Chapter 320. Peddling and Soliciting

Article II. Solicitors and Canvassers

[Adopted as Ch. 85, Art. II, of the 1975 Borough Code]

§ 320-9. Permit required.

No person, except as in this article provided, shall solicit, canvass or call from house to house to sell goods by sample or to take orders for future delivery, with or without accepting advance payments, without having first reported to and received a written permit from the Chief of Police or the officer in charge of police headquarters.

§ 320-10. Application for permit.

- A. Before the permit required by the preceding section may be issued, the solicitor or canvasser shall make an application in writing to the Chief of Police, giving the following information:
- (1) Full name and address.
  - (2) Place or places of residence for the preceding three years.
  - (3) By whom employed and address of employer.
  - (4) Date for which permit is requested.
  - (5) Nature of merchandise solicited or canvassed.
  - (6) Whether or not previously arrested or convicted for disorderly persons offenses or crimes and the nature of each such offense or crime.
- B. The application shall be accompanied by a letter from the individual, partnership or corporation for which the applicant purports to work, authorizing the applicant to act as his representative.
- C. Each applicant shall furnish a photograph of himself before a permit may be issued.

§ 320-11. Issuance of permit.

After due investigation, upon being satisfied that the applicant is of good moral character and that he is soliciting or canvassing for a project free from fraud, the Chief of Police or, in his absence, the officer in charge at police headquarters, shall grant a permit to solicit or canvass. A copy of the photograph aforesaid shall be attached to said permit.
