

BEFORE THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF YUBA

RESOLUTION PROCLAIMING APRIL 24 - )
30, 2022, NATIONAL CRIME VICTIMS' ) RIGHTS WEEK )

RESOLUTION NO.: 2022-50

WHEREAS, "National Crime Victims' Rights Week" (NCVRW) was declared in 1984 to focus on the needs of our Nation's crime victims; and

WHEREAS, this commemoration of NCVRW provides a national opportunity to reflect on the devastating impact of crime on victims not only locally, but on our entire nation, and to strengthen our national resolve to ensure that needs of victims are identified and addressed; and

WHEREAS, the national theme for NCVRW is "Rights, Access, Equality, for all Victims," and Yuba County Victim Services has adopted this theme as the guiding force this year; and

WHEREAS, we as individuals and communities, recognize that justice isn't served until crime victims are afforded justice through the courts and the constitutional rights they are afforded in California are fully realized and this department strives to inform and enforce all rights; and

WHEREAS, as we continue into the future we are committed to creating a world where the legal and constitutional rights of victims are honored and that public agencies are accountable for their treatment of victims of crime; and

WHEREAS, the Yuba County Victim Services is now entering its 37th year of service to victims of crime in the Marysville and Yuba County area and celebrating the 31st annual candlelight vigil; and

WHEREAS, Yuba County would like to honor all victims of crime by remembering those lost to senseless acts of violence and remember that every victim is a survivor who deserves the opportunity to be treated with dignity, fairness and respect. Yuba County Victim Services strives to ensure that all crime victims are afforded and understand their constitutional rights through Marsy's Law; and

WHEREAS, the Victim Services Program would like to recognize Detective Bradon Mallory, Yuba County Sheriff's Office; Records Clerk, Jo Vasconcellos, Marysville Police Department; Deputy District Attorney Monique McDevitt, District Attorney's Office; Legal Services Specialist, Bethany Knight, Yuba County Probation Department; and Coordinator of Prevention Support and Services, Amy Molina-Jones, Yuba County Office of Education for their tireless efforts in serving our victims and their families of Yuba County.

WHEREAS, the Board of Supervisors recognizes its foresight and resolve to locate the County Victim Services Program in the County Probation Department with the overarching goal of providing prevention, intervention and treatment for crime victims in Yuba County; and

WHEREAS, Yuba County Victim Services is joining forces with law enforcement agencies, criminal justice officials, and concerned citizens throughout Yuba County, California and all of the United States of America to observe National Crime Victims' Rights Week; and

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that Yuba County proclaims the week of April 24th April 30, 2022, to be Yuba County, California's Crime Victims' Rights Week, and honors crime victims and those who serve them during this week and throughout the year; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that as individuals, communities and a Nation, we value justice in America that includes and involves crime victims, and seek to serve justice by serving victims of crime; and

PASSED AND ADOPTED at a regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Yuba, State of California, on April 26th, 2022 by the following votes:
