ORDINANCE NO. 176

AN ORDINANCE PRELIMINARY TO THE CODIFICATION OF COUNTY ORDINANCES BY AMENDING OR REPEALING ORDINANCES TO BRING THE CODE TO CURRENT CONDITIONS

NOW, THEREFORE, be it ordained by the Board of Commissioners of Walla Walla County, Washington:

Section 1: Section 4 of Ordinance No.7, adopted December 15, 1947, is amended to provide as follows;

"All buildings, halls, rooms, pavilions or other places in which public dances are carried on, as well as all halls, corridors and rooms leading thereto or connected therewith shall at all times while open to the public be well lighted. No public dance shall be conducted nor dance hall be kept open between the hours of one o'clock A.M. and six o'clock A.M. unless a special permit is obtained from the Board of County Commissioners. No person under the age of eighteen (18) years shall be permitted to attend any public dance without the escort of his or her parents or legal guardian. Any person under the age of eighteen (18) years who shall by affirmative misrepresentation of age obtain admission to or permission to remain in any public dance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. The Board of County Commissioners may in its discretion refuse to grant licenses for dance halls to be located at such places or to be conducted at such times as will in its judgment interfere with the comfort and happiness of the community in which such proposed dance hall is to be located. All peace officers of the State of Washington shall have free access to public dances and dance halls for the purpose of inspection and to enforce compliance with provisions of this act."

Section 2: Section 2.02 of Ordinance No. 94, adopted September 18, 1973, is amended to provide as follows:

"Section 2.02

'Health Officer' shall mean the Walla Walla County-City Health Officer as defined in Sections 70.05.050, 051 and 053 of the Revised Code of Washington, or his authorized representative."

Section 3: Section 3.17 of Ordinance No. 82, adopted August 24, 1970, is amended to provide as follows:

"SECTION 3.17 PRELIMINARY PLAT APPROVAL - EXPIRATION.
Preliminary plat approval shall be effective for three (3) years. Upon application by the subdivider, the Planning Commission shall review the preliminary plat and if it finds that the preliminary plat then serves the public use and interest and complies with all zoning requirements as of the date of reapplication, it may extend its approval for one additional 12-month period. The fee for such reapplication shall be one-half the fee paid to the Planning Department for the original application. If the final plat is not recorded within two (2) years from the date of original approval by the Board, such approval of the preliminary plat shall be null and void."

Section 4: Section 3.18 of Ordinance No. 82, adopted August 24, 1970, is amended to provide as follows:

"SECTION 3.18 FINAL PLAT - FILING PERIOD - At any time within three (3) years following the Board's approval of a preliminary plat the subdivider shall file the original and six (6) copies of a proposed final plat with the Administrator."

Section 5: Amendment No. 1, Walla Walla County Subdivision Control Ordinance No. 80, adopted September 8, 1981, is amended to properly refer to Subdivision Control Ordinance No. 82, to provide as follows:

"AMENDMENT NO. 1
WALLA WALLA COUNTY SUBDIVISION
CONTROL ORDINANCE NO. 82

An amendment to Walla Walla County Subdivision Control Ordinance No. 82, specifically amending Chapter III, Section 3.01 Procedure-Application and Fees,

WHEREAS Walla Walla County has not increased its subdivision application fees since 1970 while the cost of processing has increased substantially, and

WHEREAS to update all the Land Development Application

"Fees including those contained in the subdivision ordinance requires four separate Resolutions or Ordinances and Amendments and hearings before both the Planning Commission and the County Commissioners, and

WHEREAS establishing the actual amount of the subdivision application fees is a budgetary matter most appropriately heard only by the Board of County Commissioners, and

WHEREAS the County Planning Commission has held public hearing and recommended the actual filing fee be amended from Ordinance No. 82, now therefore

BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of County Commissioners of Walla Walla County that the Subdivision Control Ordinance No. 82, Chapter III, Section 3.01 Procedure - Application and Fees be amended to read as follows:

Any person desiring to subdivide land in an unincorporated area of Walla Walla County shall submit an application therefore to the Administrator on forms prescribed by the Planning Director.

Applicants for approval pursuant to Ordinance No. 82 shall pay to the Planning Department the applicable filing and plat check fees identified on the approved Land Development Application Fee Schedule, which is hereby adopted by reference and incorporated herein.

Recording fees shall be paid to the County Auditor as set forth in RCW 26.18.010."

Section 6: Ordinance 83, adopted August 24, 1970, and Amendment 3, adopted September 8, 1981, are each amended to delete Section 3.01 as amended.

Section 7: The Ordinances hereafter set forth relating to speed limits on designated county roads are amended to delete the sections of the ordinances which adopt state laws and provide penalties:

ORDINANCE NO. 176

AN ORDINANCE PRELIMINARY TO THE CODIFICATION OF COUNTY ORDINANCES BY AMENDING OR REPEALING ORDINANCES TO BRING THE CODE TO CURRENT CONDITIONS

NOW, THEREFORE, be it ordained by the Board of Commissioners of Walla Walla County, Washington:

Section 1: Section 4 of Ordinance No.7, adopted December 15, 1947, is amended to provide as follows;

"All buildings, halls, rooms, pavilions or other places in which public dances are carried on, as well as all halls, corridors and rooms leading thereto or connected therewith shall at all times while open to the public be well lighted. No public dance shall be conducted nor dance hall be kept open between the hours of one o'clock A.M. and six o'clock A.M. unless a special permit is obtained from the Board of County Commissioners. No person under the age of eighteen (18) years shall be permitted to attend any public dance without the escort of his or her parents or legal guardian. Any person under the age of eighteen (18) years who shall by affirmative misrepresentation of age obtain admission to or permission to remain in any public dance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. The Board of County Commissioners may in its discretion refuse to grant licenses for dance halls to be located at such places or to be conducted at such times as will in its judgment interfere with the comfort and happiness of the community in which such proposed dance hall is to be located. All peace officers of the State of Washington shall have free access to public dances and dance halls for the purpose of inspection and to enforce compliance with provisions of this act."

Section 2: Section 2.02 of Ordinance No. 94, adopted September 18, 1973, is amended to provide as follows;

"Section 2.02

'Health Officer' shall mean the Walla Walla County-City Health Officer as defined in Sections 70.05.050, 051 and 053 of the Revised Code of Washington, or his authorized representative."

"Fees including those contained in the subdivision ordinance requires four separate Resolutions or Ordinances and Amendments and hearings before both the Planning Commission and the County Commissioners, and

WHEREAS establishing the actual amount of the subdivision application fees is a budgetary matter most appropriately heard only by the Board of County Commissioners, and

WHEREAS the County Planning Commission has held public hearing and recommended the actual filing fee be amended from Ordinance No. 82, now therefore

BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of County Commissioners of Walla Walla County that the Subdivision Control Ordinance No. 82, Chapter III, Section 3.01 Procedure - Application and Fees be amended to read as follows:

Any person desiring to subdivide land in an unincorporated area of Walla Walla County shall submit an application therefore to the Administrator on forms prescribed by the Planning Director.

Applicants for approval pursuant to Ordinance No. 82 shall pay to the Planning Department the applicable filing and plat check fees identified on the approved Land Development Application Fee Schedule, which is hereby adopted by reference and incorporated herein.

Recording fees shall be paid to the County Auditor as set forth in RCW 26.18.010."

Section 6: Ordinance 83, adopted August 24, 1970, and Amendment 3, adopted September 8, 1981, are each amended to delete Section 3.01 as amended.

Section 7: The Ordinances hereafter set forth relating to speed limits on designated county roads are amended to delete the sections of the ordinances which adopt state laws and provide penalties:

NOTICE OF HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of County Commissioners of Walla Walla County, Washington, will hold a public hearing at 9:30 A.M. Tuesday, August 21, 1984, in the office of the Board of County Commissioners in Walla Walla, Washington, on the following proposed ordinance:

PROPOSED ORDINANCE ORDINANCE NO.

AN ORDINANCE PRELIMINARY TO THE CODIFICATION OF COUNTY ORDINANCES BY AMENDING OR REPEALING ORDINANCES TO BRING THE CODE TO CURRENT CONDITIONS

NOW, THEREFORE, be it ordained by the Board of Commissioners of Walla Walla County, Washington:

Section 1: Section 4 of Ordinance No. 7, adopted December 15, 1947, is amended to provide as follows:

All buildings, halls, rooms, pavilions or other places in which public dances are carried on, as well as all halls, corridors and rooms leading thereto or connected therewith shall at all times while open to the public be well lighted. No public dance shall be conducted nor dance hall be kept open between the hours of one o'clock A.M. and six o'clock A.M. unless a special permit is obtained from the Board of County Commissioners. No person under the age of eighteen (18) years shall be permitted to attend any public dance without the escort of his or her parents or legal guardian. Any person under the age of eighteen (18) years who shall by affirmative misrepresentation of age obtain admission to or permission to remain in any public dance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. The Board of County Commissioners may in its discretion refuse to grant licenses for dance halls to be located at such places or to be conducted at such times as will in its judgment interfere with the comfort and happiness of the community in which such proposed dance hall is to be located. All peace officers of the State of Washington shall have free access to public dances and dance halls for the purpose of inspection and to enforce compliance with provisions of this act.

Section 2: Section 2.02 of Ordinance No. 94, adopted September 18, 1973, is amended to provide as follows:

Section 2.02

'Health Officer' shall mean the Walla Walla County-City Health Officer as defined in Sections 70.05.050, 051 and 053 of the Revised Code of Washington, or his authorized representative.

Section 3: Section 3.17 of Ordinance No. 82, adopted August 24, 1970, is amended to provide as follows:

SECTION 3.17 PRELIMINARY PLAT APPROVAL - EXPIRATION.

Preliminary plat approval shall be effective for three (3) years. Upon application by the subdivider, the Planning Commission shall review the preliminary plat and if it finds that the preliminary plat then serves the public use and interest and complies with all zoning requirements as of the date of reapplication, it may extend its approval for one additional 12-month period. The fee for such reapplication shall be one-half the fee paid to the Planning Department for the original application. If the final plat is not recorded within two (2) years from the date of

WHEREAS the County Planning Commission has held public hearing and recommended the actual filing fee be amended from Ordinance No. 82, now therefore

BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of County Commissioners of Walla Walla County that the Subdivision Control Ordinance No. 82, Chapter III, Section 3.01 Procedure - Application and Fees be amended to read as follows:

Any person desiring to subdivide land in an unincorporated area of Walla Walla County shall submit an application therefore to the Administrator on forms prescribed by the Planning Director.

Applicants for approval pursuant to Ordinance No. 82 shall pay to the Planning Department the applicable filing and plat check fees identified on the approved Land Development Application Fee Schedule, which is hereby adopted by reference and incorporated herein.

Recording fees shall be paid to the County Auditor as set forth in RCW 26.18.010.

Section 6: Ordinance 83, adopted August 24, 1970, and Amendment 3, adopted September 8, 1981, are each amended to delete Section 3.01 as amended.

Section 7: The Ordinances hereafter set forth relating to speed limits on designated county roads are amended to delete the sections of the ordinances which adopt state laws and provide penalties:

remain in any public place guilty of a misdemeanor. The Board of County Commissioners may in its discretion refuse to grant licenses for dance halls to be located at such places or to be conducted at such times as will in its judgment interfere with the comfort and happiness of the community in which such proposed dance hall is to be located. All peace officers of the State of Washington shall have free access to public dances and dance halls for the purpose of inspection and to enforce compliance with provisions of this act.

Section 2: Section 2.02 of Ordinance No. 94, adopted September 18, 1973, is amended to provide as follows:

Section 2.02

'Health Officer' shall mean the Walla Walla County-City Health Officer as defined in Sections 70.05.050, 051 and 053 of the Revised Code of Washington, or his authorized representative.

Section 3: Section 3.17 of Ordinance No. 82, adopted August 24, 1970, is amended to provide as follows:

SECTION 3.17 PRELIMINARY PLAT APPROVAL - EXPIRATION.

Preliminary plat approval shall be effective for three (3) years. Upon application by the subdivider, the Planning Commission shall review the preliminary plat and if it finds that the preliminary plat then serves the public use and interest and complies with all zoning requirements as of the date of reapplication, it may extend its approval for one additional 12-month period. The fee for such reapplication shall be one-half the fee paid to the Planning Department for the original application. If the final plat is not recorded within two (2) years from the date of original approval by the Board, such approval of the preliminary plat shall be null and void.

Section 4: Section 3.18 of Ordinance No. 82, adopted August 24, 1970, is amended to provide as follows:

SECTION 3.18 FINAL PLAT - FILING PERIOD - At any time within three (3) years following the Board's approval of a preliminary plat the subdivider shall file the original and six (6) copies of a proposed final plat with the Administrator.

Section 5: Amendment No. 1, Walla Walla County Subdivision Control Ordinance No. 80, adopted September 8, 1981, is amended to properly refer to Subdivision Control Ordinance No. 82, to provide as follows:

AMENDEMENT NO. 1 WALLA WALLA COUNTY SUBDIVISION CONTROL ORDINANCE NO. 82

An amendment to Walla Walla County Subdivision Control Ordinance No. 82, specifically amending Chapter III, Section 3.01 Procedure-Application and Fees,

WHEREAS Walla Walla County has not increased its subdivision application fees since 1970 while the cost of processing has increased substantially, and

WHEREAS to update all the Land Development Application Fees including those contained in the subdivision ordinance requires four separate Resolutions or Ordinances and Amendments and hearings before both the Planning Commission and the County Commissioners, and

WHEREAS establishing the actual amount of the subdivision application fees is a budgetary matter most appropriately heard only by the Board of County Commissioners, and
