RESOLUTION # 99-8

RE: RECOGNITION OF BAY COUNTY ROAD COMMISSION CENTENNIAL

This resolution is hereby adopted by the Township of Pinconning, Bay County, Michigan. In recognition of the 100th Anniversary of the founding of the Bay County Commission:

WHEREAS, the Road Commission traces its roots to a cooperate effort between the cities of Bay City and West Bay City and six townships dating to 1883 for Michigan's first stone road district which constructed hard- surfaced transportation arteries serving various townships; and

WHEREAS, the Bay County Road Commission was established by a Local Act of the Michigan State Legislature on April 18, 1899; and

WHEREAS, the Bay County Road Commission in cooperation with townships, cities and the state, has over the century developed one of the states most complete road systems, with more than 85 percent of the county's roads being hard surfaced or chip and seal; and

WHEREAS, the Road Commission maintains 1,025 miles of local and primary roads and 200 miles of state highways under contract with the Michigan Department of Transportation and has hard surfaced more than 400 miles of local and primary roads since 1993; and

WHEREAS, the Bay County Road Commission is dedicated to continue cooperation with local units of government for improvement of the local road system;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that this body unanimously adopts this resolution and joins with the Bay County Roads Commission in observing its 100th anniversary of cooperation and service.
