In or about March 2017, the Clifton Police Department received information that there was an individual distributing large amounts of cocaine in Passaic and Morris Counties. Clifton Police Department, the Passaic County Prosecutor's Office and the Drug Enforcement Administration launched an extensive eight month investigation into the activities of Victor Pimental, Kiuny Perez, and Narciso Ramirez and their buyers.

As a result of the investigation and as of today's date, approximately 30 kilograms of suspected powder cocaine, estimated at a street value of $1.5 million dollars, upwards of $872,000 cash and nine vehicles were seized.

In addition five buyers were arrested on November 7, 2017. The buyers included:
Gino A. Delcollo Sr., age 46, resident of North Bergen, N.J.
Donovan M. McCreary, age 46, resident of West Windsor, N.J.
Susan P. Stier, age 48, resident of Secaucus, N.J.
William J. Marchioni, age 48, resident of Clifton, NJ.
Jerome Driscoll, age 56, resident of Secaucus, N.J.

All buyers were processed and released by the Clifton Police Department.

The first-degree charges carry a maximum sentence of twenty years in prison upon conviction, the second-degree charges carry a maximum sentence of ten years in prison, while the third degree charges carry a maximum sentence of five years in prison.

Central Judicial Processing is scheduled for Wednesday, November 8, 2017 in the Criminal Division, Superior Court of New Jersey, Passaic Vicinage and Morris Vicinage, at 1:30 p.m. The Passaic County Prosecutor's Office has filed a motion to detain all three defendants, which will be before a judge of the Superior Court of New Jersey. Ramirez and Perez are listed for detention hearings on Tuesday, November 14, 2017 at 9 am before the Honorable Donna Gallucio.

Any inquiries may be directed to Passaic County Chief Assistant Prosecutor Paul DeGroot. He can be reached at (973) 837-7671 or pdegroot@passaiccountynj.org.

A criminal complaint is merely an accusation. Despite this accusation, the defendants are presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
