Kimmy Auxier spoke with the council about allowing UTV's to be driven in town and a petition from all the local businesses to allow for it. She also mentioned that she had spoken with the highway patrol and they didn't have a problem with the ordinance being passed.

Tracy Edwards – see reports.

Park – Mayor – Sports Club purchased replacement bleachers for Courtney field. Kristy has a lot going on with the sports program.

Stephanie Swanson – Library – Story time has started back up, they will be holding a Trunk or Treat.

David Watkins – Street – new backhoe needed, would like to start looking at replacement options. Happy with the repair work the department has been doing.

Michael Gray – IDA – meeting tomorrow at 5:30 pm.

Mark Gray – Police – 900 calls for service this month. One officer leaving so the department will be looking to fill his position. The Police are raising money for shop with a cop.

Joe Boulware – Animal Shelter – influx in cats, special this month if you adopt two. Always looking for donations and volunteers.

City Administrator – Jim Fleming – Discussed both the SCEAP and TEAP grants and where the city was in those processes. Will be submitting a proposal for an electric car charging station to put in town by Friday.

Mayor – no report
