following is considered an emergency circumstance warranting an immediate transfer of the tenant or family:

VAWA preference: A preference will be provided to anyone who currently resides in OCHA’s public housing program who qualifies for an emergency transfer to OCHA’s HCV program under VAWA requirements. In order to qualify:

- The individual must currently reside in an OCHA public housing unit;
- The individual must claim VAWA protections;
- The individual must document in accordance with requirements in Chapter 16 of OCHA’s Administrative Plan and Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy that they are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking;
- The individual must expressly request an emergency transfer in accordance with OCHA’s public housing emergency transfer plan;
- The individual must reasonably believe they are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if they remain in their current unit or be a victim of sexual assault and the assault occurred on the premises during the 90-day-calendar period before the transfer is requested; and
- The OCHA has no safe, available public housing units for which the tenant who needs an emergency transfer is eligible.

Maintenance conditions in the resident’s unit, building or at the site that pose an immediate, verifiable threat to the life, health or safety of the resident or family members that cannot be repaired or abated within 24 hours. Examples of such unit or building conditions would include: a gas leak; no heat in the building during the winter; no water; toxic contamination; and serious water leaks.

A verified incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking. For instances of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking, the threat may be established through documentation outlined in section 16-VILD. In order to request the emergency transfer, the requestor must submit an emergency transfer request form (HUD-5383) (Exhibit 16-4 of this ACOP), although, the PHA may waive this requirement in order to expedite the transfer process.

The PHA will immediately process requests for transfers due to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking. The PHA will allow a tenant to make an internal emergency transfer under VAWA when a safe unit is immediately available. If an internal transfer to a safe unit is not immediately available, the PHA will assist the resident in seeking an external emergency transfer.

Revised 6/28/2023
either within or outside the PHAs programs.

The PHA has adopted an emergency transfer plan, which is included as Exhibit 16-3 to this plan.

12-I.C. EMERGENCY TRANSFER PROCEDURES

OCHA Policy

Any condition that would produce an emergency work order would qualify a family for an emergency transfer if the repairs cannot be made within 24 hours.

If the transfer is necessary because of maintenance conditions, and an appropriate unit is not immediately available, OCHA will provide temporary accommodations to the tenant by arranging for temporary lodging at a hotel or similar location. The family is entitled to alternative accommodations even if the tenant, household member, guest, or other covered person is responsible for the damage that caused the hazard or if a family is in the process of being evicted.

If the conditions that required the transfer cannot be repaired, or the condition cannot be repaired in a reasonable amount of time, OCHA will transfer the resident to the first available and appropriate unit after the temporary relocation.

Emergency transfers that arise due to maintenance conditions are mandatory for the tenant.

If the emergency transfer is necessary to protect a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking, the PHA will follow procedures outlined in Exhibit 16-4.

12-I.D. COSTS OF TRANSFER

OCHA Policy

OCHA will bear the reasonable costs of temporarily accommodating the tenant and of long term transfers, if any, due to emergency conditions (unless due to tenant neglect.)

The reasonable cost of transfers includes the cost of utility connection fees, packing, moving, and unloading.

OCHA will reimburse the family for reasonable eligible out-of-pocket moving expenses when family turns in receipts to their manager.

PART II: OCHA REQUIRED TRANSFERS

12-II.A. OVERVIEW

HUD regulations regarding transfers are minimal, leaving it up to OCHA to develop reasonable transfer policies.

OCHA may require that a resident transfer to another unit under some circumstances. For example, OCHA may require a resident to transfer to make an accessible unit available to a disabled family. OCHA may also transfer a resident in order to maintain occupancy standards based on family composition. Finally, OCHA may transfer residents in order to demolish or renovate the unit.
A transfer that is required by OCHA is an adverse action, and is subject to the notice requirements for adverse actions [24 CFR 966.4(e)(8)(i)].

12-ILB. TYPES OF OCHA REQUIRED TRANSFERS

OCHA Policy

The types of transfers that may be required by OCHA, include, but are not limited to, transfers to make an accessible unit available for a disabled family, transfers to comply with occupancy standards, transfers for demolition, disposition, revitalization, or rehabilitation, and emergency transfers as discussed in Part I of this chapter.

Transfers required by OCHA are mandatory for the tenant.

Transfers to Make an Accessible Unit Available

When a family is initially given an accessible unit, but does not require the accessible features, OCHA may require the family to agree to move to a non-accessible unit when it becomes available [24 CFR 8.27(b)].

OCHA Policy

When a non-accessible unit becomes available, OCHA will transfer a family living in an accessible unit that does not require the accessible features, to an available unit that is not accessible. OCHA may wait until a disabled resident requires the accessible unit before transferring the family that does not require the accessible features out of the accessible unit.

Occupancy Standards Transfers

OCHA may require a resident to move when a reexamination indicates that there has been a change in family composition, and the family is either overcrowded or overhoused according to OCHA policy [24 CFR 960.257(a)(4)]. On some occasions, OCHA may initially place a resident in an inappropriately sized unit at lease-in, where the family is overhoused, to prevent vacancies. The public housing lease must include the tenant’s agreement to transfer to an appropriately sized unit based on family composition [24 CFR 966.4(c)(3)].

OCHA Policy

OCHA will transfer a family when the family size has changed and the family is now too large (overcrowded) or too small (over-housed) for the unit occupied.

For purposes of the transfer policy, overcrowded and overhoused are defined as follows:

Overcrowded: the number of household members exceeds the maximum number of persons allowed for the unit size in which the family resides, according to the chart in Section 5-I.B.

Overhoused: the family no longer qualifies for the bedroom size in which they are living based on OCHA’s occupancy standards as described in Section 5-I.B.

OCHA may also transfer a family who was initially placed in a unit in which the family was overhoused to a unit of an appropriate size based on OCHA’s occupancy standards, when OCHA determines there is a need for the transfer.

OCHA may elect not to transfer an over-housed family in order to prevent vacancies.
A family that is required to move because of family size will be advised by OCHA that a transfer is necessary and that the family has been placed on the transfer list.

Families that request and are granted an exception to the occupancy standards (for either a larger or smaller size unit) in accordance with the policies in Section 5-I.C. will only be required to transfer if it is necessary to comply with the approved exception.

Demolition, Disposition, Revitalizations, or Rehabilitation, Including Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD) Conversions Transfers

These transfers permit OCHA to demolish, sell or do major capital or rehabilitation work at a building site [PH Occ GB, page 148].

OCHA Policy

OCHA will relocate a family when the unit or site in which the family lives is undergoing major rehabilitation that requires the unit to be vacant, or the unit is being disposed of or demolished. OCHA’s relocation plan may or may not require transferring affected families to other available public housing units. These include rehabilitation projects under the Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD) program.

If the relocation plan calls for transferring public housing families to other public housing units, affected families will be placed on the transfer list.

In cases of revitalization or rehabilitation, the family may be offered a temporary relocation if allowed under Relocation Act provisions, and may be allowed to return to their unit, depending on contractual and legal obligations, once revitalization or rehabilitation is complete.

12-II.C. ADVERSE ACTION [24 CFR 966.4(e)(8)(i)]

An OCHA required transfer is an adverse action. As an adverse action, the transfer is subject to the requirements regarding notices of adverse actions. If the family requests a grievance hearing within the required timeframe, OCHA may not take action on the transfer until the conclusion of the grievance process.

12-II.D. COST OF TRANSFER

OCHA Policy

OCHA will bear the reasonable costs of temporarily accommodating the tenant and of long term transfers, if any, due to emergency conditions (unless due to tenant neglect.)

The reasonable cost of transfers includes the cost of utility connection fees, packing, moving, and unloading.

OCHA will reimburse the family for reasonable eligible out-of-pocket moving expenses when family turns in receipts to their manager.
PART III: TRANSFERS REQUESTED BY TENANTS

12-III.A. OVERVIEW

HUD provides OCHA with discretion to consider transfer requests from tenants. The only requests that OCHA is required to consider are requests for reasonable accommodation. All other transfer requests are at the discretion of OCHA. To avoid administrative costs and burdens, this policy limits the types of requests that will be considered by OCHA.

Some transfers that are requested by tenants should be treated as higher priorities than others due to the more urgent need for the transfer.

12-III.B. TYPES OF RESIDENT REQUESTED TRANSFERS

OCHA Policy

The types of requests for transfers that OCHA will consider are limited to requests for transfers to alleviate a serious or life threatening medical condition, transfers due to a threat of physical harm or criminal activity, reasonable accommodation, transfers to a different unit size as long as the family qualifies for the unit according to OCHA’s occupancy standards, and transfers to a location closer to employment. No other transfer requests will be considered by OCHA.

OCHA will consider the following as high priority transfer requests:

- When a transfer is needed to alleviate verified medical problems of a serious or life-threatening nature
- When there has been a verified threat of physical harm or criminal activity. Such circumstances may, at OCHA’s discretion, include an assessment (letter) by law enforcement indicating that a family member is the actual or potential victim of a criminal attack, retaliation for testimony, a hate crime, or domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. For instances of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, the threat may also be established through documentation outlined in section 16-VII.D, or by any proof accepted by OCHA.
- When a family requests a transfer as a reasonable accommodation. Examples of a reasonable accommodation transfer include, but are not limited to, a transfer to a first floor unit for a person with mobility impairment, or a transfer to a unit with accessible features

OCHA will consider the following as regular priority transfer requests:

- When a family requests a larger bedroom size unit even though the family does not meet OCHA’s definition of overcrowded, as long as the family meets OCHA’s occupancy standards for the requested size unit
- When the head of household or spouse is employed 25 miles or more from the public housing unit, has no reliable transportation, and public transportation is not adequate.
• When a family requests a transfer to a Scattered Site and/or Designated Housing Requirements for Scattered Site and/or Designated Housing transfers are:

a. Residency in the Authority for at least three (3) consecutive years;
b. No lease violations two (2) years prior to transfer request;
c. Good rent payment records (no late payments for the past twelve (12) months prior to transfer request);
d. Good housekeeping record;
e. No past due payment on payback agreement in twelve (12) months prior to transfer request;
f. Provide evidence assuring the ability to maintain utilities in working order (may be asked to provide documentation).
g. Transfers from one designated housing development to another designated housing development will not be allowed. Transfers from one Scattered Site unit to another Scattered Site unit will not be allowed.

• In the case of long term residents, five (5) years or longer, the Authority retains the right to deviate from the above procedure on a case-by-case basis due to extenuating circumstances, such decision to be made by the Executive Director or his designee.

Transfers requested by the tenant are considered optional for the tenant.

12-III.C. ELIGIBILITY FOR TRANSFER

Transferring residents do not have to meet the admission eligibility requirements pertaining to income or preference. However, OCHA may establish other standards for considering a transfer request [PH Occ GB, p. 150].

OCHA Policy

Except where reasonable accommodation is being requested, OCHA will only consider transfer requests from residents that meet the following requirements:

- Have not engaged in criminal activity that threatens the health and safety of residents and staff
- Owe no back rent or other charges, or have a pattern of late payment
- Have no housekeeping lease violations or history of damaging property
- Can get utilities turned on in the name of the head of household (applicable only to properties with tenant-paid utilities)

A resident with housekeeping standards violations will not be transferred until the resident passes a follow-up housekeeping inspection.

Exceptions to the good record requirement will be made when it is to OCHA’s advantage. to make the transfer. Exceptions may also be made when OCHA determines that a transfer is necessary to protect the health or safety of a resident who is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking, and who provides documentation of abuse in accordance with section 16-VII.D of this ACOP. Tenants who are not in good standing may still request an emergency transfer under VAWA.

If a family requested to be placed on the waiting list for a unit size smaller than designated by the occupancy guidelines, the family will not be eligible to transfer to a larger size unit for a period of two years from the date of admission, unless they have a change in family size or composition, or it is needed as a reasonable accommodation.

12-III.D. SECURITY DEPOSITS

OCHA Policy

When a family transfers from one unit to another, the tenant will be required to pay a new security deposit to the new unit.

12-III.E. COST OF TRANSFER

OCHA must pay moving expenses to transfer a resident with a disability to an accessible unit as an accommodation for the resident’s disability [Notice PIH 2010-26].

OCHA Policy

The resident will bear all of the costs of transfer she/he requests. However, OCHA will bear the transfer costs to transfer a resident with a disability to an accessible unit as an accommodation for the resident’s disability.

12-III.F. HANDLING OF REQUESTS

OCHA Policy

Residents requesting a transfer to another unit or development will be required to submit a written request on OCHA transfer request form.

In order to request the emergency transfer under VAWA, the resident will be required to submit an emergency transfer request form (HUD-5383) (Exhibit 16-4 of this ACOP). The PHA may, on a case-by-case basis, waive this requirement and accept a verbal request in order to expedite the transfer process. If the PHA accepts an individual’s statement, the PHA will document acceptance of the statement in the individual’s file in accordance with 16-VII.D. of this ACOP. Transfer requests under VAWA will be processed in accordance with the PHA’s Emergency Transfer Plan (Exhibit 16-3).

In case of a reasonable accommodation transfer, OCHA will encourage the resident to make the request in writing using a reasonable accommodation request form. However, OCHA will consider the transfer request any time the resident indicates that an accommodation is needed whether or not a formal written request is submitted.

OCHA will respond by approving the transfer and putting the family on the transfer list, by denying the transfer, or by requiring more information or documentation from the family, such as documentation of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking in accordance with section 16-VII.D of this ACOP.

If the family does not meet the “good record” requirements under Section 12-III.C., the manager will address the problem and, until resolved, the request for transfer will be denied.

OCHA will respond within thirty (30) business days of the submission of the family’s request. If OCHA denies the request for transfer, the family will be informed of its grievance rights.

PART IV: TRANSFER PROCESSING

12-IV.A. OVERVIEW

Generally, families who request a transfer should be placed on a transfer list and processed in a consistent and appropriate order. The transfer process must be clearly auditable to ensure that residents do not experience inequitable treatment.

12-IV.B. TRANSFER LIST

OCHA Policy

OCHA will maintain a centralized transfer list to ensure that transfers are processed in the correct order and that procedures are uniform across all properties.

Emergency transfers will not automatically go on the transfer list. Instead emergency transfers will be handled immediately, on a case by case basis. If the emergency cannot be resolved by a temporary accommodation, and the resident requires a permanent transfer, the family will be placed at the top of the transfer list.

Transfers will be processed in the following order:

1. Emergency transfers (hazardous maintenance conditions, VAWA)
2. High-priority transfers (verified medical condition, threat of harm or criminal activity, and reasonable accommodation)
3. Transfers to make accessible units available
4. Demolition, renovation, RAD Relocation Plan etc.
5. Occupancy standards
6. Other OCHA-required transfers
7. Other tenant-requested transfers

Within each category, transfers will be processed in order of the date a family was placed on the transfer list, starting with the earliest date.

With the approval of the Executive Director or designee, OCHA may, on a case-by-case basis, transfer a family without regard to its placement on the transfer list in order to address the immediate need of a family in crisis.

Demolition and renovation transfers will gain the highest priority as necessary to allow OCHA to meet the demolition or renovation schedule.
Emergency transfers, high priority tenant requested transfers, transfers to make accessible units available, and demolition transfers will take precedence over waiting list admissions.

Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, the Oklahoma City Housing Authority determined that effective April 1, 2020 only residents with an approved high priority transfer request (Priority #1 or #2 unless there is an approved exception) would be authorized a transfer. This COVID-19 Pandemic procedure ended July 13, 2021. All other transfer requests may be approved and added to the transfer waiting lists until normal operations resume.

All other transfers will be processed at a rate of 1 transfer to 3 admissions.

12-IV.C. TRANSFER OFFER POLICY

OCHA Policy

The family requesting transfer to a Scattered Site will be offered a maximum of two (2) suitable units.

The family requesting Transfer for Designated Housing will be offered a maximum of one (1) suitable unit at the development of their choice.

All other transfers will receive two (2) offers of suitable housing.

When refused for other than good cause, the transfer request will be declared void and will result in the removal of the family from the transfer list.

When the transfer is required by OCHA, the refusal of that offer without good cause will result in lease termination.

VAWA preference: A preference will be provided to anyone who currently resides in OCHA’s public housing program who qualifies for an emergency transfer to OCHA’s HCV program under VAWA requirements. In order to qualify:

- The individual must currently reside in an OCHA public housing unit;
- The individual must claim VAWA protections;
- The individual must document in accordance with requirements in Chapter 16 of OCHA’s Administrative Plan and Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy that they are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking;
- The individual must expressly request an emergency transfer in accordance with OCHA’s public housing emergency transfer plan;
- The individual must reasonably believe they are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if they remain in their current unit or be a victim of sexual assault and the assault occurred on the premises during the 90-day-calendar period before the transfer is requested; and
- The OCHA has no safe, available public housing units for which the tenant who needs an emergency transfer is eligible.

Revised 6/28/2023
12-IV.D. GOOD CAUSE FOR UNIT REFUSAL

OCHA Policy

Examples of good cause for refusal of a unit offer include, but are not limited to, the following:

The family demonstrates to OCHA’s satisfaction that accepting the unit offer will require an adult household member to quit a job, drop out of an educational institution or job training program, or take a child out of day care or an educational program for children with disabilities.

The family demonstrates to OCHA’s satisfaction that accepting the offer will place a family member’s life, health, or safety in jeopardy. The family should offer specific and compelling documentation such as restraining orders, other court orders, risk assessments related to witness protection from a law enforcement agency, or documentation of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or human trafficking in accordance with section 16-VII.D of this ACOP. Reasons offered must be specific to the family. Refusals due to location alone do not qualify for this good cause exemption.

A health professional verifies temporary hospitalization or recovery from illness of the principal household member, other household members (as listed on final application) or live-in aide necessary to the care of the principal household member.

The unit is inappropriate for the applicant’s disabilities, or the family does not need the accessible features in the unit offered and does not want to be subject to a 30-day notice to move.

The unit has lead-based paint and the family includes children under the age of six. OCHA will require documentation of good cause for unit refusals.

12-IV.E. DECONCENTRATION

OCHA Policy

If subject to deconcentration requirements, OCHA will consider its deconcentration goals when transfer units are offered. When feasible, families above the Established Income Range will be offered a unit in a development that is below the Established Income Range, and vice versa, to achieve OCHA’s deconcentration goals. A deconcentration offer will be considered a “bonus” offer; that is, if a resident refuses a deconcentration offer, the resident will receive one additional transfer offer.

12-IV.F. REEXAMINATION POLICIES FOR TRANSFERS

OCHA Policy

The reexamination date will be kept the same and not be affected by the transfer.
Chapter 13

LEASE TERMINATIONS

INTRODUCTION

Either party to the dwelling lease agreement may terminate the lease in accordance with the terms of the lease. A public housing lease is different from a private dwelling lease in that the family’s rental assistance is tied to their tenancy. When the family moves from their public housing unit, they lose their rental assistance. Therefore, there are additional safeguards to protect the family’s tenancy in public housing.

Likewise, there are safeguards to protect HUD’s interest in the public housing program. OCHA has the authority to terminate the lease because of the family’s failure to comply with HUD regulations, for serious or repeated violations of the terms of the lease, and for other good cause. HUD regulations also specify when termination of the lease is mandatory by OCHA.

When determining OCHA policy on terminations of the lease, OCHA must consider state and local landlord-tenant laws in the area where OCHA is located. Such laws vary from one location to another, and these variances may be either more or less restrictive than federal law or HUD regulation.

This chapter presents the policies that govern voluntary termination of the lease by the family and the mandatory and voluntary termination of the lease by OCHA. It is presented in four parts:

Part I: Termination by Tenant. This part discusses OCHA requirements for voluntary termination of the lease by the family.

Part II: Termination by OCHA – Mandatory. This part describes circumstances when termination of the lease by OCHA is mandatory. This part also explains nonrenewal of the lease for noncompliance with community service requirements and families that have been over the income limit for 24 consecutive months.

Part III: Termination by OCHA – Other Authorized Reasons. This part describes OCHA’s options for lease termination that are not mandated by HUD regulation but for which HUD authorizes OCHAs to terminate. For some of these options HUD requires OCHA to establish policies and lease provisions for termination, but termination is not mandatory. For other options OCHA has full discretion whether to consider the options as just cause to terminate as long as OCHA policies are reasonable, nondiscriminatory, and do not violate state or local landlord-tenant law. This part also discusses the alternatives that OCHA may consider in lieu of termination, and the criteria OCHA will use when deciding what actions to take.

Part IV: Notification Requirements. This part presents the federal requirements for disclosure of criminal records to the family prior to termination, the HUD requirements and OCHA policies regarding the timing and content of written notices for lease termination and eviction, and notification of the post office when eviction is due to criminal activity. This part also discusses record keeping related to lease termination.

Revised 6/28/2023
PART I: TERMINATION BY TENANT

13-I.A. TENANT CHOSES TO TERMINATE THE LEASE [24 CFR 966.4(k)(1)(ii) and 24 CFR 966.4(l)(1)]

The family may terminate the lease at any time, for any reason, by following the notification procedures as outlined in the lease. Such notice must be in writing and delivered to the property site office or OCHA central office or sent by pre-paid first-class mail, properly addressed.

OCHA Policy

If a family desires to move and terminate their tenancy with OCHA, they must give at least 30 calendar days advance written notice by completing a “Notice to Vacate” form to OCHA of their intent to vacate. If a tenant quits or abandons the Dwelling unit with less than a 30 calendar days’ notice, then they should be liable for the entire rent for 30 days from the date of notice or until the Dwelling unit is re-rented, whichever comes first.

When a family must give less than 30 days’ notice due to circumstances beyond their control OCHA, at its discretion, may waive the 30 day requirement.

The notice of lease termination must be signed by the head of household, spouse, or cohead.

PART II: TERMINATION BY OCHA – MANDATORY

13-II.A. OVERVIEW

HUD requires mandatory termination of the lease for certain actions or inactions of the family. There are other actions or inactions of the family that constitute grounds for lease termination, but the lease termination is not mandatory. OCHA must establish policies for termination of the lease in these cases where termination is optional for OCHA.

For those tenant actions or failures to act where HUD requires termination, OCHA has no such option. In those cases, the family’s lease must be terminated. This part describes situations in which HUD requires OCHA to terminate the lease.

13-II.B. FAILURE TO PROVIDE CONSENT [24 CFR 960.259(a) and (b)]

OCHA must terminate the lease if any family member fails to sign and submit any consent form s/he is required to sign for any reexamination. See Chapter 7 for a complete discussion of consent requirements.

13-II.C. FAILURE TO DOCUMENT CITIZENSHIP [24 CFR 5.514(c) and (d) and 24 CFR 960.259(a)]

OCHA must terminate the lease if (1) a family fails to submit required documentation within the required timeframe concerning any family member’s citizenship or immigration status; (2) a family submits evidence of citizenship and eligible immigration status in a timely manner, but United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) primary and secondary verification does not verify eligible immigration status of the family, resulting in no eligible family members; or (3) a family member, as determined by OCHA, has knowingly permitted another individual who is not eligible for assistance to reside (on a permanent basis) in the unit. or (4), such termination must be for a period of at least 24 months. This does not apply to ineligible noncitizens already in the household where the family’s assistance has been prorated.

See Chapter 7 for a complete discussion of documentation requirements.

13-II.D. FAILURE TO DISCLOSE AND DOCUMENT SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS

OCHA must terminate assistance if a participant family fails to disclose the complete and accurate social security numbers of each household member and the documentation necessary to verify each social security number.

However, if the family is otherwise eligible for continued program assistance, and OCHA determines that the family’s failure to meet the SSN disclosure and documentation requirements was due to circumstances that could not have been foreseen and were outside of the family’s control, OCHA may defer the family’s termination and provide the opportunity to comply with the requirement within a period not to exceed 90 calendar days from the date OCHA determined the family to be noncompliant.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will defer the family’s termination and provide the family with the opportunity to comply with the requirement for a period of 90 calendar days for circumstances beyond the participant’s control such as delayed processing of the SSN application by the SSA, natural disaster, fire, death in the family, or other emergency, if there is a reasonable likelihood that the participant will be able to disclose an SSN by the deadline.

See Chapter 7 for a complete discussion of documentation and certification requirements.

OCHA must terminate the lease if the family fails to accept OCHA’s offer of a lease revision to an existing lease, provided OCHA has done the following:

- The revision is on a form adopted by OCHA in accordance with 24 CFR 966.3 pertaining to requirements for notice to tenants and resident organizations and their opportunity to present comments.
- OCHA has made written notice of the offer of the revision at least 60 calendar days before the lease revision is scheduled to take effect.
- OCHA has specified in the offer a reasonable time limit within that period for acceptance by the family.

See Chapter 8 for information pertaining to OCHA policies for offering lease revisions.

OCHA must immediately terminate the lease if OCHA determines that any household member has ever been convicted of the manufacture or production of methamphetamine on the premises of federally-assisted housing.

See Part 13-III.B. below for the HUD definition of premises.

13-IL.G. LIFETIME REGISTERED SEX OFFENDERS [Notice PIH 2012-28]

Should OCHA discover that a member of an assisted household was subject to a lifetime registration requirement at admission and was erroneously admitted after June 25, 2001, OCHA must immediately terminate assistance for the household member.

In this situation, OCHA must offer the family the opportunity to remove the ineligible family member from the household. If the family is unwilling to remove that individual from the household, OCHA must terminate assistance for the household.

13-IL.H. NONCOMPLIANCE WITH COMMUNITY SERVICE REQUIREMENTS [24 CFR 966.4(l)(2)(ii)(D), 24 CFR 960.603(b) and 24 CFR 960.607(b)(2)(ii) and (c)]

OCHA is prohibited from renewing the lease at the end of the 12 month lease term when the family fails to comply with the community service requirements as described in Chapter 11.

13-IL.I. DEATH OF A SOLE FAMILY MEMBER [Notice PIH 2012-4]

OCHA must immediately terminate the lease following the death of the sole family member.

In the public housing program, an over-income family is defined as a family whose income exceeds the over-income limit for 24 consecutive months. When this occurs, OCHA must either:

- Terminate the family’s tenancy within six months of OCHA’s final notification of the end of the 24-month grace period; or
- Within 60 days of OCHA’s final notification of the end of the 24-month grace period or the next lease renewal (whichever is sooner), have the family execute a new lease that is consistent with 24 CFR 960.509 and charge the family a monthly rent that is the higher of the applicable fair market rent (FMR) or the amount of monthly subsidy for the unit, including amounts from the operating and capital funds.

OCHA must establish a continued occupancy policy for over-income families in the ACOP indicating which of the above will occur.

OCHA Policy

For families whose income exceeds the over-income limit for 24 consecutive months, OCHA will not terminate the family’s tenancy and will charge the family the alternative non-public housing rent, as well as require the family to sign a new non-public housing lease in accordance with the continued occupancy policies below.
Over-Income Limit [Notice PIH 2019-11]

OCHA must publish over-income limits in their ACOP and update them no later than 60 days after HUD publishes new income limits each year. The over-income limit is calculated by multiplying the very low-income limit (VLI) by 2.4, as adjusted for family size.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will rely on the over-income limits in the Supplemental Postings to the ACOP. These numbers will be updated within 60 days of HUD publishing new income limits each year and will be effective for all annual and interim reexaminations once these policies have been adopted.
Decreases in Income [24 CFR 960.507(c)(4)]

If, at any time during the consecutive 24-month period following the initial over-income determination, OCHA determines that the family’s income is below the over-income limit, OCHA’s over-income policies no longer apply to the family. If OCHA later determines that the family’s income exceeds the over-income limit at a subsequent annual or interim reexamination, the family is entitled to a new 24 consecutive month period and new notices under this section.

OCHA Policy

If, at any time during the 24-month period following the initial over-income determination, an over-income family experiences a decrease in income, the family may request an interim redetermination of rent in accordance with OCHA policy in Chapter 9.

If, as a result, the previously over-income family is now below the over-income limit, the family is no longer subject to over-income provisions as of the effective date of the recertification. OCHA will notify the family in writing within 10 business days of the determination that over-income policies no longer apply to them.

Initial Notice of Over-Income Status [24 CFR 960.507(c)(1)]

If OCHA determines the family has exceeded the over-income limit during an annual or interim reexamination, OCHA must provide written notice to the family of the over-income determination no later than 30 days after the income examination. The notice must state that the family has exceeded the over-income limit and continuing to do so for a total of 24 consecutive months will result in OCHA following its continued occupancy policy for over-income families. OCHA must afford the family an opportunity for a hearing if the family disputes within a reasonable time OCHA’s determination that the family has exceeded the over-income limit.

OCHA Policy

At annual or interim reexamination, if a family’s income exceeds the applicable over-income limit, within 10 business days OCHA will notify the family in writing of the determination and that if the family continues to be over-income for 24 consecutive months, the family will be subject to OCHA’s over-income policies. The notice will state that the family may request a hearing if the family disputes OCHA’s determination in accordance with PHA policies in Chapter 14.
Second Notice of Over-Income Status [24 CFR 960.507(c)(2)]

OCHA must conduct an income examination 12 months after the initial over-income determination, unless OCHA determined the family’s income fell below the over-income limit since the initial over-income determination. If OCHA determines the family continues to exceed the over-income limit for 12 consecutive months, OCHA must provide written notification of this 12-month over-income determination no later than 30 days after the income examination. The notice must state that the family has exceeded the over-income limit for 12 consecutive months and continuing to do so for a total of 24 consecutive months will result in OCHA following its continued occupancy policy for over-income families. Additionally, if applicable under OCHA policy, the notice must include an estimate (based on current data) of the alternative non-public housing rent for the family’s unit. OCHA must afford the family an opportunity for a hearing if the family disputes within a reasonable time the PHA’s determination that the family has exceeded the over-income limit.

OCHA Policy

If a family’s income exceeds the applicable over-income limit after 12 consecutive months, within 10 business days, OCHA will notify the family in writing of the determination and that if the family continues to be over-income for 24 consecutive months, the family will be subject to the OCHA’s over-income policies. The notice will provide an estimate of the alternative non-public housing rent applicable to the family at the close of the 24 consecutive month period. The notice will also state that the family may request a hearing if the family disputes the OCHA’s determination in accordance with OCHA policies in Chapter 14.
Final Notice of Over-Income Status [24 CFR 960.507(c)(3) and 960.509]

Unless OCHA determined the family’s income fell below the over-income limit since the second over-income determination, OCHA must conduct an income examination 24 months after the initial over-income determination. If the family continues to be over-income based on this determination, OCHA must provide written notification of this determination no later than 30 days after the income examination. The notice must state that the family has exceeded the over-income limit for 24 consecutive months and that OCHA will follow its continued occupancy policies for over-income families. OCHA must afford the family an opportunity for a hearing if the family disputes within a reasonable time OCHA’s determination that the family has exceeded the over-income limit.

OCHA Policy

If a family’s income exceeds the applicable over-income limit for 24 consecutive months, OCHA will notify the family in writing of the determination within 10 business days of the date of the determination. The notice will state that the family will be charged the alternative non-public housing rent in accordance with OCHA continued occupancy policies and HUD regulations and provide the family’s new rent amount.

The notice will also include a new non-public housing lease and inform the family that the lease must be executed by the family and OCHA no later than 60 days from the date of the notice or at the next lease renewal, whichever is sooner. The family will continue to be a public housing program participant until the family executes the new non-public housing lease. The notice will also state that failure to execute the lease within this time period stated in the notice will result in termination of tenancy no more than six months after the date of the notice. OCHA will permit an over-income family to execute a lease beyond this time period, but before termination of tenancy, if the over-income family pays OCHA the total difference between the alternative non-public housing rent and their public housing rent dating back to the point in time that the over-income family was required to execute the new lease.

Once the family signs the new non-public housing lease, the family will no longer be a public housing participant family. The family will no longer be subject to income examinations, are precluded from participating in the resident council, and cannot participate in any programs that are only for public housing or low-income families.

The non-public housing over-income lease will contain all required provisions listed at 24 CFR 960.509. The initial term of the lease will be for one year. Upon expiration of the initial lease term, the lease will not renew automatically, and subsequent leases will state renewal terms. At any time, OCHA may terminate tenancy in accordance with 24 CFR 960.509(b)(11) and in accordance with state and local law.

Upon execution of the lease, the tenant will be required pay the amount of monthly tenant rent (known as the alternative non-public housing rent) determined by the OCHA in accordance with HUD regulations. OCHA will comply with state and local law in giving the tenant written notice stating any changes in the amount of tenant rent. Charges assessed under the lease will be due in accordance with state and local law.
PART III: TERMINATION BY OCHA – OTHER AUTHORIZED REASONS

13-III.A. OVERVIEW

Besides requiring OCHA to terminate the lease under the circumstances described in Part II, HUD requires OCHA to establish provisions in the lease for termination pertaining to certain criminal activity, alcohol abuse, and certain household obligations stated in the regulations. While these provisions for lease termination must be in the lease agreement, HUD does not require OCHA to terminate for such violations in all cases. OCHA has the discretion to consider circumstances surrounding the violation or, in applicable situations, whether the offending household member has entered or completed rehabilitation, and OCHA may, as an alternative to termination, require the exclusion of the culpable household member. OCHA must adopt policies concerning the use of these options.

In addition, HUD authorizes OCHA to terminate the lease for other grounds, but for only those grounds that constitute serious or repeated violations of material terms of the lease or for other good cause. OCHA must develop policies pertaining to what constitutes serious or repeated lease violations, and other good cause, based upon the content of OCHA lease. In the development of the terms of the lease, OCHA must consider the limitations imposed by state and local landlord-tenant law, as well as HUD regulations and federal statutes. Because of variations in state and local landlord-tenant law, and because HUD affords OCHAs wide discretion in some areas, a broad range of policies could be acceptable.

OCHA also has the option to terminate the tenancies of certain over-income families.

OCHA may consider alternatives to termination and must establish policies describing the criteria OCHA will use when deciding what action to take, the types of evidence that will be acceptable, and the steps OCHA must take when terminating a family’s lease.
13-III.B. MANDATORY LEASE PROVISIONS [24 CFR 966.4(l)(5)]

This section addresses provisions for lease termination that must be included in the lease agreement according to HUD regulations. Although the provisions are required, HUD does not require OCHA to terminate for such violations in all cases, therefore OCHA policies are needed.

Definitions [24 CFR 5.100]

The following definitions will be used for this and other parts of this chapter:

- Affiliated individual is defined in section 16-VII.B.
- Covered person means a tenant, any member of the tenant’s household, a guest, or another person under the tenant’s control.
- Dating violence is defined in section 16-VII.B.
- Domestic violence is defined in section 16-VII.B.
- Drug means a controlled substance as defined in section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act [21 U.S.C. 802].
- Drug-related criminal activity means the illegal manufacture, sale, distribution, or use of a drug, or the possession of a drug with the intent to manufacture, sell, distribute, or use the drug.
- Guest means a person temporarily staying in the unit with the consent of a tenant or other member of the household who has express or implied authority to so consent on behalf of the tenant.
- Household means the family and OCHA-approved live-in aide. The term household also includes foster children and/or foster adults that have been approved to reside in the unit [HUD-50058, Instruction Booklet, p. 65].
- Other person under the tenant’s control means that the person, although not staying as a guest in the unit, is, or was at the time of the activity in question, on the premises because of an invitation from the tenant or other member of the household who has express or implied authority to so consent on behalf of the tenant. Absent evidence to the contrary, a person temporarily and infrequently on the premises solely for legitimate commercial purposes is not under the tenant’s control.
- Premises means the building or complex or development in which the public or assisted housing dwelling unit is located, including common areas and grounds.
- Sexual assault is defined in section 16-VII.B.
- Stalking is defined in section 16-VII.B.
- Violent criminal activity means any criminal activity that has as one of its elements the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force substantial enough to cause, or be reasonably likely to cause, serious bodily injury or property damage.
Drug Crime On or Off the Premises [24 CFR 966.4(l)(5)(i)(B)]

The lease must provide that drug-related criminal activity engaged in, on or off the premises by the tenant, member of the tenant’s household or guest, or any such activity engaged in on the premises by any other person under the tenant’s control is grounds for termination.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will terminate the lease for drug-related criminal activity engaged in, on or off the premises by any tenant, member of the tenant’s household or guest, and any such activity engaged in on the premises by any other person under the tenant’s control. Household members should be aware that federal law still classifies marijuana as an illegal drug, and that federal law overrides Oklahoma’s medical marijuana law. Therefore, the use, sale, or possession of marijuana constitutes “drug-related criminal activity”.

OCHA will consider all credible evidence, including but not limited to, any record of arrests or convictions of covered persons related to the drug-related criminal activity.

A record of arrest(s) will not be used as the sole basis for the termination or proof that the participant engaged in disqualifying criminal activity.

In making its decision to terminate the lease, OCHA will consider alternatives as described in Section 13-III.D and other factors as described in Sections 13-III.E and 13-III.F. Upon consideration of such alternatives and factors, OCHA may, on a case-by-case basis, choose not to terminate the lease.

Illegal Use of a Drug [24 CFR 966.4(l)(5)(i)(B)]

The lease must provide that OCHA may evict a family when OCHA determines that a household member is illegally using a drug or that a pattern of illegal use of a drug interferes with the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will terminate the lease when OCHA determines that a household member is illegally using a drug or OCHA determines that a pattern of illegal use of a drug interferes with the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents.

A pattern of illegal drug use means more than one incident of any use of illegal drugs during the previous three months. Household members should be aware that federal law still classifies marijuana as an illegal drug, and that federal law overrides Oklahoma’s medical marijuana law. Therefore, the use, sale, or possession of marijuana constitutes “drug-related criminal activity”.

OCHA will consider all credible evidence, including but not limited to, any record of arrests or convictions of household members related to the use of illegal drugs.

A record of arrest(s) will not be used as the sole basis for the termination or proof that the participant engaged in disqualifying criminal activity.

In making its decision to terminate the lease, OCHA will consider alternatives as described in Section 13-III.D and other factors as described in Sections 13-III.E and 13-III.F. Upon consideration of such alternatives and factors, OCHA may, on a case-by-case basis, choose not to terminate the lease.

Revised 3/24/21
Threat to Other Residents [24 CFR 966.4(l)(5)(ii)(A)]

The lease must provide that any criminal activity by a covered person that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents (including OCHA management staff residing on the premises) or by persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises is grounds for termination of tenancy.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will terminate the lease when a covered person engages in any criminal activity that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents (including OCHA management staff residing on the premises) or by persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises.

Immediate vicinity means within a three-block radius of the premises.

OCHA will consider all credible evidence, including but not limited to, any record of arrests or convictions of covered persons related to the criminal activity.

A record of arrest(s) will not be used as the sole basis for the termination or proof that the participant engaged in disqualifying criminal activity.

In making its decision to terminate the lease, OCHA will consider alternatives as described in Section 13-III.D and other factors as described in Sections 13-III.E and 13-III.F. Upon consideration of such alternatives and factors, OCHA may, on a case-by-case basis, choose not to terminate the lease.

Alcohol Abuse [24 CFR 966.4(l)(5)(vi)(A)]

OCHA must establish standards that allow termination of tenancy if OCHA determines that a household member has engaged in abuse or pattern of abuse of alcohol that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will terminate the lease if OCHA determines that a household member has engaged in abuse or a pattern of abuse of alcohol that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents.

A pattern of such alcohol abuse means more than one incident of any such abuse of alcohol during the previous three months.

OCHA will consider all credible evidence, including but not limited to, any record of arrests or convictions of household members related to the abuse of alcohol.

A record of arrest(s) will not be used as the sole basis for the termination or proof that the participant engaged in disqualifying criminal activity.

In making its decision to terminate the lease, OCHA will consider alternatives as described in Section 13-III.D and other factors as described in Sections 13-III.E and 13-III.F. Upon consideration of such alternatives and factors, OCHA may, on a case-by-case basis, choose not to terminate the lease.
Furnishing False or Misleading Information Concerning Illegal Drug Use or Alcohol Abuse or Rehabilitation [24 CFR 966.4(l)(5)(vi)(B)]

OCHAs must establish standards that allow termination of tenancy if OCHA determines that a household member has furnished false or misleading information concerning illegal drug use, alcohol abuse, or rehabilitation of illegal drug users or alcohol abusers.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will terminate the lease if OCHA determines that a household member has furnished false or misleading information concerning illegal drug use, alcohol abuse, or rehabilitation of illegal drug users or alcohol abusers.

OCHA will consider all credible evidence, including but not limited to, any record of arrests or convictions of household members related to the use of illegal drugs or the abuse of alcohol, and any records or other documentation (or lack of records or documentation) supporting claims of rehabilitation of illegal drug users or alcohol abusers.

In making its decision to terminate the lease, OCHA will consider alternatives as described in Section 13-III.D and other factors as described in Sections 13-III.E and 13-III.F. Upon consideration of such alternatives and factors, OCHA may, on a case-by-case basis, choose not to terminate the lease.
Other Serious or Repeated Violations of Material Terms of the Lease – Mandatory LeaseProvisions [24 CFR 966.4(l)(2)(i) and 24 CFR 966.4(f)]

HUD regulations require certain tenant obligations to be incorporated into the lease. Violations of such regulatory obligations are considered to be serious or repeated violations of the lease and grounds for termination. Incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking may not be construed as serious or repeated violations of the lease by the victim or threatened victim [24 CFR 5.2005(c)(1)].

OCHA Policy

OCHA will terminate the lease for the following violations of tenant obligations under the lease:

Failure to make payments due under the lease, including nonpayment of rent (see Chapter 8 for details pertaining to lease requirements for payments due);

Repeated late payment of rent or other charges. Four late payments within a 12 month period shall constitute a repeated late payment.

Failure to fulfill the following household obligations:

Not to assign the lease or to sublease the dwelling unit. Subleasing includes receiving payment to cover rent and utility costs by a person living in the unit who is not listed as a family member.

Not to provide accommodations for boarders or lodgers.

To use the dwelling unit solely as a private dwelling for the tenant and the tenant’s household as identified in the lease, and not to use or permit its use for any other purpose.

To abide by necessary and reasonable regulations promulgated by OCHA for the benefit and well-being of the housing project and the tenants which shall be posted in the project office and incorporated by reference in the lease.

To comply with all obligations imposed upon tenants by applicable provisions of building and housing codes materially affecting health and safety.

To keep the dwelling unit and such other areas as may be assigned to the tenant for the tenant’s exclusive use in a clean and safe condition.

To dispose of all garbage, rubbish, and other waste from the dwelling unit in a sanitary and safe manner.

Revised 6/28/2023
To use only in a reasonable manner all electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilating, air-conditioning and other facilities and appurtenances including elevators

To refrain from, and to cause the household and guests to refrain from destroying, defacing, damaging, or removing any part of the dwelling unit or project

To pay reasonable charges (other than for normal wear and tear) for the repair of damages to the dwelling unit, or to the project (including damages to project buildings, facilities or common areas) caused by the tenant, a member of the household or a guest

To act, and cause household members or guests to act, in a manner which will not disturb other residents’ peaceful enjoyment of their accommodations and will be conducive to maintaining the project in a decent, safe and sanitary condition

To allow a banned person onto the property. Banned persons are defined as any person/persons who have been given notice by Security Personnel that their behavior on OCHA premises is unacceptable and they will not be allowed to return to OCHA property.

In making its decision to terminate the lease, OCHA will consider alternatives as described in Section 13-III.D and other factors as described in Sections 13-III.E and 13-III.F. Upon consideration of such alternatives and factors, OCHA may, on a case-by-case basis, choose not to terminate the lease.
13-III.C. OTHER AUTHORIZED REASONS FOR TERMINATION [24 CFR 966.4(l)(2) and (5)(ii)(B)]

HUD authorizes OCHA to terminate the lease for reasons other than those described in the previous sections. These reasons are referred to as “other good cause.”

Other Good Cause [24 CFR 966.4(l)(2)(ii)(B) and (C)]

HUD regulations state that OCHA may terminate tenancy for other good cause. The regulations provide a few examples of other good cause, but do not limit OCHA to only those examples. The Violence against Women Act prohibits PHAs from considering incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking as “other good cause” for terminating the assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights of the victim or threatened victim of such violence [see 24 CFR 5.2005(c)(1)].

OCHA Policy

OCHA will terminate the lease for the following reasons.

Fugitive Felon or Parole Violator. If a tenant is fleeing to avoid prosecution, or custody or confinement after conviction, for a crime, or attempt to commit a crime, that is a felony under the laws of the place from which the individual flees, or that, is a high misdemeanor; or violating a condition of probation or parole imposed under federal or state law.

Persons subject to sex offender registration requirement. If any member of the household has, during their current public housing tenancy, become subject to a registration requirement under a state sex offender registration program.

Discovery of facts after admission to the program that would have made the tenant ineligible.

Discovery of material false statements or fraud by the tenant in connection with an application for assistance or with a reexamination of income.

Failure to furnish such information and certifications regarding family composition and income as may be necessary for OCHA to make determinations with respect to rent, eligibility, and the appropriateness of the dwelling unit size.

Failure to transfer to an appropriate size dwelling unit based on family composition, upon appropriate notice by OCHA that such a dwelling unit is available.

Failure to permit access to the unit by OCHA after proper advance notification for the purpose of performing routine inspections and maintenance, for making improvements or repairs, or to show the dwelling unit for re-leasing, or without advance notice if there is reasonable cause to believe that an emergency exists.

Failure to promptly inform OCHA of the birth, adoption or court-awarded custody of a child. In such a case, promptly means within 10 business days of the event.

Failure to abide by the provisions of OCHA pet policy.

If the family has breached the terms of a repayment agreement entered into with OCHA.

Revised 6/28/2023
If a family member has violated federal, state, or local law that imposes obligations in connection with the occupancy or use of the premises.

If a household member has engaged in or threatened violent or abusive behavior toward OCHA personnel.

Abusive or violent behavior towards OCHA personnel includes verbal as well as physical abuse or violence. Use of racial epithets, or other language, written or oral, that is customarily used to intimidate may be considered abusive or violent behavior.

Threatening refers to oral or written threats or physical gestures that communicate intent to abuse or commit violence.

In making its decision to terminate the lease, OCHA will consider alternatives as described in Section 13-III.D and other factors described in Sections 13-III.E and 13-III.F. Upon consideration of such alternatives and factors, OCHA may, on a case-by-case basis, choose not to terminate the lease.

Family Absence from Unit [24 CFR 982.551(i)]

It is reasonable that the family may be absent from the public housing unit for brief periods. However, OCHA needs a policy on how long the family may be absent from the unit. Absence in this context means that no member of the family is residing in the unit.

OCHA Policy

The family must supply any information or certification requested by OCHA to verify that the family is living in the unit, or relating to family absence from the unit, including any OCHA-requested information or certification on the purposes of family absences. The family must cooperate with OCHA for this purpose.

The family must promptly notify OCHA when all family members will be absent from the unit for an extended period. An extended period is defined as any period greater than 30 calendar days. In such a case promptly means within 10 business days of the start of the extended absence.

If a family is absent from the public housing unit for more than 180 consecutive days, and the family does not adequately verify that they are living in the unit, OCHA will terminate the lease for other good cause.

Abandonment of the unit. If the family appears to have vacated the unit without giving proper notice, OCHA will follow state and local landlord-tenant law pertaining to abandonment before taking possession of the unit. If necessary, OCHA will secure the unit immediately to prevent vandalism and other criminal activity.
13-III.D. ALTERNATIVES TO TERMINATION OF TENANCY

Exclusion of Culpable Household Member [24 CFR 966.4(l)(5)(vii)(C)]

As an alternative to termination of the lease for criminal activity or alcohol abuse HUD provides that OCHA may consider exclusion of the culpable household member. Such an alternative can be used for any other reason where such a solution appears viable in accordance with OCHA policy.

Additionally, under the Violence against Women Act, the PHA may bifurcate a lease in order to terminate the tenancy of an individual who is a tenant or lawful occupant of a unit and engages in criminal activity directly related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will consider requiring the tenant to exclude a household member in order to continue to reside in the assisted unit, where that household member has participated in or been culpable for action or failure to act that warrants termination.

As a condition of the family’s continued occupancy, the head of household must certify that the culpable household member has vacated the unit and will not be permitted to visit or to stay as a guest in the assisted unit. The family must present evidence of the former household member’s current address upon OCHA request.

Repayment of Family Debts

OCHA Policy

If a family owes amounts to OCHA, as a condition of continued occupancy, OCHA will require the family to repay the full amount or to enter into a repayment agreement, within 30 days of receiving notice from OCHA of the amount owed. See Chapter 16 for policies on repayment agreements.
13-III.E. CRITERIA FOR DECIDING TO TERMINATE TENANCY

OCHA has grounds to terminate a tenancy is not required to do so, except as explained in Part II of this chapter, and may consider all of the circumstances relevant to a particular case before making a decision.

Evidence [24 CFR 982.553(c)]

For criminal activity, HUD permits OCHA to terminate the lease if a preponderance of the evidence indicates that a household member has engaged in the activity, regardless of whether the household member has been arrested or convicted, and without satisfying the standard of proof used for a criminal conviction.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will use the preponderance of the evidence as the standard for making all termination decisions.

Preponderance of the evidence is defined as evidence which is of greater weight or more convincing than the evidence which is offered in opposition to it; that is, evidence which as a whole shows that the fact sought to be proved is more probable than not. Preponderance of the evidence may not be determined by the number of witnesses, but by the greater weight of all evidence.
Consideration of Circumstances [24 CFR 966.4(l)(5)(vii)(B)]

Although it is required that certain lease provisions exist for criminal activity and alcohol abuse, HUD provides that OCHA may consider all circumstances relevant to a particular case in order to determine whether or not to terminate the lease.

Such relevant circumstances can also be considered when terminating the lease for any other reason.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will consider the following facts and circumstances before deciding whether to terminate the lease for any of the HUD required lease provisions or for any other reasons:

- The seriousness of the offending action, especially with respect to how it would affect other residents’ safety or property
- The extent of participation or culpability of the leaseholder, or other household members, in the offending action, including whether the culpable member is a minor, a person with disabilities, or (as discussed further in section 13-III.F) a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking
- The effects that the eviction will have on other family members who were not involved in the action or failure to act
- The effect on the community of the termination, or of OCHA’s failure to terminate the tenancy
- The effect of OCHA’s decision on the integrity of the public housing program
- The demand for housing by eligible families who will adhere to lease responsibilities
- The extent to which the leaseholder has shown personal responsibility and whether they have taken all reasonable steps to prevent or mitigate the offending action
- The length of time since the violation occurred, including the age of the individual at the time of the conduct, as well as the family’s recent history, and the likelihood of favorable conduct in the future

While a record of arrest(s) will not be used as the sole basis for termination, an arrest may, however, trigger an investigation to determine whether the participant actually engaged in disqualifying criminal activity. As part of its investigation, OCHA may obtain the police report associated with the arrest and consider the reported circumstances of the arrest. OCHA may also consider:

- Any statements made by witnesses or the participant not included in the police report
- Whether criminal charges were filed
- Whether, if filed, criminal charges were abandoned, dismissed, not prosecuted, or ultimately resulted in an acquittal
Any other evidence relevant to determining whether or not the participant engaged in disqualifying activity

Evidence of criminal conduct will be considered if it indicates a demonstrable risk to safety and/or property.

In the case of program abuse, the dollar amount of the underpaid rent and whether or not a false certification was signed by the family

Consideration of Rehabilitation [24 CFR 966.4(l)(5)(vii)(D)]

HUD authorizes OCHA to take into consideration whether a household member who had used illegal drugs or abused alcohol and is no longer engaging in such use or abuse is participating in or has successfully completed a supervised drug or alcohol rehabilitation program.

OCHA Policy

In determining whether to terminate the lease for illegal drug use or a pattern of illegal drug use, or for abuse or a pattern of abuse of alcohol, by a household member who is no longer engaging in such use or abuse, OCHA will consider whether such household member has successfully completed a supervised drug or alcohol rehabilitation program.

For this purpose OCHA will require the tenant to submit evidence of the household member’s successful completion of a supervised drug or alcohol rehabilitation program.

Reasonable Accommodation [24 CFR 966.7]

If the family includes a person with disabilities, OCHA’s decision to terminate the family’s lease is subject to consideration of reasonable accommodation in accordance with 24 CFR Part 8.

OCHA Policy

If a family indicates that the behavior of a family member with a disability is the reason for a proposed termination of lease, OCHA will determine whether the behavior is related to the disability. If so, upon the family’s request, OCHA will determine whether alternative measures are appropriate as a reasonable accommodation. OCHA will only consider accommodations that can reasonably be expected to address the behavior that is the basis of the proposed lease termination. See Chapter 2 for a discussion of reasonable accommodation.

Nondiscrimination Limitation [24 CFR 966.4(l)(5)(vii)(F)]

OCHA’s eviction actions must be consistent with fair housing and equal opportunity provisions of 24 CFR 5.105.
13-III.F. TERMINATIONS RELATED TO DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, DATING VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, STALKING, OR HUMAN TRAFFICKING

This section addresses the protections against termination of tenancy that the Violence against Women Act (VAWA) provides for public housing residents who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking. For general VAWA requirements and PHA policies pertaining to notification, documentation, and confidentiality, see section 16-VII of this ACOP, where definitions of key VAWA terms are also located.

VAWA Protections against Termination [24 CFR 5.2005(c)]

VAWA provides that no person may deny assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights to public housing to a tenant on the basis or as a direct result of criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking that is engaged in by a member of the household of the tenant or any guest or other person under the control of the tenant, if the tenant or affiliated individual is the victim or threatened victim of such domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking [FR Notice 8/6/13].

VAWA further provides that incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking may not be construed either as serious or repeated violations of the lease by the victim or threatened victim of such violence or as good cause for terminating the tenancy or occupancy rights of the victim of such violence [24 CFR 5.2005(c)(1), FR Notice 8/6/13].

Although the VAWA 2022 statute does not specifically include human trafficking in the list of victims protected under VAWA, in 2022 HUD began including human trafficking as part of the list of victims protected under VAWA (as seen in Notices PIH 2022-06, PIH 2022-22, and PIH 2022-24). In the absence of a final rule implementing VAWA 2022 and to mirror HUD’s recent usage, this policy includes human trafficking in addition to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking anywhere such a list appears.

OCHA may not coerce, intimidate, threaten, interfere with, or retaliate against any person who exercises or assists or encourages a person to exercise any rights or protections under VAWA [FR Notice 1/4/23].

Limits on VAWA Protections [24 CFR 5.2005(d) and (e), FR Notice 8/6/13]

While VAWA prohibits OCHA from using domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking as the cause for a termination or eviction action against a public housing tenant who is the victim of the abuse, the protections it provides are not absolute. Specifically:

- VAWA does not limit OCHA’s otherwise available authority to terminate assistance to or evict a victim for lease violations not premised on an act of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking providing that OCHA does not subject the victim to a more demanding standard than the standard to which it holds other tenants.

Revised 6/28/2023
VAWA does not limit OCHA’s authority to terminate the tenancy of any public housing tenant if OCHA can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property if that tenant’s tenancy is not terminated.

HUD regulations define actual and imminent threat to mean words, gestures, actions, or other indicators of a physical threat that (a) is real, (b) would occur within an immediate time frame, and (c) could result in death or serious bodily harm [24 CFR 5.2005(d)(2) and (e)]. In determining whether an individual would pose an actual and imminent threat, the factors to be considered include:

- The duration of the risk
- The nature and severity of the potential harm
- The likelihood that the potential harm will occur
- The length of time before the potential harm would occur [24 CFR 5.2005(e)]

In order to demonstrate an actual and imminent threat, the PHA must have objective evidence of words, gestures, actions, or other indicators. Even when a victim poses an actual and imminent threat, however, HUD regulations authorize OCHA to terminate the victim’s assistance “only when there are no other actions that could be taken to reduce or eliminate the threat, including but not limited to transferring the victim to a different unit, barring the perpetrator from the property, contacting law enforcement to increase police presence or develop other plans to keep the property safe, or seeking other legal remedies to prevent the perpetrator from acting on a threat” [24 CFR 5.2005(d)(3)]. Additionally, HUD regulations state that restrictions “predicated on public safety cannot be based on stereotypes, but must be tailored to particularized concerns about individual residents” [24 CFR 5.2005(d)(3)].

OCHA Policy

In determining whether a public housing tenant who is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking is an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to a property, OCHA will consider the following, and any other relevant, factors:

- Whether the threat is toward an employee or tenant other than the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking
- Whether the threat is a physical danger beyond a speculative threat
- Whether the threat is likely to happen within an immediate time frame
- Whether the threat to other tenants or employees can be eliminated in some other way, such as by helping the victim relocate to a confidential location, transferring the victim to another unit, or seeking a legal remedy to prevent the perpetrator from acting on the threat

If the tenant wishes to contest OCHA’s determination that they are an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or employees, the tenant may do so as part of the grievance hearing or in a court proceeding.
Documentation of Abuse [24 CFR 5.2007]

OCHA Policy

When an individual facing termination of tenancy for reasons related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking claims protection under VAWA, OCHA will request in writing that the individual provide documentation supporting the claim in accordance with the policies in section 16-VII.D of this ACOP.

OCHA reserves the right to waive the documentation requirement if it determines that a statement or other corroborating evidence from the individual will suffice. In such cases OCHA will document the waiver in the individual’s file.

Terminating or Evicting a Perpetrator of Domestic Violence

Although VAWA provides protection from termination for victims of domestic violence, it does not provide such protection for perpetrators. In fact, VAWA gives OCHA the explicit authority to bifurcate a lease, or remove a household member from a lease, “in order to evict, remove, or terminate assistance to any individual who is a tenant or lawful occupant of the housing and who engages in criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against an affiliated individual or other individual, without evicting, removing, terminating assistance to, or otherwise penalizing a victim of such criminal activity who is also a tenant or lawful occupant of the housing” [FR Notice 8/6/13]. Moreover, HUD regulations impose on OCHA the obligation to consider lease bifurcation in any circumstances involving domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or human trafficking [24 CFR 966.4(e)(9)].

Specific lease language affirming OCHA’s authority to bifurcate a lease is not necessary, and the authority supersedes any local, state, or federal law to the contrary. However, if OCHA chooses to exercise its authority to bifurcate a lease, it must follow any procedures prescribed by HUD or by applicable local, state, or federal law for eviction, lease termination, or termination of assistance. This means that OCHA must follow the same rules when terminating or evicting an individual as it would when terminating or evicting an entire family [FR Notice 3/16/07]. However, perpetrators should be given no more than 30 days’ notice of termination in most cases [Notice PIH 2017-08].

OCHA Policy

OCHA will bifurcate a family’s lease and terminate the tenancy of a family member if OCHA determines that the family member has committed criminal acts of physical violence against other family members or others. This action will not affect the tenancy or program assistance of the remaining, nonculpable family members.

In making its decision, OCHA will consider all credible evidence, including, but not limited to, a signed certification (form HUD-5382) or other documentation of abuse submitted to OCHA by the victim in accordance with this section and section 16-VII.D. OCHA will also consider the factors in section 13.III.E. Upon such consideration, OCHA may, on a case-by-case basis, choose not to bifurcate the lease and terminate the tenancy of the culpable family member.

If OCHA does bifurcate the lease and terminate the tenancy of the culpable family member, it will do so in accordance with the lease, applicable law, and the policies in this ACOP. If the person removed from the lease was the only tenant eligible to receive assistance, OCHA must provide any remaining tenant a chance to establish eligibility for the unit. If the remaining tenant cannot do so, OCHA must provide the tenant reasonable time to find new housing or to establish eligibility for another housing program covered under VAWA.

PART IV: NOTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS, EVICTION PROCEDURES AND RECORD KEEPING

13-IV.A. OVERVIEW

HUD regulations specify the requirements for the notice that must be provided prior to lease termination. This part discusses those requirements and the specific requirements that precede and follow termination for certain criminal activities which are addressed in the regulations. This part also discusses specific requirements pertaining to the actual eviction of families and record keeping.

13-IV.B. CONDUCTING CRIMINAL RECORDS CHECKS [24 CFR 5.903(e)(ii) and 24 CFR 960.259]

HUD authorizes OCHA to conduct criminal records checks on public housing residents for lease enforcement and eviction. OCHA policy determines when OCHA will conduct such checks.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will conduct criminal records checks when it has come to the attention of OCHA and at annual reexamination, either from local law enforcement or by other means, that an individual has engaged in the destruction of property, engaged in violent activity against another person, or has interfered with the right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises of other residents. Such checks will also include sex offender registration information. In order to obtain such information, all adult household members must sign consent forms for release of criminal conviction and sex offender registration records on an annual basis.

OCHA may not pass along to the tenant the costs of a criminal records check.

13-IV.C. DISCLOSURE OF CRIMINAL RECORDS TO FAMILY [24 CFR 5.903(f), 24 CFR 5.905(d) and 24 CFR 966.4(l)(5)(iv)]

In conducting criminal records checks, if OCHA uses the authority of 24 CFR 5.903 and 5.905 to obtain such information, certain protections must be afforded the tenant before any adverse action is taken. In such cases, if OCHA obtains criminal records information from a state or local agency showing that a household member has been convicted of a crime, or is subject to a sex offender registration requirement, relevant to lease enforcement or eviction, OCHA must notify the household of the proposed action and must provide the subject of the record and the tenant a copy of such information, and an opportunity to dispute the accuracy and relevance of the information before an eviction or lease enforcement action is taken.
OCHA Policy

In all cases where criminal record or sex offender registration information would result in lease enforcement or eviction, OCHA will notify the household in writing of the proposed adverse action and will provide the subject of the record and the tenant a copy of such information, and an opportunity to dispute the accuracy and relevance of the information before an eviction or lease enforcement action is taken.

The family will be given 10 business days from the date of OCHA notice, to dispute the accuracy and relevance of the information. If the family does not contact OCHA to dispute the information within that 10 business day period, OCHA will proceed with the termination action.

Should the tenant not exercise their right to dispute prior to any adverse action, the tenant still has the right to dispute in the grievance hearing or court trial.

Form, Delivery, and Content of the Notice

Notices of lease termination must be in writing. The notice must state the specific grounds for termination, the date the termination will take place, the resident’s right to reply to the termination notice, and their right to examine OCHA documents directly relevant to the termination or eviction. If OCHA does not make the documents available for examination upon request by the tenant, OCHA may not proceed with the eviction [24 CFR 996.4(m)].

Further, during the period of time for which HUD determines that a national emergency requires additional time for families to secure funding, all termination notifications for nonpayment of rent must include, at a minimum, the language provided in the Appendix of Notice PIH 2021-29.

When OCHA is required to offer the resident an opportunity for a grievance hearing, the notice must also inform the resident of their right to request a hearing in accordance with OCHA’s grievance procedure. In these cases, the tenancy shall not terminate until the time for the tenant to request a grievance hearing has expired and the grievance procedure has been completed.

When OCHA is not required to offer the resident an opportunity for a grievance hearing because HUD has made a due process determination and the lease termination is for criminal activity that threatens health, safety or right to peaceful enjoyment or for drug-related criminal activity, the notice of lease termination must state that the tenant is not entitled to a grievance hearing on the termination. It must specify the judicial eviction procedure to be used by OCHA for eviction of the tenant, and state that HUD has determined that the eviction procedure provides the opportunity for a hearing in court that contains the basic elements of due process as defined in HUD regulations. The notice must also state whether the eviction is for a criminal activity that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises of other residents or employees of OCHA, or for a drug-related criminal activity on or off the premises.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will attempt to deliver notices of lease termination directly to the tenant or an adult member of the household. If such attempt fails, the notice will be sent by first-class mail the same day.
All notices of lease termination will include information about the protection against termination provided by the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA) for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking (see section 16-VII.C). OCHA will also include a copy of the form HUD-5382 and a notice of VAWA rights to accompany the termination notice. Any tenant who claims that the cause for termination involves domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking of which the tenant or affiliated individual of the tenant is the victim will be given the opportunity to provide documentation in accordance with the policies in sections 13-III.F and 16-VIL.D.
Timing of the Notice [24 CFR 966.4(l)(3)(i) ; 24 CFR 966.8; Notice PIH 2021-29]

OCHA must give written notice of lease termination of:

- During the period of time for which HUD determines that a national emergency requires additional time for families to secure federal funding that is available due to a Presidential declaration of a national emergency, at least 30 days from the date the tenant receives the notice in the case of failure to pay rent
- When such emergency is not present, 14 calendar days in the case of failure to pay rent
- A reasonable period of time considering the seriousness of the situation (but not to exceed 30 calendar days)
  - If the health or safety of other residents, OCHA employees, or persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises is threatened
  - If any member of the household has engaged in any drug-related criminal activity or violent criminal activity
  - If any member of the household has been convicted of a violent felony
- 30 calendar days in any other case, except that if a state or local law allows a shorter notice period, such shorter period shall apply

OCHA Policy

The PHA will give written notice of 30 calendar days from the date the tenant receives the notice for nonpayment of rent (during nationwide emergency orders) or 14 calendar days from the date the tenant receives the notice for nonpayment of rent (upon expiration of nationwide emergency orders). For all other lease terminations, the PHA will give 30 days written notice or, if state or local law allows less than 30 days, such shorter notice will be given.

In cases pertaining to criminal activity, drug activity, juvenile delinquent activity, acts of violence, where the health or safety of other residents, OCHA employees, or persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises is threatened, the lease may terminate immediately upon a 48 hour written notice.

The Notice to Vacate that may be required under state or local law may be combined with or run concurrently with the notice of lease termination.

OCHA Policy

Any Notice to Vacate or Notice to Quit that is required by state or local law will be combined with the Notice of Lease Termination under this section.

Notice of Nonrenewal Due to Community Service Noncompliance [24 CFR 966.4(l)(2)(ii)(D), 24 CFR 960.603(b) and 24 CFR 960.607(b)]

When OCHA finds that a family is in noncompliance with the community service requirement, the tenant and any other noncompliant resident must be notified in writing of this determination. Notices of noncompliance will be issued in accordance with the requirements and policies in Section 11-I.E.
OCHA Policy

If after receiving a notice of initial noncompliance the family does not request a grievance hearing, or does not take either corrective action required by the notice within the required timeframe, a termination notice will be issued in accordance with the policies above.

If a family agreed to cure initial noncompliance by signing an agreement, and is still in noncompliance after being provided the 12-month opportunity to cure, the family will be issued a notice of continued noncompliance. The notice of continued noncompliance will be sent in accordance with the policies in Section 11-I.E. and will also serve as the notice of termination of tenancy.

Notice of Termination Based on Citizenship Status [24 CFR 5.514 (c) and (d)]

In cases where termination of tenancy is based on citizenship status, HUD requires the notice of termination to contain additional information. In addition to advising the family of the reasons their assistance is being terminated, the notice must also advise the family of any of the following that apply: the family’s eligibility for proration of assistance, the criteria and procedures for obtaining relief under the provisions for preservation of families, the family’s right to request an appeal to the USCIS of the results of secondary verification of immigration status and to submit additional documentation or a written explanation in support of the appeal, and the family’s right to request an informal hearing with OCHA either upon completion of the USCIS appeal or in lieu of the USCIS appeal. Please see Chapter 14 for OCHA’s informal hearing procedures.

13-IV.E. EVICTION [24 CFR 966.4(l)(4) and 966.4(m)]

Eviction notice means a notice to vacate, or a complaint or other initial pleading used under state or local law to commence an eviction action. OCHA may only evict the tenant from the unit by instituting a court action, unless the law of the jurisdiction permits eviction by administrative action, after a due process administrative hearing, and without a court determination of the rights and liabilities of the parties.

OCHA Policy

When a family does not vacate the unit after receipt of a termination notice, by the deadline given in the notice, OCHA will follow state and local landlord-tenant law in filing an eviction action with the local court that has jurisdiction in such cases.

If the eviction action is finalized in court and the family remains in occupancy beyond the deadline to vacate given by the court, OCHA will seek the assistance of the court to remove the family from the premises as per state and local law.

OCHA may not proceed with an eviction action if OCHA has not made available the documents to be used in the case against the family, and has not afforded the family the opportunity to examine and copy such documents in accordance with the provisions of 24 CFR 966.4(l)(3) and (m).
13-IV.F. NOTIFICATION TO POST OFFICE [24CFR 966.4(l)(5)(iii)(B)]

When OCHA evicts an individual or family for criminal activity, including drug-related criminal activity, OCHA must notify the local post office serving the dwelling unit that the individual or family is no longer residing in the unit.

13-IV.G. RECORD KEEPING

For more information concerning general record keeping, see Chapter 16.

OCHA Policy

A written record of every termination and/or eviction will be maintained by OCHA at the development where the family was residing, and will contain the following information:

- Name of resident, number and identification of unit occupied
- Date of the notice of lease termination and any other notices required by state or local law; these notices may be on the same form and will run concurrently
- Specific reason(s) for the notices, citing the lease section or provision that was violated, and other facts pertinent to the issuing of the notices described in detail (other than any criminal history reports obtained solely through the authorization provided in 24 CFR 5.903 and 5.905)
- Date and method of notifying the resident
- Summaries of any conferences held with the resident including dates, names of conference participants, and conclusions
Chapter 14

GRIEVANCES AND APPEALS

INTRODUCTION
This chapter discusses grievances and appeals pertaining to OCHA actions or failures to act that adversely affect public housing applicants or residents. The policies are discussed in the following three parts:

Part I: Informal Hearings for Public Housing Applicants. This part outlines the requirements and procedures for informal hearings for public housing applicants.

Part II: Informal Hearings with Regard to Noncitizens. This part discusses informal hearings regarding citizenship status and where they differ from the requirements for general applicant and tenant grievances.

Part III: Grievance Procedures for Public Housing Residents. This part outlines the requirements and procedures for handling grievances for public housing residents.

Note that this chapter is not OCHA’s grievance procedure. The grievance procedure is a document separate from the ACOP. This chapter of the ACOP provides the policies that drive the grievance procedure. OCHA’s grievance procedure is provided as Exhibit 14-1.

Remote Informal Hearings

OCHA Policy
OCHA policies and processes for remote informal hearings will be conducted in accordance with due process requirements and compliance with HUD regulations.

OCHA has the sole discretion to require that informal hearings be conducted remotely in case of local, state, or national physical distancing orders, and in cases of inclement weather or natural disaster.

In addition, OCHA will conduct an informal hearing remotely upon request of the applicant as a reasonable accommodation for a person with a disability, if an applicant does not have child care or transportation that would enable them to attend the informal hearing, or if the applicant believes an in-person informal hearing would create an undue health risk. OCHA will consider other reasonable requests for a remote informal hearing on a case-by-case basis.

Conducting Remote Informal Hearings

OCHA must ensure that the applicant has the right to hear and be heard.

OCHA Policy
OCHA will conduct remote informal hearings via telephone conferencing call-in or via videoconferencing. If the informal hearing will be conducted via videoconferencing, OCHA will ensure that all applicants, applicant representatives, OCHA representatives, and the person conducting the informal hearing can adequately access the platform (i.e., hear, be heard, see, and be seen).

If any applicant, applicant representative, OCHA representative, or person conducting the informal hearing is unable to effectively utilize the videoconferencing platform, the informal hearing will be conducted by telephone conferencing call-in. Witness testimony may be accepted via telephone call-in.

Whether the informal hearing is to be conducted via videoconferencing or telephone call-in, OCHA will provide all parties login information and/or conferencing call-in information before the informal hearing.

PART I: INFORMAL HEARINGS FOR PUBLIC HOUSING APPLICANTS

14-I.A. OVERVIEW

When OCHA makes a decision that has a negative impact on an applicant family, the family is often entitled to appeal the decision. For applicants, the appeal takes the form of an informal hearing. HUD regulations do not provide a structure for or requirements regarding informal hearings for applicants (except with regard to citizenship status, to be covered in Part II). This part discusses OCHA policies necessary to respond to applicant appeals through the informal hearing process.

14-I.B. INFORMAL HEARING PROCESS [24 CFR 960.208(a) and PH Occ GB, p. 58]

Informal hearings are provided for public housing applicants. An applicant is someone who has applied for admission to the public housing program, but is not yet a tenant in the program.
Informal hearings are intended to provide a means for an applicant to dispute a determination of ineligibility for admission to a project [24 CFR 960.208(a)]. Applicants to public housing are not entitled to the same hearing process afforded tenants under OCHA grievance procedures [24 CFR 966.53(a) and PH Occ GB, p. 58].

Informal hearings provide applicants the opportunity to review the reasons for denial of admission and to present evidence to refute the grounds for denial.

Use of Informal Hearing Process

While OCHA must offer the opportunity of an informal hearing to applicants who have been determined as ineligible for admission, OCHA could make the informal hearing process available to applicants who wish to dispute other OCHA actions that adversely affect them.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will only offer informal hearings to applicants for the purpose of disputing denials of admission.

Notice of Denial [24 CFR 960.208(a)]

OCHA must give an applicant prompt notice of a decision denying eligibility for admission. The notice must contain a brief statement of the reasons for OCHA’s decision, and must also state that the applicant may request an informal hearing to dispute the decision. The notice must describe how to obtain the informal hearing.
When denying eligibility for admission, OCHA must provide the family a notice of VAWA rights as well as the HUD VAWA self-certification form (form HUD-5382) in accordance with the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act, and as outlined in 16-VII.C. The notice and self-certification form must accompany the written notification of the denial of eligibility determination.

Prior to notification of denial based on information obtained from criminal or sex offender registration records, the family, in some cases, must be given the opportunity to dispute the information in those records which would be the basis of the denial. See Section 3-III.G for details concerning this requirement.
Scheduling an Informal Hearing

OCHA Policy

A request for an informal hearing must be made in writing and delivered to OCHA either in person or by first class mail, by the close of the business day, no later than 10 business days from the date of OCHA’s notification of denial of admission.

OCHA will schedule and send written notice of the informal hearing within 10 business days of the family’s request.

Conducting an Informal Hearing [PH Occ GB, p. 58]

OCHA Policy

The informal hearing will be conducted by a person other than the one who made or approved the decision under review, or a subordinate of this person.

The applicant will be provided an opportunity to present written or oral objections to the decision of OCHA.

The person conducting the informal hearing will make a recommendation to OCHA, but OCHA is responsible for making the final decision as to whether admission should be granted or denied.
Informal Hearing Decision [PH Occ GB, p. 58]

OCHA Policy

OCHA will notify the applicant of OCHA’s final decision, including a brief statement of the reasons for the final decision.

In rendering a decision, OCHA will evaluate the following matters:

Whether or not the grounds for denial were stated factually in the notice

The validity of grounds for denial of admission. If the grounds for denial are not specified in the regulations or in OCHA policy, then the decision to deny assistance will be overturned. See Chapter 3 for a detailed discussion of the grounds for applicant denial.

The validity of the evidence. OCHA will evaluate whether the facts presented prove the grounds for denial of admission. If the facts prove that there are grounds for denial, and the denial is required by HUD, OCHA will uphold the decision to deny admission.

If the facts prove the grounds for denial, and the denial is discretionary, OCHA will consider the recommendation of the person conducting the informal hearing in making the final decision whether to deny admission.

OCHA will notify the applicant of the final decision, including a statement explaining the reason(s) for the decision. The notice will be mailed, with return receipt requested, within 10 business days of the informal hearing, to the applicant and his or her representative, if any.

If the informal hearing decision overturns the denial, processing for admission will resume.

If the family fails to appear for their informal hearing, the denial of admission will stand and the family will be so notified.

Reasonable Accommodation for Persons with Disabilities [24 CFR 966.7]

Persons with disabilities may request reasonable accommodations to participate in the informal hearing process and OCHA must consider such accommodations. OCHA must also consider reasonable accommodation requests pertaining to the reasons for denial if related to the person’s disability. See Chapter 2 for more detail pertaining to reasonable accommodation requests.
PART II: INFORMAL HEARINGS WITH REGARD TO NONCITIZENS

14-II.A. HEARING AND APPEAL PROVISIONS FOR NONCITIZENS [24 CFR 5.514]

Denial or termination of assistance based on immigration status is subject to special hearing and notice rules. These special hearings are referred to in the regulations as informal hearings, but the requirements for such hearings are different from the informal hearings used to deny applicants for reasons other than immigration status.

Assistance to a family may not be delayed, denied, or terminated on the basis of immigration status at any time prior to a decision under the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) appeal process. Assistance to a family may not be terminated or denied while OCHA hearing is pending, but assistance to an applicant may be delayed pending the completion of the informal hearing.

A decision against a family member, issued in accordance with the USCIS appeal process or OCHA informal hearing process, does not preclude the family from exercising the right, that may otherwise be available, to seek redress directly through judicial procedures.

Notice of Denial or Termination of Assistance [24 CFR 5.514(d)]

As discussed in Chapters 3 and 13, the notice of denial or termination of assistance for noncitizens must advise the family of any of the following that apply:

- That financial assistance will be denied or terminated, and provide a brief explanation of the reasons for the proposed denial or termination of assistance.
- The family may be eligible for proration of assistance.
- In the case of a tenant, the criteria and procedures for obtaining relief under the provisions for preservation of families [24 CFR 5.514 and 5.518].
- That the family has a right to request an appeal to the USCIS of the results of secondary verification of immigration status and to submit additional documentation or explanation in support of the appeal.
- That the family has a right to request an informal hearing with OCHA either upon completion of the USCIS appeal or in lieu of the USCIS appeal.
- For applicants, assistance may not be delayed until the conclusion of the USCIS appeal process, but assistance may be delayed during the period of the informal hearing process.
United States Citizenship and Immigration Services Appeal Process [24 CFR 5.514(e)]

When OCHA receives notification that the USCIS secondary verification failed to confirm eligible immigration status, OCHA must notify the family of the results of the USCIS verification. The family will have 30 days from the date of the notification to request an appeal of the USCIS results. The request for appeal must be made by the family in writing directly to the USCIS. The family must provide OCHA with a copy of the written request for appeal and proof of mailing.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will notify the family in writing of the results of the USCIS secondary verification within 10 business days of receiving the results.

The family must provide OCHA with a copy of the written request for appeal and proof of mailing within 10 business days of sending the request to the USCIS.

The family must forward to the designated USCIS office any additional documentation or written explanation in support of the appeal. This material must include a copy of the USCIS document verification request (used to process the secondary request) or such other form specified by the USCIS, and a letter indicating that the family is requesting an appeal of the USCIS immigration status verification results.

The USCIS will notify the family, with a copy to OCHA, of its decision. When the USCIS notifies OCHA of the decision, OCHA must notify the family of its right to request an informal hearing.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will send written notice to the family of its right to request an informal hearing within 10 business days of receiving notice of the USCIS decision regarding the family’s immigration status.
Informal Hearing Procedures for Applicants [24 CFR 5.514(f)]

After notification of the USCIS decision on appeal, or in lieu of an appeal to the USCIS, an applicant family may request that OCHA provide a hearing. The request for a hearing must be made either within 30 days of receipt of OCHA notice of denial, or within 30 days of receipt of the USCIS appeal decision.

The informal hearing procedures for applicant families are described below.

Informal Hearing Officer

OCHA must provide an informal hearing before an impartial individual, other than a person who made or approved the decision under review, and other than a person who is a subordinate of the person who made or approved the decision.

Evidence

The family must be provided the opportunity to examine and copy at the family’s expense, at a reasonable time in advance of the hearing, any documents in the possession of OCHA pertaining to the family’s eligibility status, or in the possession of the USCIS (as permitted by USCIS requirements), including any records and regulations that may be relevant to the hearing.

OCHA Policy

The family will be allowed to copy any documents related to the hearing at a cost of $.25 per page. The family must request discovery of OCHA documents no later than 12:00 p.m. on the business day prior to the hearing.

The family must be provided the opportunity to present evidence and arguments in support of eligible status. Evidence may be considered without regard to admissibility under the rules of evidence applicable to judicial proceedings.

The family must also be provided the opportunity to refute evidence relied upon by OCHA, and to confront and cross-examine all witnesses on whose testimony or information OCHA relies.

Representation and Interpretive Services

The family is entitled to be represented by an attorney or other designee, at the family’s expense, and to have such person make statements on the family’s behalf.

The family is entitled to request an interpreter. OCHA is obligated to provide a competent interpreter, free of charge, upon request. The family may also or instead provide its own interpreter, at the expense of the family.

Recording of the Hearing

The family is entitled to have the hearing recorded by audiotape. OCHA may, but is not required to provide a transcript of the hearing.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will not provide a transcript of an audio taped informal hearing.
Hearing Decision

OCHA must provide the family with a written notice of the final decision, based solely on the facts presented at the hearing, within 14 calendar days of the date of the informal hearing. The notice must state the basis for the decision.

Retention of Documents [24 CFR 5.514(h)]

OCHA must retain for a minimum of 5 years the following documents that may have been submitted to OCHA by the family, or provided to OCHA as part of the USCIS appeal or OCHA informal hearing process:

- The application for assistance
- The form completed by the family for income reexamination
- Photocopies of any original documents, including original USCIS documents
- The signed verification consent form
- The USCIS verification results
- The request for a USCIS appeal
- The final USCIS determination
- The request for an informal hearing
- The final informal hearing decision

Informal Hearing Procedures for Residents [24 CFR 5.514(f)]

After notification of the USCIS decision on appeal, or in lieu of an appeal to the USCIS, a resident family may request that OCHA provide a hearing. The request for a hearing must be made either within 30 days of receipt of OCHA notice of termination, or within 30 days of receipt of the USCIS appeal decision.

The informal hearing procedures for resident families whose tenancy is being terminated based on immigration status is the same as for any grievance under the grievance procedures for resident families found in Part III below.
PART III: GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES FOR PUBLIC HOUSING RESIDENTS

14-III.A. REQUIREMENTS [24 CFR 966.52]

OCHA must have a grievance procedure in place through which residents of public housing are provided an opportunity to grieve any OCHA action or failure to act involving the lease or OCHA policies which adversely affect their rights, duties, welfare, or status. OCHA must not only meet the minimal procedural due process requirements provided under the regulations, but must also meet any additional requirements imposed by local, state or federal law.

OCHA grievance procedure must be included in, or incorporated by reference in, the lease.

OCHA Policy

OCHA grievance procedure will be incorporated by reference in the tenant lease.

OCHA must provide at least 30 days notice to tenants and resident organizations setting forth proposed changes in OCHA grievance procedure, and provide an opportunity to present written comments. Comments submitted must be considered by OCHA before adoption of any changes to the grievance procedure by OCHA.

OCHA Policy

Residents and resident organizations will have 30 calendar days from the date they are notified by OCHA of any proposed changes in OCHA grievance procedure, to submit written comments to OCHA.

OCHA must furnish a copy of the grievance procedure to each tenant and to resident organizations.
14-III.B. DEFINITIONS [24 CFR 966.53; 24 CFR 966.51(a)(2)(i)]

There are several terms used by HUD with regard to public housing grievance procedures, which take on specific meanings different from their common usage. These terms are as follows:

- Grievance – any dispute which a tenant may have with respect to OCHA action or failure to act in accordance with the individual tenant’s lease or OCHA regulations which adversely affect the individual tenant’s rights, duties, welfare or status

- Complainant – any tenant whose grievance is presented to OCHA or at the project management office

- Due Process Determination – a determination by HUD that law of the jurisdiction requires that the tenant must be given the opportunity for a hearing in court which provides the basic elements of due process before eviction from the dwelling unit

- Expedited Grievance – a procedure established by OCHA for any grievance or termination that involves:
  - Any criminal activity that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment or OCHA’s public housing premises by other residents or employees of OCHA; or
  - Any drug-related criminal activity on or off the premises

- Elements of Due Process – an eviction action or a termination of tenancy in a state or local court in which the following procedural safeguards are required:
  - Adequate notice to the tenant of the grounds for terminating the tenancy and for eviction
  - Right of the tenant to be represented by counsel
  - Opportunity for the tenant to refute the evidence presented by OCHA including the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses and to present any affirmative legal or equitable defense which the tenant may have
  - A decision on the merits

- Hearing Officer – an impartial person selected by OCHA, other than the person who made or approved the decision under review, or a subordinate of that person. The individual or individuals do not need legal training.

- Tenant – the adult person (or persons) (other than a live-in aide)
  - Who resides in the unit, and who executed the lease with OCHA as lessee of the dwelling unit, or, if no such person now resides in the unit,
  - Who resides in the unit, and who is the remaining head of household of the tenant family residing in the dwelling unit

- Resident Organization – includes a resident management corporation

Revised 9/25/19
14-III.C. APPLICABILITY [24 CFR 966.51]

Grievances could potentially address most aspects of OCHA’s operation. However, there are some situations for which the grievance procedure is not applicable.

The grievance procedure is applicable only to individual tenant issues relating to OCHA. It is not applicable to disputes between tenants not involving OCHA. Class grievances are not subject to the grievance procedure and the grievance procedure is not to be used as a forum for initiating or negotiating policy changes of OCHA.

If HUD has issued a due process determination, OCHA may exclude from OCHA grievance procedure any grievance concerning a termination of tenancy or eviction that involves:

- Any criminal activity that threatens the health, safety or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises of other residents or employees of OCHA
- Any violent or drug-related criminal activity on or off such premises
- Any criminal activity that resulted in felony conviction of a household member

In states without due process determinations, OCHA must grant opportunity for grievance hearings for all lease terminations, regardless of cause, with the following exception: OCHA may use expedited grievance procedures for the excluded categories listed above. These expedited grievance procedures are described in Section 14-III.E. below.

If HUD has issued a due process determination, OCHA may evict through the state/local judicial eviction procedures. In this case, OCHA is not required to provide the opportunity for a hearing under OCHA’s grievance procedure as described above.

OCHA Policy

OCHA is located in a HUD-declared due process state. Therefore, OCHA will not offer grievance hearings for lease terminations involving criminal activity that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises of other residents or employees of OCHA, or for violent or drug-related criminal activity on or off the premises.

See Chapter 13 for related policies on the content of termination notices.
14-III.D. INFORMAL SETTLEMENT OF GRIEVANCE [24 CFR 966.54]

HUD regulations state that any grievance must be personally presented, either orally or in writing, to OCHA office or to the office of the housing development in which the complainant resides so that the grievance may be discussed informally and settled without a hearing.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will accept requests for an informal settlement of a grievance either orally or in writing, to OCHA office within 10 business days of the grievable event. Within 10 business days of receipt of the request OCHA will arrange a meeting with the tenant at a mutually agreeable time and confirm such meeting in writing to the tenant.

If a tenant fails to attend the scheduled meeting without prior notice, OCHA will reschedule the appointment only if the tenant can show good cause for failing to appear, or if it is needed as a reasonable accommodation for a person with disabilities.

Good cause is defined as an unavoidable conflict which seriously affects the health, safety or welfare of the family.

HUD regulations require that a summary of such discussion will be prepared within a reasonable time and one copy will be given to the tenant and one retained in OCHA’s tenant file.

The summary must specify the names of the participants, dates of meeting, the nature of the proposed disposition of the complaint and the specific reasons therefore, and will specify the procedures by which a hearing may be obtained if the complainant is not satisfied.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will prepare a summary of the informal settlement within 5 business days; one copy to be given to the tenant and one copy to be retained in OCHA’s tenant file.

For PHA’s who have the option to establish an expedited grievance procedure, and who exercise this option, the informal settlement of grievances is not applicable to those grievances for which the expedited grievance procedure applies.

14-III.E. PROCEDURES TO OBTAIN A HEARING

Requests for Hearing and Failure to Request

OCHA Policy

The resident must submit a written request for a grievance hearing to OCHA within 5 business days of the tenant’s receipt of the summary of the informal settlement.

If the complainant does not request a hearing, OCHA’s disposition of the grievance under the informal settlement process will become final. However, failure to request a hearing does not constitute a waiver by the complainant of the right to contest OCHA’s action in disposing of the complaint in an appropriate judicial proceeding.
Scheduling of Hearings [24 CFR 966.56(a)]

If the complainant has complied with all requirements for requesting a hearing as described above, a hearing must be scheduled by the hearing officer promptly for a time and place reasonably convenient to both the complainant and OCHA. A written notification specifying the time, place and the procedures governing the hearing must be delivered to the complainant and the appropriate OCHA official.

OCHA Policy

Within 10 business days of receiving a written request for a hearing, the hearing officer will schedule and send written notice of the hearing to both the complainant and OCHA. OCHA may wish to permit the tenant to request to reschedule a hearing for good cause.

OCHA Policy

The tenant may request to reschedule a hearing for good cause, or if it is needed as a reasonable accommodation for a person with disabilities. Good cause is defined as an unavoidable conflict which seriously affects the health, safety, or welfare of the family. Requests to reschedule a hearing must be made orally or in writing prior to the hearing date. At its discretion, OCHA may request documentation of the “good cause” prior to rescheduling the hearing.

Expedited Grievance Procedure [24 CFR 966.52(a)]

OCHA may establish an expedited grievance procedure for any grievance concerning a termination of tenancy or eviction that involves:

- Any criminal activity that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents or employees of OCHA, or
- Any drug-related criminal activity on or near such premises
- Any criminal activity that resulted in felony conviction of a household member

In such expedited grievances, the informal settlement of grievances as discussed in 14-III.D is not applicable.

OCHA may adopt special procedures concerning expedited hearings, including provisions for expedited notice or scheduling, or provisions for expedited decision on the grievance.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will not offer expedited grievance procedures.
14-III.F. SELECTION OF HEARING OFFICER [24 CFR 966.53(e)]

The grievance hearing must be conducted by an impartial person or persons appointed by OCHA, other than the person who made or approved OCHA action under review, or a subordinate of such person. OCHA must describe their policies for selection of a hearing officer in their lease.

OCHA Policy

OCHA grievance hearings will be conducted by a single hearing officer and not a panel.

OCHA will appoint a staff member who was not involved in the decision under appeal. If a designated staff member (such as the program manager) was involved in the decision, or is a subordinate of such person, an alternate hearing officer will be selected. OCHA may contract the duties of hearing officer.

OCHA may select designated staff members who were not involved in the decision under appeal in certain circumstances, such as appeals involving discrimination claims or denials of requests for reasonable accommodations.

OCHA must describe their policies for selection of a hearing officer in their lease forms. Changes to the public housing lease are subject to a 30-day comment period (24 CFR 966.4)

14-III.G. PROCEDURES GOVERNING THE HEARING [24 CFR 966.56]

Rights of Complainant [24 CFR 966.56(b)]

The complainant will be afforded a fair hearing. This includes:

- The opportunity to examine before the grievance hearing any OCHA documents, including records and regulations that are directly relevant to the hearing. The tenant must be allowed to copy any such document at the tenant’s expense. If OCHA does not make the document available for examination upon request by the complainant, OCHA may not rely on such document at the grievance hearing.

  OCHA Policy

  The tenant will be allowed to copy any documents related to the hearing at a cost of $.25 per page. The family must request discovery of OCHA documents no later than 12:00 p.m. on the business day prior to the hearing.

- The right to be represented by counsel or other person chosen to represent the tenant, and to have such person make statements on the tenant’s behalf.

  OCHA Policy

  Hearings may be attended by the following applicable persons:

  - An OCHA representative(s) and any witnesses for OCHA
  - The tenant and any witnesses for the tenant
  - The tenant’s counsel or other representative

Revised 6/28/2023
Any other person approved by OCHA as a reasonable accommodation for a person with a disability

- The right to a private hearing unless the complainant requests a public hearing.
- The right to present evidence and arguments in support of the tenant controvert evidence relied on by OCHA or project management, and to confront and cross-examine all witnesses upon whose testimony or information OCHA or project management relies.
- A decision based solely and exclusively upon the facts presented at the hearing.

Failure to Appear [24 CFR 966.56(c)]

If the complainant or the PHA fails to appear at a scheduled hearing, the hearing officer may make a determination to postpone the hearing for no more than five business days or may make a determination that the party has waived their right to a hearing. Both the complainant and the PHA must be notified of the determination by the hearing officer: Provided, That a determination that the complainant has waived their right to a hearing will not constitute a waiver of any right the complainant may have to contest the PHA’s disposition of the grievance in an appropriate judicial proceeding.

There may be times when a complainant does not appear due to unforeseen circumstances which are out of their control and are no fault of their own.

OCHA Policy

If the tenant does not appear at the scheduled time of the hearing, the hearing officer will wait up to 30 minutes. If the tenant appears within 30 minutes of the scheduled time, the hearing will be held. If the tenant does not arrive within 30 minutes of the scheduled time, they will be considered to have failed to appear.

If the tenant fails to appear and was unable to reschedule the hearing in advance, the tenant must contact OCHA within 24 hours of the scheduled hearing date, excluding weekends and holidays. The hearing officer will reschedule the hearing only if the tenant can show good cause for the failure to appear, or it is needed as a reasonable accommodation for a person with disabilities.

“Good cause” is defined as an unavoidable conflict which seriously affects the health, safety, or welfare of the family.

General Procedures [24 CFR 966.56(d), (e)]

At the hearing, the complainant must first make a showing of an entitlement to the relief sought and thereafter OCHA must sustain the burden of justifying OCHA action or failure to act against which the complaint is directed [24 CFR 966.56(d)].

The hearing is conducted informally by the hearing officer. OCHA and the tenant must be given the opportunity to present oral or documentary evidence pertinent to the facts and issues raised by the complaint, and to question any witnesses.

OCHA Policy

Any evidence to be considered by the hearing officer must be presented at the time of the hearing. There are four categories of evidence.
Oral evidence: the testimony of witnesses

Documentary evidence: a writing which is relevant to the case, for example, a letter written to OCHA. Writings include all forms of recorded communication or representation, including letters, emails, words, pictures, sounds, videotapes or symbols or combinations thereof.

Demonstrative evidence: Evidence created specifically for the hearing and presented as an illustrative aid to assist the hearing officer, such as a model, a chart or other diagram.

Real evidence: A tangible item relating directly to the case.

Hearsay Evidence is evidence of a statement that was made other than by a witness while testifying at the hearing and that is offered to prove the truth of the matter. Even though evidence, including hearsay, is generally admissible, hearsay evidence alone cannot be used as the sole basis for the hearing officer’s decision.

If OCHA fails to comply with the discovery requirements (providing the tenant with the opportunity to examine OCHA documents prior to the grievance hearing), the hearing officer will refuse to admit such evidence.

Other than the failure of OCHA to comply with discovery requirements, the hearing officer has the authority to overrule any objections to evidence.

The complainant or OCHA may arrange, in advance and at the expense of the party making the arrangement, for a transcript of the hearing. Any interested party may purchase a copy of such transcript [24 CFR 966.56(e)].

OCHA Policy

If the complainant would like OCHA to record the proceedings by audiotape, the request must be made to OCHA by 12:00 p.m. on the business day prior to the hearing.

OCHA will consider that an audio tape recording of the proceedings is a transcript.

Accommodations of Persons with Disabilities [24 CFR 966.56(f)]

OCHA must provide reasonable accommodation for persons with disabilities to participate in the hearing. Reasonable accommodation may include qualified sign language interpreters, readers, accessible locations, or attendants.

If the tenant is visually impaired, any notice to the tenant which is required in the grievance process must be in an accessible format.

See Chapter 2 for a thorough discussion of OCHA’s responsibilities pertaining to reasonable accommodation.

Limited English Proficiency (24 CFR 966.56(g))

OCHA must comply with HUD’s LEP Final Rule in providing language services throughout the grievance process.
14-III.H. DECISION OF THE HEARING OFFICER [24 CFR 966.57]

The hearing officer must issue a written decision, stating the reasons for the decision, within a reasonable time after the hearing. Factual determinations relating to the individual circumstances of the family must be based on a preponderance of evidence presented at the hearing. A copy of the decision must be sent to the complainant and OCHA. OCHA must retain a copy of the decision in the tenant’s folder. A log of all hearing officer decisions must also be maintained by OCHA and made available for inspection by a prospective complainant, their representative, or the hearing officer [24 CFR 966.57(a)].

OCHA Policy

In rendering a decision, the hearing officer will consider the following matters:

OCHA Notice to the Family: The hearing officer will determine if the reasons for OCHA’s decision are factually stated in the notice.

Discovery: The hearing officer will determine if the family was given the opportunity to examine any relevant documents in accordance with OCHA policy.

OCHA Evidence to Support OCHA Decision: The evidence consists of the facts presented. Evidence is not conclusion and it is not argument. The hearing officer will evaluate the facts to determine if they support OCHA’s conclusion.

Validity of Grounds for Termination of Tenancy (when applicable): The hearing officer will determine if the termination of tenancy is for one of the grounds specified in the HUD regulations and OCHA policies. If the grounds for termination are not specified in the regulations or in compliance with OCHA policies, then the decision of OCHA will be overturned.

The hearing officer will issue a written decision to the family and OCHA no later than 10 business days after the hearing. The report will contain the following information:

Hearing information:

Name of the complainant
Date, time and place of the hearing
Name of the hearing officer
Name of OCHA representative(s)
Name of family representative (if any)
Names of witnesses (if any)

Background: A brief, impartial statement of the reason for the hearing and the date(s) on which the informal settlement was held, who held it, and a summary of the results of the informal settlement. Also includes the date the complainant requested the grievance hearing.
Summary of the Evidence: The hearing officer will summarize the testimony of each witness and identify any documents that a witness produced in support of their testimony and that are admitted into evidence.

Findings of Fact: The hearing officer will include all findings of fact, based on a preponderance of the evidence. Preponderance of the evidence is defined as evidence which is of greater weight or more convincing than the evidence which is offered in opposition to it; that is, evidence which as a whole shows that the fact sought to be proved is more probable than not. Preponderance of the evidence may not be determined by the number of witnesses, but by the greater weight of all evidence.

Conclusions: The hearing officer will render a conclusion derived from the facts that were found to be true by a preponderance of the evidence. The conclusion will result in a determination of whether these facts uphold OCHA’s decision.

Order: The hearing report will include a statement of whether OCHA’s decision is upheld or overturned. If it is overturned, the hearing officer will instruct OCHA to change the decision in accordance with the hearing officer’s determination. In the case of termination of tenancy, the hearing officer will instruct OCHA to restore the family’s status.

Procedures for Further Hearing

OCHA Policy
The hearing officer may ask the family for additional information and/or might adjourn the hearing in order to reconvene at a later date, before reaching a decision. If the family misses an appointment or deadline ordered by the hearing officer, the action of OCHA will take effect and another hearing will not be granted.
Final Decision [24 CFR 966.57(b)]

The decision of the hearing officer is binding on OCHA which must take the action, or refrain from taking the action cited in the decision unless OCHA Board of Commissioners or Executive Director determines within a reasonable time, and notifies the complainant that:

- The grievance does not concern OCHA action or failure to act in accordance with or involving the complainant’s lease on OCHA policies which adversely affect the complainant’s rights, duties, welfare, or status; or

- The decision of the hearing officer is contrary to Federal, state, or local law, HUD Regulations or requirements of the Annual Contributions Contract between HUD and OCHA

OCHA Policy

When OCHA considers the decision of the hearing officer to be invalid due to the reasons stated above, it will present the matter to OCHA Board of Commissioners within 10 business days of the date of the hearing officer’s decision. The Board has 30 calendar days to consider the decision. If the Board decides to reverse the hearing officer’s decision, it must notify the complainant within 10 business days of this decision.

A decision by the hearing officer, Board of Commissioners or Executive Director in favor of OCHA or which denies the relief requested by the complainant in whole or in part must not constitute a waiver of any rights, nor effect in any manner whatever, any rights the complainant may have to a subsequent trial or judicial review in court [24 CFR 966.57(c)].

Revised 9/25/19
OKLAHOMA CITY HOUSING AUTHORITY

TENANT GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

1. Purpose and Scope. The purpose of this Tenant Grievance Procedure (“Grievance Procedure”) is to set forth the requirements, standards, and criteria for a grievance procedure to be established and implemented by the Oklahoma City Housing Authority (“Authority”) to assure that tenants are afforded an opportunity for a hearing if the tenant disputes within a reasonable time any action or failure to act by the Authority involving the tenant’s public housing lease (“Lease”) or the Authority regulations which adversely affect the individual tenant’s rights, welfare, or status.

2. Applicability. This Grievance Procedure shall be applicable to all individual grievances (as defined in Section 4) between the tenant and the Authority. However, the Authority excludes from its Grievance Procedure any grievance concerning an eviction or termination of tenancy based upon a tenant’s creation or maintenance of a threat to the health or safety of other tenants or the Authority’s employees. In such instances, a tenant will be given the opportunity for a hearing in court which provides the basic elements of due process (as defined in Section 4 below) in lieu of following the procedures described in this Grievance Procedure. This Grievance Procedure shall not be applicable to disputes between tenants not involving the Authority or to class grievances. The Grievance Procedure is not intended as a forum for initiating or negotiating policy changes between a group or groups of tenants and the Authority’s Board of Commissioners.

3. Requirements. This Grievance Procedure is adopted in accordance with the requirements, standards, and criteria of the Department of Housing and Urban Development (“HUD”), with such modifications as are required by state law. This Grievance Procedure shall be made a part of all tenant Leases.

4. Definitions. For the purpose of this section, the following definitions are applicable:

   a. Complainant shall mean any tenant whose grievance is presented to the Authority at its main offices or at the project offices in accordance with Sections 5 and 6.

   b. Elements of due process shall mean an eviction action or a termination of tenancy in a state or local court in which the following procedural safeguards are required:

      i. Adequate notice to the tenant of the grounds for terminating the tenancy and for eviction;
      ii. Opportunity for the tenant to examine all relevant documents, records, and regulations of the Authority prior to the trial for the purpose of preparing a defense;
      iii. Right of the tenant to be represented by counsel;
iv. Opportunity for the tenant to refute the evidence presented by the Authority, including the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses and to present any affirmative legal or equitable defense which the tenant may have; and

v. A decision on the merits.

c. Grievance shall mean any dispute which a tenant may have with respect to the Authority’s action or failure to act in accordance with the individual tenant’s Lease or the Authority’s regulations which adversely affect the individual tenant’s rights, duties, welfare, or status.

d. Hearing officer shall mean a person selected in accordance with section 6 to hear grievances and render a decision with respect thereto.

e. Tenant shall mean the adult person (or persons) (other than a live-in aide) who resides in the unit and who executed the Lease as the lessee, or, if no such person now resides in a leased dwelling unit, the remaining head of household (who resides in the dwelling unit) of the tenant family residing in the leased dwelling unit.

5. Informal Settlement of Grievance. Any grievance shall be personally presented, either orally or in writing, within (10) working days of the grievable event, to the Authority’s main offices or to the office of the project in which the complainant resides. Within ten (10) working days of such presentment, the Authority shall arrange a meeting with the complainant at a mutually agreeable time so that the grievance may be discussed informally and settled without a hearing. A summary of such discussion shall be prepared within five (5) working days after the discussion, with one copy given to the complainant and one retained in the Authority’s files. The summary shall specify the names of the participants, date of meeting, the nature of the proposed disposition of the complaint and the specific reasons therefore, and shall specify the procedures by which a hearing under Section 6 may be obtained if the complainant is not satisfied.

6. Procedure to Obtain Hearing.

   a. Request for Hearing. The complainant shall submit a written request for a hearing to the Authority or to the project office not later than five (5) working days after receipt of the summary of discussion pursuant to Section 5. The written request shall specify the reasons for the grievance and the action or relief sought.

   b. Selection of Hearing Officer. Grievances shall be presented before a hearing officer. A hearing officer shall be selected as follows:

      i. The grievance hearing must be conducted by an impartial person or persons appointed by the Authority, other than the person who made or approved the Authority action under review, or a subordinate of such person.

ii. Any applicable Resident Organization (as defined by 24 C.F.R. § 966.53(g)) shall be consulted prior to the appointment of the Hearing Officer.

c. Failure to Request Hearing. If a complainant does not request a hearing in accordance with this paragraph, then the Authority’s disposition of the grievance under Section 5 shall become final, provided, that failure to request a hearing shall not constitute a waiver by the complainant of his/her right thereafter to contest the Authority’s action in disposing of the complaint in an appropriate judicial proceeding.

d. Hearing Prerequisite. All grievances shall be personally presented either orally or in writing pursuant to the informal procedure prescribed in Section 5 as a condition precedent to a hearing under this section, provided, that if the complainant shall show good cause why he failed to proceed in accordance with Section 5 to the hearing officer, the provisions of this subsection may be waived by the hearing officer.

e. Scheduling of Hearing. Within ten (10) days of complainant’s compliance with paragraphs a and d of this section, a hearing shall be scheduled and written notification sent to complainant by the hearing officer for a time and place reasonably convenient to both the complainant and the Authority. The written notification specifying the time, place, and the procedures governing the hearing shall be delivered to the complainant and the appropriate Authority official.

7. Procedures Governing Hearing.

   a. The hearing shall be held before a hearing officer.

   b. The complainant shall be afforded a fair hearing, which shall include:

   i. The opportunity to examine before the hearing and, at the expense of the complainant, to copy all documents, records, and regulations of the Authority that are relevant to the hearing. Any document not so made available after request, therefore, by the complainant may not be relied on by the Authority at the hearing;

   ii. The right to be represented by counsel or other person chosen as his/her representative;

   iii. The right to a private hearing unless the complainant requests a public hearing;

   iv. The right to present evidence and arguments in support of his/her complaint, to controvert evidence relied on by the Authority or project management, and to confront and cross-examine all witnesses on whose testimony or information the Authority or project management relies;
v. A decision based solely and exclusively upon the facts presented at the hearing; and
vi. The right to be provided reasonable accommodation for persons with disabilities to participate in the hearing. (Reasonable accommodation may include qualified sign language interpreters, readers, accessible locations or attendants. If the complainant is visually impaired, any notice to the complainant required in the grievance procedure will be in an accessible format.)

c. The hearing officer may render a decision without proceeding with the hearing if the hearing officer determines that the issue has been previously decided in another proceeding.

d. If the complainant or the Authority fails to appear at a scheduled hearing, the hearing officer may make a determination to postpone the hearing for not to exceed five (5) business days or may make a determination that the party has waived his right to a hearing. Both the complainant and the Authority shall be notified of the determination by the hearing officer, provided, that a determination that the complainant has waived his right to a hearing shall not constitute a waiver of any right the complainant may have to contest the Authority’s disposition of the grievance in an appropriate judicial proceeding.

e. At the hearing, the complainant must first make a showing of an entitlement to the relief sought and thereafter the Authority must sustain the burden of justifying the Authority’s action or failure to act against which the complaint is directed.

f. The hearing shall be conducted informally by the hearing officer and oral or documentary evidence pertinent to the facts and issues raised by the complaint may be received without regard to admissibility under the rules of evidence applicable to judicial proceedings. The hearing officer shall require the Authority, the complainant, counsel, and other participants or spectators to conduct themselves in an orderly fashion. Failure to comply with the directions of the hearing officer to obtain order may result in exclusion from the proceedings or in a decision adverse to the interests of the disorderly party and granting or denial of the relief sought, as appropriate.

g. The complainant or the Authority may arrange, in advance and at the expense of the party making the arrangement, for a transcript of the hearing. Any interested party may purchase a copy of such transcript.

8. Decision of Hearing Officer.

    a. The hearing officer shall prepare a written decision, together with the reasons therefore, within ten (10) working days after the hearing. A copy of the decision shall be sent to the complainant and the Authority. The Authority shall retain a copy of the decision in the tenant’s folder. A copy of such decision, with all names and identifying references deleted, shall also be maintained on file by the Authority and made available for inspection by a prospective complainant, his representative, or the hearing officer.

b. The decision of the hearing officer shall be binding on the Authority, which shall take all actions, or refrain from any actions, necessary to carry out the decision unless the matter is presented to the Authority’s Board of Commissioners within ten (10) working days of the date the hearing officer’s decision issued, and the Board of Commissioners determines, within thirty (30) calendar days, and promptly notifies the complainant, within ten (10) working days of its determination, that:
   i. The grievance does not concern an Authority action or failure to act in accordance with or involving the complainant’s Lease or the Authority’s regulations, which adversely affect the complaint’s rights, duties, welfare, or status; or
   ii. The decision of the hearing officer is contrary to applicable Federal, State, or local law, HUD regulations, or requirements of the Annual Contributions Contract between HUD and the Authority.

c. A decision by the hearing officer or Board of Commissioners in favor of the Authority or which denies the relief requested by the complainant in whole or in part shall not constitute a waiver of, nor affect in any manner whatever, any rights the complainant may have to a trial de novo or judicial review in any judicial proceedings, which may thereafter be brought in the matter.

9. Authority Eviction Actions. If a tenant has requested a hearing in accordance with Section 6 on a complaint involving an Authority notice of termination of the tenancy and the hearing officer upholds the Authority’s action to terminate the tenancy, the Authority shall not commence an eviction action in a state or local court until it has served a notice to vacate on the tenant, and in no event shall the notice to vacate be issued prior to the decision of the hearing officer having been mailed or delivered to the complainant. Such notice to vacate must be in writing and specify that if the tenant fails to quit the premises within the applicable statutory period, or on the termination date stated in the notice of termination, whichever is later, appropriate action will be brought against him/her and he/she may be required to pay court costs and attorney fees.
Chapter 15

PROGRAM INTEGRITY

INTRODUCTION

OCHA is committed to ensuring that funds made available to OCHA are spent in accordance with HUD requirements.

This chapter covers HUD and OCHA policies designed to prevent, detect, investigate and resolve instances of program abuse or fraud. It also describes the actions that will be taken in the case of unintentional errors and omissions.

Part I: Preventing, Detecting, and Investigating Errors and Program Abuse. This part presents OCHA policies related to preventing, detecting, and investigating errors and program abuse.

Part II: Corrective Measures and Penalties. This part describes the corrective measures OCHA must and may take when errors or program abuses are found.

PART I: PREVENTING, DETECTING, AND INVESTIGATING ERRORS AND PROGRAM ABUSE

15-I.A. PREVENTING ERRORS AND PROGRAM ABUSE

HUD created the Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system to provide a powerful tool for preventing errors and program abuse. OCHA is required to use the EIV system in its entirety in accordance with HUD administrative guidance [24 CFR 5.233]. OCHA is further required to:

- Provide applicants and residents with form HUD-52675, “Debts Owed to PHA’s and Terminations”
- Require all adult members of an applicant or participant family to acknowledge receipt of form HUD-52675 by signing a copy of the form for retention in the family file

OCHA Policy

OCHA anticipates that the vast majority of families and OCHA employees intend to and will comply with program requirements and make reasonable efforts to avoid errors.

To ensure that OCHA’s program is administered effectively and according to the highest ethical and legal standards, OCHA will employ a variety of techniques to ensure that both errors and intentional program abuse are rare.

OCHA will provide each applicant and resident with a copy of “Is Fraud Worth It?” (form HUD-1141-OIG), which explains the types of actions a family must avoid and the penalties for program abuse.

OCHA will provide each applicant and resident with a copy of “What You Should Know about EIV,” a guide to the Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system published by HUD as an attachment to Notice PIH 2017-12. In addition, OCHA will require the head of each household to acknowledge receipt of the guide by signing a copy for retention in the family file.
OCHA will require mandatory orientation sessions for all prospective residents either prior to or upon execution of the lease. OCHA will discuss program compliance and integrity issues. At the conclusion of all program orientation sessions, the family representative will be required to sign a program briefing certificate to confirm that all rules and pertinent regulations were explained to them.

OCHA will routinely provide resident counseling as part of every reexamination interview in order to clarify any confusion pertaining to program rules and requirements.

OCHA staff will be required to review and explain the contents of all HUD- and OCHA-required forms prior to requesting family member signatures.

OCHA will place a warning statement about the penalties for fraud (as described in 18 U.S.C. 1001 and 1010) on key OCHA forms and form letters that request information from a family member.

OCHA will provide each OCHA employee with the necessary training on program rules and the organization’s standards of conduct and ethics.

At every regular reexamination, OCHA staff will explain any changes in HUD regulations or OCHA policy that affect residents.

For purposes of this chapter the term error refers to an unintentional error or omission. Program abuse or fraud refers to a single act or pattern of actions that constitute a false statement, omission, or concealment of a substantial fact, made with the intent to deceive or mislead.

15-I.B. DETECTING ERRORS AND PROGRAM ABUSE

In addition to taking steps to prevent errors and program abuse, OCHA will use a variety of activities to detect errors and program abuse.

Quality Control and Analysis of Data

OCHA Policy

OCHA will employ a variety of methods to detect errors and program abuse, including:

OCHA routinely will use EIV and other non-HUD sources of up-front income verification. This may include the Work Number and any other private or public databases available to OCHA.

At each annual reexamination, current information provided by the family will be compared to information provided at the last annual reexamination to identify inconsistencies and incomplete information.

OCHA will compare family-reported income and expenditures to detect possible unreported income.

Independent Audits and HUD Monitoring

Notice PIH 2015-16 requires all PHAs that expend $750,000 or more in federal awards annually to have an independent audit (IPA). In addition, HUD conducts periodic on-site and automated monitoring of PHA activities and notifies the PHA of errors and potential cases of program abuse.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will use the results reported in any IPA or HUD monitoring reports to identify potential program abuses as well as to assess the effectiveness of OCHA’s error detection and abuse prevention efforts.

Individual Reporting of Possible Errors and Program Abuse

OCHA Policy

OCHA will encourage staff, residents, and the public to report possible program abuse.

15-I.C. INVESTIGATING ERRORS AND PROGRAM ABUSE

When OCHA Will Investigate

OCHA Policy

OCHA will review all referrals, specific allegations, complaints, and tips from any source including other agencies, companies, and individuals, to determine if they warrant investigation. In order for OCHA to investigate, the allegation must contain at least one independently-verifiable item of information, such as the name of an employer or the name of an unauthorized household member.

OCHA will investigate when inconsistent or contradictory information is detected through file reviews and the verification process.

Consent to Release of Information [24 CFR 960.259]

OCHA may investigate possible instances of error or abuse using all available OCHA and public records. If necessary, OCHA will require families to sign consent forms for the release of additional information.

Analysis and Findings

OCHA Policy

OCHA will base its evaluation on a preponderance of the evidence collected during its investigation.

Preponderance of the evidence is defined as evidence which is of greater weight or more convincing than the evidence which is offered in opposition to it; that is, evidence that as a whole shows that the fact sought to be proved is more probable than not. Preponderance of evidence may not be determined by the number of witnesses, but by the greater weight of all evidence.

For each investigation OCHA will determine (1) whether an error or program abuse has occurred, (2) whether any amount of money is owed OCHA, and (3) what corrective measures or penalties will be assessed.
Consideration of Remedies

All errors and instances of program abuse must be corrected prospectively. Whether OCHA will enforce other corrective actions and penalties depends upon the nature of the error or program abuse.

OCHA Policy

In the case of family-caused errors or program abuse, OCHA will take into consideration (1) the seriousness of the offense and the extent of participation or culpability of individual family members, (2) any special circumstances surrounding the case, (3) any mitigating circumstances related to the disability of a family member, (4) the effects of a particular remedy on family members who were not involved in the offense.

Notice and Appeals

OCHA Policy

OCHA will inform the relevant party in writing of its findings and remedies within 10 business days of the conclusion of the investigation. The notice will include (1) a description of the error or program abuse, (2) the basis on which OCHA determined the error or program abuses, (3) the remedies to be employed, and (4) the family’s right to appeal the results through an informal hearing or grievance hearing (see Chapter 14).

PART II: CORRECTIVE MEASURES AND PENALTIES

15-II.A. UNDER- OR OVERPAYMENT

An under- or overpayment includes an incorrect tenant rent payment by the family, or an incorrect utility reimbursement to a family.

Corrections

Whether the incorrect rental determination is an overpayment or underpayment, OCHA must promptly correct the tenant rent and any utility reimbursement prospectively.

OCHA Policy

Increases in the tenant rent will be implemented on the first of the month following a written 30 day notice.

Any decreases in tenant rent will become effective the first of the month following the discovery of the error.

Reimbursement

Whether the family is required to reimburse OCHA or OCHA is required to reimburse the family depends upon which party is responsible for the incorrect payment and whether the action taken was an error or program abuse. Policies regarding reimbursement are discussed in the three sections that follow.
15-II.B. FAMILY-CAUSED ERRORS AND PROGRAM ABUSE

General administrative requirements for participating in the program are discussed throughout the ACOP. This section deals specifically with errors and program abuse by family members.

An incorrect rent determination caused by a family generally would be the result of incorrect reporting of family composition, income, assets, or expenses, but also would include instances in which the family knowingly allows OCHA to use incorrect information provided by a third party.

Family Reimbursement to OCHA

OCHA Policy

In the case of family-caused errors or program abuse, the family will be required to repay any amounts of rent underpaid. OCHA may, but is not required to, offer the family a repayment agreement in accordance with Chapter 16. If the family fails to repay the amount owed, OCHA will terminate the family’s lease in accordance with the policies in Chapter 13.

OCHA Reimbursement to Family

OCHA Policy

OCHA will not reimburse the family for any overpayment of rent when the overpayment clearly is caused by the family.

Prohibited Actions

An applicant or resident in the public housing program must not knowingly:

- Make a false statement to OCHA [Title 18 U.S.C. Section 1001].
- Provide incomplete or false information to OCHA [24 CFR 960.259(a)(4)].
- Commit fraud, or make false statements in connection with an application for assistance or with reexamination of income [24 CFR 966.4(l)(2)(iii)(C)].

OCHA Policy

Any of the following will be considered evidence of family program abuse:

- Offering bribes or illegal gratuities to OCHA Board of Commissioners, employees, contractors, or other OCHA representatives
- Offering payments or other incentives to a third party as an inducement for the third party to make false or misleading statements to OCHA on the family’s behalf
- Use of a false name or the use of falsified, forged, or altered documents
- Intentional misreporting of family information or circumstances (e.g., misreporting of income or family composition)
- Omitted facts that were obviously known by a family member (e.g., not reporting employment income)
Admission of program abuse by an adult family member

OCHA may determine other actions to be program abuse based upon a preponderance of the evidence, as defined earlier in this chapter.

Penalties for Program Abuse

In the case of program abuse caused by a family OCHA may, at its discretion, impose any of the following remedies.

- OCHA may require the family to repay any amounts owed to the program (see 15-II.B., Family Reimbursement to OCHA).
- OCHA may require, as a condition of receiving or continuing assistance, that a culpable family member not reside in the unit. See policies in Chapter 3 (for applicants) and Chapter 13 (for residents).
- OCHA may deny admission or terminate the family’s lease following the policies set forth in Chapter 3 and Chapter 13 respectively.
- OCHA may refer the family for state or federal criminal prosecution as described in section 15-II.D.

15-II.C. OCHA-CAUSED ERRORS OR PROGRAM ABUSE

The responsibilities and expectations of OCHA staff with respect to normal program administration are discussed throughout the ACOP. This section specifically addresses actions of an OCHA staff member that are considered errors or program abuse related to the public housing program. Additional standards of conduct may be provided in OCHA personnel policy.

OCHA-caused incorrect rental determinations include (1) failing to correctly apply public housing rules regarding family composition, income, assets, and expenses, and (2) errors in calculation.

Repayment to OCHA

The family is not required to repay an underpayment of rent if the error or program abuse is caused by OCHA staff.

OCHA Reimbursement to Family

OCHA Policy

OCHA will reimburse a family for any family overpayment of rent, regardless of whether the overpayment was the result of staff-caused error or staff program abuse.

Prohibited Activities

OCHA Policy

Any of the following will be considered evidence of program abuse by OCHA staff:

- Failing to comply with any public housing program requirements for personal gain
- Failing to comply with any public housing program requirements as a result of a conflict of interest relationship with any applicant or resident
Seeking or accepting anything of material value from applicants, residents, vendors, contractors, or other persons who provide services or materials to OCHA
Disclosing confidential or proprietary information to outside parties
Gaining profit as a result of insider knowledge of OCHA activities, policies, or practices
Misappropriating or misusing public housing funds
Destroying, concealing, removing, or inappropriately using any records related to the public housing program
Committing any other corrupt or criminal act in connection with any federal housing program
Committing sexual harassment or other harassment based on race, color, religion, national origin, familial status, disability, sexual orientation, or gender identity, either quid pro quo (supervisory harassment) or hostile environment
Allowing sexual harassment or other harassment based on race, color, religion, national origin, familial status, disability, sexual orientation, or gender identity, either quid pro quo (supervisory harassment) or hostile environment, where the OCHA knew or should have known such harassment was occurring
Retaliating against any applicant, resident, or staff reporting sexual harassment or other harassment based on race, color, religion, national origin, familial status, disability, sexual orientation, or gender identity, either quid pro quo (supervisory harassment) or hostile environment

The Authority is determined to help create an environment that is safe and life-affirming for all residents and staff. Acts of bullying, harassment and intimidation are an attack on the right to the safety and respect that each individual on this property is entitled to. Management will promptly report and investigate all incidents of bullying and harassment.

15-II.D. CRIMINAL PROSECUTION

OCHA Policy

When OCHA determines that program abuse by a family or OCHA staff member has occurred and the amount of underpaid rent meets or exceeds the threshold for prosecution under local or state law, OCHA will refer the matter to the appropriate entity for prosecution. When the amount of underpaid rent meets or exceeds the federal threshold, the case will also be referred to the HUD Office of Inspector General (OIG).

Other criminal violations related to the public housing program will be referred to the appropriate local, state, or federal entity.

Revised 9/25/19
15-I.E. FRAUD AND PROGRAM ABUSE RECOVERIES

PHAs who enter into a repayment agreement with a family to collect rent owed, initiate litigation against the family to recover rent owed, or begin eviction proceedings against a family may retain 100 percent of program funds that OCHA recovers [Notice PIH 2007-27 (HA)].

If OCHA does none of the above, all amounts that constitute an underpayment of rent must be returned to HUD.

The family must be afforded the opportunity for a hearing through OCHA’s grievance process.
Chapter 16

PROGRAM ADMINISTRATION

INTRODUCTION

This chapter discusses administrative policies and practices that are relevant to the activities covered in this ACOP. The policies are discussed in seven parts as described below:

Part I: Setting Utility Allowances. This part describes how utility allowances are established and revised. Also discussed are the requirements to establish surcharges for excess consumption of OCHA-furnished utilities.

Part II: Establishing Flat Rents. This part describes the requirements and policies related to establishing and updating flat rent amounts.

Part III: Repayment of Family Debts. This part contains policies for recovery of monies that have been underpaid by families, and describes the circumstances under which OCHA will offer repayment agreements to families. Also discussed are the consequences for failure to make payments in accordance with a repayment agreement.

Part IV: Public Housing Assessment System (PHAS). This part describes PHAS indicators, how OCHA is scored under PHAS, and how those scores affect OCHA.

Part V: Record Keeping. All aspects of the program involve certain types of record-keeping. This part outlines the privacy rights of applicants and participants and record retention policies OCHA will follow.

Part VI: Reporting and Record Keeping for Children with Elevated Blood Lead Level. This part describes OCHA’s reporting responsibilities related to children with environmental intervention blood lead levels that are living in public housing.

Part VII: Violence Against Women Act (VAWA): Notification, Documentation, and Confidentiality. This part contains key terms used in VAWA and describes requirements related to notifying families about their rights and responsibilities under VAWA; requesting documentation from victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, and human trafficking; and maintaining the confidentiality of information obtained from victims.

COVID 19 PANDEMIC OPERATIONS AND ELIGIBLE HUD WAIVERS

HUD has published PIH Notice 2020-05, which has been superseded and extended by PIH Notice 2020-13 and PIH Notice 2020-33 (“Notice”), pursuant to the CARES Act establishing waivers and alternative requirements for numerous statutory and regulatory requirements related to the Public Housing program.

HUD has strongly encouraged public housing agencies to utilize the Notice waivers and alternative requirements during the ongoing public health emergency; and the Notice provides administrative flexibility and relief to OCHA in its implementation of the Public Housing programs by relaxing... requirements and easing the continued operation of the programs. The utilization of the waivers provided by the Notice may require temporary amendments to OCHA’s Public Housing Admissions and Continued Occupancy Plan (“ACOP”).

OCHA’s Board of Commissioners have previously authorized the Executive Director to utilize the waivers provided by Notice PIH 2020-05, including the authority to make temporary changes to the ACOP, provided that the Board of Commissioners are notified of the actions and ratify such actions if the changes are to be effective longer than the declared emergency or for more than four months. The Executive Director is authorized to continue utilization of such waivers and alternative requirements through the period as may be authorized by HUD through the Notice or subsequent rulemaking or issued guidance.

Other OCHA procedures have been implemented as temporary changes to allow proper social distancing or no close contact between staff and residents/applicants. Some examples include limiting inspection to units except verify emergencies, limiting work orders inside units to urgent or emergency work, and allowing for telephone meetings and interviews opposed to in person meetings.

PART I: SETTING UTILITY ALLOWANCES [24 CFR 965 Subpart E]

16-I.A. OVERVIEW

OCHA must establish allowances for OCHA-furnished utilities for all check metered utilities and for resident-purchased utilities for all utilities purchased directly by residents from a utility supplier [24 CFR 965.502(a)].

OCHA must also establish surcharges for excess consumption of OCHA-furnished utilities [24 CFR 965.506].

OCHA must maintain a record that documents the basis on which utility allowances and scheduled surcharges are established and revised, and the record must be made available for inspection by residents [24 CFR 965.502(b)].

16-I.B UTILITY ALLOWANCES

OCHA must establish separate allowances for each utility and for each category of dwelling units OCHA determines to be reasonably comparable as to factors affecting utility usage [24 CFR 965.503].

The objective of OCHA in establishing utility allowances for each dwelling unit category and unit size is to approximate a reasonable consumption of utilities by an energy-conservative household of modest circumstances consistent with the requirements of a safe, sanitary, and healthful living environment [24 CFR 965.505].

Utilities include gas, electricity, fuel for heating, water, sewerage, and solid waste disposal for a dwelling unit. In addition, if OCHA does not furnish a range and refrigerator, the family must be granted a utility allowance for the range and refrigerator they provide [24 CFR 965.505].

Costs for telephone, cable/satellite TV, and internet services are not considered utilities [PH Occ GB, p. 138].

Utility allowance amounts will vary by the rates in effect, size and type of unit, climatic location and sitting of the unit, type of construction, energy efficiency of the dwelling unit, and other factors related to the physical condition of the unit. Utility allowance amounts will also vary by residential demographic characteristics affecting home energy usage [PH Occ GB, p. 138].

Chapter 14 of the PH Occupancy Guidebook provides detailed guidance to OCHA about establishing utility allowances.
Air-Conditioning

“If OCHA installs air conditioning, it shall provide, to the maximum extent economically feasible, systems that give residents the option of choosing to use air conditioning in their units. The design of systems that offer each resident the option to choose air conditioning shall include retail meters or check meters, and residents shall pay for the energy used in its operation. For systems that offer residents the option to choose air conditioning but cannot be check metered, residents are to be surcharged in accordance with 965.506. If an air conditioning system does not provide for resident option, residents are not to be charged, and these systems should be avoided whenever possible.” [24 CFR 965.505(e)]

OCHA Policy

OCHA has installed air-conditioning in some of our public housing units.

Utility Allowance Revisions [24 CFR 965.507]

The PHA must review at least annually the basis on which utility allowances have been established and must revise the allowances if necessary in order to adhere to the standards for establishing utility allowances that are contained in 24 CFR 965.505. The review must include all changes in circumstances (including completion of modernization and/or other energy conservation measures implemented by OCHA) indicating probability of a significant change in reasonable requirements and changes in utility rates [24 CFR 965.507(a)].

The PHA must revise its allowances for resident-purchased utilities if there is a rate change, and is required to do so if such change, by itself or together with prior rate changes not adjusted for, results in a change of 10 percent or more from the rate on which the allowance was based.

Adjustments to resident payments as a result of such changes must be retroactive to the first day of the month following the month in which the last rate change taken into account became effective. Such rate changes are not subject to the 60-day notice [24 CFR 965.507(b)].

OCHA Policy

Between annual reviews of utility allowances, OCHA will only revise its utility allowances due to a rate change, when required to by the regulation.
16-I.C. SURCHARGES FOR OCHA-FURNISHED UTILITIES [24 CFR 965.506]

For dwelling units subject to allowances for OCHA-furnished utilities where check meters have been installed, OCHA must establish surcharges for utility consumption in excess of the allowances. Surcharges may be computed on a straight per unit of purchase basis or for stated blocks of excess consumption, and must be based on OCHA’s average utility rate. The basis for calculating the surcharges must be described in OCHA’s schedule of allowances. Changes in the amount of surcharges based directly on changes in OCHA’s average utility rate are not subject to the advance notice requirements discussed under 16-I.D.

For dwelling units served by OCHA-furnished utilities where check meters have not been installed, OCHA must establish schedules of surcharges indicating additional dollar amounts residents will be required to pay by reason of estimated utility consumption attributable to resident-owned major appliances or to optional functions of OCHA-furnished equipment. The surcharge schedule must state the resident-owned equipment (or functions of OCHA-furnished equipment) for which surcharges will be made and the amounts of such charges. Surcharges must be based on the cost to OCHA of the utility consumption estimated to be attributable to reasonable usage of such equipment.

OCHA Policy

OCHA does have OCHA-furnished utilities at some developments.

16-I.D. NOTICE REQUIREMENTS [965.502]

OCHA must give notice to all residents of proposed allowances and scheduled surcharges, and revisions thereof. The notice must be given in the manner provided in the lease and must:

- Be provided at least 60 days before the proposed effective date of the allowances, scheduled surcharges, or revisions.

- Describe the basis for determination of the allowances, scheduled surcharges, or revisions, including a statement of the specific items of equipment and function whose utility consumption requirements were included in determining the amounts of the allowances and schedule of surcharges.

- Notify residents of the place where OCHA’s documentation on which allowances and surcharges are based is available for inspection.

- Provide all residents an opportunity to submit written comments during a period expiring not less than 30 days before the proposed effective date of the allowances, scheduled surcharges, or revisions.
16-I.E. REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION AND INDIVIDUAL RELIEF
[24 CFR 965.508]

On request from a family, OCHA’s must approve a utility allowance that is higher than the applicable amount for the dwelling unit if a higher utility allowance is needed as a reasonable accommodation to make the program accessible to and usable by the family with a disability [24 CFR 8 and 100, PH Occ GB, p. 172].

Likewise, residents with disabilities may not be charged for the use of certain resident-supplied appliances if there is a verified need for special equipment because of the disability [24 CFR 8 and 100, PH Occ GB, p. 172].

See Chapter 2 for policies regarding the request and approval of reasonable accommodations.

Further, OCHA may grant requests for relief from charges in excess of the utility allowance on reasonable grounds, such as special needs of the elderly, ill, or residents with disabilities, or special factors not within control of the resident, as OCHA deems appropriate. The family must request the higher allowance and provide OCHA with information about the additional allowance required.

OCHA’s should develop criteria for granting individual relief and to notify residents about the availability of individual relief, and also to notify participants about the availability of individual relief programs (sometimes referred to as “Medical Baseline discounts”) offered by the local utility company [Utility Allowance GB, p. 19, 24 CFR 965.508].
PART II: ESTABLISHING FLAT RENTS

16-II.A. OVERVIEW

Flat rents are designed to encourage self-sufficiency and to avoid creating disincentives for continued residency by families who are attempting to become economically self-sufficient.

Public housing maximum rents are needed to prorate assistance for a mixed family. A mixed family is one whose members include those with citizenship or eligible immigration status, and those without citizenship or eligible immigration status [24 CFR 5.504].

This part discusses how OCHA establishes and updates flat rents and public housing maximum rents. Policies related to the use of flat rents, family choice of rent, flat rent hardships, and public housing maximum rents are discussed in Chapter 6.

16-II.B. FLAT RENTS [24 CFR 960.253(b) and Notice PIH 2022-33]

Establishing Flat Rents

The 2015 Appropriations Act requires that flat rents must be set at no less than 80 percent of the applicable fair market rent (FMR). Alternatively, OCHA may set flat rents at no less than 80 percent of the applicable small area FMR (SAFMR) for metropolitan areas, or 80 percent of the applicable unadjusted rents for nonmetropolitan areas.

For areas where HUD has not determined a SAFMR or an unadjusted rent, OCHA must set flat rents at no less than 80 percent of the FMR or apply for an exception flat rent.

The 2015 Appropriations Act permits PHAs to apply for an exception flat rent that is lower than either 80 percent of the FMR or SAFMR/unadjusted rent if the PHA can demonstrate, through the submission of a market analysis, that these FMRs do not reflect the market value of a particular property or unit and HUD agrees with the PHA’s analysis. The market analysis must be submitted using form HUD-5880, “Flat Rent Market Analysis Summary.”

PHAs must receive written HUD approval before implementing exception flat rents. PHAs with a previously approved flat rent exception request may submit a written request to extend the approved flat rents for up to two additional years, provided local market conditions remain unchanged. Detailed information on how to request exception flat rents can be found in Notice PIH 2022-33.

OCHA must receive written HUD approval before implementing exception flat rents. PHA’s with a previously approved flat rent exception request may submit a written request to extend the approved flat rents for up to two additional years, provided local market conditions remain unchanged. Detailed information on how to request exception flat rents can be found in Notice PIH 2017-23.

OCHA is now required to apply a utility allowance to flat rents. Flat rents set at 80 percent of the FMR must be reduced by the amount of the unit’s utility allowance, if any.

Review of Flat Rents

No later than 90 days after HUD publishes new annual FMRs/SAFMRs/unadjusted rent, OCHA must revise flat rents, as necessary, based changes to the FMR/SAFMR/unadjusted rent. OCHA must offer changes to the flat rent to all new admissions and to existing families at the next annual rent option.
If the FMR falls from year to year, OCHA may, but is not required to, lower the flat rent to 80 percent of the current FMR/SAFMR/unadjusted rent.

OCHA Policy

If the FMR/SAFMR is lower than the previous year, OCHA will reduce flat rents to 80 percent of the current FMR/SAFMR.

Applying Flat Rents

OCHA Policy

OCHA will apply updated flat rents at each family’s next annual reexamination or flat rent update after implementation of the new flat rents.

Posting of Flat Rents

OCHA Policy

OCHA will publicly post the schedule of flat rents in a conspicuous manner in the applicable OCHA or project office.

Documentation of Flat Rents [24 CFR 960.253(b)(5)]

OCHA must maintain records that document the method used to determine flat rents, and that show how flat rents were determined by OCHA in accordance with this method.
PART III: FAMILY DEBTS TO OCHA

16-III.A. OVERVIEW

Families are required to reimburse OCHA if they were charged less rent than required because the family either underreported or failed to report income. OCHA is required to determine retroactive rent amounts as far back as OCHA has documentation of family unreported income [Notice PIH 2018-18].

This part describes OCHA’s policies for recovery of monies owed to OCHA by families.

OCHA Policy

When an action or inaction of a resident family results in the underpayment of rent or other amounts, OCHA holds the family liable to return any underpayments to OCHA.

OCHA will enter into repayment agreements in accordance with the policies contained in this part as a means to recover overpayments.

16-III.B. REPAYMENT POLICY

Family Debts to OCHA

OCHA Policy

Any amount owed to OCHA by a public housing family must be repaid. If the family is unable to repay the debt within 30 days, OCHA will offer to enter into a repayment agreement in accordance with the policies below.

Refusal to Enter into An Agreement

If the family refuses to repay the debt, does not enter into a repayment agreement, or breaches a repayment agreement, OCHA will terminate the family’s tenancy.

OCHA Policy

When a family refuses to repay monies owed to OCHA, in addition to termination of program assistance, OCHA will utilize other available collection alternatives including, but not limited to, the following:

- Collection agencies
- Small claims court
- Civil lawsuit
- State income tax set-off program

Repayment Agreement [24 CFR 792.103]

The term repayment agreement refers to a formal written document signed by a tenant and provided to OCHA in which a tenant acknowledges a debt in a specific amount and agrees to repay the amount due at specific time periods.
General Repayment Agreement Guidelines

Down Payment Requirement

OCHA Policy

Before executing a repayment agreement with a family, OCHA will generally require a down payment of 25 percent of the total amount owed. If the family can provide evidence satisfactory to OCHA that a down payment of 25 percent would impose an undue hardship, OCHA may, in its sole discretion, require a lesser percentage or waive the requirement.

The full balance is to be paid within twenty-four (24) months of executed agreement.

Payment Thresholds

Notice PIH 2018-18 recommends that the total amount that a family must pay each month—the family’s monthly share of rent plus the monthly debt repayment amount—should not exceed 40 percent of the family’s monthly adjusted income, which is considered “affordable.” Moreover, Notice PIH 2018-18 acknowledges that PHAs have the discretion to establish “thresholds and policies” for repayment agreements with families [24 CFR 982.552(c)(1)(vii)].

OCHA Policy

OCHA has established the following thresholds for repayments of debts:

- A minimum payment of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per month or forty (40) percent of adjusted income including rent payment, whichever is larger, is required.
- The full balance is to be paid within twenty-four (24) months.
- Periodic Lump sum payments are encouraged to expedite the payment timeline and to finalize payments within the twenty-four (24) month timeframe.
- If a family can provide evidence satisfactory to OCHA that a monthly payment amount of twenty-five dollars ($25) would impose an undue hardship, OCHA may, in its sole discretion, require a lower monthly payment amount.
- If the family’s income increases or decreases during the term of a repayment agreement, either OCHA or the family may request that the monthly payment amount be adjusted accordingly.
- Special COVID 19 – Payback Agreements signed after July 24, 2020 and before July 1, 2024 (may be extended at OCHA’s discretion) for rental balances accrued during the COVID 19 Pandemic may be paid in monthly installments of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per month. Periodic Lump sum payments are encouraged to expedite the payment timeline and to finalize payments within the twenty-four (24) month timeframe. OCHA will generally require a down payment of 25 percent of the total amount owed. If the family can provide evidence satisfactory to OCHA that a down payment of 25 percent would impose an undue hardship, OCHA may, in its sole discretion, require a lesser percentage or waive the requirement.
Execution of the Agreement

All repayment agreements must be in writing, dated, and signed by both the family and OCHA [Notice PIH 2018-18].

OCHA Policy

Any repayment agreement between OCHA and a family must be signed and dated by OCHA and by the head of household and spouse/cohead (if applicable). The repayment agreement shall be executed for OCHA by the Director of Public Housing or designee.

Due Dates

OCHA Policy

All payments are due by the close of business on the 15th day of the month. If the 15th does not fall on a business day, the due date is the close of business on the first business day after the 15th. The remaining balance to be paid within twenty-four (24) months of executed agreement.

Late or Missed Payments

OCHA Policy

If a payment is not received by the end of the business day on the date due, and prior approval for the missed payment has not been given by OCHA, OCHA will send the family a delinquency notice giving the family 10 business days to make the late payment. If the payment is not received by the due date of the delinquency notice, it will be considered a breach of the agreement and OCHA will terminate tenancy in accordance with the policies in Chapter 13.

If a family receives three delinquency notices for unexcused late payments in a 12-month period, the repayment agreement will be considered in default, and OCHA will terminate tenancy in accordance with the policies in Chapter 13 and to pursue other modes of collection.

No Offer of Repayment Agreement

OCHA Policy

OCHA generally will not enter into a repayment agreement with a family if there is already a repayment agreement in place with the family, if the family has already been on two previous repayments agreements (even if both are paid in full), if OCHA determines the amount is more than the family can repay in a reasonable period of time, if OCHA determines that the participant has committed or attempted to commit program fraud, or if the amount owed by the family exceeds the federal or state threshold for criminal prosecution.

Repayment Agreement Terms

All repayment agreements must be in writing, dated, signed by both the family include the total retroactive rent amount owed, amount of lump sum payment made at time of execution, if applicable, and the monthly repayment amount. Notice PIH 2018-18 requires certain provisions to be included in any repayment agreement involving amounts owed by a family because it underreported or failed to report income:
- A reference to the items in the public housing lease that state the family’s obligation to provide true and complete information at every reexamination and the grounds on which OCHA may terminate assistance because of a family’s action or failure to act.
- A statement clarifying that each month the family not only must pay to OCHA the monthly payment amount specified in the agreement but must also pay to OCHA the monthly tenant rent.
- A statement that the terms of the repayment agreement may be renegotiated if the family’s income decreases or increases.
- A statement that late or missed payments constitute default of the repayment agreement and may result in termination of tenancy.
PART IV: PUBLIC HOUSING ASSESSMENT SYSTEM (PHAS)

16-IV.A. OVERVIEW

The purpose of the Public Housing Assessment System (PHAS) is to improve the delivery of services in public housing and enhance trust in the public housing system among OCHA’s, public housing residents, HUD and the general public by providing a management tool for effectively and fairly measuring the performance of a public housing agency in essential housing operations.

16-IV.B. PHAS INDICATORS [24 CFR 902 Subparts A, B, C, D, and E]

The table below lists each of PHAS indicators, the points possible under each indicator, and a brief description of each indicator. OCHA’s performance is based on a combination of all four indicators.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Indicator 1: Physical condition of OCHA’s projects</th>
<th>Maximum Score: 40</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>• The objective of this indicator is to determine the level to which OCHA is maintaining its public housing in accordance with the standard of decent, safe, sanitary, and in good repair.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• To determine the physical condition of OCHA’s projects, inspections are performed of the following five major areas of each public housing project: site, building exterior, building systems, dwelling units, and common areas. The inspections are performed by an independent inspector arranged by HUD, and include a statistically valid sample of the units in each project in OCHA’s public housing portfolio.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Indicator 2: Financial condition of OCHA’s projects</th>
<th>Maximum Score: 25</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>• The objective of this indicator is to measure the financial condition of OCHA’s public housing projects for the purpose of evaluating whether OCHA has sufficient financial resources and is capable of managing those financial resources effectively to support the provision of housing that is decent, safe, sanitary, and in good repair.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• OCHA’s financial condition is determined by measuring each public housing project’s performance in each of the following subindicators: quick ratio, months expendable net assets ratio, and debt service coverage ratio.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Indicator 3: Management operations of OCHA’s projects
Maximum Score: 25

- The objective of this indicator is to measure certain key management operations and responsibilities of OCHA’s projects for the purpose of assessing OCHA’s management operations capabilities.

- Each project’s management operations are assessed based on the following sub-indicators: occupancy, tenant accounts receivable, and accounts payable.

- An on-site management review may be conducted as a diagnostic and feedback tool for problem performance areas, and for compliance. Management reviews are not scored.

Indicator 4: Capital Fund
Maximum Score: 10

- The objective of this indicator is to measure how long it takes OCHA to obligate capital funds and to occupy units.

- OCHA’s score for this indicator is measured at OCHA level and is based on the following subindicators: timeliness of fund obligation and occupancy rate.
16-IV.C. PHAS SCORING [24 CFR 902 Subpart F]

HUD’s Real Estate Assessment Center (REAC) issues overall PHAS scores, which are based on the scores of the four PHAS indicators, and the subindicators under each indicator. OCHA’s indicator scores are based on a weighted average of OCHA’s public housing projects’ scores. PHAS scores translate into a designation for OCHA as high performing, standard, substandard, or troubled.

A high performer is a PHA that achieves an overall PHAS score of 90 or greater, and achieves a score of at least 60 percent of the points available under the physical, financial, and management indicators and at least 50 percent of the points available under the capital fund indicator.

A standard performer is a PHA that has an overall PHAS score between 60 and 89, and achieves a score of at least 60 percent of the points available under the physical, financial, and management indicators and at least 50 percent of the points available under the capital fund indicator.

A substandard performer is a PHA that has an overall PHAS score of at least 60 percent and achieves a score of less than 60 percent under one or more of the physical, financial, or management indicators.

A troubled performer is a PHA that achieves an overall PHAS score of less than 60, or achieves less than 50 percent of the total points available under the capital fund indicator.

These designations can affect OCHA in several ways:

- High-performing PHAs are eligible for incentives including relief from specific HUD requirements and bonus points in funding competitions [24 CFR 902.71].
- PHAs that are standard performers may be required to submit and operate under a corrective action plan to eliminate deficiencies in OCHA’s performance [24 CFR 902.73(a)(1)].
- PHAs that are substandard performers will be required to submit and operate under a corrective action plan to eliminate deficiencies in OCHA’s performance [24 CFR 902.73(a)(2)].
- PHAs with an overall rating of “troubled” are subject to additional HUD oversight, and are required to enter into a memorandum of agreement (MOA) with HUD to improve OCHA performance [24 CFR 902.75].
- PHAs that fail to execute or meet MOA requirements may be referred to the Assistant Secretary to determine remedial actions, including, but not limited to, remedies available for substantial default [24 CFR 902.75(g) and 24 CFR Part 907].

OCHA must post a notice of its final PHAS score and status in appropriate conspicuous and accessible locations in its offices within two weeks of receipt of its final score and designation [24 CFR 902.64(b)(2)].
PART V: RECORD KEEPING

16-V.A. OVERVIEW

OCHA must maintain complete and accurate accounts and other records for the program in accordance with HUD requirements, in a manner that permits a speedy and effective audit. All such records must be made available to HUD or the Comptroller General of the United States upon request.

In addition, OCHA must ensure that all applicant and participant files are maintained in a way that protects an individual’s privacy rights, and that comply with VAWA confidentiality requirements.

16-V.B. RECORD RETENTION

OCHA must keep the last three years of the Form HUD-50058 and supporting documentation during the term of each assisted lease, and for a period of at least three years from the end of participation (EOP) date [24 CFR 908.101].

OCHA must maintain Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system Income Reports in the tenant file for the duration of the tenancy but for a period not to exceed three years from the EOP date [Notice PIH 2018-18].

Notice PIH 2014-20 requires OCHA to keep records of all complaints, investigations, notices, and corrective actions related to violations of the Fair Housing Act or the equal access final rule.

The PHA must keep confidential records of all emergency transfer requested under the PHA’s Emergency Transfer Plan, and the outcomes of such requests, and retain the records for a period of three years, or for a period of time as specific in program regulations [24 CFR 5.2002(e)(12)].

OCHA Policy

During the term of each public housing tenancy, and for at least three years thereafter, OCHA will keep all documents related to a family’s eligibility, tenancy, and termination.

OCHA will keep Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system Income Reports in the tenant file for the duration of the tenancy and for three years from the end of participation date.

In addition, OCHA will keep the following records for at least three years:

- An application from each ineligible family and notice that the applicant is not eligible
- Lead-based paint records as required by 24 CFR 35, Subpart B
- Documentation supporting the establishment of flat rents
- Documentation supporting the establishment of utility allowances and surcharges
- Documentation related to PHAS
- Accounts and other records supporting OCHA budget and financial statements for the program

Revised 6/28/2023
Complaints, investigations, notices, and corrective actions related to violations of the Fair Housing Act, the equal access final rule, or VAWA

Confidential records of all emergency transfer requested under the PHA’s Emergency Transfer Plan, and the outcomes of such requests

Other records as determined by OCHA or as required by HUD

If a hearing to establish a family’s citizenship status is held, longer retention requirements apply for some types of documents. For specific requirements, see Section 14-II.A.

16-V.C. RECORDS MANAGEMENT

OCHA must maintain applicant and participant files and information in accordance with the regulatory requirements described below.

OCHA Policy

All applicant and participant information will be kept in a secure location and access will be limited to authorized OCHA staff. An applicant and participant must fill out a record request form and it must be approved before records may be given to an applicant or participant. Copies of any documents will be at a cost of $.25 per page once approved. At the time of application, lease in and re-examination meetings certain signed forms and documents may be received free of charge upon request by applicant or participant.

OCHA staff will not discuss personal family information unless there is a business reason to do so. Inappropriate discussion of family information or improper disclosure of family information by staff will result in disciplinary action.

Privacy Act Requirements [24 CFR 5.212 and Form-9886]

The collection, maintenance, use, and dissemination of social security numbers (SSN), employer identification numbers (EIN), any information derived from these numbers, and income information of applicants and participants must be conducted, to the extent applicable, in compliance with the Privacy Act of 1974, and all other provisions of Federal, State, and local law.

Applicants and participants, including all adults in the household, are required to sign a consent form, HUD-9886, Authorization for Release of Information. This form incorporates the Federal Privacy Act Statement and describes how the information collected using the form may be used, and under what conditions HUD or OCHA may release the information collected.

Upfront Income Verification (UIV) Records

PHAs that access UIV data through HUD’s Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system are required to adopt and follow specific security procedures to ensure that all EIV data is protected in accordance with federal laws, regardless of the media on which the data is recorded (e.g. electronic, paper). These requirements are contained in the HUD-issued document, Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) System, Security Procedures for Upfront Income Verification (UIV) Data.

OCHA Policy

Prior to utilizing HUD’s EIV system, OCHA will adopt and implement EIV security procedures required by HUD.
Criminal Records

OCHA may only disclose the criminal conviction records which OCHA receives from a law enforcement agency to officers or employees of OCHA, or to authorized representatives of OCHA who have a job-related need to have access to the information [24 CFR 5.903(e)].

OCHA must establish and implement a system of records management that ensures that any criminal record received by OCHA from a law enforcement agency is maintained confidentially, not misused or improperly disseminated, and destroyed, once the purpose for which the record was requested has been accomplished, including expiration of the period for filing a challenge to OCHA action without institution of a challenge or final disposition of any such litigation [24 CFR 5.903(g)].

OCHA must establish and implement a system of records management that ensures that any sex offender registration information received by OCHA from a State or local agency is maintained confidentially, not misused or improperly disseminated, and destroyed, once the purpose for which the record was requested has been accomplished, including expiration of the period for filing a challenge to OCHA action without institution of a challenge or final disposition of any such litigation. However, a record of the screening, including the type of screening and the date performed must be retained [Notice PIH 2012-28]. This requirement does not apply to information that is public information, or is obtained by OCHA other than under 24 CFR 5.905.

Medical/Disability Records

OCHA is not permitted to inquire about the nature or extent of a person’s disability. OCHA may not inquire about a person’s diagnosis or details of treatment for a disability or medical condition. If OCHA receives a verification document that provides such information, OCHA should not place this information in the tenant file. OCHA should destroy the document.

Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, Stalking, or Human Trafficking

For requirements and OCHA policies related to management of documentation obtained from victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking, see section 16-VILE.
PART VI: REPORTING REQUIREMENTS FOR CHILDREN WITH ELEVATED BLOOD LEAD LEVEL

16-VI.A. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS [24 CFR 35.1130(e) Notice PIH 2017-13]]

OCHA has certain responsibilities relative to children with elevated blood lead levels that are living in public housing.

OCHA must report the name and address of a child identified as having an elevated blood lead level to the public health department within 5 business days of being so notified by any other medical health care professional. OCHA must also report each known case of a child with an elevated blood lead level to the HUD field office.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will provide the public health department written notice of the name and address of any child identified as having an elevated blood lead level.

OCHA will provide written notice of each known case of a child with an elevated blood lead level to the HUD field office within 5 business days of receiving the information.
PART VII: VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT (VAWA): NOTIFICATION, DOCUMENTATION, AND CONFIDENTIALITY

16-VII.A. OVERVIEW

The Violence against Women Act (VAWA) provides special protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, and human trafficking who are applying for or receiving assistance under the public housing program. If your state or local laws provide greater protection for such victims, those apply in conjunction with VAWA.

- Although the VAWA 2022 statute does not specifically include human trafficking in the list of victims protected under VAWA, in 2022 HUD began including human trafficking as part of the list of victims protected under VAWA (as seen in Notices PIH 2022-06, PIH 2022-22, and PIH 2022-24). In the absence of a final rule implementing VAWA 2022 and to mirror HUD’s recent usage, this policy includes human trafficking in addition to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking anywhere such a list appears.

In addition to definitions of key terms used in VAWA, this part contains general VAWA requirements and OCHA policies in three areas: notification, documentation, and confidentiality. Specific VAWA requirements and OCHA policies are located in Chapter 3, “Eligibility” (sections 3-I.C and 3-III.F); Chapter 5, “Occupancy Standards and Unit Offers” (section 5-II.D); Chapter 8, “Leasing and Inspections” (section 8-I.B); Chapter 12, “Transfer Policy” (sections 12-III.C, 12-III.F, and 12-IV.D); and Chapter 13, “Lease Terminations” (sections 13-III.F and 13-IV.D).

As used in VAWA:

- The term affiliated individual means, with respect to a person:
  - A spouse, parent, brother or sister, or child of that individual, or an individual to whom that person stands in the position or place of a parent; or
  - Any individual, tenant or lawful occupant living in the household of the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

- The term bifurcate means, with respect to a public housing or Section 8 lease, to divide a lease as a matter of law such that certain tenants can be evicted or removed while the remaining family members’ lease and occupancy rights are allowed to remain intact.

- The term dating violence means violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:
  - The length of the relationship
  - The type of relationship
  - The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship

- The term domestic violence includes felony or misdemeanor crimes committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim under the family or domestic violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant funding, and in the case of victim services, includes the user or attempted use of physical abuse or sexual abuse, or a pattern of any other coercive behavior committed, enabled, or solicited to gain or maintain power and control over a victim, including verbal, psychological, economic, or technological abuse that may or may not constitute criminal behavior, by a person who is:

- The current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, or person similarly situated to a spouse or intimate partner of the victim
- A person who is cohabitating or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner
- A person with whom the victim shares a child in common
- A person who commits acts against an youth or adult victim who is protected from those acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction

• The term economic abuse means behavior that is coercive, deceptive, or unreasonably controls or restrains a person’s ability to acquire, use, or maintain economic resources to which they are entitled, including using coercion, fraud, and manipulation to:
  - Restrict a person’s access to money, assets, credit, or financial information
  - Unfairly use a person’s personal economic resources, including money, assets, and credit, for one’s own advantage
  - Exert undue influence over a person’s financial and economic behavior or decisions, including forcing default on joint or other financial obligations, exploiting powers of attorney, guardianship, or conservatorship, or to whom one has a fiduciary duty
The term sexual assault means:
- Any nonconsensual sexual act proscribed by Federal, tribal, or State law, including when the victim lacks the capacity to consent

- The term stalking means:
  - To engage in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for their safety or the safety of others, or suffer substantial emotional distress.

- The term technological abuse means an act or pattern of behavior that occurs within domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking and is intended to harm, threaten, intimidate, control, stalk, harass, impersonate, exploit, extort, or monitor another person, except as otherwise permitted by law, that occurs using any form of technology, including but not limited to:
  - Internet enabled devices
  - Online spaces and platforms
  - Computers
  - Mobile devices
  - Cameras and imaging programs
  - Apps
  - Location tracking devices
  - Communication technologies
  - Any other emergency technologies

16-VII.C. NOTIFICATION [24 CFR 5.2005(a)]

Notification to Public

OCHA adopts the following policy to help ensure that all actual and potential beneficiaries of its public housing program are aware of their rights under VAWA.

OCHA Policy

OCHA will post the following information regarding VAWA in its offices and on its Web site. It will also make the information readily available to anyone who requests it.

- A notice of occupancy rights under VAWA to Public Housing program applicants and participants who are or have been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking (Form HUD-5380, see Exhibit 16-1)
- A copy of form HUD-5382, Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking and Alternate Documentation (see Exhibit 16-2)
- A copy of the PHA’s emergency transfer plan (Exhibit 16-3)
A copy of HUD’s Emergency Transfer Request for Certain Victims of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking, Form HUD-5383 (Exhibit 16-4)

The National Domestic Violence Hot Line: 1-800-799-SAFE (7233) or 1-800-787-3224 (TTY) (included in Exhibit 16-1)

Contact information for local victim advocacy groups or service providers

Notification to Applicants and Tenants [24 CFR 5.2005(a)(1)]

OCHA is required to inform public housing applicants and tenants of their rights under VAWA, including their right to confidentiality and the limits thereof, when they are denied assistance, when they are admitted to the program, and when they are notified of an eviction or termination of housing benefits.

OCHA must distribute a notice of VAWA rights, along with the VAWA self-certification form (HUD-5382) at each of these three junctures.

OCHA Policy

The VAWA information provided to applicants and tenants will consist of the notice of VAWA rights in Exhibit 16-1 and a copy of form HUD-5382, Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, and Stalking.

OCHA will provide all applicants with information about VAWA at the time they request an application for housing assistance. OCHA will also include such information in all notices of denial of assistance (see section 3-III.F).

OCHA will provide all tenants with information about VAWA at the time of admission (see section 8-I.B) and at annual reexamination. OCHA will also include such information in all lease termination notices (see section 13-IV.D).

OCHA is not limited to providing VAWA information at the times specified in the above policy. If OCHA decides to provide VAWA information to a tenant following an incident of domestic violence, Notice PIH 2017-08 cautions against sending the information by mail, since the abuser may be monitoring the mail. The notice recommends that in such cases OCHA make alternative delivery arrangements that will not put the victim at risk.

OCHA Policy

Whenever OCHA has reason to suspect that providing information about VAWA to a public housing tenant might place a victim of domestic violence at risk, it will attempt to deliver the information by hand directly to the victim.
When OCHA is presented with a claim for initial or continued assistance based on status as a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, human trafficking, or criminal activity related to any of these forms of abuse may—but is not required to—request that the individual making the claim document the abuse. Any request for documentation must be in writing, and the individual must be allowed at least 14 business days after receipt of the request to submit the documentation. OCHA may extend this time period at its discretion. [24 CFR 5.2007(a)]

The individual may satisfy OCHA’s request by providing any one of the following three forms of documentation [24 CFR 5.2007(b)]:

1. A completed and signed HUD-approved certification form (HUD-5382, Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking), which must include the name of the perpetrator only if the name of the perpetrator is safe to provide and is known to the victim

2. A federal, state, tribal, territorial, or local police report or court record

3. Documentation signed by a person who has assisted the victim in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, human trafficking, or the effects of such abuse. This person may be an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider; an attorney; a mental health professional; or a medical professional. The person signing the documentation must attest under penalty of perjury to the person’s belief that the incidents in question are bona fide incidents of abuse. The victim must also sign the documentation.

OCHA may not require third-party documentation (forms 2 and 3) in addition to certification (form 1), except as specified below under “Conflicting Documentation,” nor may it require certification in addition to third-party documentation [FR Notice 11/16/16].

OCHA Policy

Any request for documentation of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking will be in writing, will specify a deadline of 14 business days following receipt of the request, will describe the three forms of acceptable documentation, will provide explicit instructions on where and to whom the documentation must be submitted, and will state the consequences for failure to submit the documentation or request an extension in writing by the deadline.

OCHA may, in its discretion, extend the deadline for 10 business days. In determining whether to extend the deadline, OCHA will consider factors that may contribute to the victim’s inability to provide documentation in a timely manner, including cognitive limitations, disabilities, limited English proficiency, absence from the unit, administrative delays, the danger of further violence, and the victim’s need to address health or safety issues. Any extension granted by OCHA will be in writing. Once the victim provides documentation, OCHA will acknowledge receipt of the documentation within 10 business days.

Revised 6/28/2023
Conflicting Documentation [24 CFR 5.2007(e)]

In cases where OCHA receives conflicting certification documents from two or more members of a household, each claiming to be a victim and naming one or more of the other petitioning household members as the perpetrator, OCHA may determine which is the true victim by requiring each to provide acceptable third-party documentation, as described above (forms 2 and 3). OCHA may also request third-party documentation when submitted documentation contains information that conflicts with existing information already available to OCHA. OCHA must honor any court orders issued to protect the victim or to address the distribution of property. Individuals have 30 calendar days to return third-party verification to OCHA. If OCHA does not receive third-party documentation, and the PHA will deny or terminate assistance as a result, the PHA must hold separate hearings for the tenants [Notice PIH 2017-08].

OCHA Policy

If presented with conflicting certification documents (two or more forms HUD-5382) from members of the same household, OCHA will attempt to determine which is the true victim by requiring each of them to provide third-party documentation in accordance with 24 CFR 5.2007(e) and by following any HUD guidance on how such determinations should be made. When requesting third-party documents, the OCHA will provide contact information for local domestic violence and legal aid offices. In such cases, applicants or tenants will be given 30 calendar days from the date of the request to provide such documentation.

If the OCHA does not receive third-party documentation within the required timeframe (and any extension) the OCHA will deny VAWA protections and will notify the applicant or tenant in writing of the denial. If, as a result, the applicant or tenant is denied or terminated from the program, the PHA will hold separate hearings for the applicants or tenants.

Discretion to Require No Formal Documentation [24 CFR 5.2007(d)]

OCHA has the discretion to provide benefits to an individual based solely on the individual’s statement or other corroborating evidence—i.e., without requiring formal documentation of abuse in accordance with 24 CFR 5.2007(b). HUD recommends documentation in a confidential manner when a verbal statement or other evidence is accepted.

OCHA Policy

If OCHA accepts an individual’s statement or other corroborating evidence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking, OCHA will document acceptance of the statement or evidence in the individual’s file.

Failure to Provide Documentation [24 CFR 5.2007(c)]

In order to deny relief for protection under VAWA, OCHA must provide the individual requesting relief with a written request for documentation of abuse. If the individual fails to provide the documentation within 14 business days from the date of receipt, or such longer time as OCHA may allow, OCHA may deny relief for protection under VAWA.
16-VII.E. CONFIDENTIALITY [24 CFR 5.2007(b)(4)]

All information provided to OCHA regarding domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking, including the fact that an individual is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking, must be retained in confidence. This means that OCHA (1) may not enter the information into any shared database, (2) may not allow employees or others to access the information unless they are explicitly authorized to do so and have a need to know the information for purposes of their work, and (3) may not provide the information to any other entity or individual, except to the extent that the disclosure is (a) requested or consented to by the individual in writing, (b) required for use in an eviction proceeding, or (c) otherwise required by applicable law.

OCHA Policy

If disclosure is required for use in an eviction proceeding or is otherwise required by applicable law, OCHA will inform the victim before disclosure occurs so that safety risks can be identified and addressed.
EXHIBIT 16-1: SAMPLE NOTICE OF OCCUPANCY RIGHTS UNDER THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT, FORM HUD-5380

OKLAHOMA CITY HOUSING AUTHORITY
Public Housing Program

Notice of Occupancy Rights under the Violence Against Women Act

To all Tenants and Applicants
The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) provides protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. VAWA protections are not only available to women, but are available equally to all individuals regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) is the Federal agency that oversees that Oklahoma City Housing Authority (OCHA) is in compliance with VAWA. This notice explains your rights under VAWA. A HUD-approved certification form is attached to this notice. You can fill out this form to show that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and that you wish to use your rights under VAWA.

Protections for Applicants
If you otherwise qualify for assistance under OCHA you cannot be denied admission or denied assistance because you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Protections for Tenants
If you are receiving assistance under OCHA, you may not be denied assistance, terminated from participation, or be evicted from your rental housing because you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Also, if you or an affiliated individual of yours is or has been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking by a member of your household or any guest, you may not be denied rental assistance or occupancy rights under OCHA solely on the basis of criminal activity directly relating to that domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

1 Despite the name of this law, VAWA protection is available regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

2 Housing providers cannot discriminate on the basis of any protected characteristic, including race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, disability, or age. HUD-assisted and HUD-insured housing must be made available to all otherwise eligible individuals regardless of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status.
Affiliated individual means your spouse, parent, brother, sister, or child, or a person to whom you stand in the place of a parent or guardian (for example, the affiliated individual is in your care, custody, or control); or any individual, tenant, or lawful occupant living in your household.

Removing the Abuser or Perpetrator from the Household

OCHA may divide (bifurcate) your lease in order to evict the individual or terminate the assistance of the individual who has engaged in criminal activity (the abuser or perpetrator) directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

If OCHA chooses to remove the abuser or perpetrator, OCHA may not take away the rights of eligible tenants to the unit or otherwise punish the remaining tenants. If the evicted abuser or perpetrator was the sole tenant to have established eligibility for assistance under the program, OCHA must allow the tenant who is or has been a victim and other household members to remain in the unit for a period of time, in order to establish eligibility under the program or under another HUD housing program covered by VAWA, or, find alternative housing.

In removing the abuser or perpetrator from the household, OCHA must follow Federal, State, and local eviction procedures. In order to divide a lease, OCHA may, but is not required to, ask you for documentation or certification of the incidences of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Moving to Another Unit

Upon your request, OCHA may permit you to move to another unit, subject to the availability of other units, and still keep your assistance. In order to approve a request, OCHA may ask you to provide documentation that you are requesting to move because of an incidence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If the request is a request for emergency transfer, the housing provider may ask you to submit a written request or fill out a form where you certify that you meet the criteria for an emergency transfer under VAWA. The criteria are:

1. You are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If your housing provider does not already have documentation that you are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, your housing provider may ask you for such documentation, as described in the documentation section below.

2. You expressly request the emergency transfer. Your housing provider may choose to require that you submit a form, or may accept another written or oral request.

3. You reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your current unit. This means you have a reason to fear that if you do not receive a transfer you would suffer violence in the very near future.

OR
You are a victim of sexual assault and the assault occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar-day period before you request a transfer. If you are a victim of sexual assault, then in addition to qualifying for an emergency transfer because you reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your unit, you may qualify for an emergency transfer if the sexual assault occurred on the premises of the property from which you are seeking your transfer, and that assault happened within the 90-calendar-day period before you expressly request the transfer.

OCHA will keep confidential requests for emergency transfers by victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and the location of any move by such victims and their families.

OCHA’s emergency transfer plan provides further information on emergency transfers, and OCHA must make a copy of its emergency transfer plan available to you if you ask to see it.

Documenting You Are or Have Been a Victim of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking

OCHA can, but is not required to, ask you to provide documentation to “certify” that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Such request from OCHA must be in writing, and OCHA must give you at least 14 business days (Saturdays, Sundays, and Federal holidays do not count) from the day you receive the request to provide the documentation. OCHA may, but does not have to, extend the deadline for the submission of documentation upon your request.

You can provide one of the following to OCHA as documentation. It is your choice which of the following to submit if OCHA asks you to provide documentation that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

- A complete HUD-approved certification form given to you by OCHA with this notice, that documents an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The form will ask for your name, the date, time, and location of the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and a description of the incident. The certification form provides for including the name of the abuser or perpetrator if the name of the abuser or perpetrator is known and is safe to provide.

- A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial, or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency that documents the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Examples of such records include police reports, protective orders, and restraining orders, among others.

- A statement, which you must sign, along with the signature of an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, a medical professional or a mental health professional (collectively, “professional”) from whom you sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse, and with the professional selected by you attesting under penalty of perjury that they believe that the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking are grounds for protection.

- Any other statement or evidence that OCHA has agreed to accept.

If you fail or refuse to provide one of these documents within the 14 business days, OCHA does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

If OCHA receives conflicting evidence that an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking has been committed (such as certification forms from two or more members of a household each claiming to be a victim and naming one or more of the other petitioning household members as the abuser or perpetrator), OCHA has the right to request that you provide third-party documentation within thirty 30 calendar days in order to resolve the conflict. If you fail or refuse to provide third-party documentation where there is conflicting evidence, OCHA does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

Confidentiality

OCHA must keep confidential any information you provide related to the exercise of your rights under VAWA, including the fact that you are exercising your rights under VAWA.

OCHA must not allow any individual administering assistance or other services on behalf of OCHA (for example, employees and contractors) to have access to confidential information unless for reasons that specifically call for these individuals to have access to this information under applicable Federal, State, or local law.

OCHA must not enter your information into any shared database or disclose your information to any other entity or individual. OCHA, however, may disclose the information provided if:

- You give written permission to OCHA to release the information on a time limited basis.
- OCHA needs to use the information in an eviction or termination proceeding, such as to evict your abuser or perpetrator or terminate your abuser or perpetrator from assistance under this program.
- A law requires OCHA or your landlord to release the information.

VAWA does not limit OCHA’s duty to honor court orders about access to or control of the property. This includes orders issued to protect a victim and orders dividing property among household members in cases where a family breaks up.

Reasons a Tenant Eligible for Occupancy Rights under VAWA May Be Evicted or Assistance May Be Terminated

You can be evicted and your assistance can be terminated for serious or repeated lease violations that are not related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking committed against you. However, OCHA cannot hold tenants who have been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to a more demanding set of rules than it applies to tenants who have not been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

The protections described in this notice might not apply, and you could be evicted and your assistance terminated, if OCHA can demonstrate that not evicting you or terminating your assistance would present a real physical danger that:

1) Would occur within an immediate time frame, and

2) Could result in death or serious bodily harm to other tenants or those who work on the property.

If OCHA can demonstrate the above, OCHA should only terminate your assistance or evict you if there are no other actions that could be taken to reduce or eliminate the threat.

Other Laws

VAWA does not replace any Federal, State, or local law that provides greater protection for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. You may be entitled to additional housing protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking under other Federal laws, as well as under State and local laws.

Non-Compliance with The Requirements of This Notice

You may report a covered housing provider’s violations of these rights and seek additional assistance, if needed, by contacting or filing a complaint with Oklahoma City HUD Field Office at 405-609-8400.

For Additional Information

You may view a copy of HUD’s final VAWA rule at https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2014/10/20/2014-24284/violence-against-women-act

Additionally, OCHA must make a copy of HUD’s VAWA regulations available to you if you ask to see them.

For questions regarding VAWA, please contact the Director of Public Housing at 405-605-3273.

For help regarding an abusive relationship, you may call the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 1-800-799-7233 or, for persons with hearing impairments, 1-800-787-3224 (TTY).

EXHIBIT 16-2: CERTIFICATION OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, DATING VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, OR STALKING AND ALTERNATE DOCUMENTATION, FORM HUD-5382

CERTIFICATION OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, DATING VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, OR STALKING, AND ALTERNATE DOCUMENTATION

Purpose of Form: The Violence Against Women Act (“VAWA”) protects applicants, tenants, and program participants in certain HUD programs from being evicted, denied housing assistance, or terminated from housing assistance based on acts of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against them. Despite the name of this law, VAWA protection is available to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

Use of This Optional Form: If you are seeking VAWA protections from your housing provider, your housing provider may give you a written request that asks you to submit documentation about the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

In response to this request, you or someone on your behalf may complete this optional form and submit it to your housing provider, or you may submit one of the following types of third-party documentation:

(1) A document signed by you and an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, or medical professional, or a mental health professional (collectively, “professional”) from whom you have sought assistance relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse. The document must specify, under penalty of perjury, that the professional believes the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking occurred and meet the definition of “domestic violence,” “dating violence,” “sexual assault,” or “stalking” in HUD’s regulations at 24 CFR 5.2003.

(2) A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency; or

(3) At the discretion of the housing provider, a statement or other evidence provided by the applicant or tenant.

Submission of Documentation: The time period to submit documentation is 14 business days from the date that you receive a written request from your housing provider asking that you provide documentation of the occurrence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Your housing provider may, but is not required to, extend the time period to submit the documentation, if you request an extension of the time period. If the requested information is not received within 14 business days of when you received the request for the documentation, or any extension of the date provided by your housing provider, your housing provider does not need to grant you any of the VAWA protections. Distribution or issuance of this form does not serve as a written request for certification.

Revised 5/24/17
Confidentiality: All information provided to your housing provider concerning the incident(s) of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking shall be kept confidential and such details shall not be entered into any shared database. Employees of your housing provider are not to have access to these details unless to grant or deny VAWA protections to you, and such employees may not disclose this information to any other entity or individual, except to the extent that disclosure is: (i) consented to by you in writing in a time-limited release; (ii) required for use in an eviction proceeding or hearing regarding termination of assistance; or (iii) otherwise required by applicable law.

Public Reporting Burden: The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1 hour per response. This includes the time for collecting, reviewing, and reporting the data. The information provided is to be used by the housing provider to request certification that the applicant or tenant is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The information is subject to the confidentiality requirements of VAWA. This agency may not collect this information, and you are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid Office of Management and Budget control number.
Oklahoma City Housing Authority

Public Housing Program

Model Emergency Transfer Plan for Victims of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking

Emergency Transfers

Oklahoma City Housing Authority (OCHA) is concerned about the safety of its tenants, and such concern extends to tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. In accordance with the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), OCHA allows tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to request an emergency transfer from the tenant’s current unit to another unit. The ability to request a transfer is available regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation. The ability of OCHA to honor such request for tenants currently receiving assistance, however, may depend upon a preliminary determination that the tenant is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and on whether OCHA has another dwelling unit that is available and is safe to offer the tenant for temporary or more permanent occupancy.

This plan identifies tenants who are eligible for an emergency transfer, the documentation needed to request an emergency transfer, confidentiality protections, how an emergency transfer may occur, and guidance to tenants on safety and security. This plan is based on a model emergency transfer plan published by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), the Federal agency that oversees that OCHA is in compliance with VAWA.

Eligibility for Emergency Transfers

A tenant who is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, as provided in HUD’s regulations at 24 CFR part 5, subpart L is eligible for an emergency transfer, if: the tenant reasonably believes that there is a threat of imminent harm from further violence if the tenant remains within the same unit. If the tenant is a victim of sexual assault, the tenant may also be eligible to transfer if the sexual assault occurred on the premises within the 90-calendar-day period preceding a request for an emergency transfer. A tenant requesting an emergency transfer must expressly request the transfer in accordance with the procedures described in this plan.

3 Despite the name of this law, VAWA protection is available to all victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

4 Housing providers cannot discriminate on the basis of any protected characteristic, including race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, disability, or age. HUD-assisted and HUD-insured housing must be made available to all otherwise eligible individuals regardless of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status.
Tenants who are not in good standing may still request an emergency transfer if they meet the eligibility requirements in this section.

Emergency Transfer Request Documentation

To request an emergency transfer, the tenant shall notify OCHA’s management office and submit a written request for a transfer to OCHA. OCHA will provide reasonable accommodations to this policy for individuals with disabilities. The tenant’s written request for an emergency transfer should include either:

1. A statement expressing that the tenant reasonably believes that there is a threat of imminent harm from further violence if the tenant were to remain in the same dwelling unit assisted under OCHA’s program; OR
2. A statement that the tenant was a sexual assault victim and that the sexual assault occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar-day period preceding the tenant’s request for an emergency transfer.

Confidentiality

OCHA will keep confidential any information that the tenant submits in requesting an emergency transfer, and information about the emergency transfer, unless the tenant gives OCHA written permission to release the information on a time limited basis, or disclosure of the information is required by law or required for use in an eviction proceeding or hearing regarding termination of assistance from the covered program. This includes keeping confidential the new location of the dwelling unit of the tenant, if one is provided, from the person(s) that committed an act(s) of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against the tenant. See the Notice of Occupancy Rights under the Violence against Women Act for All Tenants for more information about OCHA’s responsibility to maintain the confidentiality of information related to incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Emergency Transfer Timing and Availability

OCHA cannot guarantee that a transfer request will be approved or how long it will take to process a transfer request. OCHA will, however, act as quickly as possible to move a tenant who is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to another unit, subject to availability and safety of a unit. If a tenant reasonably believes a proposed transfer would not be safe, the tenant may request a transfer to a different unit. If a unit is available, the transferred tenant must agree to abide by the terms and conditions that govern occupancy in the unit to which the tenant has been transferred. OCHA may be unable to transfer a tenant to a particular unit if the tenant has not or cannot establish eligibility for that unit. If OCHA has no safe and available units for which a tenant who needs an emergency is eligible, OCHA will assist the tenant in identifying other housing providers who may have safe and available units to which the tenant could move. At the tenant’s request, OCHA will also assist tenants in contacting the local... organizations offering assistance to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking that are attached to this plan.

Safety and Security of Tenants

Pending processing of the transfer and the actual transfer, if it is approved and occurs, the tenant is urged to take all reasonable precautions to be safe.

Tenants who are or have been victims of domestic violence are encouraged to contact the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 1-800-799-7233, or a local domestic violence shelter, for assistance in creating a safety plan. For persons with hearing impairments, that hotline can be accessed by calling 1-800-787-3224 (TTY).

Tenants who have been victims of sexual assault may call the Rape, Abuse & Incest National Network’s National Sexual Assault Hotline at 800-656-HOPE, or visit the online hotline at https://ohl.rainn.org/online/.

Tenants who are or have been victims of stalking seeking help may visit the National Center for Victims of Crime’s Stalking Resource Center at https://www.victimsofcrime.org/our-programs/stalking-resource-center.

EXHIBIT 16-4: EMERGENCY TRANSFER REQUEST FOR CERTAIN VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, DATING VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, OR STALKING, FORM HUD-5383

Purpose of Form: If you are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and you are seeking an emergency transfer, you may use this form to request an emergency transfer and certify that you meet the requirements of eligibility for an emergency transfer under the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA). Although the statutory name references women, VAWA rights and protections apply to all victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking. Using this form does not necessarily mean that you will receive an emergency transfer. See your housing provider’s emergency transfer plan for more information about the availability of emergency transfers.

The requirements you must meet are:

(1) You are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If your housing provider does not already have documentation that you are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, your housing provider may ask you for such documentation. In response, you may submit Form HUD-5382, or any one of the other types of documentation listed on that Form.

(2) You expressly request the emergency transfer. Submission of this form confirms that you have expressly requested a transfer. Your housing provider may choose to require that you submit this form, or may accept another written or oral request. Please see your housing provider’s emergency transfer plan for more details.

(3) You reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your current unit. This means you have a reason to fear that if you do not receive a transfer you would suffer violence in the very near future.

OR

You are a victim of sexual assault and the assault occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar-day period before you request a transfer. If you are a victim of sexual assault, then in addition to qualifying for an emergency transfer because you reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your unit, you may qualify for an emergency transfer if the sexual assault occurred on the premises of the property from which you are seeking your transfer, and that assault happened within the 90-calendar-day period before you submit this form or otherwise expressly request the transfer.

Submission of Documentation: If you have third-party documentation that demonstrates why you are eligible for an emergency transfer, you should submit that documentation to your housing provider if it is safe for you to do so. Examples of third party documentation include, but are not limited to: a letter or other documentation from a victim service provider, social worker, legal assistance provider, pastoral counselor, mental health provider, or other professional from whom you have sought assistance; a current restraining order; a recent court order or other court records; a law enforcement report or records; communication records from the perpetrator of the violence or family members or friends of the perpetrator of the violence, including emails, voicemails, text messages, and social media posts.
Confidentiality: All information provided to your housing provider concerning the incident(s) of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and concerning your request for an emergency transfer shall be kept confidential. Such details shall not be entered into any shared database. Employees of your housing provider are not to have access to these details unless to grant or deny VAWA protections or an emergency transfer to you. Such employees may not disclose this information to any other entity or individual, except to the extent that disclosure is: (i) consented to by you in writing in a time-limited release; (ii) required for use in an eviction proceeding or hearing regarding termination of assistance; or (iii) otherwise required by applicable law.

TO BE COMPLETED BY OR ON BEHALF OF THE PERSON REQUESTING A TRANSFER

1. Name of victim requesting an emergency transfer: _________________________________

2. Your name (if different from victim’s) __________________________________________

3. Name(s) of other family member(s) listed on the lease: ____________________________

4. Name(s) of other family member(s) who would transfer with the victim:______________

5. Address of location from which the victim seeks to transfer: _________________________

6. Address or phone number for contacting the victim: ______________________________

7. Name of the accused perpetrator (if known and can be safely disclosed): _____________

8. Relationship of the accused perpetrator to the victim: ______________________________

9. Date(s), Time(s) and location(s) of incident(s): _________________________________

10. Is the person requesting the transfer a victim of a sexual assault that occurred in the past 90 days on the premises of the property from which the victim is seeking a transfer? If yes, skip question 11. If no, fill out question 11. ______________

11. Describe why the victim believes they are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if they remain in their current unit.

______________________________________________________________________________

12. If voluntarily provided, list any third-party documentation you are providing along with this notice: _______________________________________________________________________

Revised 5/24/17
This is to certify that the information provided on this form is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, and that the individual named above in Item 1 meets the requirement laid out on this form for an emergency transfer. I acknowledge that submission of false information could jeopardize program eligibility and could be the basis for denial of admission, termination of assistance, or eviction.

B. GLOSSARY OF PUBLIC HOUSING TERMS

Accessible. The facility or portion of the facility can be approached, entered, and used by persons with disabilities.

Adjusted income. Annual income, less allowable HUD deductions and allowances.

Affiliated individual. With respect to an individual, a spouse, parent, brother, sister, or child of that individual, or a person to whom that individual stands in loco parentis (in the position or place of a parent), or any individual, tenant, or lawful occupant living in the household of the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Alternative non-public housing rent. A monthly rent equal to the greater of:
- The applicable fair market rent, as defined in 24 CFR part 888, subpart A, for the unit; or
- The amount of the monthly subsidy provided for the unit, which will be determined by adding the per unit assistance provided to a public housing property as calculated through the applicable formulas for the Public Housing Capital Fund and Public Housing Operating Fund.

Annual contributions contract (ACC). The written contract between HUD and a PHA under which HUD agrees to provide funding for a program under the 1937 Act, and the PHA agrees to comply with HUD requirements for the program.

Annual income. The anticipated total income of an eligible family from all sources for the 12-month period following the date of determination of income, computed in accordance with the regulations.

Applicant (applicant family). A family that has applied for admission to a program but is not yet a participant in the program.

As-paid states. States where the welfare agency adjusts the shelter and utility component of the welfare grant in accordance with actual housing costs.

Assets. (See net family assets.)

Auxiliary aids. Services or devices that enable persons with impaired sensory, manual, or speaking skills to have an equal opportunity to participate in, and enjoy the benefits of, programs or activities receiving federal financial assistance.

Bifurcate. With respect to a public housing or Section 8 lease, to divide a lease as a matter of law such that certain tenants can be evicted or removed while the remaining family members’ lease and occupancy rights are allowed to remain intact.

Ceiling rent. The highest rent amount the PHA will require a family to pay, for a particular unit size, when the family is paying an income-based rent.

Child. A member of the family other than the family head or spouse who is under 18 years of age.
Child care expenses. Amounts anticipated to be paid by the family for the care of children under 13 years of age during the period for which annual income is computed, but only where such care is necessary to enable a family member to actively seek employment, be gainfully employed, or to further their education and only to the extent such amounts are not reimbursed. The amount deducted shall reflect reasonable charges for child care. In the case of child care necessary to permit employment, the amount deducted shall not exceed the amount of employment income that is included in annual income.

Citizen. A citizen or national of the United States.

Cohead. An individual in the household who is equally responsible for the lease with the head of household. A family may have a cohead or spouse but not both. A cohead never qualifies as a dependent. The cohead must have legal capacity to enter into a lease.

Confirmatory review. An on-site review performed by HUD to verify the management performance of a PHA.

Consent form. Any consent form approved by HUD to be signed by assistance applicants and participants to obtain income information from employers and SWICAs; return information from the Social Security Administration (including wages, net earnings from self-employment, and retirement income); and return information for unearned income from the IRS. Consent forms expire after a certain time and may authorize the collection of other information to determine eligibility or level of benefits.

Covered families. Statutory term for families who are required to participate in a welfare agency economic self-sufficiency program and who may be subject to a welfare benefit sanction for noncompliance with this obligation. Includes families who receive welfare assistance or other public assistance under a program for which federal, state, or local law requires that a member of the family must participate in an economic self-sufficiency program as a condition for the assistance.

Dating violence. Violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:

- The length of the relationship
- The type of relationship
- The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship

Dependent. A member of the family (except foster children and foster adults) other than the family head or spouse, who is under 18 years of age, or is a person with a disability, or is a full-time student.

Dependent child. In the context of the student eligibility restrictions, a dependent child of a student enrolled in an institution of higher education. The dependent child must also meet the definition of dependent as specified above.
Disability assistance expenses. Reasonable expenses that are anticipated, during the period for which annual income is computed, for attendant care and auxiliary apparatus for a disabled family member, and that are necessary to enable a family member (including the disabled member) to be employed, provided that the expenses are neither paid to a member of the family nor reimbursed by an outside source.

Disabled family. A family whose head, cohead, spouse, or sole member is a person with disabilities; two or more persons with disabilities living together; or one or more persons with disabilities living with one or more live-in aides.

Disabled person. See person with disabilities.

Disallowance. Exclusion from annual income.

Displaced family. A family in which each member, or whose sole member, is a person displaced by governmental action, or a person whose dwelling has been extensively damaged or destroyed as a result of a disaster declared or otherwise formally recognized pursuant to federal disaster relief laws.

Domestic violence. Felony or misdemeanor crimes committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim under the family or domestic violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant funding, and in the case of victim services, includes the user or attempted use of physical abuse or sexual abuse, or a pattern of any other coercive behavior committed, enabled, or solicited to gain or maintain power and control over a victim, including verbal, psychological, economic, or technological abuse that may or may not constitute criminal behavior, by a person who is:

- The current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, or person similarly situated to a spouse or intimate partner of the victim
- A person who is cohabitating or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner
- A person with whom the victim shares a child in common
- A person who commits acts against a youth or adult victim who is protected from those acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction

Domicile. The legal residence of the household head or spouse as determined in accordance with state and local law.

Drug-related criminal activity. The illegal manufacture, sale, distribution, or use of a drug, or the possession of a drug with intent to manufacture, sell, distribute, or use the drug.
Economic abuse. Behavior that is coercive, deceptive, or unreasonably controls or restrains a person’s ability to acquire, use, or maintain economic resources to which they are entitle, including using coercion, fraud, and manipulation to:

- Restrict a person’s access to money, assets, credit, or financial information
- Unfairly use a person’s personal economic resources, including money, assets, and credit, for one’s own advantage
- Exert undue influence over a person’s financial and economic behavior or decisions, including forcing default on joint or other financial obligations, exploiting powers of attorney, guardianship, or conservatorship, or to whom one has a fiduciary duty

Economic self-sufficiency program. Any program designed to encourage, assist, train, or facilitate the economic independence of assisted families, or to provide work for such families. Can include job training, employment counseling, work placement, basic skills training, education, English proficiency, Workfare, financial or household management, apprenticeship, or any other program necessary to ready a participant to work (such as treatment for drug abuse or mental health treatment). Includes any work activities as defined in the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 607(d)). Also see 24 CFR 5.603(c).

Effective date. The “effective date” of an examination or reexamination refers to: (i) in the case of an examination for admission, the date of initial occupancy and (ii) in the case of reexamination of an existing tenant, the date the redetermined rent becomes effective.

Elderly family. A family whose head, cohead, spouse, or sole member is a person who is at least 62 years of age; two or more persons who are at least 62 years of age living together; or one or more persons who are at least 62 years of age living with one or more live-in aides.

Elderly person. An individual who is at least 62 years of age.

Eligible family (Family). A family that is income eligible and meets the other requirements of the 1937 Act and Part 5 of 24 CFR.

Employer identification number (EIN). The nine-digit taxpayer identifying number that is assigned to an individual, trust, estate, partnership, association, company, or corporation.

Evidence of citizenship or eligible status. The documents which must be submitted as evidence of citizenship or eligible immigration status. (See 24 CFR 5.508(b).)

Extremely low-income family. A family whose annual income does not exceed the federal poverty level or 30 percent of the median income for the area as determined by HUD, whichever number is higher, with adjustments for smaller and larger families. HUD may establish income ceilings higher or lower than 30 percent of median income if HUD finds such variations are necessary due to unusually high or low family incomes. (See 24 CFR 5.603.)

Facility. All or any portion of buildings, structures, equipment, roads, walks, parking lots, rolling stock, or other real or personal property or interest in the property.
Fair Housing Act. Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended by the Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988.

Fair market rent (FMR). The rent, including the cost of utilities (except telephone), as established by HUD for units of varying sizes (by number of bedrooms), that must be paid in the housing market area to rent privately owned, existing, decent, safe, and sanitary rental housing of modest (non-luxury) nature with suitable amenities. See periodic publications in the Federal Register in accordance with 24 CFR Part 888.

Family. Includes but is not limited to the following, regardless of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status, and can be further defined in PHA policy.
- A family with or without children (the temporary absence of a child from the home due to placement in foster care is not considered in determining family composition and family size)
- An elderly family or a near-elderly family
- A displaced family
- The remaining member of a tenant family
- A single person who is not an elderly or displaced person, or a person with disabilities, or the remaining member of a tenant family.

Family self-sufficiency program (FSS program). The program established by a PHA within its jurisdiction to promote self-sufficiency among participating families, including the coordination of supportive services to these families (24 CFR 984.103).

Federal agency. A department of the executive branch of the federal government.

Flat rent. Rent that is based on the market rent charged for comparable units in the private unassisted rental market, set at no less than 80 percent of the current fair market rent (FMR), 80 percent of the small area fair market rent (SAFMR), or 80 percent of the unadjusted rent, with utility allowances applied as necessary. The unadjusted rent is the FMR estimated directly from source data that HUD uses to calculate FMRs in nonmetropolitan areas.

Foster child care payment. A payment to eligible households by state, local, or private agencies appointed by the state to administer payments for the care of foster children.

Full-time student. A person who is attending school or vocational training on a full-time basis (carrying a subject load that is considered full-time for day students under the standards and practices of the educational institution attended). (See 24 CFR 5.603)

Gender identity. Actual or perceived gender-related characteristics.

Handicap. Any condition or characteristic that renders a person an individual with handicaps. (See person with disabilities.)

Head of household. The adult member of the family who is the head of the household for purposes of determining income eligibility and rent.

Household. A household includes additional people other than the family who, with the PHA’s permission, live in an assisted unit, such as live-in aides, foster children, and foster adults.

Housing agency (HA). See public housing agency.
HUD. The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Human trafficking. A crime involving the exploitation of a person for labor, services, or commercial sex. The Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000 and its subsequent reauthorizations recognize and define two primary forms of human trafficking:

- Sex trafficking is the recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision, obtaining, patronizing, or soliciting of a person for the purpose of a commercial sex act in which a commercial sex act is induced by force, fraud, or coercion, or in which the person induced to perform such act has not attained 18 years of age. See 22 U.S.C. § 7102(11)(A).

- Forced labor is the recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision, or obtaining of a person for labor or services, through the use of force, fraud, or coercion for the purpose of subjecting to involuntary servitude, peonage, debt bondage, or slavery. See 22 U.S.C. § 7102(11)(B).

Imputed asset. An asset disposed of for less than fair market value during the two years preceding examination or reexamination.

Imputed asset income. The PHA-established passbook rate multiplied by the total cash value of assets. The calculation is used when net family assets exceed $5,000.

Imputed welfare income. An amount of annual income that is not actually received by a family as a result of a specified welfare benefit reduction, but is included in the family’s annual income and therefore reflected in the family’s rental contribution.

Income. Income from all sources of each member of the household, as determined in accordance with criteria established by HUD.

Income-based rent. A tenant rent that is based on the family’s income and the PHA’s rent policies for determination of such rents.

Income information means information relating to an individual’s income, including:

- All employment income information known to current or previous employers or other income sources

- All information about wages, as defined in the state's unemployment compensation law, including any social security number; name of the employee; quarterly wages of the employee; and the name, full address, telephone number, and, when known, employer identification number of an employer reporting wages under a state unemployment compensation law

- Whether an individual is receiving, has received, or has applied for unemployment compensation, and the amount and the period received

- Unearned IRS income and self-employment wages and retirement income

- Wage, social security, and supplemental security income data obtained from the Social Security Administration.
Income Validation Tool (IVT) Accessible through HUD's EIV system, provides validation of tenant reported wages, unemployment compensation, and Social Security benefits by comparing the income reported in IMS-PIC via form HUD-50058 to information received from the Department of Health and Human Services’ (HHS) National Directory of New Hires (NDNH), and the Social Security Administration (SSA) data sharing agreements.

Individual with handicaps. See person with disabilities.

Jurisdiction. The area in which the PHA has authority under state and local law to administer the program.

Lease. A written agreement between the PHA and a tenant family for the leasing a public housing unit. The lease establishes the legal relationship between the PHA and the tenant family.

Live-in aide. A person who resides with one or more elderly persons, or near-elderly persons, or persons with disabilities, and who:
- Is determined to be essential to the care and well-being of the persons;
- Is not obligated for the support of the persons; and
- Would not be living in the unit except to provide the necessary supportive services.

Local preference. A preference used by the PHA to select among applicant families.

Low-income family. A family whose income does not exceed 80 percent of the median income for the area as determined by HUD with adjustments for smaller or larger families, except that HUD may establish income limits higher or lower than 80 percent for areas with unusually high or low incomes.

Medical expenses. Medical expenses, including medical insurance premiums that are anticipated during the period for which annual income is computed, and that are not covered by insurance (a deduction for elderly or disabled families only). These allowances are given when calculating adjusted income for medical expenses in excess of 3 percent of annual income.

Minimum rent. An amount established by the PHA of zero to $50.

Minor. A member of the family household other than the family head or spouse, who is under 18 years of age.

Mixed family. A family whose members include those with citizenship or eligible immigration status, and those without citizenship or eligible immigration status.

Monthly adjusted income. One twelfth of adjusted income.

Monthly income. One twelfth of annual income.

National. A person who owes permanent allegiance to the United States, for example, as a result of birth in a United States territory or possession.

Near-elderly family. A family whose head, spouse, or sole member is a person who is at least 50 years of age but below the age of 62; or two or more persons, who are at least 50 years of age but below the age of 62, living together; or one or more persons who are at least 50 years of age but below the age of 62 living with one or more live-in aides.
Net family assets. (1) Net cash value after deducting reasonable costs that would be incurred in disposing of real property, savings, stocks, bonds, and other forms of capital investment, excluding interests in Indian trust land and excluding equity accounts in HUD homeownership programs. The value of necessary items of personal property such as furniture and automobiles shall be excluded.

- In cases where a trust fund has been established and the trust is not revocable by, or under the control of, any member of the family or household, the value of the trust fund will not be considered an asset so long as the fund continues to be held in trust. Any income distributed from the trust fund shall be counted when determining annual income under §5.609.

- In determining net family assets, PHAs or owners, as applicable, shall include the value of any business or family assets disposed of by an applicant or tenant for less than fair market value (including a disposition in trust, but not in a foreclosure or bankruptcy sale) during the two years preceding the date of application for the program or reexamination, as applicable, in excess of the consideration received therefore. In the case of a disposition as part of a separation or divorce settlement, the disposition will not be considered to be for less than fair market value if the applicant or tenant receives important consideration not measurable in dollar terms.

Noncitizen. A person who is neither a citizen nor national of the United States.

Non-public housing over-income family. A family whose income exceeds the over-income limit for 24 consecutive months and is paying the alternative non-public housing rent.

Over-income family. A family whose income exceeds the over-income limit.

Over-income limit. The over-income limit is determined by multiplying the applicable income limit for a very low-income family, as defined in 24 CFR 5.603(b), by a factor of 2.4.

PHA Plan. The annual plan and the 5-year plan as adopted by the PHA and approved by HUD.

Participant (participant family). A family that has been admitted to the PHA program and is currently assisted in the program.

Person with disabilities. For the purposes of program eligibility. A person who has a disability as defined under the Social Security Act or Developmental Disabilities Care Act, or a person who has a physical or mental impairment expected to be of long and indefinite duration and whose ability to live independently is substantially impeded by that impairment but could be improved by more suitable housing conditions. This includes persons with AIDS or conditions arising from AIDS but excludes persons whose disability is based solely on drug or alcohol dependence. For the purposes of reasonable accommodation. A person with a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities, a person regarded as having such an impairment, or a person with a record of such an impairment.

Premises. The building or complex in which the dwelling unit is located, including common areas and grounds.
Previously unemployed. With regard to the earned income disallowance, a person who has earned, in the 12 months previous to employment, no more than would be received for 10 hours of work per week for 50 weeks at the established minimum wage.

Public assistance. Welfare or other payments to families or individuals, based on need, which are made under programs funded, separately or jointly, by federal, state, or local governments.

Public housing agency (PHA). Any state, county, municipality, or other governmental entity or public body, or agency or instrumentality of these entities, that is authorized to engage or assist in the development or operation of low-income housing under the 1937 Act.

Qualified family. A family residing in public housing:
- Whose annual income increases as a result of employment of a family member who was unemployed for one or more years previous to employment;
- Whose annual income increases as a result of increased earnings by a family member during participation in any economic self-sufficiency or other job training program; or
- Whose annual income increases, as a result of new employment or increased earnings of a family member, during or within six months after receiving assistance, benefits or services under any state program for temporary assistance for needy families funded under Part A of Title IV of the Social Security Act, as determined by the PHA in consultation with the local agencies administering temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) and Welfare-to-Work (WTW) programs. The TANF program is not limited to monthly income maintenance, but also includes such benefits and services as one-time payments, wage subsidies and transportation assistance, provided that the total amount over a six-month period is at least $500.

Reasonable accommodation. A change, exception, or adjustment to a rule, policy, practice, or service to allow a person with disabilities to fully access the PHA’s programs or services.

Recertification. Sometimes called reexamination. The process of securing documentation of total family income used to determine the rent the tenant will pay for the next 12 months if there are no additional changes to be reported.

Remaining member of the tenant family. The person left in assisted housing who may or may not normally qualify for assistance on their own circumstances (i.e., an elderly spouse dies, leaving widow age 47 who is not disabled).

Residency preference. A PHA preference for admission of families that reside anywhere in a specified area, including families with a member who works or has been hired to work in the area (See residency preference area).

Residency preference area. The specified area where families must reside to qualify for a residency preference.

Responsible entity. For the public housing program, the PHA administering the program under an ACC with HUD. Secretary. The Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.
Section 8. Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937; refers to the housing choice voucher program.

Security deposit. A dollar amount (maximum set according to the regulations) which can be used for unpaid rent or damages to the PHA upon termination of the lease.

Sexual assault. Any nonconsensual sexual act proscribed by federal, tribal, or state law, including when the victim lacks capacity to consent (42 U.S.C. 13925(a))

Sexual orientation. Homosexuality, heterosexuality or bisexuality.

Single person. A person living alone or intending to live alone.

Social security number (SSN). The nine-digit number that is assigned to a person by the Social Security Administration and that identifies the record of the person’s earnings reported to the Social Security Administration. The term does not include a number with a letter as a suffix that is used to identify an auxiliary beneficiary.

Specified welfare benefit reduction. Those reductions of welfare benefits (for a covered family) that may not result in a reduction of the family rental contribution. A reduction of welfare benefits because of fraud in connection with the welfare program, or because of welfare sanction due to noncompliance with a welfare agency requirement to participate in an economic self-sufficiency program.

Spouse. The marriage partner of the head of household.

Stalking. To follow, pursue, or repeatedly commit acts with the intent to kill, injure, harass, or intimidate; or to place under surveillance with the intent to kill, injure, harass, or intimidate another person; and in the course of, or as a result of, such following, pursuit, surveillance, or repeatedly committed acts, to place a person in reasonable fear of the death of, or serious bodily injury to, or to cause substantial emotional harm to (1) that person, (2) a member of the immediate family of that person, or (3) the spouse or intimate partner of that person.

State wage information collection agency (SWICA). The state agency, including any Indian tribal agency, receiving quarterly wage reports from employers in the state, or an alternative system that has been determined by the Secretary of Labor to be as effective and timely in providing employment-related income and eligibility information.
Technological abuse. An act or pattern of behavior that occurs within domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking and is intended to harm, threaten, intimidate, control, stalk, harass, impersonate, exploit, extort, or monitor another person, except as otherwise permitted by law, that occurs using any form of technology, including but not limited to:

- Internet enabled devices
- Online spaces and platforms
- Computers
- Mobile devices
- Cameras and imaging programs
- Apps
- Location tracking devices
- Communication technologies
- Any other emergency technologies

Tenant. The person or persons (other than a live-in aide) who executes the lease as lessee of the dwelling unit.

Tenant rent. The amount payable monthly by the family as rent to the PHA.

Total tenant payment (TTP). The total amount the HUD rent formula requires the tenant to pay toward rent and utilities.

Utilities. Water, electricity, gas, other heating, refrigeration, cooking fuels, trash collection, and sewage services. Telephone service is not included.

Utility allowance. If the cost of utilities (except telephone) and other housing services for an assisted unit is not included in the tenant rent but is the responsibility of the family occupying the unit, an amount equal to the estimate made or approved by a PHA of the monthly cost of a reasonable consumption of such utilities and other services for the unit by an energy-conservative household of modest circumstances consistent with the requirements of a safe, sanitary, and healthful living environment.

Utility reimbursement. The amount, if any, by which the utility allowance for the unit, if applicable, exceeds the total tenant payment (TTP) for the family occupying the unit.

Veteran. A person who has served in the active military or naval service of the United States at any time and who shall have been discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable.

Violence Against Women Act (VAWA). Prohibits denying admission to, denying assistance under, or evicting from a public housing unit an otherwise qualified applicant or tenant on the basis that the applicant or tenant is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking.

Violent criminal activity. Any illegal criminal activity that has as one of its elements the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force against the person or property of another.
Waiting list. A list of families organized according to HUD regulations and PHA policy who are waiting for a unit to become available.

Welfare assistance. Income assistance from federal or state welfare programs, including assistance provided under TANF and general assistance. Does not include assistance directed solely to meeting housing expenses, nor programs that provide health care, child care or other services for working families. For the FSS program (24 CFR 984.103), welfare assistance includes only cash maintenance payments designed to meet a family’s ongoing basic needs. Does not include nonrecurring short term benefits designed to address individual crisis situations, work subsidies, supportive services such as child care and transportation provided to families who are employed, refundable earned income tax credits, contributions to and distributions from Individual Development Accounts under TANF, services such as counseling, case management, peer support, child care information and referral, financial empowerment, transitional services, job retention, job advancement, and other employment-related services that to not provide basic income support, amounts solely directed to meeting housing expenses, amounts for health care, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) and emergency rental and utilities assistance, SSI, SSDI, or social security, and child-only or non-needy TANF grants made to or on behalf of a dependent child solely on the basis of the child’s need and not the need of the child’s current non-parental caretaker.

Over-Income Families

The over-income requirement states that after a family’s adjusted income has exceeded 120 percent of area median income (AMI) (or a different limitation established by the secretary) for two consecutive years, OCHA must either terminate the family’s tenancy within six months of the determination, or charge the family a monthly rent that is the higher of the applicable fair market rent (FMR) or the amount of monthly subsidy for the unit, including amounts from the operating and capital funds, as determined by regulations.

OKLAHOMA CITY HOUSING AUTHORITY DWELLING LEASE

SECTION 1. DESCRIPTION OF PARTIES AND DWELLING UNIT. The Oklahoma City Housing Authority ("Landlord") does hereby lease to __________________________ and the occupying family ("Tenant") the premises located at: __________________________, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma (Tenant’s specific leased unit, “Dwelling Unit”); Landlord facility at which Dwelling Unit is located, “Development”).

The premises leased are for the exclusive use and occupancy of Tenant and Tenant’s household consisting of the following named persons who will live in the Dwelling Unit:

Any additions to the household members listed above require the advance written approval of Landlord. This includes Live-in Aides and foster children or adults, but excludes natural births. Landlord shall approve the additions if they pass the screening and an appropriate size unit is available. Deletions from the household shall be reported to Landlord within ten (10) days and must be accomplished by a written rider to this Dwelling Lease (“Lease”) executed by both the Landlord and the Head of Household (“Head of Household”). If Tenant is incapable of complying with this Lease, he/she should contact the Landlord at its offices, 1700 Northeast Fourth Street, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73117, or by phone at (405) 239-7551. This Lease is subject to the terms and conditions of the Oklahoma Residential Landlord and Tenant Act of 1978 (“ORLTA”).

SECTION 2. LEASE TERM. This Lease shall begin on _______________. The term shall be for one year and shall automatically renew for another year, unless terminated as provided by this Lease.

SECTION 3. RENTAL PAYMENT. Tenant shall pay monthly rent of $_____________. If this Lease begins on a day other than the first day of the month, the first month’s rent shall be $_____________.

(Check one): This rent is based on Landlord-determined flat rent for this unit.

This rent is formula-based on the income and other information reported by Tenant.

Families may change rent calculation methods at any recertification. Families who have chosen the flat rent option may request an interim redetermination and change to the formula-based method at any time if the family’s income has decreased, their on-going expenses for such purposes as child care and medical care have changed, or any other circumstances that create a hardship for the family that would be alleviated by a change.
SUPPLEMENT II

This amount is due on the first (1st) day of each month at the Landlord’s offices and shall remain in effect until adjusted in accordance with the provisions in Sections 8 and 9 of this Lease. The adjustments shall be part of this Lease as based on the computation as shown on the Rent Calculation Summary worksheet. If a reasonable accommodation on where to pay rent is needed, other arrangements can be made. Cash payments are not acceptable.

If Tenant fails to make the rent payment by the fifth (5th) day of the month, a Notice of Lease Termination will be issued to Tenant pursuant to Section 18 of this Lease. A $25.00 late charge will be assessed to cover the added costs of a rent payment received after the seventh (7th) day of the month. A check returned for non-sufficient funds shall be considered non-payment of rent and in addition to the late charge a $25.00 returned check fee will be charged. Landlord will provide written notice to Tenant of any late charges or returned check fees being assessed to Tenant. Late charges and returned check fees shall not be due and payable until fourteen (14) days after Landlord gives Tenant written notice of the charges.

If a family is paying the minimum rent and its circumstances change creating an inability to pay the rent, the family may request suspension of the minimum rent because of a recognized hardship.

SECTION 4. SECURITY DEPOSIT. Tenant agrees to pay $____________ as Security Deposit. Tenant has paid the amount of $____________ to Landlord as a Security Deposit. With the approval of Landlord, the Security Deposit may be made in three payments - one third in advance, one third with the second rent payment, and one third with the third rent payment. Landlord will hold this Security Deposit for the period Tenant occupies the Dwelling Unit. Landlord shall not use the Security Deposit for rent or other charges while Tenant is living in the Dwelling Unit. Within thirty (30) days after Tenant has permanently moved out of the Dwelling Unit, Landlord shall return the Security Deposit after deducting whatever amount is needed to pay the cost of:

a. Unpaid rent;

b. Repair of damages that exceed normal wear and tear as listed on the Move-Out Inspection Report; and

c. Other charges due under the Lease.

Landlord shall provide Tenant with a written list of any charges made against the Security Deposit. If Tenant disagrees with the amounts deducted, Landlord will meet with Tenant to discuss the charges within ten (10) business days.

SECTION 5. OCCUPANCY. Tenant shall take physical occupancy of the Dwelling Unit, as evidenced by moving in furnishings and personal effects, within forty-eight (48) hours from the date of this Lease. Tenant shall use the Dwelling Unit as a private dwelling for himself/herself and the persons named in this Lease as well as minor children born into the household during this tenancy and shall not permit its use for any other purpose without the written permission of Landlord.

Tenant shall not:

a. Permit any persons other than those listed above in Section 1, and minor children which are born into the household during this tenancy, to reside in the Dwelling Unit for more than one (1) month. For those guests residing more than three (3) days, Head of Household must obtain written approval of Landlord.

b. Sublet or assign the Dwelling Unit or any part of the Dwelling Unit.

c. Engage in or permit unlawful activities in the Dwelling Unit, in the common areas, or on the Development grounds.

d. Act or allow household members or guests to act in a manner that will disturb the rights or comfort of neighbors.

e. Permit any member of the household, a guest, or another person under Tenant’s control to engage in any criminal activity that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the Development by other tenants or Landlord’s employees.
SUPPLEMENT II

f. Permit any member of the household, a guest, or another person under Tenant’s control to engage in any violent or drug-related criminal activity on or off Development grounds.

g. Use, display or discharge any firearm, weapon, air gun, gas operated gun, spring gun, or any bow or slip-type instrument, made for the purpose of throwing or projecting missiles of any kind, in violation of municipal and state law. Acts of physical violence of any kind will not be tolerated. Tenant shall be responsible for the members of his/her household and/or guests adhering to these regulations.

h. Smoke, use electronic means of smoking, tobacco use, or the use of any open flame, i.e., candles.

i. Provide accommodations for boarders or lodgers.

Tenant can incidentally use the Dwelling Unit and Development for legally permissible income producing purposes, with the written permission of Landlord, as long as the business does not infringe on the rights of other tenants. All such business-related uses of the Development must meet all zoning requirements, and Tenant must have the proper business licenses. Tenant has the right to exclusive use and occupancy of the Dwelling Unit, which includes reasonable accommodation of Tenant’s guests, visitors and, with the consent of Landlord, foster children and/or adults and the live-in care giver of Tenant’s family.

SECTION 6. CONDITION OF DWELLING UNIT, EQUIPMENT. Landlord and Tenant shall be obligated to inspect the Dwelling Unit prior to Tenant’s commencement of occupancy, and Landlord will furnish Tenant with a written statement of the condition of the Dwelling Unit and equipment provided in the Dwelling Unit and owned by Landlord (including, but not limited to, refrigerators and ranges), which shall be signed by Landlord and Tenant, and a copy of which shall be retained by Landlord (“Move-in Unit Inspection Report”). By signing the Unit Inspection Report, Tenant acknowledges that the Dwelling Unit appears to be in safe, clean and in good condition, and that all appliances and equipment in the Dwelling Unit are in good working order as described on the Move-in Unit Inspection Report. Tenant may request changes to the Move-in Unit Inspection Report within ten (10) days of Tenant’s commencement of occupancy by submitting any requested change to the Landlord in writing. Landlord will review any requested changes in good faith, but retains sole discretion to approve or disapprove any requested changes.

At the time of move out, Landlord shall complete another inspection of the Dwelling Unit. When Tenant notifies Landlord of his/her intent to vacate, Landlord shall advise Tenant of his/her opportunity to participate in the move-out inspection.

SECTION 7. UTILITIES. All public utility charges (gas, electricity, water, and garbage) used by Tenant in his occupancy of the Dwelling Unit shall be paid as provided for below. The Landlord will not be responsible for failure to furnish utilities, as provided below, by reason of any cause beyond its control. Tenant shall at all times maintain sufficient heat, electricity, and water to insure the proper maintenance of safe, decent and sanitary housing. If for any reason Tenant is unable to maintain sufficient utilities, he shall immediately notify the Landlord, and if the Landlord determines the cause of the problem is beyond the control of Tenant, the Landlord shall act promptly to correct the problem. If the Landlord determines that the cause of the problem is not beyond the control of Tenant, the Landlord may exercise its rights under Section 132 of the ORLTA.

The Utility Allowance Schedule for Tenant Paid Utilities and the Schedule of Excess Utility Charges are posted in Landlord’s office. Tenant shall pay any excess utilities consumed in his/her unit over and above that set forth in the Schedule. Utility allowance revisions based on rate changes shall be effective retroactively to the first day of the month following the month in which the last rate change took place. Revisions based on changes in consumption or other reasons shall become effective at each Tenant’s next annual rent and family composition recertification.
SUPPLEMENT II

SECTION 8. RENT AND FAMILY COMPOSITION RECERTIFICATIONS. Each year, by the date specified by Landlord, Tenants who are paying rent based on their income shall provide updated information regarding income, assets, expenses, and family composition. Landlord shall verify the information supplied by Tenant and use the verified information to establish the amount of Tenant’s rent for the next year. At the time of the annual review, Landlord shall advise Tenant of any income that will be excluded from consideration. (Examples of income that will be excluded include increased earnings due to employment over the previous twelve-month period due to the re-employment of a family member who was previously unemployed for one or more years, and participation in a self-sufficiency program or State TANF assistance program within the last six months.)

At the time of the review appointment Tenant may elect to change his/her rent choice option between flat rent or income based rent. In cases where annual income cannot be projected for a twelve-month period or Tenant is reporting no income and Tenant has chosen the percentage of income rent option, Landlord will schedule special rent reviews every ninety (90) days. In addition, Tenant may request a change in the rent choice option before the date of the review if the family experiences a decrease in income; their circumstances have changed increasing their expenses for child care, medical, etc.; or other circumstances create a hardship on the family such that the formula method would be more financially feasible for the family. Tenants paying rent based on income may meet with Landlord to discuss any change in rent resulting from the recertification process; and, if Tenant does not agree with the determination of Tenant rent, Tenant may request a hearing in accordance with the Landlord’s grievance procedures.

SECTION 9. INTERIM RENT ADJUSTMENTS. All rental adjustments will be recorded on a form Worksheet—Computing Total Tenant Payment (“TTP”) maintained by the Landlord for such purposes. TTPs will be signed by Landlord and Tenant and attached to this Lease. Tenants must promptly report to Landlord any of the following changes in household circumstances when they occur between Annual Rent Recertifications (in any event, no later than ten (10) days after the occurrence):

a. A member has been added to the family through birth, adoption, or court-awarded custody.

b. A household member is leaving or has left the family unit.

In addition, Tenants paying rent based on a percentage of income may report the following activities that occur between Annual Rent Recertifications:

a. A decrease in annual income.

b. Childcare expenses for children under the age of 13 that are necessary to enable a member of the household to be employed or to go to school.

c. Handicapped assistance expenses that enable a family member to work.

d. Medical expenses of elderly, disabled, or handicapped heads of households that are not covered by insurance.

e. Other family changes that impact their adjusted income.

Notwithstanding the provisions listed above, Tenant’s rent shall not be reduced if the decrease in the family’s annual income is caused by a reduction in the welfare or public assistance benefits received by the family that is a result of Tenant’s failure to comply with the conditions of the assistance program requiring participation in an economic self-sufficiency program or other work activities. In addition, if the decrease in the family’s annual income is caused by a reduction in welfare or public assistance benefits received by the family that is the result of an act of fraud, such decrease in income shall not result in a rent reduction. In such cases, the amount of income to be attributed to the family shall include what the family would have received had they complied with the welfare requirements or had not committed an act of fraud.

For purposes of rent adjustments, the reduction of welfare or public assistance benefits to a family that occurs as a result of the expiration of a time limit for the receipt of will not be considered a failure to comply with program requirements. Accordingly, Tenant’s rent will be reduced as a result of such a decrease. Landlord shall verify the information provided by Tenant to determine if a decrease in the rent is warranted. If Tenant receives a letter or notice from the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD") concerning the amount or verification of family income the communication shall be brought to the attention of the Housing Manager within ten (10) calendar days.
SUPPLEMENT II

SECTION 10. EFFECTIVE DATE OF RENT CHANGE. Execution of the TTP by Landlord and Tenant shall constitute written notice of any change in Tenant’s rent. The TTP shall state the new amount Tenant is required to pay and the effective date of the new rental amount.

a. Rent Decreases. Landlord shall process rent decreases so that the lowered rent amount becomes effective on the first day of the month after Tenant reports the change in household circumstances. This rent change may be made retroactive to the appropriate date if less than five (5) working days have been given to Landlord to process this change.

b. Rent Increases. Landlord shall process rent increases so that Tenant is given no less than thirty (30) days advance written notice of the amount due.

Once the rental rate is established, it shall remain in effect until the effective date of the next annual review or a new TTP is executed.

SECTION 11. TENANT OBLIGATION TO REPAY. Tenants who pay rent based on income shall reimburse Landlord for the difference between the rent that was paid and the rent that should have been charged if proper notice of income change had been given and if the following circumstances occur:

a. Tenant does not submit rent review information by the date specified in Landlord’s request; or

b. Tenant submits false information at Admission or at annual, special, or interim review.

Tenant is not required to reimburse Landlord for undercharges caused solely by Landlord’s failure to follow HUD’s procedures for computing rent.

SECTION 12. MAINTENANCE, REPAIR AND USE OF DWELLING UNIT.

a. The Landlord shall, at its sole cost and expense, unless otherwise stated, maintain the Dwelling Unit and Development in good order and repair. Any and all repairs by the Landlord shall be accomplished without unreasonable delay.

b. The Landlord shall provide and maintain appropriate receptacles and facilities (except at scattered sites) for the deposit of garbage, rubbish, and other waste removed from the Development by Tenant. Tenant shall dispose of all garbage, rubbish, and other waste from the Dwelling Unit and the Development in a sanitary and safe manner. Tenant shall insure that members of his/her household properly dispose of garbage, rubbish, etc. in receptacles provided for that purpose.

c. The Landlord shall maintain the Dwelling Unit and the Development, including the buildings, common areas, and grounds of the Development, in a reasonable, safe, and sanitary condition in conformity with the requirements of local housing codes, and applicable regulations or guidelines of HUD.

d. The Landlord shall maintain in good and safe working order and condition necessary electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilating, and other facilities and appurtenances, including elevators, supplied or required to be supplied by Landlord. Tenant shall use all electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, and other facilities and appurtenances, including elevators, and shall keep all plumbing fixtures in the Dwelling Unit as clean and sanitary as their condition permits.

e. Landlord shall supply running water and reasonable amounts of hot water and reasonable amounts of heat at appropriate times of the year (according to local custom and usage) except where the building that includes the Dwelling Unit is not required by law to be equipped for that purpose or where heat or hot water is generated by an installation within the exclusive control of Tenant and supplied by a direct utility connection.

f. Tenant agrees to allow Landlord to use necessary pest control measures in accordance with the recommendation of the Environmental Protection Agency. Tenant also agrees to abide Landlord’s Bed Bug Policy. In those rare cases where Tenant may declare an allergy to certain pesticides, joint Housing Manager/Tenant action will be taken to sustain sanitary and decent living conditions.

g. Tenant shall not cause or permit any waste, damage or injury to the Dwelling Unit or the Development facilities, buildings, or common areas. Tenant shall, upon the termination of this Lease, return possession of the Dwelling Unit to Landlord in as good and decent condition as when leased to Tenant, normal deterioration excepted. If Tenant fails to comply with provisions of this Subsection g., the Landlord may exercise its rights under Section 132 of the ORLTA.

h. Tenant shall be responsible for the performance of seasonal maintenance tasks and/or other maintenance tasks, such as changing furnace filters, cleaning hot water/furnace rooms, regular cleaning of ranges and refrigerators, and lawn and grounds care (mowing, edging, trimming, picking up litter from the premises) excluding common areas. Tenants who are unable to perform such tasks because of age or disability are exempt from this requirement. This exemption must be approved by the Housing Manager and documented in Tenant’s file.

i. Tenant shall ensure that no member of Tenant’s household engages in abuse or a pattern of abuse of alcohol that affects the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the Development by other tenants.

j. If the Dwelling Unit is damaged to the extent that conditions are created which are hazardous to life, health, or safety of the occupants:

i. Tenant shall immediately notify Landlord or Landlord’s representative/project management staff of the damage.

ii. Landlord shall be responsible for repair of the Dwelling Unit within a reasonable time; provided, that if the damage was caused by Tenant, Tenant’s household, or Tenant’s guests, the reasonable costs of the repairs shall be charged to the Tenant.

iii. Landlord shall offer standard alternative accommodations, if available, where necessary repairs cannot be made within a reasonable time.

iv. Landlord shall abate Tenant’s rent in proportion to the seriousness of the damage and loss in value as a dwelling if repairs are not made within a reasonable time or if alternative accommodations are not provided. However, no abatement of rent shall occur if the damage was caused by Tenant, Tenant’s household, or Tenant’s guests, nor if Tenant rejects the alternative accommodations offered by Landlord.

k. All Tenant-owned vehicles must be registered in the Management Office. Improperly parked and/or inoperative vehicles shall be subject to impoundment by the Landlord and all impoundment fees shall be paid by Tenant. Vehicles will be parked only in authorized areas. All residents must comply with the provision of the Resident and Guest Parking Procedures.

l. Where damages, waste, or injury to Landlord property occur due to Tenant, family members, or guest neglect, reasonable charges will be assessed in accordance with the posted schedule of charges for repair. Such charges shall not be due and collectible until two (2) weeks after the Landlord gives written notice of the charge.

m. There is no smoking or tobacco use in any units, common areas, or anywhere on Development grounds. Tenant shall comply with Landlord’s Tobacco-Free Policy.

SECTION 13. RESTRICTION ON ALTERATIONS. Tenant shall not do any of the following without first obtaining Landlord’s written permission:

a. Dismantle, change or remove any part of the appliances, fixtures or equipment in the Dwelling Unit.

b. Paint or install wallpaper or contact paper in the Dwelling Unit.

c. Attach awnings or window guards in the Dwelling Unit.

d. Attach or place any fixtures, signs, or fences on the building(s), the common areas, or the Development grounds.
SUPPLEMENT II

e. Attach any shelves, screen doors, or other permanent improvements in the Dwelling Unit.

f. Install or alter carpeting, resurface floors or alter woodwork.

g. Install washing machines, dryers, fans, heaters, or air conditioners in an elderly Dwelling Unit.

h. Place any aerials, antennas or other electrical connections on the Dwelling Unit, including satellite dishes.

i. Install additional or different locks or gates on any doors or windows of the Dwelling Unit.

j. Operate a business as an incidental use in the Dwelling Unit.

k. Place any Recreation Equipment on Development premises, including, but not limited to pools and trampolines, etc.

SECTION 14. ANNUAL INSPECTION. During the annual rent recertification provided for in Section 8 of this Lease, or at another time determined by Landlord, Landlord, through its authorized agent, shall inspect the Dwelling Unit, and Tenant shall make the Dwelling Unit available for such inspection as provided in Section 15 below. Landlord shall consider the results of such inspection in determining whether Tenant is eligible for continued occupancy in low-rent housing, and if, by such inspection, it is determined by Landlord that Tenant has damaged the Dwelling Unit, has allowed the Dwelling Unit to become damaged, or has failed to keep the Dwelling Unit in an acceptable condition which is both safe and sanitary, as provided in Section 12 of this Lease, Landlord may exercise its rights under ORLTA, 41 O.S. § 132.

SECTION 15. ACCESS BY LANDLORD: Landlord shall provide two (2) days written advance notice to Tenant of his/her intent to enter the Dwelling Unit for the purpose of performing routine inspections and preventive maintenance, extermination or to show the Dwelling Unit for re-renting. The notice shall specify the date, approximate time, and purpose for the entry. Tenant shall permit Landlord, his/her agents, or other persons, when accompanied by Landlord, to enter the Dwelling Unit for these purposes. Tenant’s request for maintenance shall constitute permission to enter the Dwelling Unit. In the event that Tenant and all adult members of the household are absent from the Dwelling Unit at the time of entry, Landlord shall leave a card stating the date, time and name of the person entering the Dwelling Unit and the purpose of the visit.

Landlord may enter the Dwelling Unit at any time without advance notice when there is reasonable cause to believe an emergency exists.

SECTION 16. SIZE OF DWELLING. Tenant understands that Landlord assigns Dwelling Units according to the Occupancy Standards published in its Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy ("ACOP"). The Standards consider the type (such as Dwelling Units designed for the elderly or handicapped) and size of the Dwelling Unit required by the number of household members. If Tenant is or becomes eligible for a different type or size dwelling unit and an appropriate dwelling unit under this program and Landlord’s transfer policy becomes available, Tenant agrees to transfer to an appropriate size dwelling unit within a reasonable period of time following Tenant’s receipt of Landlord’s written notice that such a dwelling unit is available. This period shall not exceed fourteen (14) days unless an unusual hardship condition exists. If Tenant fails to move to the designated Dwelling Unit within the notice period specified by Landlord, Landlord may terminate this Lease. If Landlord determines that Tenant must transfer to another unit based on family composition, Landlord shall notify Tenant. Tenant may ask for an explanation stating the specific grounds of the determination, and if Tenant does not agree with the determination, Tenant may request a hearing in accordance with Landlord’s grievance procedures.

SECTION 17. LEASE TERMINATION BY LANDLORD. Any termination of this Lease shall be carried out in accordance with HUD regulations, State and local law, and the terms of this Lease. In the event legal proceedings are required to recover possession of the premises, Tenant will be charged with the actual cost of such proceedings. Landlord shall not terminate or refuse to renew the Lease other than for good cause under federal regulations or for serious or repeated violation of material terms of the Lease, such as, but not limited to, the following:

a. Nonpayment of rent or other charges due under the Lease (i.e., utilities), or repeated chronic late payment of rent (four times in a twelve-month period).
SUPPLEMENT II

b. Failure to provide timely and accurate statements of income, assets, expenses and family composition at Admission, Interim, Special or Annual Rent Recertifications, to attend scheduled reexamination interviews or to cooperate in the verification if Tenant has chosen to pay rent based on a percentage of income.

c. Furnishing false or misleading information during the application or review process.

d. Discovery after admission into the Public Housing Program of facts that made or make Tenant ineligible.

e. Following family and rent recertification, Tenant is found to be over the income limit for the program, as provided in 24 C.F.R. § 960.261.

f. Assignment or subleasing of the Dwelling Unit or providing accommodation for boarders or lodgers.

g. Use of the Dwelling Unit for purposes other than solely as a residence for Tenant and Tenant’s household as identified in this Lease, or permitting its use for any other purpose without the written permission of Landlord.

h. Failure of Tenant to accept Landlord’s offer of a revision to this Lease:

i. that is on a form adopted by Landlord in accordance with 24 C.F.R. § 966.3;

ii. where the Landlord has provided written notice of the offer of the revision at least sixty (60) calendar days before the revision is scheduled to take effect; and

iii. where the offer specifies a reasonable time limit within that period for acceptance by Tenant.

i. Failure to abide by necessary and reasonable rules made by Landlord for the benefit and well-being of the Development and Tenants; including but not limited to Landlord’s Tobacco-Free Policy.

j. Failure to abide by applicable building and housing codes materially affecting health or safety.

k. Failure to dispose of garbage, waste and rubbish in a safe and sanitary manner.

l. Failure to use electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilating, air conditioning and other equipment, including elevators, in a safe manner.

m. Acts of destruction, defacement or removal of any part of the Dwelling Unit or Development, or failure to cause guests to refrain from such acts.

n. Failure to pay reasonable charges for the repair of damages to the Dwelling Unit or Development, including any buildings, facilities or common areas.

o. Any activity that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the Development by other tenants or employees of the Landlord.

p. Failure to abide by the provisions of Landlord’s Animal Ownership Policy.

q. Any violent or drug-related criminal activity on or off the Development premises, not just on or near the Development. [Note: Tenant should be aware that federal law still classifies marijuana as an illegal drug, and that federal law overrides Oklahoma’s medical marijuana law. Therefore, the use, sale, or possession of marijuana constitutes “drug-related criminal activity” under this subsection.]

r. Determination or discovery that any member of Tenant’s household has ever been convicted of drug-related activity for the manufacture or production of methamphetamine on the premises of any federally-assisted housing.

s. Discovery that Tenant or member of Tenant’s household is illegally using a drug which Landlord determines interferes with the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the Development by other tenants.
SUPPLEMENT II

t. Alcohol abuse that Landlord determines interferes with the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the Development by other Tenants.

u. Failure of Tenant to assure that no person under Tenant’s control engages in an abuse or pattern of abuse of alcohol that affects the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the Development by other tenants.

v. Allowing a Banned Person onto the Development. A “Banned Person” is defined as any person who has been given notice by Security Personnel that his/her behavior on Landlord premises is unacceptable and he/she will not be allowed to return to Landlord’s property. Banned Persons will be arrested for trespassing if they choose to come on Landlord’s property again. Allowing Banned Persons onto Development property will result in a termination of this Lease and eviction of the Tenant.

w. Failure to perform required community service unless exempt from the requirement.

x. Failure to allow inspection of the Dwelling Unit.

y. Determination that a family member has knowingly permitted an ineligible noncitizen not listed on this Lease to permanently reside in the Dwelling Unit.

z. Allowing juvenile behavior which constitutes material breaches of this Lease including, but not limited to, vandalism, criminal behavior, including drug-related criminal activity and curfew violation. Juveniles will not be allowed to be outside the Dwelling Unit on Landlord property after the established curfew hour as set out by Oklahoma City Municipal Ordinance. Tenant will be held responsible for such juveniles.

aa. Determination or discovery that Tenant is a registered sex offender; is fleeing to avoid prosecution, custody, or confinement after conviction, for a crime or attempt to commit a felony; or is violating a condition of Tenant’s probation or parole.

bb. Tenant absence from the Dwelling Unit for more than 180 consecutive days without providing Landlord adequate verification that they are living in the Dwelling Unit, or abandonment of the Dwelling Unit by Tenant.

c. Any other good cause.

SECTION 18. NOTICE OF LEASE TERMINATION. If Landlord proposes to terminate this Lease, Tenant shall be given written Notice of Lease Termination of the proposed termination, as listed below:

a. For failure to pay rent, at least fourteen (14) days before the Lease terminates;

b. For creation or maintenance of a threat to health or safety of other Tenants or Landlord’s employees, a reasonable time, based on the urgency of the situation and not less than at least forty-eight (48) hours, before the Lease terminates.

c. For all other cases, at least thirty (30) days before the Lease terminates.

Any notices required by Oklahoma State or local law may be combined with or run concurrently with a Notice of Lease Termination required by this Lease. The Notice of Lease Termination from Landlord shall be either personally delivered to Tenant or to an adult member of Tenant’s family residing in the Dwelling Unit, or posted in a conspicuous place on the Dwelling Unit and a copy sent to Tenant by First Class Mail, properly addressed, postage pre-paid. The notice shall:

i. Specify the date the Lease shall be terminated.

ii. State the grounds for termination with enough detail for Tenant to prepare a defense. Landlord shall rely solely on the grounds stated in the Notice of Lease Termination in the event an eviction action is initiated.

iii. Advise Tenant of the right to reply as he/she may wish, to examine Landlord’s documents directly relevant to the termination or eviction, to use the Grievance Procedures to contest the termination, and/or to defend the action in court.
SUPPLEMENT II

SECTION 19. LEASE TERMINATION BY TENANT. Tenant shall give Landlord thirty (30) days' written notice before moving from the Dwelling Unit by completing a "Tenant Notice of Termination" form. If Tenant does not give the full notice, Tenant shall be liable for rent to the end of the notice period or to the date the Dwelling Unit is re-rented, whichever date comes first.

SECTION 20. TERMINATION OF LEASE UPON DEATH OR INCAPACITY OF TENANT.

a. Tenant shall provide Landlord with the name, address, and telephone number of a person to contact in the event of Tenant’s death.

b. By executing this Lease, Tenant expressly authorizes Landlord, in the event of Tenant’s death, to:
   i. grant the person designated in paragraph “a” above access to the Dwelling Unit at a reasonable time and in the presence of Landlord’s agent;
   ii. allow the person designated in paragraph “a” above to remove any of Tenant’s property found in the Dwelling Unit; and
   iii. refund Tenant’s Security Deposit, less lawful deductions, to the person designated under paragraph “a” above.

c. This Lease shall terminate upon the death of Tenant or, if there is more than one Tenant, upon the death of all Tenants, provided that the following procedures are followed. Upon the death of Tenant, or if there is more than one Tenant, upon the death of all Tenants:
   i. Landlord or Landlord’s agent may remove and store all property found in Tenant’s Dwelling Unit;
   ii. Landlord shall turn over possession of the property to the person designated by Tenant under paragraph “a” above or to any other person lawfully entitled to the property if the request is made prior to the property being discarded pursuant to subparagraph “5” of this paragraph;
   iii. Landlord shall refund Tenant’s Security Deposit, less lawful deductions, including the cost of removing and storing the property, to the person designated under paragraph “a” above or to any other person lawfully entitled to the refund;
   iv. any person who removes property from Tenant’s Dwelling Unit shall sign an inventory of the property being removed at the time of removal and submit the signed inventory to Landlord; and
   v. Landlord may discard the property removed by Landlord from Tenant’s Dwelling Unit if:
      1. Landlord has mailed a written request by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the person designated under paragraph “a” above, requesting the property be removed;
      2. the person failed to remove the property by the thirtieth (30th) day after the postmark date of notice; and
      3. Landlord, prior to the date of discarding the property, has not been contacted by anyone claiming the property.

d. If Tenant, by reason of physical or mental impairment, is no longer able to comply with the material provisions of this Lease and Landlord cannot make a reasonable accommodation to enable Tenant to comply with the Lease; then Landlord will assist Tenant or designated member(s) of Tenant’s family to move Tenant to more suitable housing. If there are no family members, Landlord will work with appropriate agencies to secure suitable housing. This Lease will terminate upon Tenant moving from the Dwelling Unit.

SECTION 21. PROPERTY ABANDONMENT. If Tenant abandons the Dwelling Unit, the Landlord shall take possession of Tenant’s personal property remaining on the premises, and shall store and care for the property in accordance with Oklahoma Law, unless such property has no ascertainable or apparent value. Landlord will consider the unit to be abandoned when Tenant has fallen behind in rent and has clearly indicated by words and/or actions an intention not to continue living in the unit. Personal property with ascertainable or apparent value left by Tenant shall be placed in storage by the Landlord. If Tenant does not reclaim said personal property through the Main Office of the Landlord within thirty (30) days from the date of storage of the personal property and pay all charges due the Landlord, including storage charges, all of said personal property left by Tenant shall be deemed to be abandoned by Tenant and the Landlord shall proceed to dispose of the property.
SUPPLEMENT II

SECTION 22. DELIVERY OF NOTICES. Except as provided in Section 15 hereof, all notices required or which may be given under this Lease shall be in writing and shall be considered properly given if delivered to Tenant personally or to any family member over the age of twelve (12) years residing in the Dwelling Unit, or, if sent by U.S. Mail, properly addressed to Tenant at the Dwelling Unit with first-class postage paid. If Tenant is visually impaired, all notices shall be in an accessible format. Notice to the Landlord shall be in writing, delivered to the Development Office or to the Main Office or sent by prepaid first-class mail properly addressed.

SECTION 23. GRIEVANCES. All grievances on the part of Tenant arising under this Lease shall be processed and resolved pursuant to the Grievance Procedure of the Landlord which is in effect at the time such grievances arise, with the exception of 48-hour Notices of Lease Termination given to Tenants for noncompliance which causes or threatens to cause imminent and irremediable harm. Said Grievance Procedure is on file at the office of the Landlord and shall be available for inspection by any Tenant Monday through Friday of each week between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. A copy will be provided to Tenant or Tenant Organization at no charge. Subsequent copies will be made available at the Landlord’s standard fee. Under said Grievance Procedure, Tenant shall have the opportunity to present any grievance before a hearing officer, who shall be selected by the Authority on the basis of being an impartial person who did not make or approve the Authority action under review, nor is a subordinate of someone who did, and after consulting with any applicable Resident Organization (as defined by 24 C.F.R. § 966.53(g)).

SECTION 24. HOUSE RULES. Tenant agrees to obey any House Rules that are reasonably related to the safety, care and cleanliness of the building and the safety, comfort and convenience of other tenants. The Landlord may modify such rules from time to time, provided that Tenant receives written notice of the proposed change, reasons for the change and an opportunity to submit written comments during a thirty- (30-) day comment period at least thirty (30) days before the proposed effective date of the change in the Rule. Existing House Rules are posted at the Development.

SECTION 25. DISCRIMINATION PROHIBITED. The Landlord shall not discriminate based upon race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age, handicap or disability, family status, or recipients of public assistance and shall comply with all nondiscrimination requirements of Federal, State and local law.

SECTION 26. REQUIREMENT OF COMMUNITY SERVICE. The Landlord shall identify all adult family members who are not exempt from the community service requirement. This notification will advise families that their community service obligation will begin effective with this Lease. Failure to comply with the requirement will result in ineligibility for continued occupancy at the subsequent annual renewal of the Lease.

SECTION 27. VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT. The Landlord shall abide by the Violence Against Women Act. The Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA), provides that “criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, engaged in by a member of Tenant’s household or any guest or other person under Tenant’s control, shall not be cause for termination of the tenancy or occupancy rights, if Tenant or immediate family member of Tenant’s family is the victim or threatened victim of that abuse.” HUD Forms 5380 and 5382 are incorporated by reference into this Lease.

SECTION 28. REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS. For all aspects of the Lease and grievance procedures, a disabled Tenant, or member of Tenant’s household, shall be provided reasonable accommodations to the extent necessary to provide the disabled person with an opportunity to use and occupy the Dwelling Unit equal to a nondisabled person. Tenant may, at any time during the tenancy, request reasonable accommodations of a handicap of a household member, including reasonable accommodation so that Tenant can meet Lease requirements and other requirements of tenancy. Reasonable accommodation shall be defined as applicable Statutes of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended.

SECTION 29. PUBLIC LIABILITY. The Landlord shall not be liable for any damage, loss or injury to the person, property, or effects of Tenant, or of any guest or visitor of Tenant, suffered on, in, or about the Dwelling Unit or on the common areas and grounds of the Development, except for any damage, loss or injury which shall be caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of the Landlord or its agents, representatives, or employees. Further, the Landlord shall not be liable for any damages arising from the acts or neglect of the other occupants in the Development or from the occupants or owners of adjacent property.
SUPPLEMENT II

SECTION 30. MODIFICATIONS TO LEASE. This Lease may be modified at any time by written agreement of Tenant and Landlord. Any modification must be accomplished by a written rider to the Lease executed by both parties except as provided in Sections 8-10 and Section 24 of this Lease.

SECTION 31. LANDLORD POLICIES AND PROCEDURES. Tenant certifies that he/she has received a copy of this Lease and the following policies and procedures, as such policies and procedures are in effect as of the date of this Lease, and agrees to comply with these policies and procedures, as they may be amended or revised from time to time pursuant to Landlord's established rule- and policy-making procedures:

a. Oklahoma City Housing Authority Animal Ownership Policy;
b. Oklahoma City Housing Authority Bed Bug Policy;
c. Oklahoma City Housing Authority Tobacco-Free Policy;
d. Oklahoma City Housing Authority Grievance Procedures; and
e. Oklahoma City Housing Authority House Rules.

OKLAHOMA CITY HOUSING AUTHORITY
TENANT GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

1. Purpose and Scope. The purpose of this Tenant Grievance Procedure ("Grievance Procedure") is to set forth the requirements, standards, and criteria for a grievance procedure to be established and implemented by the Oklahoma City Housing Authority ("Authority") to assure that tenants are afforded an opportunity for a hearing if the tenant disputes within a reasonable time any action or failure to act by the Authority involving the tenant’s public housing lease ("Lease") or the Authority regulations which adversely affect the individual tenant’s rights, welfare, or status.

2. Applicability. This Grievance Procedure shall be applicable to all individual grievances (as defined in Section 4) between the tenant and the Authority. However, the Authority excludes from its Grievance Procedure any grievance concerning an eviction or termination of tenancy based upon a tenant’s creation or maintenance of a threat to the health or safety of other tenants or the Authority’s employees. In such instances, a tenant will be given the opportunity for a hearing in court which provides the basic elements of due process (as defined in Section 4 below) in lieu of following the procedures described in this Grievance Procedure. This Grievance Procedure shall not be applicable to disputes between tenants not involving the Authority or to class grievances. The Grievance Procedure is not intended as a forum for initiating or negotiating policy changes between a group or groups of tenants and the Authority’s Board of Commissioners.

3. Requirements. This Grievance Procedure is adopted in accordance with the requirements, standards, and criteria of the Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD"), with such modifications as are required by state law. This Grievance Procedure shall be made a part of all tenant Leases.

4. Definitions. For the purpose of this section, the following definitions are applicable:

a. Complainant shall mean any tenant whose grievance is presented to the Authority at its main offices or at the project offices in accordance with Sections 5 and 6.

   b. Elements of due process shall mean an eviction action or a termination of tenancy in a state or local court in which the following procedural safeguards are required:

      i. Adequate notice to the tenant of the grounds for terminating the tenancy and for eviction;

      ii. Opportunity for the tenant to examine all relevant documents, records, and regulations of the Authority prior to the trial for the purpose of preparing a defense;

      iii. Right of the tenant to be represented by counsel;

      iv. Opportunity for the tenant to refute the evidence presented by the Authority, including the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses and to present any affirmative legal or equitable defense which the tenant may have; and

      v. A decision on the merits.

   c. Grievance shall mean any dispute which a tenant may have with respect to the Authority’s action or failure to act in accordance with the individual tenant’s Lease or the Authority’s regulations which adversely affect the individual tenant’s rights, duties, welfare, or status.

   d. Hearing officer shall mean a person selected in accordance with section 6 to hear grievances and render a decision with respect thereto.

   e. Tenant shall mean the adult person (or persons) (other than a live-in aide) who resides in the unit and who executed the Lease as the lessee, or, if no such person now resides in a leased dwelling unit, the remaining head of household (who resides in the dwelling unit) of the tenant family residing in the leased dwelling unit.
5. Informal Settlement of Grievance. Any grievance shall be personally presented, either orally or in writing, within (10) working days of the grievable event, to the Authority’s main offices or to the office of the project in which the complainant resides. Within ten (10) working days of such presentation, the Authority shall arrange a meeting with the complainant at a mutually agreeable time so that the grievance may be discussed informally and settled without a hearing. A summary of such discussion shall be prepared within five (5) working days after the discussion, with one copy given to the complainant and one retained in the Authority’s files. The summary shall specify the names of the participants, date of meeting, the nature of the proposed disposition of the complaint and the specific reasons therefore, and shall specify the procedures by which a hearing under Section 6 may be obtained if the complainant is not satisfied.

6. Procedure to Obtain Hearing.

   a. Request for Hearing. The complainant shall submit a written request for a hearing to the Authority or to the project office not later than five (5) working days after receipt of the summary of discussion pursuant to Section 5. The written request shall specify the reasons for the grievance and the action or relief sought.

   b. Selection of Hearing Officer. Grievances shall be presented before a hearing officer. A hearing officer shall be selected as follows:

      i. The grievance hearing must be conducted by an impartial person or persons appointed by the Authority, other than the person who made or approved the Authority action under review, or a subordinate of such person.

      ii. Any applicable Resident Organization (as defined by 24 C.F.R. § 966.53(g)) shall be consulted prior to the appointment of the Hearing Officer.

   c. Failure to Request Hearing. If a complainant does not request a hearing in accordance with this paragraph, then the Authority’s disposition of the grievance under Section 5 shall become final, provided, that failure to request a hearing shall not constitute a waiver by the complainant of his/her right thereafter to contest the Authority’s action in disposing of the complaint in an appropriate judicial proceeding.

   d. Hearing Prerequisite. All grievances shall be personally presented either orally or in writing pursuant to the informal procedure prescribed in Section 5 as a condition precedent to a hearing under this section, provided, that if the complainant shall show good cause why he failed to proceed in accordance with Section 5 to the hearing officer, the provisions of this subsection may be waived by the hearing officer.

   e. Scheduling of Hearing. Within ten (10) days of complainant’s compliance with paragraphs a and d of this section, a hearing shall be scheduled and written notification sent to complainant by the hearing officer for a time and place reasonably convenient to both the complainant and the Authority. The written notification specifying the time, place, and the procedures governing the hearing shall be delivered to the complainant and the appropriate Authority official.

7. Procedures Governing Hearing.

   a. The hearing shall be held before a hearing officer.

   b. The complainant shall be afforded a fair hearing, which shall include:

      i. The opportunity to examine before the hearing and, at the expense of the complainant, to copy all documents, records, and regulations of the Authority that are relevant to the hearing. Any document not so made available after request, therefore, by the complainant may not be relied on by the Authority at the hearing;

      ii. The right to be represented by counsel or other person chosen as his/her representative;

      iii. The right to a private hearing unless the complainant requests a public hearing;
iv. The right to present evidence and arguments in support of his/her complaint, to controvert evidence relied on by the Authority or project management, and to confront and cross-examine all witnesses on whose testimony or information the Authority or project management relies;

v. A decision based solely and exclusively upon the facts presented at the hearing; and

vi. The right to be provided reasonable accommodation for persons with disabilities to participate in the hearing. (Reasonable accommodation may include qualified sign language interpreters, readers, accessible locations or attendants. If the complainant is visually impaired, any notice to the complainant required in the grievance procedure will be in an accessible format.)

c. The hearing officer may render a decision without proceeding with the hearing if the hearing officer determines that the issue has been previously decided in another proceeding.

d. If the complainant or the Authority fails to appear at a scheduled hearing, the hearing officer may make a determination to postpone the hearing for not to exceed five (5) business days or may make a determination that the party has waived his right to a hearing. Both the complainant and the Authority shall be notified of the determination by the hearing officer, provided, that a determination that the complainant has waived his right to a hearing shall not constitute a waiver of any right the complainant may have to contest the Authority’s disposition of the grievance in an appropriate judicial proceeding.

e. At the hearing, the complainant must first make a showing of an entitlement to the relief sought and thereafter the Authority must sustain the burden of justifying the Authority’s action or failure to act against which the complaint is directed.

f. The hearing shall be conducted informally by the hearing officer and oral or documentary evidence pertinent to the facts and issues raised by the complaint may be received without regard to admissibility under the rules of evidence applicable to judicial proceedings. The hearing officer shall require the Authority, the complainant, counsel, and other participants or spectators to conduct themselves in an orderly fashion. Failure to comply with the directions of the hearing officer to obtain order may result in exclusion from the proceedings or in a decision adverse to the interests of the disorderly party and granting or denial of the relief sought, as appropriate.

g. The complainant or the Authority may arrange, in advance and at the expense of the party making the arrangement, for a transcript of the hearing. Any interested party may purchase a copy of such transcript.

8. Decision of Hearing Officer.

a. The hearing officer shall prepare a written decision, together with the reasons therefore, within ten (10) working days after the hearing. A copy of the decision shall be sent to the complainant and the Authority. The Authority shall retain a copy of the decision in the tenant’s folder. A copy of such decision, with all names and identifying references deleted, shall also be maintained on file by the Authority and made available for inspection by a prospective complainant, his representative, or the hearing panel or hearing officer.

b. The decision of the hearing officer shall be binding on the Authority, which shall take all actions, or refrain from any actions, necessary to carry out the decision unless the matter is presented to the Authority’s Board of Commissioners within ten (10) working days of the date the hearing officer’s decision issued, and the Board of Commissioners determines, within thirty (30) calendar days, and promptly notifies the complainant, within ten (10) working days of its determination, that:

i. The grievance does not concern an Authority action or failure to act in accordance with or involving the complainant’s Lease or the Authority’s regulations, which adversely affect the complaint’s rights, duties, welfare, or status; or
ii. The decision of the hearing officer is contrary to applicable Federal, State, or local law, HUD regulations, or requirements of the Annual Contributions Contract between HUD and the Authority.

c. A decision by the hearing officer or Board of Commissioners in favor of the Authority or which denies the relief requested by the complainant in whole or in part shall not constitute a waiver of, nor affect in any manner whatever, any rights the complainant may have to a trial de novo or judicial review in any judicial proceedings, which may thereafter be brought in the matter.

9. Authority Eviction Actions. If a tenant has requested a hearing in accordance with Section 6 on a complaint involving an Authority notice of termination of the tenancy and the hearing officer upholds the Authority’s action to terminate the tenancy, the Authority shall not commence an eviction action in a state or local court until it has served a notice to vacate on the tenant, and in no event shall the notice to vacate be issued prior to the decision of the hearing officer having been mailed or delivered to the complainant. Such notice to vacate must be in writing and specify that if the tenant fails to quit the premises within the applicable statutory period, or on the termination date stated in the notice of termination, whichever is later, appropriate action will be brought against him/her and he/she may be required to pay court costs and attorney fees.
SUPPLEMENT VI

OKLAHOMA CITY HOUSING AUTHORITY
ANIMAL OWNERSHIP POLICY

Section 526 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998 provides for the ownership of pets in Federally assisted rental housing. Section 227 of the Housing and Urban – Rural Recovery Act of 1983 provides for the ownership of pets in Federally assisted rental housing built exclusively for occupancy by the elderly and handicapped. This Animal Ownership Policy is required to assure compliance with these laws and to establish the requirements and procedures primarily for ownership of a dog or cat. There may be additional requirements and procedures for ownership of other common household pets, which may be secured from the Housing Manager. Other common household pets include birds, fish, caged hamsters, gerbils or guinea pigs only. Snakes or other reptiles, skunks and other animals will not be accepted. The pet requirements in this Policy do not apply to assistance animals that are used to assist the disabled. This exclusion applies to animals that reside in the developments as well as to animals that assist the disabled persons who visit these properties that have been approved by the Oklahoma City Housing Authority ("Authority") (full policy regarding service/assistance animals is located in Chapter 10 of the Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy.) The Authority retains the right to revise this Policy at any time through the Authority’s established procedures.

1. Pet Requirements.

   a. Pet ownership is limited to two (2) animals, only one (1) of which may be a dog or cat. No pet may exceed fifteen (15) pounds in weight or fifteen (15) inches in height at physical maturity. Consideration must be given to the age of the animal to insure its full-grown size will not exceed these size limits.

   b. Chows, Pit bulls, Dobermans, Rottweilers, or any other dog breeds commonly known to be used in dog fighting will not be allowed.

   c. Specific to Senior Citizen Communities:

      i. Pets may be outside their owner’s dwelling unit only if on a leash not exceeding (5) feet in length.

      ii. Pets are not allowed in common areas except while entering or leaving the building.

      iii. Pet owners must ensure that a current and completed Sponsor Statement is on file in the Management Office at all times. The Sponsor must not live in an Authority community and must be willing to remove the pet should the owner be unable to care for the pet.

      iv. Pets may be exercised only in designated areas.

   d. Specific to Family Housing Communities:

      i. Pets may be outside their owner’s dwelling unit only if on a leash or confined within a fenced-in area.

2. Pet Procedures.

   a. Pet ownership is permitted only with written permission from the appropriate Housing Manager. Such permission is granted only through completion of a Pet Ownership Agreement (OCHA 413) that contains this Policy. When executed, the Pet Ownership Agreement becomes a part of a tenant’s dwelling lease.

   b. A refundable $200.00 Pet Deposit is required upon execution of a Pet Ownership Agreement. The deposit will be refunded upon termination of the Pet Ownership Agreement, provided the tenant has complied with all terms and conditions. All or part of the deposit may be applied to damages suffered by the Authority due to noncompliance. Pets registered in Family Housing prior to January 1, 2001, are exempt from the deposit.

   c. At the time a Pet Ownership Agreement is executed, the tenant requesting pet ownership shall supply a statement from a licensed veterinarian verifying that the pet:
i. Is neutered or spayed;
ii. Is in good health, free of internal and external parasites (such as fleas ticks, worms); and
iii. Has received required inoculations.

Tenants shall submit an updated statement to the Authority annually. In addition, all pets must wear a tag at all times indicating the status of inoculations and must be kept free of external parasites during the term of the Agreement.

3. Tenant Responsibilities.

   a. Tenants are individually responsible for any bodily and property injury caused by their animals.

   b. Tenants are responsible for proper removal and cleanup of all animal waste both inside and outside their dwelling unit.

4. Assistance Animals.

   a. For purposes of this policy, an assistance animal includes both service animals (as defined by the Americans With Disabilities Act) and assistance animals (as defined by the Fair Housing Act).

   b. Assistance animals must be requested by a tenant and approved by the Authority as a reasonable accommodation to assist with a person with disabilities in the household. Persons with disabilities that are not readily apparent or known to the Authority may be required to submit reliable documentation of a disability and their disability-related need for an assistance animal.

   c. Assistance animals are not pets. When a reasonable accommodation has been granted, the person with disabilities will be exempt from the pet deposit, size, and weight limitations in the Policy.

   d. Tenants must care for assistance animals in a manner that complies with state and local laws, including anti-cruelty laws.

   e. Tenants must ensure that assistance animals do not pose a direct threat to the health or safety of others, or cause substantial physical damage to the Authority-owned property, their dwelling unit, or property of other residents.

   f. When a tenant’s care or handling of an assistance animal violates these policies, the Authority will consider whether the violation could be reduced or eliminated by a reasonable accommodation. If the Authority determines that no such accommodation can be made, the Authority may withdraw the approval of a particular assistance animal.

5. Temporary Animals. Animals that are not owned by a tenant are not allowed on Authority-owned property. Tenants are prohibited from feeding or harboring stray animals.

6. Result of Violations. The Authority shall notify tenant, in writing, of any infraction of the terms and conditions of this Policy, giving five (5) days to correct the problem. Tenant may request to meet with the Housing Manager to discuss the infraction. If the infraction is not corrected, the Authority retains the right to terminate the Agreement and request removal of the pet. The Authority also retains the right to immediately request the removal of any pet whose conduct is duly determined to constitute a nuisance or danger to other residents’ peaceful enjoyment of their accommodations. Failure to comply with this Policy may also be a material breach of a tenant’s public housing lease and may be good cause for termination or non-renewal by the Authority.

Yard maintenance is the tenant’s responsibility. The tenant has 48 hours after OCHA has issued notification of unsatisfactory condition to perform required maintenance. Failure to complete the task will result in OCHA having the work completed, and the tenant charged accordingly.

When the City of Oklahoma City inspector has issued the first notice to residents to comply with either cleaning/removing debris or cutting the grass, the resident should comply with the notice. If the resident fails to comply, and the City of Oklahoma City has to complete the work, the corresponding charges will be assessed to the Housing Authority and will be applied to the tenant’s account.

SUPPLEMENT VIII

Oklahoma City Housing Authority
Limited English Proficiency (LEP) Language Assistance Plan

The purpose of this Plan is to ensure that clients of the Oklahoma City Housing Authority (the Authority) have meaningful access to program information and service even though they may have limited English language proficiency.

This Plan is developed to service clients of the Authority, prospective clients, their family members and other interested persons who do not speak, read, write or understand the English language at a level that allows them to communicate effectively with Authority staff.

This Plan is developed in accordance with the Department of Housing and Urban Development’s Final Guidance to Federal Financial Assistance Recipients Regarding Title VI Prohibition Against National Origin Discrimination Affecting Limited English Proficient (LEP) Persons. It is also consistent with Executive Order 13166 and Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

In accordance with federal guidelines, the Authority will make reasonable efforts to provide or arrange free language assistance for its LEP clients including applicants, recipients and/or persons eligible for public housing, Section 8/Housing Choice Vouchers, homeownership and all other PHA programs.

I. General: HUD requires that the Authority conduct a Four Factor Analysis to assist in identifying Limited English Proficient persons. The four factors are:

1. Demography - the number or proportion of LEP persons encountered in the eligible service area. The greater the number or proportions of LEP persons in a language group, the more language service needed.

2. Frequency of contact - the frequency with which LEP individuals come in contact with the program. Higher frequency contact requires more services.

3. Importance - The nature and importance of a program, activity or services provided by the Authority.

4. Resources and costs - The Authority’s resources and the cost of providing meaningful access. Reasonable steps may cease to be reasonable where the costs imposed substantially exceed the benefits.

II. Provision of Services:

1. Language Assistance. A person who does not speak English as their primary language and who has a limited ability to read, write, speak or understand English may be a Limited English Proficient (LEP) person and may be entitled to language assistance with respect to the Authority’s programs and activities. This includes interpretation, which means the spoken transfer of information from language to another language; and/or translation, which means the written transfer of information from one language to another. The Authority will determine when interpretation and/or translation are needed and are reasonable.

Staff will take reasonable steps to provide meaningful access to LEP clients who have difficulty communicating in English. Should a client request language assistance, and the Authority determines it is necessary; the Authority will make reasonable effort to provide free language assistance in the client’s preferred language.
2. Translation of Documents. The Authority will weigh the costs and benefits of translation documents for potential LEP groups, considering the expense of translating, the barriers to meaningful translation or interpretation of technical housing information, the likelihood of frequent changes in documents, the existence of multiple dialects within a single language group, the apparent literacy rate in an LEP group and other relevant factors. The Authority will conduct this examination when an eligible LEP group constitutes 5 percent of an eligible client group (i.e. 5 percent of households residing in public housing) or 1,000 persons, whichever is less.

3. Interpreters. To provide meaningful access for LEP clients, the Authority will provide qualified interpreters, including bilingual staff and contracted vendors when necessary. Interpreters may also include family members, friends, legal guardians, service representatives or advocates of the LEP client.

An LEP person may use an informal interpreter of their own choosing and at their expense, either in place of or in addition to the free language assistance offered by the Authority. Whenever possible, the Authority will accommodate a LEP client’s request to use an informal interpreter in place of a formal interpreter.

III. The Authority will review and revise this Plan from time to time. The review will include reports from the computer business system on the number of clients who may be LEP and reports from staff observations. Also included in this periodic review will be a determination as to whether 5 percent or 1,000 persons from the Authority’s client base speak a specific language, as well as an analysis of staff requests for contract interpreters which will include the number of requests and the languages requested.

SUPPLEMENT IX

Oklahoma City Housing Authority

Community Service and
Self-Sufficiency Policy

The Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998 (QHWRA) requires in Section 509 that all nonexempt (see definitions below) adult residents (18 or older) contribute eight (8) hours per month of Community Service or participate in eight (8) hours per month in training, counseling, classes or other activities which help toward individual self-sufficiency and economic independence. To insure this requirement is administered uniformly throughout the Authority, policy and procedures must be established regarding the application.

I. GENERAL: Part 960 - ADMISSION TO, AND OCCUPANCY OF, PUBLIC HOUSING, Subpart F, as amended, generally states that Community Service will be defined as the performance of voluntary work or duties that are a public benefit, and that serve to improve the quality of life, enhance resident self-sufficiency, or increase resident self-responsibility in the community.

II. REQUIREMENTS OF THE PROGRAM: Residents who are required to perform the Community Service may elect to perform either volunteer work or self-sufficiency program activity or a combination of the two.

A. An exempt individual is:

1. Aged 62 or older; or

2. Blind or disabled, as defined under the Social Security Act and who certifies that because of the disability she or he is unable to comply with this Community Service requirement; or

3. The primary caretaker of such a disabled individual; or

4. Engaged in work activities at least 20 hours per week; or

5. A person who meets the requirements for being exempted from having to engage in a work activity under the State program or any other welfare program, including a State-administered welfare-to-work program; or

6. Member of a family receiving assistance, benefits or services under such a State program as described in 5. above.

B. Community Service may include, but is not limited to:

1. Voluntary work at a local school, hospital, church, senior center, recreation center or child care center;

2. Voluntary work with youth or senior citizen organization;

3. Voluntary work at one (1) or more of the Oklahoma City Housing Authority (OCHA) developments to help improve physical conditions;

4. Voluntary work at one (1) or more of the OCHA developments to help with children’s or senior programs;

5. Helping recognized Neighborhood groups with special projects.

NOTE: Political activity is specifically excluded.
Community Service and
Self-Sufficiency Policy

C. Self-Sufficiency Activities may include, but are not limited to:

1. Job training classes;
2. GED classes;
3. Substance abuse or mental health counseling;
4. English proficiency or literacy (reading) classes;
5. Budgeting and credit counseling;
6. Any other type of class that helps a person toward economic independence. This includes fulltime high school or a minimum of 12 hours at an accredited college or vocational/technical school.

D. At least eight (8) hours of activity must be performed each month. An individual may not skip a month and perform additional hours the following month unless special circumstances warrant special considerations. OCHA will make the determination of whether to allow or disallow a deviation from the schedule.

Activities must be performed within the Oklahoma City city limits or surrounding communities.

III. PROCEDURES:

A. At Dwelling Lease execution or reexamination after October 31, 2003, all adult members (18 years of age or older) of a public housing resident family must:

1. Provide documentation that they are exempt from this Community Service requirement if they qualify for an exemption, and
2. Sign a certification that they have received and read this policy and understand that if they are not exempt, failure to comply with the Community Service requirement will result in nonrenewal of their lease.

B. At each annual reexamination, nonexempt family members must present a completed documentation form (to be provided by OCHA) of activities performed over the previous twelve (12) month period. This form will include the signatures of supervisors, instructors, or counselors certifying to the number of hours contributed.

C. If a family member is found to be noncompliant at the reexamination, he/she and the head of household will sign an agreement with OCHA to make up the deficient hours over the next twelve (12) month period.

D. Change in exempt status.

1. If, during the twelve (12) month period, a nonexempt person becomes exempt, it is his/her responsibility to report this to OCHA and provide documentation of the reason for the change.

2. If, during the twelve (12) month period, an exempt person becomes nonexempt, it is his/her responsibility to report this to OCHA. OCHA will provide the resident with the Recording/Certification documentation form and a list of agencies in the community that provide volunteer and/or training opportunities.

E. OCHA’s obligations.

1. To the greatest extent possible and practicable, OCHA will:

   a. Provide names and contacts at agencies that can provide opportunities for residents, including disabled, to fulfill their Community Service obligation. (According to the QHWRRA, a disabled person who is otherwise able to be gainfully employed is not necessarily exempt from the Community Service requirement.)

   b. Provide in-house opportunities for volunteer work or self-sufficiency programs. (OCHA may not substitute Community Service or self-sufficiency activities performed by residents for work ordinarily performed by OCHA employees.)

2. OCHA will provide the family with exemption verification and Recording/Certification documentation forms and a copy of this Policy at initial application and at Dwelling Lease execution.

3. OCHA will make the final determination as to whether or not a family member is exempt from the Community Service requirement. Residents may use the Authority’s Grievance Procedure if they disagree with the Authority’s determination.

4. Noncompliance of family member.

   a. At least thirty (30) days prior to annual reexamination and/or lease expiration, OCHA will begin reviewing the exempt or nonexempt status and compliance of family members.

   b. If OCHA finds a family member to be noncompliant, OCHA will enter into an agreement with the noncompliant family member and the Head of Household to make up the deficient hours over the next twelve (12) month period.

   c. If, at the next annual reexamination, the family member still is not in compliance, the Dwelling Lease will not be renewed and the entire family will have to vacate, unless the noncompliant member agrees to move out of the unit.

   d. Should the resident disagree with OCHA’s decision, a grievance may be requested in accordance with the Grievance Procedure.

IV. The Oklahoma City Housing Authority retains the right to revise this Policy at any time through its established procedures.

OKLAHOMA CITY HOUSING AUTHORITY

HOUSE RULES

This document is for the premises located at ______________________. For purposes of these House Rules, tenants shall mean tenants under a public housing lease and all members of those tenants’ household, and Authority means the Oklahoma City Housing Authority or its designated representatives.

1. Noise and Conduct.

   a. Excessive noises, or any other actions which will interfere with the rights comforts or conveniences of other persons, are strictly prohibited.

   b. Musical instruments, television sets, stereos, radios, and other entertainment items shall not be played or used at a volume which will disturb others.

   c. Frequent or noisy use of car alarms, alarm “chirps”, car radios, car audio systems or other noise-making devices which will disturb other residents are prohibited.

   d. Activities and conduct outside of dwelling units (i.e., in common areas, parking areas, or on the street near buildings) which are likely to disturb other persons are prohibited.

   e. Children shall not be allowed to play in the public hallways or stairs.

   f. Calling or conversing with other persons from dwelling units down to the street or parking is prohibited.

   g. Sleeping is not permitted on balconies or common areas or stairwells.

   h. No noise shall be created, or be permitted to be created, between the hours of 10:00 PM and 8:00 AM that is disturbing to other residents.

   i. As a courtesy to those that go to bed early, knock softly on the door, to avoid disturbing others.

   j. Proper clothing must be worn in all common areas: no bare feet, no night gowns, and no robes.

   k. Open containers shall not be carried through hallways and other common areas.

   l. Electric wheelchairs shall not be permitted to speed through hallways or common areas.

   m. Common areas will close at 10:00 PM.

   n. The Authority is determined to help create an environment that is safe and life-affirming for all residents and staff. Acts of bullying, harassment and intimidation are an attack on the right to the safety and respect that each individual on this property is entitled to. Management will promptly report and investigate all incidents of bullying and harassment.

   o. Any criminal activity, including the possession or use of illegal drugs, is strictly prohibited.

   Note: Criminal activity and drug possession may be a violation of a tenant’s lease resulting in lease termination. Tenants should be aware that federal law classifies marijuana as an illegal drug, and that federal law overrides Oklahoma’s medical marijuana law. Thus, it is illegal to use marijuana on Authority-owned property. Any violation of this rule constitutes a serious material violation of a tenant's lease and is grounds for termination and/or eviction.

2. Cleanliness and Trash.

a. Dwelling units shall be kept clean, sanitary and free from objectionable odors at all times.

b. Smoking, use of tobacco products of any kind (or common tobacco substitutes), and use of vapor products are not permitted on Authority-owned property.

c. Trash and other materials shall not be permitted to accumulate in the dwelling unit, to cause a hazard or be in violation of any health, fire or safety ordinance or regulation.

d. Garbage shall not be permitted to accumulate. All garbage shall be placed in the trash containers provided for that purpose on a daily basis.

   i. Large boxes shall be broken apart before being placed in separately-designated containers located in the garbage room area or in a garbage chute.
   ii. Garbage bags shall be tied securely and carried to the designated garbage area.
   iii. Do not place garbage in hallways or under stairs or balconies.
   iv. Do not place large garbage bags down garbage chute.
   v. No raw garbage should be thrown down the garbage chute or in a trash receptacle.
   vi. Do not overfill trash receptacles.
   vii. Do not place broken appliances (such as TV’s, VCR’s, etc.) in the garbage chute.

e. Contact the Housing Manager for assistance gaining access to the garbage room.

f. Tenants shall be responsible, at their expense, for hauling to the landfill or disposing of those items too large to fit in the trash receptacles and those items related to a business (non-residential related trash).

g. Large appliances or furniture shall not be left in parking area or on the street.

h. Tenants’ furniture shall be kept inside their dwelling units, and unsightly items kept out of view. Furniture should not block any form of egress.

i. No personal articles shall be kept in front of dwelling unit entrances, hallways, and other common areas.

j. Clothing, curtains, rugs, and other coverings and clothes shall not be shaken or hung outside of any window, ledge, or balcony.

k. Patios/balconies must be kept clean and free of all items except for approved patio furniture and plants. Some properties, including Candle Lake Center, may not have any items on the entire balcony.

l. Privacy screens are not permitted.

m. Placement of any items or signs in or on windows, common area doors or common area hallways, (i.e., trophies, beer signs, etc.), are not permitted. Inappropriate signage or posters that distracts from appealing environment is not permitted. Dwelling unit door decorations (wreaths, dry erase boards) are permitted. Tenants shall be mindful not to cause damage to property when hanging decorations.

n. Combustible or hazardous materials may not be disposed of in trash receptacles or garbage chutes.
SUPPLEMENT X

o. Pets or assistance animals shall use only proper designated areas for urinating and defecating. Pet and assistance animal owners are responsible for cleaning up after their animals and ensuring that all animal excrement is placed in proper trash receptacles.

p. Upon move-out, tenants are required to dispose of any household items, trash, and garbage at their own cost and will be charged a hauling fee if items are left for the Authority to remove.

   i. Move-out/move-in hours are between 9:00 AM and 9:00 PM only.
   ii. No moving or deliveries are permitted through the front lobby.

3. Laundry Facility.

   a. All trash, including lint from dryers, shall be placed in the proper trash receptacles.

   b. Laundry facilities are for tenants only.

   c. All clothing must be removed immediately after washing and drying.

   d. Clothing left in the laundry room will be discarded.

   e. Laundry facility hours will be 8:00 AM to 10:00 PM. All laundry is to be finished by 9:45 PM.

   a. Security is the responsibility of each tenant and guest. The Authority assumes no responsibility or liability, unless otherwise provided by law, for tenants’ and guests’ safety and security, or for injury or damage caused by criminal acts of other persons.

   b. Consumption of alcohol is permitted only within dwelling units. It is not permitted in any common area or external portion of Authority-owned property.

      i. Kegs of alcoholic beverages are not permitted on Authority-owned property.

   c. The use or sale of illegal drugs is expressly prohibited in or on Authority-owned property.

   d. Dwelling unit doors shall be locked during tenants’ absence.

   e. When cooking, always use the vent fan over the stove. If vent fans are not used, there is a probability a smoke detector will sound. If a dwelling unit fills with smoke:

      i. Do not open dwelling unit doors to let the smoke vent.
      ii. Open your windows and use a box fan to circulate the smoke from the apartment.

   f. Pull emergency cords only if there is an emergency that requires assistance.

   g. All appliances shall be turned off during tenants’ absence.

   h. When leaving for an extended period (more than fourteen (14) days), tenants should notify the Authority about how long tenants will be away.

   i. The use or storage of gasoline, cleaning solvent or other combustibles inside dwelling units is prohibited.
j. Gas grills, charcoal barbecues or other combustible cooking apparatus shall not be used on porches, balconies or patios adjacent to building.

k. Personal belongings, including bicycles, play equipment or other items, shall not be left unattended in the halls or about the building.

l. Tenants witnessing someone fall in or outside Authority-owned property shall always notify the Housing Management Office.

m. Tenants shall maintain their dwelling units in a condition that does not create a fire and/or health hazard, including repulsive odor. Incense (burned) or candles are not permitted on Authority-owned property.

n. Guests not on a tenant’s lease may not stay at that tenant’s dwelling unit longer than three (3) consecutive days in one (1) twelve-month period without first obtaining the Housing Manager’s prior approval.

o. Feeding of stray animals is not permitted.

p. No guest pets are allowed in or on Authority-owned property.

q. Tenants must follow the requirements and procedures described in the Authority’s Animal Ownership Policy.

r. Roof and fire escape areas shall not be accessed unless for emergency purposes. Any unauthorized roof and fire escape access will be reported immediately to the Police Department and will be grounds for immediate termination of tenant lease and/or eviction.

s. The use, display, or discharge of a firearm, weapon (including bladed weapons), air gun, gas operated gun, spring gun, or any bow or slip-type instrument, made for purpose of throwing or projecting missiles of any kind, in violation of municipal or state law, is expressly prohibited. Acts of physical violence of any kind shall not be tolerated.

t. Residents must report all accidents, including falls, on property to manager as soon as possible

u. When a portable oxygen tank is in use, the resident agrees to become familiar with and comply with all safety precautions associated with use of portable oxygen. Because of the extreme risk to other residents, unsafe use of portable oxygen tanks and other such devices is considered a lease violation.

v. Fires are a serious problem in any apartment community. Though damage is usually confined to property loss and damage, the loss of personal items can be quite an emotional experience. Most often started through carelessness with cooking, matches, cigarettes and candles, many fires can be avoided by using caution and common sense. If a fire is started due to carelessness on the part of the resident and/or occupants and guests, the resident will be financially responsible for the amount of repair to the unit. At its discretion, the Authority may cap the resident liability at the amount of the insurance deductible.

5. Environmental, Maintenance, Repairs, and Alterations.
a. Tenants shall advise the Authority of any items requiring repair, such as dripping faucets or light switches. Tenants shall make repair requests as soon as practical after the problem is discovered. Authority is not responsible for damages to resident's personal property.

b. Tenants shall advise the Authority of any items requiring repair in the common areas or exterior of building. Tenants shall make repair requests as soon as practical after the problem is discovered.

c. All service requests shall be made through Housing Management Office. Tenants shall refrain from making service request to maintenance personnel. For emergency work order requests, call OCHA Security at (405) 232-1041.

When conditions in the unit are hazardous to life, health or safety, the owner will make repairs or otherwise abate the situation within 24 hours. Defects hazardous to life, health or safety include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Any condition that jeopardizes the security of the unit
- Major plumbing leaks or flooding, waterlogged ceiling or floor in imminent danger of falling
- Natural or LP gas or fuel oil leaks
- Any electrical problem or condition that could result in shock or fire
- Absence of a working heating system when outside temperature is below 50 degrees Fahrenheit
- Utilities not in service due to no fault of the resident, including no running hot water
- Inoperable smoke detectors/CO detectors
- Exterior door, window or lock broken and unable to secure apartment
- Inoperable toilet (does not apply if second toilet is available)

d. No alterations or improvements shall be made to any dwelling unit without the consent of the Authority.

e. Tenants shall be mindful not to cause damage to property when hanging pictures or decorations.

f. The use of aluminum foil as a window covering is prohibited. The use of any window covering visible from the exterior of the building requires prior Authority approval.

g. Tenants shall not install, use or permit any in-sink garbage disposer.

h. Tenants, household members and guests shall not take or permit any action which in any way damages or disturbs the dwelling unit, or any part thereof, including, but not limited to, the following actions:

- Do not drill holes in walls, ceilings or floors.
- Do not hang plants or other objects from the ceilings.
- Do not disturb or detach insulation behind the walls or ceilings.
- Do not sand or remove any floor tiles.

i. To minimize the occurrence and growth of mold in the apartment, the resident hereby agrees to the following:

- Moisture Accumulation. Resident shall: remove any visible moisture accumulation in or on the apartment, including on walls, windows, floors, ceilings, and bathroom fixtures; mop up spills and thoroughly dry affected areas as soon as possible after occurrence; use exhaust fans in the kitchen and bathroom when necessary; and keep climate and moisture in the apartment at reasonable levels.

- Notification Requirements. Resident shall promptly notify authority in writing of the presence of any of the following conditions:
- A water leak, excessive moisture, or standing water inside the apartment;
- A water leak, excessive moisture, or standing water in any common area of the development;
- Mold or mildew growth in or on the apartment that persists after resident has tried several times to remove it with household cleaning solutions, such as disinfectants, mildew remover, or a combination of water and bleach;
- A malfunction in any part of the heating, air-conditioning, or ventilation system in the apartment.

j. Lead Warning Statement: Housing built before 1978 may contain lead-based paint. Lead from paint, paint chips, and dust can pose health hazards if not managed properly. Lead exposure is especially harmful to young children and pregnant women. Before renting pre-1978 housing, lessors must disclose the presence of known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the dwelling. Lessees must also receive a federally approved pamphlet on lead poisoning prevention. Housing exclusively for elderly or disabled, without children under six years of age residing in the unit, are exempt from having to receive the federally approved pamphlet. More information visit at www.epa.gov/lead.

a. Tenants shall only use resident parking spaces and shall ensure that guests park only in unassigned areas or in designated guest parking areas. Tenants shall ensure that posted and designated fire zones or “No Parking” areas remain clear of vehicles at all times. (Vehicles parked in unauthorized areas may be towed away at the vehicle owner’s expense).

i. Tenants and guests shall not park at the front entrance to the building.
ii. Tenants and guests shall not park in areas designated for loading or unloading purposes only.

b. The Authority is not responsible for any damages to vehicles due to theft or vandalism.

c. Tenants are prohibited from washing, painting or making any auto repairs on or around building premises, including street area around building premises.

d. Tenants are responsible for cleaning up any oil spills caused by leaks from their vehicles. Tenants will also be responsible for the cost to clean up any damaged area caused by oil or any other fluids leaking from their vehicles.

e. All vehicles parked on the premises must be registered and in operable condition.

f. Vehicles with expired tags or that are inoperable will be towed at the owner’s expense.

g. Unauthorized vehicles will be towed at the owner’s expense.

h. Tenants’ vehicle(s) must fit within a designated parking space. Vehicles that block, hinder or prohibit the use of the parking area by other Tenants are not allowed and towed at the owner’s expense.

7. Lock-Outs; Lost or Stolen Keys.

a. Tenants are responsible for all keys to their dwelling units and keycard ACCESS cards. Tenants will be charged a $25 fee to replace the keycard. If tenants are locked out of their dwelling units or have had their keys lost or stolen, tenants shall call OCHA Security at (405) 232-1041.
b. Tenants shall not give keycard ACCESS card to any person.

c. If confiscated from other person than tenants, a $25 fee will be applied to retrieve the card.

8. Roommates; Subletting.

   a. Unauthorized subletting is strictly prohibited.

   b. New roommates are required to submit a signed and completed rental application and comply with all additional requirements listed in the Authority’s Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy (ACOP).

9. Utilities; Computer Labs.

   a. Tenants are responsible for keeping electric service and water (if paid for by the tenant) connected and on at all times to their dwelling units.

   b. The Computer Lab is for current residents’ use only.

      i. Accessing pornographic or obscene materials through the Computer Lab’s internet and wireless connections is strictly prohibited.

      ii. Computer Lab users must comply with applicable copyright laws and licensing agreements.

10. Violations. Tenants are responsible for the behavior of members of their households and their guests. A violation of these House Rules by a tenant’s household member or guest will be treated as a violation by that tenant. Violations of these House Rules constitute a violation of a tenant’s lease, and may result in forfeiture of any security deposit and exercise by the Authority of other rights under the lease, including termination and eviction. Additionally, tenants shall be charged for repairs for any damages caused by themselves, their household members, and their guests.

SUPPLEMENT XII

OKLAHOMA CITY HOUSING AUTHORITY
TOBACCO-FREE POLICY

1. Definitions.

   a. Authority means the Oklahoma City Housing Authority.

   b. Authority-Owned Property means any building or property owned by the Authority.

   c. Smoking means inhaling, exhaling, breathing, or carrying any lighted cigar, cigarette, or other Tobacco Product or similar lighted product in any manner or in any form.

   d. Tobacco-Free means the prohibition of the use of any Tobacco Products, including Vapor Products, by anyone, anywhere on Authority-Owned Property, at any time.

   e. Tobacco Product means any product that contains or is derived from tobacco or common tobacco alternatives (i.e., herbal snuff) and is intended for human consumption excluding drugs or devices approved for cessation by the United States Food and Drug Administration.

   f. Vapor Product means noncombustible products, that may or may not contain nicotine, that employ a mechanical heating element, battery electronic circuit, or other mechanism, regardless of shape or size, that can be used to produce vapor in a solution or other form. “Vapor products” shall include any vapor cartridge or other container with or without nicotine or other form that is intended to be used with an electronic cigarette, electronic cigar, electronic cigarillo, electronic pipe, or similar product or device. “Vapor products” do not include any products regulated by the United States Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act.

2. Generally. The Authority desires to mitigate (i) the irritation and known health effects caused by secondhand smoke and Tobacco Products; (ii) the increased maintenance, cleaning, and redecorating costs from smoking; (iii) the increased risk of fire from smoking; and (iv) the litter and damage caused by use of Tobacco Products and Vapor Products on Authority-Owned Property. Authority-Owned Property shall be Tobacco-Free. Smoking, use of Tobacco Products, and use of Vapor Products are prohibited in all dwelling units, including any associated balconies, decks, or patios, and in the common areas of the buildings, including, but not limited to, community rooms, community bathrooms, lobbies, reception areas, hallways, laundry rooms, stairways, offices, and elevators. Smoking and use of vapor products are prohibited on all Authority-Owned Property.

3. Authority Not a Guarantor of Tobacco-Free Environment. The Authority’s adoption of a tobacco-free living environment does not make the Authority or any of its managing agents the guarantor of tenant or guest health, or of the tobacco-free condition of any unit or common area. The Authority specifically disclaims any implied or express warranties that the building, common areas, or premises will have any higher or improved air quality standards than any other rental property. The Authority cannot and does not warranty or promise that the rental premises or common areas will be free from secondhand smoke. However, the Authority shall take reasonable steps to enforce the Tobacco-Free terms of its Lease and this Policy. The Authority is not required to take steps in response to tobacco usage unless the Authority knows of said tobacco usage or has been given written notice of said tobacco usage. Authority tenants acknowledge that the Authority’s ability to police, monitor, or enforce this Policy is dependent in significant part on voluntary compliance by tenants and guests. Tenants with respiratory ailments, allergies or any other physical or mental condition relating to smoke are put on notice that the Authority does not assume any higher duty of care to enforce this Policy than any other Authority policy or any portion of any public housing lease.

4. Effect of Violation. A material violation of this Policy by an Authority tenant or tenant’s guest shall be a material breach of that tenant’s public housing lease and may be good cause for termination or non-renewal by the Authority. Proof of violations of this Policy shall be by preponderance of evidence as one or more of the following: the smell of burning tobacco, burns inside the dwelling, ashes or other such items related to any

Tobacco Products or Vapor Products. [Note: Tenants should be aware that federal law still classifies marijuana as an illegal drug, and that federal law overrides Oklahoma’s medical marijuana law. Therefore, the use, sale, or possession of marijuana on Authority-owned property is strictly prohibited.]
SUPPLEMENT XIII

OKLAHOMA CITY HOUSING AUTHORITY
BED BUG POLICY

With the pandemic of bedbugs throughout the United States, it has become necessary to adopt this Bed Bug Policy regarding pest control, in general, and bed bug elimination, specifically.

1. Move-In. The Oklahoma City Housing Authority ("Authority") shall inspect each dwelling unit and confirm no bed bug infestations prior to each tenant’s move-in date. Tenants must ensure that all furnishings and other personal property moved into a dwelling unit are free of bed bugs or cockroaches. Tenants must agree to maintain the dwelling unit in a condition that prevents infestation from occurring.

2. Housekeeping and Inspection. Tenants shall ensure good housekeeping is practiced in the dwelling unit, including, at minimum, the following steps:

   a. Removing all clutter. Reducing clutter reduces places where pests, particularly bed bugs and cockroaches, can nest and hide.

   b. Keeping the dwelling unit clean, vacuuming, mopping and dusting regularly. This is especially important around and under the bed and drapes.

   c. Inspecting any second-hand furniture, especially mattresses, and insure all are pest-free before bringing onto Authority-owned property.

   d. Not bringing discarded or found items into the dwelling unit.

3. Duty to Report. Tenants shall report any problems related to pests immediately, specifically:

   a. Reporting any signs of pests, especially bed bugs, immediately. Even a few bed bugs can multiply quickly to create a major infestation that can spread to other units.

   b. Reporting any maintenance problems immediately. Pests can hide in cracks, holes or other openings.

4. Mandatory Cooperation. Tenants shall allow access to their dwelling units for pest inspection or control measures. Tenants shall cooperate with the necessary pest control measures, including:

   a. Providing pest control professionals access to the dwelling unit upon a reasonable (48-hour) notice to inspect and treat if necessary.

   b. Completing all of the required items on the Bed Bug Treatment Agreement and Preparation Sheet prior to the date and time specified on the 48-hour notice.

   c. Not selling, giving away or leaving infested furniture or other items in common areas, in any other dwelling units, or setting them next to a dumpster. Discarded items must be placed in a large plastic bag, sealed completely and disposed of as directed by Authority staff. There will be no disposal charges to any items disposed of appropriately. However, disposal charges will be assessed to tenants for items which are not disposed of appropriately.

5. Personal Property. The Authority shall not be liable to any tenant for any loss of personal property as a result of an infestation of bed bugs. Tenants are encouraged to obtain personal property insurance to cover such losses.
6. Result of Violation. A material violation of this Policy by an Authority tenant or tenant’s guest shall be a material breach of that tenant’s public housing lease and may be good cause for termination or non-renewal by the Authority. The following will be considered material violations:

   a. Any misrepresentation as to compliance with this Policy.

   b. Refusal to execute the Bed Bug Treatment Agreement and Preparation Sheet.

   c. Failure to promptly notify the Authority of the presence of bed bugs or other pests.

   d. Failure to adequately prepare for treatment, as determined by a pest control professional in his or her sole discretion.

   e. Refusal to allow the Authority to inspect a dwelling unit.

   f. Any action which prevents treatment of the dwelling unit and potentially exacerbates or increases the infestation.
