How is a property's exempt status determined?

The following text is a brief outline of the procedures used to determine exempt status. For more information, see 35 ILCS 200/15-5 through 15-160, 16-70, 16-130, and the Illinois Administrative Code, Title 86, Chapter 1, Section 110.115, Non-homestead Exemption Proceedings, and Sections 200.101 through 200.225, Practice and Procedure for Hearings Before the Illinois Department of Revenue. Links to these references are available on the department's web site at tax.illinois.gov.

Step 1

Obtain Form PTAX-300 from the county board of review where the property is located. Complete the form, have it notarized, attach all required documents, and file the form with the county board of review.

Step 3

The county board of review completes Steps 7 and 8 and recommends whether or not the exemption should be granted before forwarding Form PTAX-300 and all supporting documents to the department.

Step 4

The department assigns a docket number, reviews the facts regarding the application, and determines whether or not the exemption should be granted.

Note: In some instances, the department will request more information from the applicant, who has 30 days from the date of the department's request to provide that information.

The department mails its decision to

- the applicant,
- any intervenors,
- the county clerk, and
