

Report A Concern Feature

iPhone users who have been experiencing issues with the Report A Concern feature not showing up or taking too long to load can do so now by go to their Settings and scrolling to the Safari configurations. Mobile devices have to allow third parties cookies and also enable the prevent cross-site tracking setting so that the form will be visible.

